Jewel Gray 00:02

Number seven, we got somebody on the line. Let's see number seven. And who do we have here?

Speaker 28 00:08

Yeah, this is Roy.

Jewel Gray 00:10

Roy, what's going on?

Speaker 28 00:12

I want to thank you, I'm the one who left the article n your box this morning.

Jewel Gray 00:17

Oh, great.

Speaker 28 00:18

That photocopy of that article.

Jewel Gray 00:20

Jewel Gray 00:22
Great. Well, I was really stunned by this. I haven't

S Speaker 28 00:24
You haven't, wait till you read the whole thing.

J Jewel Gray 00:26
This is scary. Just the half that I've read.

S Speaker 28 00:29
It gets worse than that. It gets worse than that,

J Jewel Gray 00:32
Tell me tell me what you think of this.

S Speaker 28 00:37
It is frightening. I think back to the days of 19-- the late 1920s. Adolf Hitler, right, sitting in jail in some prison out there in Germany, when they were writing Mein Kampf, and it came out and everybody laughed said, oh, it couldn't possibly happen here. And Germany back then had a large gay rights movement going on.

J Jewel Gray 01:04
Yes, they sure did.

S Speaker 28 01:05
So progressive and oh, great new tomorrow was coming. And everybody was asleep at the wheel. And there was apathy. And Hitler found a convenient scapegoat.

J Jewel Gray 01:17
That's right. Jews.

S Speaker 28 01:18

I mean, everything is exactly the same here. As a matter of fact, when we're talking economic comparisons, it's interesting to note that the neo-Nazi movement is growing very quickly.

J Jewel Gray 01:35
By leaps and bounds.

S Speaker 28 01:36
I mean, we just heard about what happened out there in Southern California. And it is growing. There was a time when if they called everybody nationwide, they wouldn't have enough for a weenie roast. And now they got thousands and thousands. And on the last page of that article that I sent you, last paragraph, or last two paragraphs, it mentions on how Pat Robertson and these Christian, Christian Coalition people are counting on our apathy.

J Jewel Gray 02:09
Yeah.

S Speaker 28 02:09
They are counting on our being away at the club, partying away, not getting involved.

J Jewel Gray 02:19
Yeah, here this says it's the last paragraph that says, we don't have to worry about persuading a majority of Americans to agree with us. Most of them are staying home and watching Falcon for us. Do you understand? Well, do you?

S Speaker 28 02:30
And that is the truth.

J Jewel Gray 02:33
Yes, yes.

S Speaker 28 02:34
And it is frightening. It is so frightening. Here we got some airhead named Chris Bacon, a spineless jellyfish. I mean, there's this other group called the Christian Reconstructionists which are calling for the death penalty for homosexuals and for abortionists. And people who have abortion, performance. They are dead serious and rece-- just this past week on KSCV radio, Steven Hotze was mentioning how he was a Christian Reconstructionist.

J Jewel Gray 03:19
Oh, jeez.

S Speaker 28 03:22
Believe me, they've, they're warming up the oven for us. And we're gonna have to get out of the barns and into the streets like we said back in '69. Stonewall. I think it was a very important document, which is why I went out of my way out to working 12 and a half hours at work last night, and I made my, way out of my way to go to KPFT to drop that off into your mailbox.

J Jewel Gray 03:47
Well, I certainly appreciate Roy has really pepped me up tonight for sure. I remember when I first got to Houston, I helped a friend of mine who ran the Wilde 'N' Stein bookstore. Charles Gillis was the owner and I was helping him and part of the, I didn't get paid, so part of the perks were I got to read a lot of books and one of the books I read there was called The Lambda Project and it was this very thing happening insidiously slow, quiet. And before we knew it, there were concentration camps for homosexuals in this country, run by a McCarthy-esque a kind of senator and a couple of generals from the Pentagon, and it was really a frightening thought even then, and now as I read this, I realized we are only millimeters away from this. Yeah, yes.

S Speaker 28 03:47
We are. We truly are.

J Jewel Gray 03:53
Yes. Yes. Well, listen, Roy. Anytime you find something that you think is important, you bring it right down here. I really appreciate this.

S Speaker 28 04:16
I've got another one for you.

