Buddy Johnston 05:55

these days are getting and getting getting more visible every day. And there's nothing wrong with that.

Jimmy Carper 05:59

Buddy Johnston 06:01

It's wonderful.

Jimmy Carper 06:02

So many people talk about well, I don't mind if they're not play. What do you mean if they're not late?

Buddy Johnston 06:08

And so we'll play for the straight folks.

J Jimmy Carper 06:10

There you go. With blatant heterosexuality every day. So what's the big deal of men holding hands? Or men kissing?

B Buddy Johnston 06:23

Listen, baby. You may. Yes, you can.

J Jimmy Carper 06:28

Women can hold hands and kiss each other.

∅ 06:31

So then it must be you may come out.

J Jimmy Carper 06:36

That's the way I look at it.

B Buddy Johnston 06:38

Why is it so important?

J Jimmy Carper 06:41

What What do you mean what's so important? You may come out. Because we are never going to be a viable force until we do. We're no one's going to take us seriously until we do.

B Buddy Johnston 06:57

You know, we play this tape all the time, that Harvey Milk speaks out, you hear this? You've heard this 1000 times. Listen to this, we must destroy the Miss Watson for our shadows. We must continue to speak out. And most importantly, most importantly, every gay person must come out you must tell your immediate family, you must tell your relatives, you must tell your friends if indeed they are your friends, you must tell your neighbors, you must tell the people your work. You must tell the people in the stores who shopping you. Realize that we are indeed the children. Indeed, everywhere. Every every lie, every innuendo, there'll be destroyed ones and you will feel so much better.

H Harvey Milk 07:09

J Jimmy Carper 08:19

To say that's something that the blacks found out 2030 years ago, and it's something they found out for years, they would be invisible. They would just kind of sit in the back of the bus and go along their merry way and kind of hide in the corner and go into the ghetto. And then we'll take the abuse and take the abuse. And once blacks decided to stand up and say, Hey, I'm a viable human being. Then they were started that they were taken seriously. That is what we need to do. That we're hiding

B Buddy Johnston 08:59

and I don't think I don't know maybe sometimes, we're just blown away and more of us are coming out.

J Jimmy Carper 09:04

B Buddy Johnston 09:07

Listen to this.

09:09

We must destroy the mess was shattered.

B Buddy Johnston 09:13

Let's see he talking

J Jimmy Carper 09:14

about what myths and myths that we don't exist. That we're all hairdressers that we're all hairdressers. Yeah. Waiters. There you go. I mean, here I am. Openly gay working for the police department. In fact, today, I'll become the president of the Houston Police support personally, it's important to understand. I wasn't asked to be president because I'm homosexual or because I'm a great employee. I went to City Council in February and said, Thank you for having the courage. Oh, wait a minute.

B Buddy Johnston 09:24

J Jimmy Carper 09:47

Well, not only that I worked in the purchasing department of tenneco Inc for 19 years, listen to this. And here we are once again. Good morning. We're here and we're clear. Right. I can't believe it. Are you ready? Yeah, we are. Oh, I shouldn't do that right hills here. We're gonna be talking about Lesbian Gay Pride Week.

B Buddy Johnston 09:53

J Jimmy Carper 10:13

What are you doing? What is that? Just giving

B Buddy Johnston 10:17

you. And then on the news this morning we're going to be listening to this way out from KPFK in Los Angeles. AIDS in focus from KPFA in Berkeley. And we're gonna be listening to an hour from the 1979. March on Washington for gay and lesbian rights about naming names. Oh, yeah, naming names. It's all coming up right now on after hours. Are you ready? Should we do it? Let's do it. Okay, where's that one? Here he is. We clean?

10:49

Okay, here we go for hours of after hours. And we're ready to roll. So wait, don't don't get to say anything else. All anyone ever hears me say is we're queer. Who's that? Just because I live in San Francisco now does not mean that I can't talk anymore. What's wrong with this machine?

