S Speaker 1 01:24
Well.

J Jimmy Carper 01:25
We're gonna kinda be doing like [INAUDIBLE]? Yeah, kind of esoteric adventures kind of stuff.

S Speaker 1 01:30
Just the wisdom of radio.

J Jimmy Carper 01:32
We won't have live music like Pat and Rosie normally do so. I know. That'll be disappointing to most of their listeners. But. And I want to thank them for the great birthday card.

J Jimmy Carper 03:34

Yes.

S Speaker 1 03:35

Since you're going to Maui, and all of a sudden that you'll probably run into some boat things. And so I decided I had this little thing about about this little story of one of our little listeners, Sam. Okay, it says to boat owners. Okay, twin brothers named Joe and John. Joe is the owner of an old dilapidated boat. And it happened to John's wife died the same day that Joe's boat sank off track. A few days later, a kindly old lady met Joe on the street. mistaking him for John, she said to him, I'm sorry about your great loss. You must feel just terrible. Joe said, Oh, hell fact is I'm sort of glad to be rid of her. She was a rotten old thing from the beginning. Her bottom was all shriveled up and she smelled like dead fish. She was always losing her water. She had a bad crack in the back and a pretty big hole in the front to the hole got bigger every time I used and she leaked like crazy and it was hard to keep her upright. When I finally finished her off was those last four tough guys who rented her for a good time. I warned them that she wasn't any good. But they wanted to have a boat or anyhow damn fools I tried to get [INAUDIBLE] tried to get on or at the same time and it was just too much for the old girl and father were trying to get their various positions. She split right Add up the middle your woman fainted.

J Jimmy Carper 05:06

So that's funny.

S Speaker 1 05:08

So much for boat stories.

J Jimmy Carper 05:09

Somebody Oh, I just love it when I get cards you

J Jimmy Carper 05:19
The that's funny stuff I like.

S Speaker 1 05:22
Do we got stuff that we need to talk about about what's going on around the city?

J Jimmy Carper 05:27
Oh, a few things here and there because you know so many people are doing stuff for Christmas, you know having little Christmas special thing.

S Speaker 1 05:36
Oh, there's a billion of those.

J Jimmy Carper 05:38
I want to mention a couple of them. The Briar Patch. Oh, is having their annual Christmas party. Sunday, Sunday evening. 7:30 Sunday evening 7:30. home cooked buffet Christmas cheer. Oh, Jesus. And that's that's like, Houston's only queer patty piano bar.

S Speaker 1 05:59

Yeah, yeah. Yes. That's that's The Briar Patch 2294 West Holcomb and let's see Chances. I wanted to talk about Chances because they're they're having a big New Year's bash. Like every bar is having a big New Year's bash. But they're having who's the outrageous is going to be they're performing live. Outrageous has been on the show and they have a tape out and they they do really great rock music. It's three lesbians. Oh, who do really good rock music and do I mean wonderful versions of Janis Joplin stuff? Oh, so that's chances. Cool. That's 1100 Westhimer. Hey, and let's see. Oh, Mary's is doing something. No, she was bisexual, she had had an affair with one woman that we know of in her life. That's why we play her because she's bisexual.

S Speaker 1 30:19
That's why we play her. Yeah, why not?

J Jimmy Carper 30:24

 Jimmy Carper 31:03

Well, let's see,

 Speaker 1 31:04

After [INAUDIBLE] top 10 list of last minute gifts.

 Jimmy Carper 31:08

Next month will be the voting for the new emperor and empress.

 Speaker 1 31:12

Yeah.

 Jimmy Carper 31:13

The Royal and imperial court.

 Speaker 1 31:15

January the 11th. At the multipurpose center, I believe.

 Jimmy Carper 31:18

That's right. And it's up to the community to vote. Yeah, this is the only organization where the entire community is asked to vote for the people who run it.

 Speaker 1 31:30

That's true. You're right. Yes. And Anita Man is running and-.

J Jimmy Carper 31:32

Anita Man is running Jennifer Ellsworth and now those who are running for empress. And for emperor. We have Gerald McNeal and Steve Chason And you know, that's it. This year is going to be really tough because all the contestants are very, very good. Gerald has been on the show, he is just a sweetheart. I've known Steve for years and years and years, he has been active in all kinds of different organizations from NLA. To you name it, you know, and it's mostly charity work, and Anita Man is tireless in the tireless in the community. And Jennifer too. Jennifer too. Yeah, I mean, so it's gonna be.

S Speaker 1 32:16

Yeah.

J Jimmy Carper 32:17

Yeah. Oh, so I hope who, who whoever does not win will not take it to heart but you know, continue the work. And you know, hey, honey, there's next year.

S Speaker 1 32:29

Really.

J Jimmy Carper 32:29

You deserve the honors and you'll get them just, you know?

S Speaker 1 32:34

Yeah, it'd be tight race, but we're getting everybody out to vote.

J Jimmy Carper 32:36

And that was just tough that somebody's got to win and somebody has to not win. You know?

S Speaker 1 32:41

Yeah, that's true.

J Jimmy Carper 32:42

Because all four people are really good. And it's up to the community to do that voting.

S

Speaker 1 32:46

We really need to work on getting everybody out on this January the 11th. At the multi-purpose center?

J

Jimmy Carper 32:53

Unfortunately they do not have they do not have absentee voting. I will not be able to vote because I'm not going to be in town. I'm really upset over that.

Speaker 1 33:03

Well, oh, my God, what can we do?

J

Jimmy Carper 33:05

Well, I don't know.

Speaker 1 33:06

It'd be hard to do absentee voting.

J

Jimmy Carper 33:07

Yes. I also want to say thank you, too. I got a special Christmas card. You did? Yes. I did.

Speaker 1 33:15

I got a number of them. Well, yes.

J

Jimmy Carper 33:17

S

Speaker 1 33:35

Does anyone have a question?

Does yours have a pop up?

J Jimmy Carper 33:36

You know what? No, no, no, no. Oh, no. This this is this was a Christmas card. Oh, it's got Rudolph yelling down the chimney. Yes. Lay off the cookies big guy. I got a bad back. And he opened it up and that's and that better not be home mill. Isn't that great?

S Speaker 1 34:06

That's good. That's good.

J Jimmy Carper 34:08

Terry says some really nice things about after hours. Oh, how cool would it what it means to him.

S Speaker 1 34:12

We love those guys.

J Jimmy Carper 34:13

Thank you, Terry. Hey,

S Speaker 1 34:15

We were handed this little thing from one of the cartoons. It's a bunch of Santas elves on their day off. Yeah. And they're all talking to one another. And the one elf he's just got this extreme look on his face. It says if I have to wrap another one of those damn double down nation toilet seats, I'm gonna balk.

J Jimmy Carper 34:35

That's the elves on the day's off.

S Speaker 1 34:38

Oh, yeah. I'm telling you this. We can handle a little fun things all the time. Every minute of the day. Yes. Let's see. We had one other little piece of news from Toronto. Yeah, our cold frozen hermanas and hermanas up north. It says paddling for pay not sex she says. Now the general gist of this thing is yes, she was humiliated and paddled people for money while she humiliated and paddled people for money, but the dominatrix Terry Bedford says that she did not have sex for money or do anything indecent. And the police think she did. She says they should spell it out. It's been more than two years since police swooped down on her Bedford home in Thornhill, a community just north of Toronto, where she's catered to her clients fantasies as Madame de Saad. They found stockings and garter belts and paddles and an old man who likes to dress up in women's clothing.