J Jewel Gray 04:54
Oh, great. You get it down here. We will definitely talk about it. Okay, thanks. All right. Bye. Let's see, we got Cindy on eight. Let's get Cindy, which one is eight, just one? Cindy, are you there?

S

Speaker 29 05:06

Yes, I'm here.

J

Jewel Gray 05:07

Hey, how's it going?

Speaker 29 05:08

I really appreciate Roy's viewpoint and I missed some of what you were saying about the Playboy deal. Excuse me, but I've been seeing this Holocaust thing coming. It's fearful. And I watch a lot of TV because I care for my 73 year old mother, so I'm inside a lot. And Connie Chung did the Christian right and Pat Robertson deal the other day, and he emphatically denied that they chose candidates adequately, that doth protest too much kind of thing. And if he did, they lose their tax free status, is what you were talking about, and what I've been talking about to the people that they don't realize, we got in a bind here and we had to get food from a higher place around here that came out of a church. Okay, so we go to this church, I'm not gonna say which one, but it's one of your Christian Church, churches. And, you know, I figured, that's okay. That happens sometimes. And this ministry of great things, is getting money from the government, right? They're getting non profit status or getting charity status. But food was expired. Some of it was expired, that the way we treat people, they don't want the government doing that stuff, because they're conservative and they don't want, you know, to be kind. Right. That's another issue. But anyway, I'm trying to tie it. It's amazing how much money is tied into the church. You know, at this point, a lot of daycare centers are, are as well as things like golf courses, entertainment places, are tax free places. Yes. Okay. And they're tying in and people don't quite realize the economy, economics of all this. We don't want to lose ours either. But I would see a state GOP is getting its ducks in a row order for '99. In the paper on July 11, and the Post, and George W. Bush's is a consideration for Governor.

J

Jewel Gray 06:13

That's frightening.

S

Speaker 29 07:30

And if we recall, we had more savings and loan failures than anybody else. And Neil Bush and George W. Bush and nobody ever talks about that.

J

Jewel Gray 07:41

Yeah, I talked about it. Family values, teach Neil not to steal.

S Speaker 29 07:46

Exactly. And Dallas lawyer Tom Loose and Representative Tom Craddick, all these people are working it out for the governor. And they're just, they're just tickled because now the two congressmen Kay Bailey Hutchison and Phil Gramm, are, are who represents taxing.

J Jewel Gray 08:03

Yeah, our voices in Washington are Kay Bailey Hutchison and Phil Gramm.

S Speaker 29 08:07

I still call them. And I still tell them that this is starting to look like Germany before World War Two, I'm really radical, but I call their office. And I tell them what I want in here. Because what do we have but a void? So I think,

J Jewel Gray 08:23

How long does it take you to do Cindy, to call somebody?

S Speaker 29 08:25

Two minutes except they're hard to get through because I think they don't answer a lot the times when they don't want to, but, and the politicians need to be applauded as the gentleman in This Way Out said, when they do something good. And here's my problem with the Bill Clinton deal. I'm very disappointed and very angry about it, too. But I don't think Bill Clinton's policy personally, is nondiscriminatory, and is lifting the bans. But like Martin Luther King, John Fitzgerald Kennedy, Bobby Kennedy, and [unintelligible] Evans, if we remember from the 60s, which I do, I'm over 40. Justice has a real high price in this country. And these people that are determined to take our liberty from it and fit this into a Christian nation while they condemn Muslim fundamentalism. People are condemning Muslim fundamentalism and proclaiming persecution on Christians. When you suggest separation of church and state, there is a group that I just heard about, about separation of church and state and I wish y'all could get those numbers and pass those out. Because that's very important. That's how, you know, I don't know there is one.

J Jewel Gray 08:39

Well, Cindy if you run across it, you know, we'd love you to call.

S Speaker 29 09:56

Yeah, but George W. Bush, a consideration for Governor and I know Sam Nunn's a Democrat. But remember John Connally, a Democrat for years. And he might be a Democrat, but he's sleeping in Republican beds.

J Jewel Gray 10:14

Well, Reagan was a Democratic governor of California twice in a row and flipped his little dance card over and became the Republican of note. And so Graham was a Democrat and flipped over. You know, I wonder who's putting what in whose back pocket or maybe who's on whose knees.