J Jimmy Carper 11:08

Oh, I think it's the rail Allah. Hey, baby, 11:12

real live and in color.

B Buddy Johnston 11:16

arisen from the ashes of San Francisco. I play Jeannette See this is how unfair is yes. And that's UNIDENTIFIED: I play Jeannette Lee, this is how I am. I am, and that's what we do. And I went to City Council to say thanks for letting me do my thing for the last three years. And for being for having the courage to hire an openly gay person.

J Jimmy Carper 11:36

A courage to hire an openly gay person

B Buddy Johnston 11:39

because they had to have this referendum which nobody supported. And they think that we're gonna get discriminated against. And I don't understand that because I here I am talking about how I broke the sodomy law. Every chance I get and I work for the police department. You haven't been a restaurant yet. And I go back over to work and they say would you run for president of our union? And they say, Well, if you have the courage to go to city council and say that made me say something for us. And I would love to go to city council and say they discriminated against me because I'm intersexual. Well, that's not true. They discriminate against everybody. They know. Business union business. We'll get into that later. Union business on the radio, Mr. William Johnston. Yes. Mr. Veronica Jefferson, the mayor. So I What is your name? William Johnston. Please go ahead. Good afternoon, Mayor, Members of the Council I come before you as an ex employee of the city 1984. I worked as a dispatcher in the Houston Police Department left in September of 88 to pursue personal personal things. Now I'm ready to return to the city. However, I'm afraid that homophobia and racism know things maybe can you believe this? I come down there to talk to the mayor and counseling, same thing. We cover phobia. Yeah. Well, the whole point is that this is no big deal. It really isn't. And we make cracks about that. The pride awards normally all give each other awards. And we know that's true. We don't deserve any award beaming you're the one that dirt deserves the award. Because if anybody's put up with as much life as as we have, you'd have to Yeah, an activist who is very involved in the community one time told me he said, Who do you think you are? I said, Wait a minute. I was fired. And I was 18. Because I was gay. I've been thrown out of housing because I was gay. I've had friends commit suicide, because they were gay. And so have you. So you your, your importance to the movement. And your involvement in this whole struggle is as important as everyone else's, and you'll never get an award for it. And you'll never get a thank you for it.

J Jimmy Carper 14:07

If you're out there looking for an award for what you do. Then you're like one of those gay leaders that Harvey talks about your offensive.

B Buddy Johnston 14:16

And I think it's very, very important that you understand that you are the reason that we're here. And if you happen to be a police officer, and I do believe there are police officers in the department who listen to this show, yes, gay or straight. I don't know. I wish that you could find the courage to call me and say I support what you're doing or what you're trying to do. Because that's my award. Exactly. If you're young, and you listen and you pick up a phone or you pick up a pen and write us That's the word we're hitting on, baby.

 Jimmy Carper 15:04

Today, what it's all about, we were talking about it earlier about that about this show the struggle is going to be for the babies that are being born today. Their lives easier to know our word came in the form of a dozen words. Yeah. That's what it's all about. You're telling me boy, I would have been thrilled. It's not anything special. We're not doing anything special. I just hate it. When I hear all these people talk about how they're just knowing so wonderful thing. And hey, trust me, kids. I wouldn't be here. If I thought someone else would come here and tell you the truth. by that. I mean, would allow anybody to come on and tell you what they think about how the community should be how the group should be what they should do and learn. And we had someone come down here one time, and he said, Well, you're just the voice of the interest think you're the voice of the gay community. And I said, Wait a minute, I have never said that. I speak for anybody. And how dare him? He's never listened to our program. Yeah. We've had people in there that we've been putting off the wall there. You know, I mean, yes, even those people deserve a right to say what's on their mind. That's what it's all about. And that that is what it's all about. And it's what it's always been in the Montrose it's, it's the list let live. But as human beings, we get our feelings hurt. Because we all think we should be number one. Now, if you don't believe me, stay tuned. We've got a speech, speech. We've got a sermon that Dr. Martin Luther King did that I want to play in a couple of weeks where he talks about the drum major instinct, which is in everybody. Whether you believe we all have an ego. And that's because we all want to be out front leading the parade. Well, I got news for you, Mary. There's room in front for everybody. There you go. There's room in the spotlight for everybody. And I am never going to get my place in the spotlight until you come forward. To you come forward as a police officer, as a teacher, as a fireman, as a lawyer, as a doctor, as a human being, and say, Here I am. I'm homosexual. So what? We're not going away, and that that's what Harvey's talking about. We must destroy the mess once and for all. shattered.

