00:00

More power to him.

00:03

Let's guess a year and a half ago, like if you'd asked me, Do you want to turn straight? I would have said, Yeah, because like, I don't know, no one chooses to be like, discriminated against for the rest of their life. No, but then I realized it doesn't have to be that way. And I found where I wouldn't be discriminated against. So it doesn't matter now.

00:21

And this show is about like the gayest spot of my whole life. I mean, honestly, I mean, I, all of my closest friends are heterosexual men. And, like, the, you know, their doors are open, I'm a part of like, I'm a part of heterosexual families that are amazing. I'm with some of these people as they begin dating as they like, have children I've been, I've known some of them as they've gone through high school, graduated college, gotten married and had children, you know, and now even some of them divorce or whatever. And that's a huge part of my life. I don't like, shut the door on anything hetero, you know, I embrace that life. I mean, it would be so much easier to have that thought today, it was like, it'd be really nice to be able to go through an ex gay program, you know, throw the Donna Summer in the closet and go, like, have a wife and kids dream is to raise a child. I mean, that's just me and, and it has nothing to do with sex. It has everything to do with looking down at, at a at a child or an infant and seeing hope and, and just the beauty and the creation. And you know, and luckily for me, I procreated when I was 17, and I did my job, you know what I mean? I did the quote unquote, natural process of procreation. And it didn't turn me straight. You know,

01:41

I still think you'd make a good mommy.

01:44

The breastfeeding thing would be hard.

01:45

You have a kid

01:48 of a 14 year old.

Chris 01:50

One last thing we'll put on this one, but next week, we are going to be talking about this, we're going to have some interviews with some of the speakers on the event and hopefully some of the participants as well, from the loved one out conference. And the one thing I just want to put on here, Victor of when you're saying about the bashing and all that we'll do one thing I always say with my father have to clean it up for the air. He always complained that whenever we start picking on him about stuff and always complain about all the crap, we seem to be dumping on him. And my response to it is we're not dumping crap on you. It's just we're scraping off the crap you've dumped on us for so long. It's getting a little it's getting called on you. And we're not bashing. We're just trying to let you realize what we're seeing and what we're seeing the target of and you know, our words aren't hurtful. The words that come from pulpits and the words are shouted out car windows, followed by bricks and two by fours with nails in them and guns. That's what hurts and that's the bad part. Jimmy said we need to play a little music he picked the song he thinks that works with this topic we we are you dedicating it to Victor yes to Victor it's rude Paul. People are people when out when tan How was she fears?

03:24

Chris 03:31

Okay, I'm turning that off because Jimmy says I'm not allowed to play that artists who is at the end of the song right? Surely cue liquor appeared at the end of the song.

03:38

Oh, love her.

C

Chris 03:42

Yeah, unfortunately, he FCC what doesn't? For that was people are people by RuPaul out to Victor a color called him with a suggestion of you know, if we read the preamble to the listeners, maybe they would understand about equality. You know, the concept of all men being created equal. Unfortunately, the Bill of Rights, the Constitution Declaration of Independence, and you know, any document under 200 years of age is not applicable under the current administration, or the Patriot Act. So, you know, all men are created equal. If you're fat, white rich, oil barons and straight straight or if you're willing to kowtow to them. Can you really call him an oil baron? I mean, he was a complete failure in that business. And well, it was mayor. This is after hours, queer radio with attitude. And, you know, we're just here speaking our mind and next week when we do the show, with some of the stuff You're gonna hear the other side, we're gonna, you're gonna, there's gonna be some equal time I guarantee. Because if I don't know if you can catch that from the way I talk and what I've done with the with any subjects or new stuff I carry I've done on here. I want to hear their other side. I want to hear what loved one out. I want to hear what facts in the family says,

Q

C

Chris 04:44

Q

05:22

Well, if you'd actually like to go see it live.

C

Chris 05:25

And here's an opportunity for infiltrators. Yes.

Q

05:31

PFLAG is actually organizing a group of people to go and like I was talking about earlier to talk to people one on one. Just very quietly, the point is to be heard and not saying not to be disruptive, but to offer people an alternative point of view, that they really can be happy and enjoy their lives as homosexuals. They do ask that you attend a workshop on nonviolent communication skills. says we're looking for conference attendees on February 19. You will be expected to a attend a workshop on nonviolent communication skills led by Bob henshin of the Houston Peace and Justice Center on Sunday, February 13. That's tomorrow, from 4pm to 7pm. At the First Unitarian Universalist Church at 5200 Fannin at South more near the museum district before the conference and be to sign a pledge of non violence conference attendees will quietly look for opportunities to offer an alternative view of homosexuality to other participants who may be just confused and questioning people. Attendees must understand that they may not contest the speakers or cause disruption in any way or they will be thrown out. And that's not necessarily coming from PFLAG. That's, you know, pretty much just a statement of fact, as far as where we're going because we are going down and you will probably get arrested. Yep. My problem. I will I will probably guarantee that if you interrupt the meeting, you will you will there will be security there and you will be arrested.