S Speaker 29 10:38

Social change in the last many decades that's been done for liberty. And justice has been the Democrats.

J Jewel Gray 10:46

Yeah.

S Speaker 29 10:46

You know, I mean, I know really, I'm a Socialist at heart, but anyway, but the social policies have been the Democrats and I know Sam Nunn is a disgrace in the major way, and but and Ann Richards would do more, I believe their hearts are right. And with us, they invite us to things that everyone else has never invited us to like cabinet. How about Roberta Achtenberg? How about Donna Shalala? How about some kind of incentive and hope, we hate the other. The compromise. But we've been angry, because it's not his policy. It really isn't his policy. It's, it's his triangle, and I know, that doesn't help in some ways. But then again, we've gotten in the doors. And if he has no validation for that, how is he going to continue to feel good about supporting people that turn on him. And, you know, what I saying?

J Jewel Gray 11:49

Yeah, I hear what you're saying.

S Speaker 29 11:50

There's not a lot of hope out there. And he's not, you know, he's got the dialogue. You know, we have to educate and organize.

J Jewel Gray 11:59

Organize, correct.

S Speaker 29 12:01

And have, just it doesn't take but five minutes to give out a slew of phone numbers that are majorly important. But if we can get phone trees going and stay on top of the issues, for example, Joycelyn Elders, the Surgeon General, she's very important. And she's going to be in the Christians organized and the tax free institutions, and that's where they're doing their organizations, and ours for candidacies for the school board, because there is a holocaust coming, people. There is and we need to be giving out numbers on the radio.

J Jewel Gray 12:39

Well, we'll be doing that here, from here.

S Speaker 29 12:41

I want to help if I can, if someone will give me a call.

J Jewel Gray 12:44

Okay. Cindy from Pasadena we always appreciate your call.

S Speaker 29 12:47

All right. Take care.

J Jewel Gray 12:48

Bye, bye. Okay, you heard that people. You know, well, you can call us here, JAM KPFT. And for those who are alphabetically, what is it he says? Alphabetically impaired? That is 526-5738. And Matt's out there taking calls and we're talking to people on the air and call me. Let me know what you think if you have an opinion. Maybe you agree more with Cindy about our hope and supporting that hope, no matter how meager it may seem? Or maybe you agree with Mike that, you know, hey, let's just slap these people silly and make them do what they said they're going to do. But we can only do that if we organize and make the world hear us. And that's our object now. Do you have something you can play on the, okay, we're gonna play a cart and then we're going to go to some music. I don't know what he's going to play. I have Elton John sitting here. Maybe we'll do that, I really liked that. You know, me and Elton. So we're gonna go to this cart and then we'll be back.

S Speaker 30 13:54

Music, politics, and the underground culture. It's all that in a bag of chips when you tune in to Steve Bob, the political Hip Hop magazine for the radio, every Thursday morning at 1am hosted and produced by the Renegade Tribe Collective on KPFT 90.1 FM World Radio.

J Jewel Gray 14:25

Okay, that was Elton John during "The Last Song," which is one of my favorites off this album that he's got, the Elton John, The One album, of course, "The One" being the big, big song out. But if you have an opportunity, folks, this is his best. This is the best he's done, and maybe the best you'll ever do. We still have some time to talk to some people if anybody's interested in columns. And like I said 526-5738.

S Speaker 32 14:52

I'm dyslexic, but I know that.

J Jewel Gray 14:53

I can barely remember my driver's license number. I do have a young man on the phone, David, and he's gonna, he has something to talk about the younger people in this country and how they, is that seven? Is that seven? I can't tell. Okay, David, are you there? All right, David, what, what is it you want to say?

S Speaker 31 15:12

I want to comment on, I just. And you were mentioning about lot of the stuff that these people writing in the paper. I don't see how to get away with it.

J Jewel Gray 15:24

I don't either.

S Speaker 31 15:25

I mean, in I mean, nobody said nothing about it. I mean, you know, this. It looks like they just write anything that they want and, and an idea they. And it's those just they claim about people being social, but it was often people over there.

J Jewel Gray 15:40

Yeah, yeah, you're right. And things are changing over there as quickly as it can. David, let me ask you a question. It says here you told the guy who answered the call that you're 69 years old.