 Buddy Johnston 15:16

 Harvey Milk 17:50

We must continue to speak out. And most importantly, most importantly, every gay person must come out.

 Buddy Johnston 18:04

We are never, no matter what we do. We are never going to be free of this until you come out. As I saw Sally, just Sally

 Jimmy Carper 18:19

.....

Jessy Rafi. Yeah.

B

Buddy Johnston 18:21

Some other program I killed out of the minor program. This past week. Report on something called outing? Yes, or homosexual activist. They're exposing prominent people who are homosexual, to the media and so on and so forth. How do you feel about that? Personally, I think that's a rotten thing to do. Because I think people have enough to live with in their lives without throwing something else. I would rather that police officer that's listening to me, who knows he's gay, who I know he's gay. To come forward on his own to find the courage in his own heart. I'm not going to expose him.

J

Jimmy Carper 19:05

The way I look at it is everyone deserves the right to privacy. But if there's a Politico out there, who goes to the gay bars every night, and goes home with tricks or whatever, and then turns around and does not fight for gay rights bill, stabbed in the back votes against it, or an entertainer. I want to see this person outed an entertainer who gets up and makes tons of money off of us yet never says anything positive, right? And if they would just get on stage and say, Hey, I'm a lesbian or hey, I'm gay. A gay man. I don't even have to say that. They just have to support the issue. If they would say it just by saying and become wrong. Gays are people to the

Buddy Johnston 19:38

J

Jimmy Carper 19:50

B

Buddy Johnston 19:59

100 have 1000s of people who watch them and and look up to them. Just you know, the world,

J

Jimmy Carper 20:07

it wouldn't be you don't have to be an important person. In this world, you just have to live an ordinary life, it's true.

H

Harvey Milk 20:16

You must tell your immediate family, you must tell your relatives, you must tell your friends, if Indeed they are your friends, you must tell your neighbors, you must tell the people you work indeed they are your friends, you must tell your neighbors, you must tell the people your work. You must tell the people in the stores you shop. That's a mouthful.

J Jimmy Carper 20:33

Yes. And I do that. Because important to me to do that.

B Buddy Johnston 20:38

A lot of us don't want to tell our families because we will lose our family as well.

J Jimmy Carper 20:46

You know, when you're 40 years old, and you've been living with a roommate for 20 years, your family is going to know,

B Buddy Johnston 20:53

I buried my father and he's known for 15 years, and it didn't make a damn, and he's dead. And I'm still here. And I feel rotten about never having time with him. But can you do baby nursery? Can I have to live my life? Not his? It's run on not anything special there. 10s of 1000s of you. of us, not you 10s of 1000s of us who go through the same thing. And most other people you work with even rod doesn't come completely out screaming at the police department. How to land I mean, there's someone who doesn't know.

J Jimmy Carper 21:31

B Buddy Johnston 21:33

No, she knows. But I had a lambda on the other day. And there's this one woman I love dearly that has five kids. And I said, she said What does that mean? And I said I don't want to really, rather than just come out and say well, that's a lambda. And it means I just kind of brushed it aside. I felt rotten about it. But I didn't know how to tell her you know what I mean? So we're all struggling with this. Now, the part about the people where you spend your money, and I have a if you would call the cable company and say I don't like this have a phobic monster that's running loose in Virginia, or North Carolina or wherever Pat Robinson is spotting these lies, and I'm going to cut you off financially. They were taking them off the air. If enough people did it more than that, if you call the caller companies and the beer companies and the gene companies and the automobile manufacturers that support racist and homophobic jokes on television and said we're going to quit buying your products. The lines would stop. Yeah, very quickly. Just imagine, remember Anita Bryant, oh, remember orange juice,

J

Jimmy Carper 22:56

B

Buddy Johnston 23:00

we get drunk and we quit drinking this. Just imagine if 30 million people wrote a letter to the Cola company and said we're not going to buy that stuff until you stop. They would stop him tomorrow. You know, that's right.

