00:01

I'm talking with hatch because I've been wanting to get them on the show for a long time. And it looks like we're probably going to do it the first weekend in June. I want to watch when you do it, yes. And the thing that

00:18

I'm more than just looked at crossways I kind of had it myself.

00:22

I've been talking to the president and what I wanted, he's involved in hedge. And I had no idea. Josie Semafo bear.

00:26

00:36

Talking to the president of hat, oh, that's me separately. And I'm very interested in having him on and a couple other folks, they're going to kind of give coming out stories, you know, because I can talk about my coming out, but I'm not a teenager anymore. And coming out no days is a whole lot different than when I came out. And they're entirely different problems, entirely different ways of doing it. So we're going to do that. And then we're going to try to do a kind of a reenactment of what goes on at a hatch meeting.

01:14

Okay to be in. When Jimmy came out, he literally had to step over dinosaur dung to do

 01:22
it, right. I'm sorry, come

 01:25 out of the cave.

 01:27
And, you know, we'll be we'll also be letting you know about the prom, the hatch prom that they do every year. Oh, interesting. And I've been invited as a matter of fact. Okay, I guess to serve punch. I don't know. chaperones, that chaperone that's it.

 01:45
But here's a little something that's going on in and in. is sort of a tribute to what this is about. I'm going to make a little balloon animal for you. Can you tell what it is?

 01:58
So wow, it's a dog.

 02:00
Yes, it is.

 02:02
That's because I stashes right now. Yes. That's just better. At 201 Adam Paraguay is doing a chokehold dog Oprah Oh, yeah. Jay, is Wednesday through Saturday nights at 8pm and Sundays at 5pm. And is is a premiere performance of a show about a gay man and his female best friend who sort of consolidate each other Oh, yeah. You know, consolidate. That's the word, console console. consolidated.

 02:42
Become each other. And that's probably don't want to 02:45

do that. But as they as they as they console, apparent each other because they they both find do that. But as they as they, as they console, apparent each other because they they both find to find Mr. Right, right. You know, so compare notes about trying to find Mr. Right, all of the reviews that I hurray have been fabulous. Yep. Yep. And he always puts on a fabulous job to do and the choice running through the 27th of the month, which is about another work. Oh, so if you want to go see it, you better go see it soon. And you can restage this by calling 52 stretch. Okay,

02:53

02:58

03:22

I'll tell you what, I'm going to do a little kind of mini QM z, I haven't been able to do that in a long time. That's the queer music zone, where we play music by openly gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgendered artists. There's a lot more of that coming up. I mean, to tell you, if you have a favorite, give us a call at 5265738 and we'll put it on the play list. You may want to dedicate something to a loved one, or someone you're trying to love. We can do that too. So let's start it off with something something I seldom do. I seldom play show music because really, if you if you're not watching the show, lots of time it's really boring for a Jew I know but this is this loss of gay people daylilies Oh, this may come aside chuckled at you.

04:12

04:19

This is from Howard crabs, trees when pigs fly and I particularly like this because it gives a really up message to to the queer community because it shows that you can't have a USA without us. And it's called a patriotic finale. It's the finale to act one of Howard Crabtree Howard crowd trees when pigs fly and you're listening to it on after hours. Queer radio with attitude on KPFT Houston and ke O 's College Station, and right after this abbreviated version of QM z will be bringing jewel With the Holocaust story

05:11

Yes, like the first oh yeah sortation

05:16

and this is this is really really good because now that now that they have what's your name?

and this is this is really really good because now that now that they have what's your name?
What's your name? It's suede. Heart

05:30

curve. You're here

05:36

Ramon.

05:38

Yes. What about Ramon? He was quite informative and very nice. Listen, this guy's a freak. I picked him up last night. I'm sure you did. At AT AT Jr's of all places. I mean, you think you'd pick up and pick up a normal guy at Jr's? No, this guy ties me up and wraps me up in saran wrap. throws me in the back of my closet. I just got out. I just got out and threw this on. And you see how horrible I Lagash The point is all he would do it and no sexual anything like that. All he would do was take these damn balloons and pull them up to my ear and do that. It was maddening. It was absolutely maddening. He's a freak. I can't believe you let him on the air. He was quite charming. Oh, well.

05:42

06:34

06:38

Oh, man.

06:40

Well, you say I was expecting Scott Lewis.

06:43

Oh, I'm sure Scott and Ramon would have a lovely time together and maybe they will later they may have I don't know God.