 07:12

Yep, they are probably expecting a bunch of us. So. But anyway, if you want to get that information again, you can also go to paif www dot pefect PFLAG Houston, dot o RG. It's in their online newsletter. And anyway, show up, it'd be great to make sure that we have our own representation at the conference. Cool. Jimmy, I think you had some artwork? Yes, I do. Yes, I do. Wow. Yes, isn't it? This is from slavery. And he says, This is not the art I've been telling you about. It's just something I drew a while back and it's beginning to get damaged. I thought perhaps one of the pagans on the show would like it. Well, I'm not a pagan. And I love it. And yes, I'm going to frame it. It's well, it's two candles. And at the very top it says wicker and it's a unicorn woman. Wouldn't you say? Yes.

 07:48

 08:28

Really? Gorgeous.

 08:29

It's a What's the Capricorn isn't it? Met the whole like. Shut up.

 08:37

She's also kind of got some aquatic it's been 08:40

a while since I've seen it. Yes. Because there's some water in here too. There's some there's some webbing on the hand and whipping it. Yeah. It's like a unicorn mermaid.

08:44

08:49

Oh, good idea. Yeah. Yeah. And the writing below is a beautiful Celtic I guess.

08:56

Is it Celtic or is it ruined?

08:59

Rune? Let

09:00

me see. No, no, he

Chris 09:02

sent it to you before it got ruined.

09:05

ruined anyway. I love it. And I want to thank slave oh, five and then. Good. Oh, hi. May sent a watercolor. Which is this watercolor if you can believe it. Yeah, it's like pastel almost, doesn't it? Hold it up for the other pores?

09:24

09:27

Chris 09:31

Yes, for the listening audience.

09:32

Can you see this?

09:34

Guitar Gremlin?

09:35

Wow. It's beautiful, isn't it? Yes, it is this sort of distorted faced winged eared monochromatic pink to lavender woman very sort of dynamic sisters. You're talking about microphone for me believe so. Now that you turn mine on.

Chris 09:55

Thank you. We're on for a while talking into it.

09:58

Yeah, he's As hope you in the after hours crew are all doing fine. I wish I could have been there the station last week to see GG in action. Anyway, I'm glad you're back, and I'm happy to hear you on the radio again. Thank you. I had a wonderful time in Hawaii, and I love your new painting. It's to add to the collection, which will end up at the Gulf Coast archives and museum. I do like it. I'm also enclosing the most recent queer music issue of RFD magazine, where you are mentioned in the Jay Spears interview Yes. And I think I left that in the control room. I subscribed to RFD and it was an interview with Jay spears. And he mentioned the very few first radio DJs who played them. And he, he thanked JD Doyle and I among several others. I thought that was really cool. is not just an account, but an institution.

10:59

11:06

And so it seems that well, well Jaime is not painting he is as has taken a cue from GE G's show last week.

11:19

Yeah, to learn some new techniques.

11:23

I'll have to tell us about that if you've learned any new techniques and how it worked out,

11:27

I don't know. But this is such a fat. I just keep looking at it thinking I want a copy of it because I would make a great tattoo.

You've given his email address his website and his full name. Yeah.

13:05

13:14

13:49

14:14

Yes. It sort of looks like Britney Spears with a penis.

14:20

How do you know she doesn't have one already? Well, we think she didn't you know, every time she breaks her knees, her tits get bigger.

14:28

I think she's using Pamela's old implants. Okay, we are in that winter membership. Dr. 713-526-5738 You've got about 10 minutes before the new Caribbean music show comes on. And I just feel terrible because I forgot the name that guy told me last week. Ouch.

14:31

14:58

And Elodie or dementia, we can't decide again

15:00

Oh 715265738

c Chris 15:05

That's that's your drag named Jimmy senility dementia.

∅ 15:08

Thank you so very little.

c Chris 15:13

It is good vibes.

∅ 15:16

Jimmy good vibes,

c Chris 15:17

good vibes.

∅ 15:19

Oh, okay, good vibes That's a great name.