H

Harvey Milk 23:26

Realize that we are indeed the children. No, we are indeed everywhere. Every every lie, every innuendo will be destroyed.

B

Buddy Johnston 23:38

Now that's important to understand this, they will realize it but they may not accept it. That's true. My mother and father realize over father's dead now my mother realizes that even openly gay homosexual. That means that she doesn't know and she doesn't care. And she doesn't want to know. There's a lot of times she realizes it and that's what's important. They may not this woman at work may not understand what Rand is, but I should have given her the opportunity to realize what it was all about. And maybe know your own way. Of course, okay. She put it all together. You know what I mean?

J

Jimmy Carper 24:25

That's the point just by being you she may not have she may not know that she knows and he gay people understand what it's all about. I don't know. But after knowing you for a while, she will realize that she knows a gay person. And she knows that this gay person is not a freak is not a child molester, or whatever she fears about gay people. That's the point of coming out All right. That is it. Yes. Because you can be honest with yourself, honest with the outside world, do feel better baby. And there's, we're not gonna kid you about maybe your world may be a little narrowed and may or may not have a friend may collapse you thought you had around you, the friends you have are going to be really good ones because they can accept you on all of your different facets. And that's really worth a whole lot more I'd rather have a friend that I know is a true friend than 1000 acquaintances.

Buddy Johnston 25:40

So to you, day leaders start leading Mary jerkiness around. Let's see some real leadership because we're looking for real true honest to God, love. Yeah, not love with other people necessarily, but loving ourselves, which will lead to love with other people.

J Jimmy Carper 26:05

And that's the thing. That's something that coming out does. You can start loving yourself, because you're being honest with yourself.

B Buddy Johnston 26:16

And I guess if we tell you anything, on this program, we tell you that life hurts.

J Jimmy Carper 26:22

If you're hiding, then you feel kind of dirty. Because you're hiding your part of yourself.

B Buddy Johnston 26:30

If you're hiding something that they can use against you, boy, well, let me ask Mark Timmers. If you're out and open they can't do anything about it. Ask Mark

J Jimmy Carper 26:37

B Buddy Johnston 26:41

Timbers with the Houston Police Department did to him? Yeah. Till he finally quit. And they look at me in amazement child, because I guess they don't know what to do with me.

J Jimmy Carper 26:52

Well, a lot of us feel that way.

B Buddy Johnston 26:57

We're just looking for love. In the long run. In the long run. Is it possible?

J Jimmy Carper 27:05

I think so. We're gonna happen. It's happened to a lot. A lot of us it's happened to me,

B Buddy Johnston 27:11

Buddy Johnston 27:11

if I didn't think it would wouldn't. If I didn't think it would happen. I wouldn't be here. There you go. Oh, no, it's gonna work. And I know it's gonna work for you. Hey, call us right now, would you five to six 4046 KPFT. And let us know what's on your mind as we continue to look for love and the line

27:39

you may come out

Buddy Johnston 27:49

but yeah,

Jimmy Carper 27:50

I'm mad at called in. Because we were talking a little bit about a boycott. She's saying Yeah. And he reminded me and I had read this that RJ Reynolds. Tobacco Company is a strong supporter of Mr. Jesse Helms all real. And there's been some talk about boycotting RJ Reynolds products, especially their big one Marlboro cigarettes. It there's a fine point here because they also are in trouble. You know.

