Voting is a very, it's a very sacred privilege and it is a duty for everyone who can vote to get out and vote. There has been some questions concerning people that we have. For instance, in the caucus, we've registered somewhere upwards of 1000 people this year in to get out to vote. And it seems as if our harris county tax assessor has has not been able to mail out the all everybody's voter registration cards, voter ID cards, folks, this is not Paul Betancourt's fault. I went down there and I took a look at it to myself, you know, down there on Preston Avenue, revenue, that's the name of the street in downtown Houston with a county tax assessor is at any rate, folks in the places got like three feet tall voter registration cards, and these people are processing these things manually. If you want to find out if you are registered and you are eligible, you can't call if I remember the email address, you can go to www dot tax dot Harris dot c u dot Texas. I believe that.state.tx. If I remember correctly, if you go to definitely if you go to either kh o u.com, which is channel 11. Or I believe channel 13 is ktrk.com. They will have links on there to going to the Harris County tax assessor's website. And once you access that, you can get the voter registration database. And all you do is just put in your last name and it will come up and you should you will be able to see your records.

01:05

Roy McCarthy 01:56

If they've been able to process if they have not if they have not. What you can do is a thing called challenge voting where your name is not there on the list. You might you know you registered on time. They have what's called challenge voting where you fill out a separate form and they give you a voter punch card you go to your booth, you punch it out. And that's how they are able to keep track.

02:25

And for that you'll most likely need some form of Texas identification.

Roy McCarthy 02:29

Yes, positive Texas ID valid Texas ID updated or birth record birth certificate, social security card, something along that nature plus almost all your major television stations and radio stations have linkups. Also, you can you can also call on election day. The Houston gay and lesbian Political Caucus at 713-521-1000. Someone will be there to answer the phones and we'll be able to give you information on how to contact people at the tax assessor's office if you need rides, I believe the League of Women Voters provide a I believe it's the League of Women Voters who supply rides for people to go out to the different election areas and cast your vote. The voting the voting precincts are going to be open from 7am to 7pm. And the way things look we may not know who is actually elected president till somewhere after 3am. Wednesday morning will be like all the other countries and they're also usually with on voter registered on voter day. If I remember correctly, if you show if you live in town here, if you show your voter registration card, you get free ride on Metro.

03:43

Roy McCarthy 03:59

That's That's correct. It's a free Metro that day there. But what you got to show your but that's between 787 P and for more information on that you can go to their website ride Metro dot o RG

04:07

The recent decision to grant parole to man convicted in the 1991 gay bashing death of Paul Broussard is being reviewed after board members learned that they did not take into account a probation violation. This is regarding Derek a tardes probation, parole that he has been granted. Basically, if you haven't, if you don't know there, Paul Broussard was attacked by 10 young men from McCullough High School in The Woodlands, who came down to the area to harass members at the gay bars. The group spotted Paul Broussard and a couple of friends they were leaving a club and attacked them Now it's hard. While on an iPhone six, the motion was filed to revoke his probation that he received in the original sentence for selling alcohol to a minor and failing to submit to a urinalysis as as was one of his conditions of probation. Rather than revoking probation, the judge sent him to jail for 30 days and allowed him to continue. He then broke it again in 1997, once again for failing to submit to your analysis. And the the probation was revoked, and it was ordered him to serve a 10 year prison sentence. He has posted an appeals bond and avoid enter for entering prison until June of 98. And he will become eligible for for for parole this year. One of the the most difficult parts about this is the fact that whenever a parole is being heard, the victim's families are usually informed ahead of time so that they can attend it or have their say in front of the board. And Nancy Rodriguez Paul was for SARS mother did not receive anything. prior notice to this from the parole officials. She knew that a vote was scheduled on October 11. She contacted angle Tim's parole office which is where his file was kept. But it had been transferred to San Antonio. And the San Antonio said that they hadn't received it. And the only notification she had received was the fact that it had gone through. So that is being reviewed. And we actually getting this art of the story out of the Houston Chronicle, which made Saturday's front page lower corner, which is quite a big step there. And we'll keep an update on to that the Paul Broussard murder was one of the big turning points in the Houston gay community for stepping up and being more visible with a call for civil rights.