S Speaker 31 15:49
Yeah.

J Jewel Gray 15:49
Do you remember much of the civil rights movement in the 60s?

S Speaker 31 15:52
Yeah, I remember.

J Jewel Gray 15:53
Were you part of anything?

S Speaker 31 15:54
Well, I was only open and I would, Rob Brown and [unintelligible] Michael. You know, I was in California at the time.

J Jewel Gray 16:02
Let me tell you does anything feel familiar about what's going on now? And what went on then?

S Speaker 31 16:07
Yeah, it's it's, it's the same. It's the same old thing but different people. They are doing it in a different way.

J Jewel Gray 16:15
Yeah. Yeah, we're, can you feel the fear? Can you feel the the

S Speaker 31 16:19
Something is gonna happen. I just feel like, I look like it's a revolution coming. I don't know. It's coming.

J Jewel Gray 16:27

And what I was at, what I was kind of getting at was because a lot of people, it says it a lot of people believe that the the civil rights movement in the 60s has no context we have no, there's no similarities with the civil rights movement. Now the gay and lesbian civil rights movement. There's no, there's no similarities?

S Speaker 31 16:50

No.

J Jewel Gray 16:51

What do you think's different?

S Speaker 31 16:52

Well, see, they look like they're a little more bold and a little more violent than you know, than it was. In the sixties, the most, the most battle was with the blanks. And now, it's, it's everybody. I mean, you know, they don't, they don't, they don't have no picks.

J Jewel Gray 17:09

Yeah, just everybody.

S Speaker 31 17:10

Yeah, they, they're against everybody now.

J Jewel Gray 17:12

Except their group.

S Speaker 31 17:13

Yeah, well, you know.

J Jewel Gray 17:15

Are you a religious man, David? Well, do you go to church?

S

Speaker 31 17:18

I go to church, but

J

Jewel Gray 17:21

I hear you. We won't tell on you. You know, how does your church, I mean, do they talk about this kind of stuff? Has it come up in your church? You know, we were talking about churches and how involved they get

Speaker 31 17:31

Well, you know, they they just talk about, most about what it is, here in Houston, you know, it's getting very bad here. You know, it's, yeah, I don't undersatdn a lot of stuff going on here and nobody saying nothing about all of these so called leaders in the city council getting away with whatever they want to get away with.

J

Jewel Gray 17:51

That's right. David, do you think that if, if they get what they want to persecute homosexuals, and gay people and people who have abortions and abortion doctors, if they get these people persecuted, that they're going to stop there and not go back and try to change the civil rights bills of the 60s?

S

Speaker 31 18:07

Well, if they get that, you know, they're gonna keep on going, it's not gonna stop.

J

Jewel Gray 18:10

And that's right. Because once they do it, they get that power. They get that feeling. Oh, well, David, I really appreciate your call. I hope you listen to us more often. Take care, okay. All right. That was David, 69 years old. And he says he sees, he sees the way he sees it as it's even uglier now. I was a child of the 60s and I remember it being quite ugly then. And he sees that it's getting, it's getting worse and understands that if this happens to the gay people that, you know, these people need something to do, they're going to come after somebody else. And that somebody else can be blue eyed blonde people, or brown eyed, dark hair people or people who have tattoos. I mean, where will it stop? I mean, you know, I don't do anything that's unusual. I have a pretty mundane and boring life, except recently, except very recently, and we'll tell you about that soon. But, so I think that the best way we can handle this is to, you know, get off our duffs, our couch potato butts and they know we have those couch potato butts because it says so in this article, and do something about all this. I'd like to play. I see this here. He doesn't even have it in there. I'd like to play this, this one here. I believe it's the first one. Yeah, the first one, "Language of Violence" by the, and I love this, "Language of Violence" by the The Disposable Heroes of Hiphop--Hiphoprissy, which is one of our favorite albums down here. We really like this. And I think it says something and it's what really feels good is that this is a young black group that has put together this and wrote this and I think it's more than worthy for listening. So here you go "Language of Violence." Oh, isn't that nice? I really like that. That has grown to be my favorite, one of, actually one of my favorites. You know, I'm still, as Jimmy put it in his kind note to Jim here tonight. Also, here's a list of possible tunes for you to play on QMZ. You know, most of the classic stuff, but the list may help you on some of the older stuff in the women's music that Jewel likes. I'm gonna hold on to this. But that is quick to become one of my favorite songs. Oh, he's got "Ode to a Gym Teacher" on there, he was really wanting to stroke me tonight. He's gonna be surprised we didn't do some of those. I guess you've been hearing us talking about the religious right. And we've been talking about the ban and how that's been handled. No, don't talk on it. No question. No, Don't Talk, Don't Tell. Don't, Don't something don't tell.