Buddy Johnston 28:29

Jimmy Carper 28:34

He's RJ Reynolds. And people like the coal companies also support the other side also. So how do you do this? Who knows?

Buddy Johnston 28:47

Please, for you with

Jimmy Carper 28:49

the rain and Terry

Buddy Johnston 28:53

KPFT.

28:56

Hello. Hi,

Buddy Johnston 28:59

what's on your mind?

29:02

I just want to say that you just had to be accused of being gay in order for bad things to have.

Buddy Johnston 29:13

That's true, though. You don't even have to be gay for bad things to happen to be accused of being gay. Yeah.

29:19

I had a couple experiences like that. I'm, I'm not gay, but I have several friends who are and the old guilt by association. If you hang around them, you must be one. Ah, no, not necessarily. Yeah, I was just like they used to work at and this guy came in he said, Oh, are you gay or what? And I said, No. I thought now how do I answer this? Exactly. It's really difficult, because he has his mind made up already. That's why he asked the question, and it doesn't matter how I answer because you think whatever that's exists.

Jimmy Carper 29:27

29:32

Jimmy Carper 29:59

Exactly right. And it's the same for us too. Because when that question gets answered, the mind is already made up. He doesn't want an answer. Yeah. He's making an accusation is what he's doing.

30:14

Yeah. It's pretty tough v'all. I mean. I talked to him a lot before that. And then after that he It's pretty tough, you know, I talked to him a lot before that and then after that he accused associate with me all together.

J Jimmy Carper 30:25

Yeah, it doesn't get to know you. It's it's this thing he's gotten his mind about what he thinks gay people are. And because of that, he's cutting himself off for some from some very nice relationships. Plus, the added thing of cutting himself off from you as a stray person, because he perceives it. Yeah.

B Buddy Johnston 30:53

Listen, thanks for calling. Yeah. Thank you. Hello, morning. How are y'all doing? Great. Basically, I want to ask y'all, what is Jesse Helms problem? And what is Mr. Dan demeyers problem.

30:57

J Jimmy Carper 31:16

You kind of wonder if it's on your mind, if it's, remember the John Briggs initiative. It's the one in California for anyone to get rid of all the gay school teachers.

B Buddy Johnston 31:25

J Jimmy Carper 31:29

When you when you look into it and read about it, he really didn't care about the initiative at all. He was trying to promote John Briggs. And that was just a way of doing it. And it makes you wonder if Jesse really feels this way, or if he's just trying to promote Jesse Helms, yeah, because of all of what he's done. And because of what have Dan, Dan Meyer has done their names or household words. But you know, if you look at a lot of these people in the past who have attacked us, they knew they had a gay brother or a gay cousin or a gay husband or somebody. They are in the closet themselves. That's right, and they can't deal with their own sexuality. What scares me most about this people, I guess, is that other people actually listen to them without really hearing what they say. You know what I mean? I was at a rally one time and Phyllis Schlafly got up to speak. She's so far off the wall, baby. And she said something in all the young people listening to you. And you talked about the blind leading the blind. It was pretty scary stuff.

B Buddy Johnston 31:55

32:34

Yeah, you know, this brings to mind. Do you remember that wild and crazy minister named Jean Scott? He used to appear on midnight till five in the morning. rather amusing. He said, Have you ever noticed that the man who screamed the loudest about adultery in churches are usually the men that most women won't even begin to have? When you take a look at Jesse Helms you know who the hell wants? Oh, I know. I just think God

J Jimmy Carper 33:15

I know. That's the other thing. I think I've said this before it It always amazes me with a lot of straight men. That no matter how ugly they are, they're afraid if they let their guard down for five minutes that 25 Gays are going to attack their crotch where did they get this ego

33:44

why doesn't the name of the bar why doesn't Mary's or the venture ran or the Montrose mining company have Jesse Helms talked to him? They may now if they're listening

J Jimmy Carper 33:59

34:02

male that videos apparently are

B Buddy Johnston 34:06

That is funny. We should try to call his office sometimes 34:14

Montrose native for the last 10 years. My my wife and I have been married for the last three years. It took a while for her to adjust to the culture shock.