R

Roy McCarthy 07:01

And it's kind of interesting because that incident happened on July 4, and happened less than a week after I saw the movie Torch Song Trilogy. Whereas if you've seen the movie twice on Trent trilogy, the kid gets his head he gets killed by gay bashes using two before or baseball bats and things of that nature. At any rate, as promised earlier, I have some information on that gay retirement community that Jimmy was referring to earlier. Out in Cathedral City California. Officials hoped that $122 million retirement home and resort geared toward gay men and lesbian will help spur about downtown business and development arbors at Cathedral City unveiled October 8 would be the first luxury retirement resort in the United States targeted for gay for gay people does the resort will include 170 apartments, eight of which will be luxury penthouse Lofts at assisted living suites 50 timeshare residences, as well. It will also feature a hotel restaurant and retail space, commercial office space, a community theater and an exhibition hall. And the mayor of Cathedral City says that he hoped that it wouldn't be he says, I wouldn't say that it's going to be the centerpiece of our downtown development, but it will be a crown jewel arbors at Cathedral City will be built in multiple phases and expected to be completed by the end of 2003. And folks, there are Chris and many others will joke about my my age. But you know what, there are an awful lot of us a lot more of us than there are of the new generation coming along. And, and many of us are getting on up there I myself which I'm one of the younger ones of it. And 50 I just turned 50 That big half century mark. The baby boomers time was actually from 1945 to I guess around 1960. And I was born 1950. So I guess I'm not one of the younger younger ones. But there are a good many of us. Those that were born in 1960s are 40 now, and we need a place of our own in like Jimmy was saying there's so many of us that are of my age, who have been out and fought for gay rights and stuff and then when they get on up there, they would have to go into a retirement home where they would have to be forced back into a closet. Plus as I've said many times before, gay and lesbian people do have special and you The needs and concerns are different from heterosexuals. We have different things that we do not identify with the majority of things that heterosexual people identify with. Nor does would, many heterosexual people identify with the same things that we do. And we are, we are different. We just really are. Now we're getting into the fun new segment, folks.

out in Arizona or New Mexico. We did that one news story last week that is going to be unveiled this upcoming week. A memorial for let gay in the first national memorial for gay and lesbian veterans who have served in the honorably in the service. Now before I get too far before we get too far away from us oldsters. I do want to say that noted gay psychotherapist, Dr. Harold Kudan will speak about his new book golden men the power of gay midlife. On Monday, November 13, at the Houston lesbian gay community center, the event which is free and is open to the public will begin at 7pm. Now, unlike certain personalities that are on TV, there's about to get whose program is about to get dropped. Dr. Kudan does have bonafide bona fides here. Dr. Kudan lives and works in New York is a clinical cycle psychologist in private practice and a founder of the National Gay and Lesbian Health Foundation. He works extensively with the International lesbian and gay Association and the American Psychological Association. And so he does have very impressive credentials behind him. He knows what he's talking about. In his book, Dr. Kudan draws on new research and his professional experience to examine aging and its impact on key areas of gay life, like body image and sexuality, physical and spiritual health, work and play, friendships and relationship for the first openly gay generation entering a new life stage. Golden men offers help, strength, support and direction again, this is Dr. Harold Kudan, a PhD and he will be at the Houston lesbian gay community center Monday, November 13. And at and it will begin at 7pm be there because it will definitely definitely be an A rewarding and a enriching experience. And like I said earlier, this this fellow here, unlike some television personalities, really does have his credentials to back him up and he does know what he's talking about.

And folks, I'd like to thank the Houston Chronicle Hamnet enter the Houston voice for an eclipse magazine for giving us lots of stuff to chew on this week.