06:52

Anyway, let's go to this flirtations. Song. Suede is now a member of the flirtations, and this is a song that that really caught my ear and made me listen to suede when she was by herself.

07:09

I heard I heard her do this at the rally at the March on Washington. Gosh, it's one last one Yeah. And and now with the two remaining flirtations. I think they do an excellent job. I have to agree sister, or more well known as Miss seawheeze blues play the trumpet dad. Remember? Love?

07:13

07:33

07:50

The show

08:11

Oh, yeah

08:12

swayed with Missy Lee's blue. That was really, really nice. We heard gene in there with fighting fit. I told you I play more of him. And now we're going to go to jewel. She's here. Hey,

08:31

Jewel, are you too, right?

08:34

I met your roommate when I came in earlier. And I just can't understand how you would call him a freak. I loved his little home balloon animals.

08:43

Let me tell you, he this guy. I mean, he when I met him at the bar, he gave me the impression that you know, he was he was a nice quiet little you know, little bottom boy. Yeah. And, and, you know, I was I was in the mood for last night and, and he he, I mean, he asked me if I had any saran wrap and I thought, you know, okay, that's cool. We'll get a little kinky and you know, he can he can munch down on my stuff. But um, but no, he, he subdued me and wrapped me. I mean, it was just it was just a little bit more than I was then I was ready for do boy I like that. And I liked that Saran Wrap sound you know, lesbians used saran wrap a lie?

09:25

09:30

No, you guys. Oh, yeah. Kroger Kroger keeps it in stock for you guys, but I mean, you can microwave on microwavable. Yeah, but um, but good lord, uh, my 24 hours wrapped up in saran wrap. I know I've lost three pounds. At least.

09:48

I'm gonna have to try that. Actually, I could lose three pounds and nobody would notice.

09:51

Well, you know, while we're talking about saran wrap and lesbian safe sex. I want to remind people that on Thursdays at The ranch. Don't tell me Nancy Ford. You bet you the best. Yes, she she does her comedy show and also talks about lesbian safe sex.

10:10

And Nancy does a good job I sat in I'd subbed for once or twice and did a poor a poor stand in for Nancy. I didn't have quite the repertoire of jokes that Nancy had or she's incredible, or the various sexual experiences that Nancy had or says she had. And but we had a good time. We had a good time when I was there, and I came out and I was dressed very much like you were left in your closet. When I did my safe. I just wrapped saran wrap all over me and the girls were just squealing they didn't know what to do. I guess I'm just I used that green, the green saran wrap. I was a big mistake. I didn't know it was a little bit some off the X Files. It never it never occurred to me. I just grabbed the saran wrap that was in the kitchen. It was green. And I got it. Oh, that's a little off the subject. I just gotta throw this in. Do you watch the expo? Oh, yeah.

11:00

11:04

Did you watch it last week? You had to refresh the freezing thing? Oh, yeah. Like that. That was so that was the best one I've seen in a long Yeah.

11:13

I'm not an x p h file. You know, I'm not like I'm not a Trekker. You know, like that. I mean, I just liked the show. But David do

11:21

Cavani Oh,

11:25

man. Okay, okay. He could write me up answer. That's right. You know, what I'm telling you is secret. I'm not just between the three of us. He could wrap me up and say,

11:29

11:36

Lord have mercy. And you know what?

11:38

Yeah, a beautiful man. Yes. And on the same hand, I think I think I'd let Gillian Anderson let me Well, I definitely let her wrap me up. I let her unwrap me. I definitely would you know, I heard today that they're gonna finish the season, and do a summer movie that will conclude the season. So you get the cliffhanger at the end of the season. And to figure out the cliffhanger you have to pay bucks go see the movie it's worth it. It's where I'm like, oh, no, because like you know, I wait till it comes out on video which is a year and a half later. I don't pay bucks see a movie. You know, I go to the dollar movies about a month I expend movies.

11:44

12:12

I just started watching The X Files last season and excuse me, and I've been going every time I go to Blockbuster and get a movie. I get one of The X Files tapes too. So I can sort of catch up on 12:23

trying to teach my bird whistle that tune it's not happening.

12:27

I wrote some lyrics.

12:29

He is so that comes on Sunday.