Speaker 32 21:09

Don't Ask.

J

Jewel Gray 21:10

Don't Ask, Don't Tell. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you the straight man in the room. He's right on top of things.

S

Speaker 32 21:17

The queers are looking around going, oh God. Spoken like a true activist died, you know.

J

Jewel Gray 21:23

Yeah, you really. And I want you to know that we carry on these kinds of conversations every week. So if you're interested in participating in something like this, you can call us here at After Hours. And talk. Get your say so out if you have an opinion. If you, even if you disagree with this. We, we're game to listen to a disagreement. We will not tolerate personal attacks, but we will listen to disagreement with our opinions. Occasionally we've, we've had, and even the occasional queer disagrees.

S

Speaker 32 21:50

I know, I've been on the line.

J

Jewel Gray 21:51

You've been on the line.

S Speaker 32 21:52
The Queer Nation line where people go queer.

J Jewel Gray 21:55
You wanted to say something. This is Sarah, Sarah, who does a lot of production stuff down here and is one of our favorite eyepieces down here. And we, yes, really, we drug her in to talk with us just a few minutes.

S Speaker 32 22:10
I just, yeah, I just wanted to say that even though Queer Nation is no more, sad, sad, sorrow, sorrow. ACT UP is acting up.

J Jewel Gray 22:18
ACT UP Gulf Coast.

S Speaker 32 22:19
Right, right. And we are acting up.

J Jewel Gray 22:22
I wish we had a number right here, but if you want a number like that, I can give you a number where you can get the number.

S Speaker 32 22:26
What is that number, Jewel?

J Jewel Gray 22:28
526-3211. That's the Gay and Lesbian Switchboard. You can find all kinds of numbers in town, we have the right connections. I want to take a few moments to remind you if you some of the things we talked about because I thought they were important. And once again, here I'm pumping the Gay and Lesbian Switchboard. But new training class is about to start. And it will be the seventh and eighth, 14th and 15th of August. And if you want to sign up for class, this one or maybe the next one, you can call and leave a message at 529-3211, afternoons and evenings and sign up. It'll be two weekends of exercise and activities to prepare you for phone service. We would like to see especially women and people of color. If you are a women and a people of color, we would like to hear from you. Also, I'd like to remind you that earlier in the show we talked to Gerald LaBita. Is it LaBita or LaBita? I didn't talk to him. Gerald, I hope to know Gerald better, he was very kind when he was here. And he was here talking about the theater. The Theater Lab in Houston, which is just off the 2100 block of Houston Avenue at 1706 Alamo. It's about a minute from downtown and you can get there from I-10 or Washington Avenue. It sounds like it's right around the corner from the police station. I know where that's at. And this right now they're doing on Saturday, Fridays and Saturdays at eight o'clock from July 2 to August 28. A comedy about a father, his gay son and their search for unconditional love in the 90s called The Sum of Us by David Stevens. And we would like if you are looking for something to do for you to check these people out reservations are 868-5516. And he mentioned just as he was leaving that the shows are usually over about 10:30, so it's not a taxing night spent driving to and from, 10:30 is pretty reasonable even on a work night. So it might be a good place to check out. He was very interested very cool, very genial, and I plan to go and attend to see this, this movie, there was something else. There was something else I had in my paperwork here Oh, don't forget the garden party tomorrow followed by the denim party. And don't forget to take your cards rating the costumes from 1 to 10 because that is a big part of the excitement during that time, it's three o'clock outside of Rich's or you could actually participate and go to the garden party. I hadn't really thought about that.

Speaker 32 25:04

If you're up this late, make a whole new outfit.

J

Jewel Gray 25:06

Really? Really? You're buzzing, if you're buzzing at 3am and you just have nothing else to do, an outfit Space Cadet that'd be pretty easy. You know a couple of interior TV up and you know, you've have a whole costume.