And actually also some of that came from a new magazine that's showing up around here Texas you Texas a glossy neumag Think of the look of outsmart and the stories of Eclipse. And if you want to send us news stories information, love mail, hate mail, dirty pictures, you can email us at after hours kpft@hotmail.com

Roy McCarthy 18:37

And we're already giving out our closing already gave up the dirty pictures. Okay. That's it. And that's it for this week's edition of after hours news interviews for Chris Jimmy. I'm big Roy. Thanks for listening tune in from next week and who knows what else we'll be unprepared for.

19:10

Two women performers here in a row and the last one was not the lesbian plays one on television. The last one was 19:24

19:21

Bette Midler doing on beautiful dammit.

19:27

And we have to I have to thank Justin for leaving.

19:30

Thank you so much, Justin.

19:32

If you're lucky, you may get some of them back. Yes.

19:34

And before that we had Elaine St. George from a wonderful CD called just around the corner and that was have you met Miss Jones she's got a couple others on there I really really like she does a version of Shanghai lil without changing any of the pronouns and I got plenty of nothing is a great great work.

19:55

I think what I liked what a lot of these songs when when they do the covers He is not changing it like how you with JD part when they did

20:04

that looks commercial

20:06

no I'm when they took I'm a girl watch her and change the I'm a boy wha yes I like it better when it's not the genders that are changed in the song it's the artist I mean the guy who sings son of a preacher man

20:22

yes yes yes Jeff grass yeah

20:24

I mean that that I think is the part there it's not the it's not the words that change when the artists changing what you're expecting yeah I think that gives a different yeah well yeah like when Lyle love it first recorded stand by your man who would ever you know it just never occurred to anybody that a man could sing that song and and yet he could.

20:31

20:45

20:15

Yeah it's I mean I think that's what makes one of the songs a lot more intriguing yeah rather than trying to sanitize it and work it for a couple of those are are nice too in case you've just tuned in this is I'm Jimmy Carper and I'm Chris Chris's here. We you are listening to after hours queer radio with attitude on KPFT Houston and ke O 's College Station.

20:56

21:10

And this was normally the after hours the next generation the 20 something

21:16

Yeah, after hours the next generation. Yes. And, and Jason is somewhere I don't know. Okay, probably still recuperating in his own little way. Yes. So fortunately, I came up with a few things I got on the internet and unlike the last time I got on the internet, I didn't pull down all political stuff this time. Oh, you have any good pictures?

21:22

21:39

21:40

Well, that well, unfortunately, the printer is bad. From what we're gonna do is we're gonna talk about some entertainment there. We've seen a lot of get what they're calling gay entertainment. I believe one of the news magazines did an article on it in the past month. And it's amazing seeing how much of this is coming out and how much it was going mainstream and what's being done. I know. Last week, the Houston Chronicle. Their zest section was all on gay theater. And large picture of the new Jeff Stryker plan.

22:19

Without Jeff Stryker in it, though, it was all of his cast mates who are rehearsing here in Houston. So you got a sneak preview of everyone so you see who the other ones are the sides Queenie, besides Queenie. Yeah, Randall job well known throughout the community. And 22:39

22:26

... ..

22:34

yeah, the the gay theatre scene actually, I guess if there's an open audition I think Randall is there first.

22:43

Yes, yes. Or if you've ever gone to Jr's Oh, yes, yes. I think he's karaoke night. He 22:49

22:47

does promotions I believe for Jr. Scoring. Yes, yes.

22:55

But I mean, the whole paperwork. So what? Jason, you're on the phone? Guess what? You're not in the studio. Got me. You know, what happens if we accidentally not able to punch him through?

23:12

We can punch him through.

23:14

Okay, all right. Hello. Hello. Oh, wait a minute. We can't We can't access it. He called Jason You need to calm down. And I know what you think I'm outside in the lobby.

23:28

Yeah. No.

23:36

Talk, Jason Jason. I don't think if they pick up in the lobby, they can we can access it them.