 Buddy Johnston 34:26

Oh yeah, it is a shock.

 34:30

I mean, when you're coming from the woodland

 Buddy Johnston 34:33

I mean, I'm sure it's a shock for people to come into the police department and see me sitting there because they knew all these rumors. You know what I mean? That fagot that police department or that radio guy and then they get in there I'm just a short little man with a tie on doing my job and I did miss really just disappoint them it's almost like they're expecting gay people. This sounds I'd like to just rip off my suit and have like a wedding dress and girls.

 34:56

 Buddy Johnston 35:01

 35:09

But my wife and I, we frequent three, three of the bar. And we have when we make a whole lot of nicer people in these bars than we're doing the straight bars outside the loop. And I keep asking myself the question, what are all those people afraid of?

 Buddy Johnston 35:35

Yeah, right. You got to be careful you and your wife you know why? We've been listened to your program earlier tonight. But no, you know why you should be careful. Because you sound like really nice people. And there are a lot of gamers mean people whose parents are like the really pits you know what I mean? And if they find out there's a mom and dad out there that are really swayed, they might like this follow your you may have to adopt us.

 Jimmy Carper 36:01

Actually I have a lot of straight friends who live in the Montrose because they liked the Actually, I have a lot of straight friends who live in the Montrose because they liked the Montrose agitative. Live in

 Buddy Johnston 36:07

Atlanta. Yeah, it's very French Quarter. Yeah. And it's only gonna get better, I promise you, and but maybe we need to go a little deeper. What? What is the basis of homophobia? What constitutes homophobia and just what's homophone? I mean, what is just the basis for homophobia, fear sexuals, fear of the unknown, not for homosexuals, homophobia, fear of something you don't understand and don't want to know about. That's, that's what what any fear is, I think fear of the unknown. But you know, what, you don't understand what you know, a lot of it goes away. A lot of it is that there are

 36:18

 Buddy Johnston 36:33

 Jimmy Carper 36:44

 Buddy Johnston 36:53

30 million gay and lesbian people hiding, and if they're willing to come out tomorrow, and they people are realizing their offices, in their churches, in their neighborhoods, in their grocery stores. And again, lesbian people that were awake, well, it's really no big deal, is it? But that's not going to happen. So here we are.

 37:10

Another interesting point when we shock our straight friends and whatnot, that we have gay friends, and we patronize gay bars. And, you know, my wife and I are also born again Christians. And oh, my god, yeah. burning at the stake time.

 Buddy Johnston 37:33

I like to tell those people that when Jesus was speaking to the disciples, and they said, what's the greatest commandments? And of course, he said, the first and the greatest was heroes are a little our God is one Lord. And the second one, this one kind of like the first that you should love thy neighbor as thyself. How can those people say they're really Christian when they that's actually not what they're doing? And anyway, I mean,

37:56

I have no idea. But that they get even shocked when they get further shocked. My point is, you know, they're always gonna throw, I guess, Leviticus and something like that. And then I tell them, Well, do you ever stop to notice that in Sodom and Gomorrah men and women also just the men, the men and the women women after one another

Buddy Johnston 38:29

what that what that says though, it says they were punished for breaking what was natural, right? I don't have a copy of the the untranslated altered version, which people have I mean, King James had the Bible, translated and all these scribes and so forth, were writing it and of course, if the king like it, you're gonna put it in. And if the king don't like it, you're gonna leave it out. Yeah, I mean, let's face it. And I understand from what I read that it was because they were breaking what's natural. You know, I'm 36 years old, and I have never been in bed with a woman. And the only time I got close was I got down so far. And there wasn't anything there. And I kind of like said, No, thank you. Yeah, this is not able for but the point is, if I went to bed with a woman, I don't think I would feel comfortable and going to bed with a man I feel comfortable as if you were to be with a man, you probably wouldn't feel too good about it. Well, and I think that that might be what it's talking about. But you know, hopefully one of these days we can sit down with whoever and say, Listen, what's this all about? Yeah, well, you know, they also talked about not eating pork too. So

J Jimmy Carper 39:32

39:37

Well, when I discussed what I discussed with with a friend of mine was the unnatural thing. To me, I don't think there's anything sinful at all about a man loving another man or woman loving another woman just like this not acceptable. Man loving another woman or vice versa. I think it's just you know, the Eros left you know, just using the buddy up for your own pleasure.