∅ 15:23

Okay, slave wrote a letter and said hi. And he said he was battling with battling with his radio week last night in order to get the in order to get the reception. And apparently he lost us. Part of the way he talks about he also talks about the, the Super Bowl, and how much he does not care for it, though. And he talks about Wolfgang being asleep. And he Wolfgang wanted slaves to say hi to him to a soul for him. Apparently, he's waiting to get some new ribbons for his typewriter. They asked for a couple of group photos because apparently they're putting together a photo album. And slaves written some more poems. And also Wolfgang is working on some more poems that slaves gonna do artwork for. So they've got kind of this team thing going on that I think is cool. My brother and I do that I take pictures and he's like, the god of Photoshop. So if you mess around with them in Photoshop, too, he apparently came out to the people on his housing unit. Oh, everything. Yes, everything went just fine. No one said anything that negative or hateful, which I think is really awesome. Congratulations says now he's just waiting to come out to his parents. And he mentioned that he thought of us as he said, he's too afraid to come out at first but then he thought of us and your courage gave me courage. Like I said, Your show means a lot to me. You guys mean a lot to me. And I love each of you that's underlined with all my heart. And I think it's cool that that we helped someone come out no kid. I know. Like Stacey, usually under those circumstances, actually, like Stacey, I listened to the show when I was about 13. And just realizing things. And it helped me a lot too. I totally forgot that until a couple months ago. I totally forgot. I never listened to the show. Wow. Until one day, I was like, Wait a second. And he said Thanks for answering the questions about the song. Apparently, just after that it completely faded out. So some higher power was waiting to fade out on him until he got his questions answered. He says he'll go home and they'll listen on his computer. And then he says Watch out. I have a webcam. And Jimmy it will be Dirty Picture time. Oh, right. Right, ladies and gentlemen, that's double underlined, dirty.

17:57

Take your Med tiny.

17:58

She did.

18:02

He says a few things about the Focus on the Family stuff. And apparently, he's a little he's on the same page as we are about that. No surprise there.

18:09

18:12

He talks about a scripture where apparently, it alludes to Jesus Christ having a homosexual interaction with a with another man. And he was just wondering if anyone else if anyone here knew which one that was, I really don't think that exists in the canonical Bible. I think you have to go into the Apocrypha, right?

18:27

18:32

Well, the older versions, the older you get, the fewer times it's been translated, the more it's actually there. But at the same time, like eight words in one of the original languages all translate to love. So you've got that would be Greek, Greek. So you know you've got eight different kinds of love you're talking about there. He says he and Wolfgang are both happy and doing well. Plus, it'd be slaver five Ps I'm still trying to get some photos from home. Once I got them they will be heading your way kiss kiss boys. And he has a poem that I guess I should read. Is it okay if I read it? All right. This sadness inside I'm searching for a smile wishing you would come back just for a while. This feeling inside only if you can make it go away. Helped me wash away the hurt please help me heal the pain. These ones blue these ones don't realize have now rusted to gray. looking at pictures of you day after lonely day. No matter where I go. Everyone can easily see that still I carry our love and it's buried deep inside of me. The shirt that still has your smell as I lay on your side of the bed, remembering how you would say I love you after hearing it echo and Besides my head, I have tried to dig out the splinter I've tried to dry my tears. I've tried to cover the scars. I've tried to forget all the years tattooed in my skin is more than just your name. It's your taste. It's your memory. It's something I'll never have again. Now I've become the splinter. I have become the tears. I have become the scar. And I'm drowning in the years. Loving You feeling empty? I know you were something special, something I shall never have again. That's cool. I like it. Very nice. Yeah.

20:37

All right update from Smiley.

20:42

Smiley. Smiley

20:44

says here that he will be out on the 21st although we found out the 21st is Presidents Day. So see? Oh, it says in the new group photo, there are a few people he doesn't recognize. He's sure we didn't do this unintentionally. See, he's sorry to hear about cube patrol and knows that. That was one of Chris's passions in life. Oh really, he just is really looking forward to coming out and meeting everybody. He says that he should be here by the weekend of the 26th there's just a whole bunch of he's got a whole bunch of little fantasies about everything February 26 2005. After ours is about to introduce a new character. So outspoken. Reverend Jimmy Swaggart calls him the anti bush. Too much of a realist that Governor Perry might leave Texas and he hates PETA loves the death penalty supports the war thinks gay marriage should be a right finds Bush misunderstood yet erratically evil and happily claims democratic.

22:10

Oh my god, I just like the hates PETA part.

22:14

Why would you hate people eating tasty animals.

22:16

I hate People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals. They're the most self righteous group of liars

I've ever met in my life.