23:50

I'm sorry. I don't know what to talk here. We've got I'll keep pushing buttons. It's not working. Jason just hang up and call back. So I can trash you over the air.

24:02

Well, that's very bizarre. I don't know why that's not working. But

24:06

I mean, seal. The entire zest magazine was just dedicated to the the different theaters that do gay shows gay programming. And with the Jeff Stryker film, they were talking about some of the other past plays have gone on naked boys singing in the handicaps photo in there.

24:27

And that's still playing out. They didn't held a Yeah, it's held over, held over held over. It's just that's been one of the most phenomenal plays in gay Theatre in in, in the history of Houston, I believe. Yeah,

24:44

I mean, it was. I remember what it was and like, yes, long time ago, September, they know I know. And I saw Shawn recently. No, I saw not Shawn but his lover who said oh, yeah, they're still going So, so it's no you lost him.

24:47

25:04

Now that I'm really trying but yeah, I know we got to pick it up in the studio. Hello

25:17

it's it's not it's not doing Jason answers you get for not showing up. Okay, so go on with what you're saying I'll take care of that.

25:25

Hold on Jason. Are you there? Yeah. Oh, finally, Jason.

25:29

Yes. My computer's down. That's why I haven't responded to any emails. And Jimmy, I called you I left a message on your answering machine when tonight telling you that I wasn't feeling well and that I was going to stay home tonight.

25:45

Oh, well, we'll see when you call after midnight. That's when we're on the air. I called before midnight. Oh, I'm sorry, dear. But obviously I didn't call far enough from before midnight. No, I guess not.

25:48

25:54

Who cares? We're gonna trash anyway. But 25:57

I'm just letting you know. i Oh, are 25:58

you doing?

25:59

I'm not feeling well tonight. And that's fine. I'm staying home.

26:00

26:02

I know the feeling. I've had a cold all week. Yeah,

26:05

I'm still having my up and down days from the surgery. So I'm not. I'm not today's a down day. Okay. Well, I want let's talk about that. Because people want to know, and it it worries, folks, when when we say Oh, Jason had surgery, and then oh, well, he's not in tonight. So you want to go over that? Just briefly?

26:11

26:29

Well, back in June. I had some problems. I had to do an emergency operation, then I had to be given some recuperation time. And they had to do a second operation. And September, yes. And so the big deal was back in June. I actually went septic at one point. No, not good. Yeah. So it got pretty bad. But now everything's okay. I'm still just recuperating. Okay, but I can understand about having good days and bad days.

27:01

27:06

Yeah, I know. You can definitely relate. Yes, I certainly can.

27:08

27:11

But I it's a bad night. Hopefully in December. I'll be feeling better. And hopefully we'll be talking about new President Gore.

27:18

No, yes, that would be nice.

27:21

And you better come up with a topic because I've got three months in a row. Too bad.

27:27

I'm going to try. Like, I can do the emailing thing. Yeah. And I'm going to try to keep touch. Keep base with y'all and come up with a topic for December. Okay.

27:36

Well, you sound good.

27:39

Except the reception is horrible. Yeah, well, it What? Are you still in the closet? And again, are you you're calling from the bathroom? And 27:48

I'm walking around with the cordless phone? Oh, I see. Well, that explains it. Cuz it sounds sounds like we got lightsabers going on in the background.

27:50

27:56

Okay, well just listen in there.

27:58

Don't trust me too bad.

27:59

Don't worry.

28:02

28:02

All right, we missed you. Adjacent. I promise I won't trash you any worse than I would do in public go.

28:07

Well, that's not saying no, no. I'll see y'all next month. Bye. Bye. Okay.

28:16

No one sorry. I missed his call. Well, if you'd call it a decent time, well, well, I mean, it's also set difficult time there to to get you after the sun goes down. And I mean, there is that time of the coffin? Yes. Opening the door.

28:19

28:30

I know. I know. I know. So. So. Here, give me that. You talk.