S

Speaker 32 25:18

All you do probably have the costume in the closet already.

J

Jewel Gray 25:20

Right? We also want to say that we missed Jimmy tonight and we love him. And we can't wait for him to get back. Not that Jim Vaughn has been any less a support and great board, man. He's been a little off because I've been off so don't blame it on him. And let's see what else, the denim party, denim party and the Space Cadets. Okay. What was it, it was, there was something else. One more thing. One more thing. The Gay Games, which is pretty interesting thing. Some friends of mine went when it was held in Los Angeles a couple of years ago and it was probably the memory of their life to date. And I believe they went to the March on Washington but be participating in an Olympic style, not Olympic games, but an Olympic style Gay Games with hundreds and hundreds of other people participating, and the games are as diverse as, as we are actually. And, and it's a lot of fun and they do all kinds of things for local organizations and some of the money will be going to local organizations. Not our local but local to Madison Square Garden which is where it's going to be. They're going to be honoring Martina Navratilova. And I hear all the lesbians going out there going, rrrr, Sarah too. Sarah, too.

J Jimmy Vaughn 26:50

And she has nice calves, too.

J Jewel Gray 26:51

Great calves. Yeah. Lesbian and Gay appear on the marquee. Oh, yeah, it says New York, Dateline New York. For the first time ever lesbian and gays appear on the marquee at Madison Square Garden on the Seventh Avenue promoting a tribute to Martina Navratilova benefiting the Gay Games and cultural festival, the Women's Sports Foundation ABC Dick Schaap and Billie Jean King will headline the Lesbian Gay tribute to Martina on July 28. So better get your ticket quick. We got three days. Let's see. We're thrilled and honored, we don't need to read that. Bah, bah, bah, bah, bah. In Madison Square Garden, play by play sports lounge and the entrance to the Paramount Theater. The evening will include exclusive cocktail party at seven o'clock and a dinner at eight with Martina.

S Speaker 32 27:37

Yes, this is live volunteer radio.

J Jewel Gray 27:39

Live volunteer radio and we have a good time and that is the point. We want to share that good time with you. And we're open down here. Our doors are open, we have a little mirror, a little TV camera here if you have horns in your head or, or wearing a Pope costume, we probably won't let you in. Oh, that's right. I forgot that guy. And we let Rainbow, we let Rainbow in and Rainbow was the one who called to tell us, oh what did Rainbow call to tell us I have a note here from Rainbow, what was it he wanted to tell us?

S Speaker 32 28:12

That you could say on the air.

That we could say on the, yeah, really that we could say on the air. Matt's probably got it out there and Rainbow's never gonna forgive me because I lost it, whatever it was, it was something interesting. Really, live radio and Rainbow comes down here in costume sometimes which is really funny, with tails. But we do open our door and we are looking for volunteers with After Hour if you want to put some time in doing some stuff for After Hours. We would love it.

That's how Sarah got down here. That's actually how I got down here. Doing some little bitty things, yeah. And you know what? We had her on a on a fish line so she can reel you in like dollar bills. Yes. You can come down and volunteer. We're located at 419 Lovett Boulevard Houston. And that's right across from Others for those who Bar Hop, and it's one block south of Westheimer for those who get into town rarely, a couple of doors over from the Lovett Inn, Lovett Inn which is a great bed and breakfast. And we would really like to hear from you if you have something to say or comment about what we've done here or you think we're just lousy and you want to get that off your chest too. And we try to have a good time, we'd like you to think that this is your radio show. And we want to do what we can. I think we're gonna really work on some kind of show about the apathy in town. I really want to do that. Being producer now, I have a certain amount of raw power and control. So yeah, yeah, I got some, I got some filing in the dungeon later, Sarah. What was I gonna say now you got me all this. Yeah, you got me all this stuff here. Anyway, we love you. We want you to remember that we're here to entertain and inform you. But without you out there, we couldn't do this. If you want to make donations, you can make them to the station and time would be much appreciated. We could sure use you. There is another gay lesbian program. It's on Friday nights. If you want to stay in touch, you can catch them. It's called Lesbian and Gay Voices, and we're proud to be a part of KPFT along with them. Good night.