12:37

I love those lyrics it's out there really doing X Files I love The X Files and you know I was talking to somebody on the internet the other night and they were talking about Millennium Millennium millennium. They didn't like it they didn't like it I thought I haven't seen you know I'm sorry. You know I've heard a lot of criticism but about it and I but I really enjoyed the program. I'm a I'm a kind of a. Patricia Cornwell if you all don't know who that is. She's a mystery writer who is writes about a woman forensic pathologist. Kay Scarpetta, who, she's going to have another book out this July and I'm just like, can't wait. And I've read all six of her other novels. She just put out one novel called Hornet's Nest, that I've heard a lot of ugly things about, but it doesn't have anything to do with this female, you know, lead in the story. So I'm really not interested in that one. But I get into that stuff. There's a show on Saturday night called a profiler with that female profiler FBI profile. I like that kind of stuff. Well, you know, Millennium is right up my alley. I love them. It's, it's the psychology behind it. And I 13:43

13:39

like that it's so deadpan you know, a lot of people fuss because it's because this guy, Lance Hendrickson, who does the show, Frank Black is so deadpan, you know, this was the guy who played the Android and aliens to and he's kind of got a real deadpan, you know, effect when he talks and when he does all this stuff, but I think that is the thing because this man is like, you know, living in a world of the most bizarre and dark things and you just can't have some real lively little perky things. Like David do company running around chasing, you know, you know, aliens, you know, that's, that's kind of cute, but tortured. Yeah, it's a torture thing. And he has this gift. That is a torture to him. And now I find that in the show, they're hinting that his daughter may have it. And he's kind of really disturbed by that because she's only like, like five or seven years old. And he's a little disturbed by that, but he's so protective. And he is Yes, very good father. And very, you know, I like that part of him too, that He's a family man. He adores his wife and child, you know, and I think I look all over TV and you don't see a lot of fathers and husbands on TV that are so considerate and so much into their family. Now you see loving parents and loving husbands and, but not like this man. This man is like devoted to that. And I think it's a good segue. image to you know, for you know, kind of role model out there the totally devoted family man and living in this world of you know the depraved and figuring out these things and some of the premises got a little you know, I never saw the first one so I've never really put the premise all together but I love each individual show, but I heard that they were talking they were gonna take this off or they're gonna team him with a partner. And I thought well, maybe a partner would be okay but I don't want to take it off they you know the guy Chris Carter, created X filed also did millennium. And, you know, I think what they're trying to do is lighten this man's load or something. X Files and Millennium they both kind of heavy maybe this guy is headed for the rubber suit. But they they do some really bizarre and weird things. And I kind of get off to that stuff. Kind of like Kay Scarpetta. Yeah, I just wanted to say her name on the air. Kay Scarpetta. Let me tell you if there was a real person Kay Scarpetta. I'd be stalking her. I mean, I would be stalking her. You gotta read these novels. Kay Scarpetta.

16:02

It seems that in lesbian literature, literature, there's a lot more mystery and Detective type novels than there is in the Gay Men's literature.

16:18

Well, while Patricia Cornwell may or may not be a lesbian, she's got a big article in Vanity Fair, yes, this month, and she suggested that Well, she didn't suggest she owns up that she's had a couple of little dalliance shouldn't say strictly that she's a lesbian. But she does talk about sitting in a hot tub with Demi Moore smoking cigars, discussing her doing the roll, which I think Demi wouldn't be very good at Kay is much older woman. But she did have a little fling with an FBI agent a couple years ago that cracked the husband up. And he tried to kill the wife and the wife administer and blow the church up. That's how I heard her now he's serving 60 years but Scarpetta is not a, he's not a lesbian, but although she has a niece that is that came at she, she outed in the books. And she deals with that, and she's really okay with it. But I really, really enjoy that kind of writing the more darker side of human, I don't know, endeavors. You know, and that kind of brings me to what we were going to talk about tonight, the darker side of human endeavors that kind of, you know, digs at people kind of makes you want to think, you know, how can this be who would do this kind of thing, you know, those kinds of things where you look at the fellow man and you say, you know, this, this, you know, it's like Millennium all those horrible, terrible things that happen. You know, you think how can this be? What's the psychology, you know, behind it. And, you know, and big Roy Roy mentioned to me last week, when he was leaving when I was leaving, not last week, three weeks ago, four weeks ago, when I was leaving, that he had been trying to find information on survivors of the Holocaust case survivors, and said he couldn't find very much and I spent the last month looking on the internet and places I could dig up information about that. And I thought, you know, this would be a good thing to talk about, because I know everybody's heard the axiom if you know, if you don't learn from history tend to repeat it. And, you know, as I was looking into this, this last month, I saw a lot of familiar things that kind of shook me right down to my spine, about how the right wing, you know, religious right, and people are trying to do things and, you know, push us back into the closet and enact laws that, you know, will curtail our freedoms and, and do things that you know, and I saw a lot of similarities in what was going on in pre war Germany. And the kind of social attitudes that were going on very much like today we're tolerances is, you know, is a two sided coin. On Sunday. You're, you're, you're not tolerant, but the rest of the week, er, you know, and it seems to me kind of strange, because in Germany, in the 20s, and the 30s, and 20s, more so and prior to that, I guess, was probably the most progressive country in the world.