28:37

Why am I supposed to talk? I don't understand. Because it's your segment. Okay. Well, back to 28:44

28:40

with the I mean, we're seeing a lot in the theater we're seeing a lot in movies. And in television. The. I mean, like I said, the big articles that we had recently on theater, the movies, we've got Billy Elliot out right now. And I went and saw that on Thursday. And it's a very, I mean, very interesting movie. There's a gay character in it, but it's not the main character. And it's one that you can tell before he comes out. Just by watching it. You can see it's, there's something that's going to be happening with his character later on. It's very interesting and all the talk about it in the ballet part.

29:26

It's okay the Billy Elliot that's what it is. Did the kid who would rather do ballet than football?

29:33

Yeah, it's 1980. It's set in 1983 Northern England during the Cold strikes that they had. His father and older brother are coal miners. His mother recently passed away. And his father has been scraping together money to send him to boxing lessons down in the union hall. And one day he there's a ballet school in there at The other end of the gym, and he starts watching them and gets kind of pulled in and starts doing ballet. And the teacher sees natural talent. And so he starts doing ballet. And his father finds out and gets all upset and pulls him aside and says no boys do football. Soccer for us here. Yes, boxing and wrestling and Billy goes put boys do wrestling. So it's, well, innuendo in there. And it's it's a very interesting story, because then, at the very end, what it is that he's trying to get to the Royal Ballet School, which is kind of like Juilliard that we have here in the States for just strictly ballet. Sure. And it's a very interesting movie watching this. This young man going through the struggle of something that he's not supposed to be doing, according to the Yeah, yeah. What does that mean? Yeah.

30:57

31:01

That I mean, boys don't do ballet. Yeah. And from 31:03

his, from his social background background. Yes.

31:08

And it's, it's one of those things that when you're sitting there watching the movie, you can sometimes feel like you can take the word ballet out and put in gay, lesbian, and exactly what they're saying. It's It's very moving. It's very powerful. There was a couple of times that yeah, I got a little misty eyed and I heard a lot others little sniffing in the room. And it was it was not hay fever kicking in. It was, it was some of the sentimentality. And it was a very, very starting point. Now it's, I'll tell you this a couple. I really wasn't looking for the soundtrack now, for that movie. And there's a couple of times that some of the songs are kind of flashed back. And just like what he's dancing to what is it like new music? No, it's, and it's even with being 80s music. It's not music that I've heard before. It's a lot of, I guess, British music. Oh, that really didn't come over. Okay. And some of the classical Yeah. Kind of music. I would think if it's ballet. Yeah. Well, the the ballet part that he does in there is more of the modern ballet. So it's a very interesting movie to go see in that and I mean, some of his ballet there were kind of looks like river dance. Oh, I see. So it kind of starts like that and just gives them to this wild emotion. And that's playing down at the River Oaks landmark Theater, which is a very interesting site to go go watch movies at. And then we've got another one coming up here in a couple of weeks. The broken hearts club. I'm looking forward to this one. Big time. Big time.

32:52

I think that's playing at two different theaters here. And yes, the Angelica and landmarks Greenway theater. They're kind of they're calling it like the big chill for the gays. 2000 It's really Dean Cain, the former Superman is going to have on screen kissing and you were saying more?

33:15

From what you're from the from the article I read, there's, there's kissing and, and kind of groping. Yeah. But which is kind of strange. They're considering the fact that yes, he's that good looking man, but he's also very conservative.

33:26

33:34

Well, like all I also said, and I have I have here somewhere because I wanted to bring this up in I've been seeing this in movies a lot. Yeah. Lots of gay characters being played by straight people.