J Jimmy Carper 40:01

That's a very good point. And it is a problem in the gay community that we are overcoming.

40:09

And I just hope allow these Christians take a second look, listen. Thanks for calling gametize. One more thing? Yes. I'll give you an example. Okay. My wife is black. And some song is in love with his black wife and the whole thing of sermons, his love letter to his black wife. Now, if you go back to the days of the Civil War, but a day the slavery the minister would almost never mentioned to his flock that Tom and a black wife are so much in history. They didn't tell you.

 Buddy Johnston 40:52

 40:54

Very interesting. Massage nation, in this country today, or interracial relationships, almost received the same kind of hatred as homosexuality.

 Buddy Johnston 41:05

It's true. I work with a white woman who's black who's married to a black man and HPD and she is afraid that they'll find out. In fact, someone doing they gave her a real hard time. What do they give her a hard time about? Interracial marriage? Child? That's a no no. And so they thought I don't understand those people. Everything is a no no. Listen, thanks for Colin to you're on the air. Hello. Hello. Hi, baby. We got a terrible connection.

 41:39

So and I am with my lover on public. The way people look at me, you know, educator night we we often go to different boxes. And like I said, I had to agree with him. I'm tired of

 Jimmy Carper 41:59

what do you mean how they look at you know, people? Look at you. Just like because we're in a Rachel.

 42:00

 Jimmy Carper 42:04

Oh, okay.

 Buddy Johnston 42:08

Even gay people look at you. Yeah. Do you think that we're different from them?

42:10

Jimmy Carper 42:13

Yes. In fact, I was talking about this. I remember a few years ago, there was a black and white men together group in Houston. And I've not heard of it and many years. I don't know what happened to it. It is a problem among the gay community to fade away. I mean, we have I mean, we think even lower than the gays. I mean, we have

42:28

Buddy Johnston 42:36

I mean, even within the community, there's there's, yeah. Listen, baby. Thanks for calling. Okay, and I want to stay on the air today.

42:42

Jimmy Carper 42:46

Thank you, baby.

Buddy Johnston 42:47

Is that a listening? Yes, that is right here with what's your name? Joe. Joe. Hey, this is for unity. Okay. Thanks for listening baby

43:07

This calls for the straight folks who don't mind gays, but wish they weren't so blatant.

43:20

You know, some people got a lot of nerve. Sometimes I don't believe that things I see in here. Have you met a woman who shocked by two women kissing and in the same breath tells you that she's pregnant? The gays shouldn't be blatant. Or the strike couple sits next to you in a movie. And he can't hear the dialogue because of the sound effects. But gays shouldn't be blatant. And the woman in your office spend your whole lunch hour talking about her new bikini drawers and how much her husband likes them. But gays shouldn't be blamed. Are you chicken your class rattling a mile a minute while you're trying to get stoned in a jam about the camping trip she took with her musician boyfriend. But gays shouldn't be brightened. You go in a public bathroom and all over the walls. Those John loves Mary Janice Diggs, Richard de luz de Lourdes etc. But gays shouldn't be labeled. Are you going to an amusement park and there's a tiny love, love and pictures the streets painted on the front and good in couples coming in and out? The gays shouldn't be blatant. Fact is blatant Heterosexuals are all over the place. Supermarkets, movies, at work, in church, in books on television every day and night. Every place even in gave us and they want gay men and women to go hide in the closets. So to you straight folks, I say Sure. I'll go if you Go to, but I'm collide. So after you