19:16

Gertrude and Alice B love Germany. Yeah, they were very taken with the German culture, the German way of life, the country side, a lot of famous, you know, Bohemian type, you know, artist were, you know, Bohemian, of course.

19:33

Well, Berlin in the 20s, for God's sake was was the capital almost the capital of the civilized world? Yeah. Great Learning, the one of the best unit of some of the best universities and best doctors. As matter of fact, we were talking earlier about the couple of sexual research institutes that were there that were the absolute, you know, the top of the heap of all as men in fact, there were no in America that were no sexual research institutes, there were a couple more spread out around Europe, but Germany was the top, they had the best thinkers, the best philosophers, the, it was just a really exploding intellectual birthplace of have a lot of possibilities that for unfortunately, because of what happened there just never, you know, got to flower and it and it just disintegrated in less than a generation.

19:37

20:26

20:30

And that's what you know, I was talking with someone earlier this evening about this I had gone over this with him and said, What do you think? What do you think? And, you know, we talked about that about how it disintegrated and how similar that disintegration is to some of the things that we see around us every day, you know, the politicians and the people turning their head just out of apathy, you know, and indifference and, and to the point where, you know, they got pulled into situations that on their own, they might not have been involved in, but because they were involved in this group or that group, which, you know, substitute this church or that church, you know, peer, I don't know if it's peer pressure or, or what, but drug drug them in willingly to, you know, participate in some of the most gruesome and horrible events in our history, I believe, probably alarm in the human history, if not participate, but just not do anything to stop it.

21:24

21:28

Yeah. Well, you know, a lot of that. We also also talked to several people on the internet about the fear that was rampant. You know, everybody, it was one of Hitler's greatest things, one of your single greatest accomplishments was being able to turn neighbor on neighbor. Yeah. And to make children you know, turn on their parents and, and teachers and, you know, they he had ears everywhere and eyes everywhere, and people were turning people in and, and reporting things and just the smallest slightest suggestion would send you off to you know, God knows where some people ended up dead, others just disappear and and brainwash them. Yeah,

22:14

22:18

yep. And that was one of his, you know, as in that area, was one of his single is, in his mind, greatest accomplishment is the propaganda and, and the way he turned, you know, neighbor against neighbor. And, you know, oddly enough, I see some similarities in that here. You know, that's the thing that just overwhelms me because threw out metal millennium, there have been anytime anybody wants to do something, they, you know, any any bad thing in their country, they blame it on the Jews, or they put it on the homosexuals, the you know, some disenfranchised group, always, over and over and over again. And we don't learn from experience.

22:36

23:06

Yeah, that's right. And you know, I've mentioned before, a couple of times on the radio when I was doing this before, about a book I read once a sent chills up my spine was called Project lambda, about that very thing happening here. And it was what killed me to the bone was that it was so simple. It was so easy, it was so easy to believe it was easy to see this happening, not just believe the book, the fiction that was written. But the way the book was laid out, it was easy to see it coming forth, it was easy to imagine that that might wouldn't be very easy to come forward. Right. And you know, that kind of kind of when I was doing this, I kept thinking about that book, and I haven't been able put my hand on it. Since if anybody has got that book, I would love to have a copy of it. Project land is about this similar situation happening erupting in America where gays and homosexuals and transgender bisexual people are starting being put in concentration camps and, and eventually slaughtered. You know, like the Jews have. Have a Germany. But, but I do want to one of the things I did is I decided that we we know a lot about what happened in that period of time. I mean, you know, we sat through our classes, even though we probably were falling asleep and we've caught you know, weighing iron in Wings of Eagles and all those weird little movies, not weird little movies, but all those movies where you know, you got bits and pieces of what was going on. My fact the other night I was watching Warren remembrance on the History Channel. It was a little mini series and it was it was extremely good. Little no miniseries Yeah, it was extremely good. Well done and very thought provoking and during the at the end of the program that they'd set up then Sander van ochre, who was As the host of this talk to experts about what was going on in that particular evenings you know