33:54

Yeah, because I think what it is a lot of people are afraid of getting that stereotype that they don't want to get typecast into they can only play the gay role. Yes, yeah, maybe but it just strikes me as so odd that it's perfectly I mean, we can accept a straight actor playing a gay role. But many people have problems with a gay actor playing a straight role if he's openly gay, or even on the lesbian side there and Haish right after her coming out with Allen immediately playing it with opposite the love interest opposite Harrison Ford in was it

34:04

34:28

34:40

seven days? Seven Days, Seven Nights, seven days six nights. I'm like that sounds the movie title sound like an advertisement for timeshare. And and probably went over about as well. And oh, I think it did a little bit better than that. Yeah, but it was it was one of those things that you see that kind of a problem. mean, Sean Hayes, who was in Belize, Hollywood screencasts. And now is in Wheeling gray. very flamboyant, very open. I don't much more over the top in the series than he was in the movie. Yeah. And then when the movie came out, he was. He's very much guarded against what his sexuality is. He was always very standoffish. Yeah. And I think he's still is. Oh, please. I mean, thing I got to extend. You've got like Eric McCormack, who was recently seen parading around in a Dr. Frank N Furter outfit on VH. One, go figure. And I must say there's bikini reef, and ice.

34:43

34:54

34:56

35:41

But I've got this quote that I got off of the net this week from actress Nora Dunn. And it's about this, this, this subject, quote of the day, I think it's interesting that when you play a lesbian people ask if you're a lesbian, but if you play a serial killer, nobody asks you if you're a serial killer.

36:03

See what I mean? Yeah. Well, I think part of it also is we're just now finally getting to a point in the movies, where gay characters can play something positive. I mean, for years, we were either the butt of the joke. Oh, yeah. Or we got killed at the end. We were the victim or we were the murderer. Yes. Yeah. And we were either something to be feared something pitied or something to be killed.

36:17

36:21

36:27

And now there's so many movies where we're just a matter of fact, yeah. Where the where can beauty You know, it's just a matter of fact that the next door neighbors were were gay couple and probably the the most mentally stable people in the movie. I have not yet seen that movie. I haven't seen that one yet. But it's, I mean, that's the part where it's coming out of we're kind of blending more into the woodwork of I'm sorry, Bobby. I took your seat. No. But I mean, I think it's what you're seeing with a lot of movies. I just recently rented a couple from one from Hollywood video called Raising heroes. And their their sub slogan on that was this time the gay man has the gun Doughboy and which, which was an interesting movie on on several different levels. The fact you've got a gay couple trying to adopt a child. And it's not the the stereotypical beautiful gay couple that you see. It's not it's not the HRC glad role model.

36:47

37:39

This, it's like, like somebody that looks like a real person. Oh, 37:44

I mean, the one was, was on the chunkier side. The other one was, was just on the good looking side of normal. And and it turns out, they, they get tied in with a mob. And it's just a very, it's an interesting movie to see it in that way. And it looks like a low budget movie from the 70s. But it's a lot of current things, but nothing really over the top. And it's interesting to see them as the trying to be the victim and not the victims in it. But trying to be the victors in this. This little

38:23

Hello, hi. Yeah, just change the seat. Just sorry. Moving around.

38:29

Oh, where are we getting music from? Where's the music? What the hell are we doing having music on a radio station for 38:42

Bobby Chang seats and accidentally turned on his Walkman. Well, it's not just that he's got enough metal surrounding him. He's his own antenna. Hey. All right. And lightning rod. You probably picked him Radio Free Europe in there.

38:47

39:00

Anyway, where were you going with this subject.

39:03

But one of the parts we're really seeing a lot of this in is on television. And we've come a long way in the 20 years since Billy Crystal Wow. Doing so. Yeah. Doing so. And even then it wasn't really an accepted type character. No, it was a gay character who at the very beginning was going to have gender reassignment surgery so that he could go out with his boyfriend who the football the football player. And then as the show continued, he was no longer cross dressing. He was no longer gay. He was straight. And it eventually turned turned away from the original character. Yes. But it's one of those first that we have in the the television. Well, I mean, and brothers don't forget brother brothers brothers.

39:49

39:53

Yeah. In fact, there's a somewhat of a tie in with brothers with the new show that came out normal Ohio is the character who played the vein of like Donald on brothers Phillip Charles Mackenzie is the director of normal Ohio oh really
