The following program contains language or images of a phrase or sensitive nature which may be considered objectionable by some listener discretion is advised. Oh yes, you've tuned into after hours queer radio with attitude right here on KPFT Houston 90.1 FM. The crew of after hours is ready to bring you news interviews, dialogue and music geared for gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgendered people and their friends. Hear it after hours, we may be diverse, but we have one thing in common. We are all out of the closet and urge everyone to come out of their closets. That means standing up for yourself taking responsibility for your own life and being proud of who you are. Realistically, we know not everyone can do that because of age job or frame of mind. That's okay, we're here for you too. So sit back, relax, and enjoy this week's edition of after hours. Hello, Houston in College Station and Huntsville and welcome to after hours queer radio with attitude on Jimmy Carper. And especially want to say hi to joy and Doug up in Huntsville at after they're doing right now on the air doing after hours north on KSHU 90.5. That's our sister program for folks who just can't get us very well. And I know join Doug do a good job up there. They have a bit they have modeled their show after this one. That's very cool. Yes. Bobby's with me. Hey, in in the control room. And I want to tell you a little bit about what you heard. Like if you didn't know, first of all, the first thing you heard was a song Jeffster by Jeff crasner. And it's from his brand new album maybe. And it's it's called go down easy, which I thought was a terrific lead in for that short, little piece of interview with Jeff Stryker, who was in town a couple of weeks ago and sat down with with me in the control room and we did a little chatting and Ray Hill came in and he did a little chatting. So this is just a little piece of the entire interview and shucky darns shocked to hear that word here.

B Bobby 03:24

J Jimmy Carper 03:27

No. Well, I had like an hour notice. Yeah, come and meet Jeff Stryker, you know, I didn't even have time to do he was just incredible. You're on in there. He is starring in his own play called Jeff Stryker does hard time and play. Leave You didn't come me

G Gigi 03:49

J Jimmy Carper 03:53
did have time to call. Playing at the Ashlyn theater that's that's easy to get to it's It's Ashlynn and 26th street, you know, you take you can take Montrose Boulevard and just go down to 26 then turn left until you run into it. It's very close to where we would just add Oh, really?

B Bobby 04:08

J Jimmy Carper 04:11
Okay. It's in the neighborhood. Yeah, it's a small, it's a very small theater, probably about 100 seats. So you know that there's not going to be a bad seat there. His play starts on August 26 and runs for three weeks. So give him a call. Ashland theater I mean, I think he's first couple of performances are already sold out. You know, I mean, well, hey, you know, it's Jeff only 18 performances. That's it, you know, you know, Yeah, but see him naked in the flesh.

B Bobby 04:47
You know, they keep saying stuff like that. But you know, that other play that's been running you know, that was only supposed to go on for a little while and it's still Oh,

J Jimmy Carper 04:56
boy. Yeah, we see that's all local you know, the, you know, J is only going to be here that a certain amount of time, but then he does this play in another city and a way that we'll be talking about that more later in the month. And the big thing on the agenda. Well, there's a lot of big things on the agenda. Oh, yeah. What is empower, which is coming up to morrow, tomorrow, tomorrow at George R Brown, it's free. And there's I don't know about 100 booths from different organizations. And there's gonna be entertainment and flu shots and I mean, he just everything I was for the Gulf Coast archives and museum and outsmart was there and they have a big ol booth just sent me and you get to bend over. Yeah,

J Jimmy Carper 05:49

what depends on where they want to stick it I guess. And we are talking about the flu shot aren't we? Oh, we're

G Gigi 05:58

gonna have distracted

J Jimmy Carper 06:02

you looked into the into the triangle this week. You notice that there was events listed for National Coming Out Day and across the state and Houston was not in it. And you know, I'm out. Maybe maybe our Coming Out Day celebration is in power. That's the whole idea. Yeah, we're coming out to the world. Oh, we are out. In the studio talk studio is Gigi. Yeah. Finally. Yeah. And J is here and Jays gonna be doing some wonderful stuff tonight. And you have some guests. Oh, yes, we have Chris. And we have Melanie will be talking with them on some trans gendered issues. And then we're gonna throw in a few little kinks and twists. And Jay is gonna do a book review on Tricks and Treats. Oh, my. And then after that the best bisexual erotica.

G Gigi 06:32

J Jimmy Carper 07:02

This is just the perfect night for Joe.

G Gigi 07:05

Yeah. And then of course we've got the bisexual conference coming up in Austin are due and I tell you I am getting so excited. It is like going to be so awesome. We're gonna have by boy and girl go go dancing. Oh, my look out. Oh, come in. Oh, my Austin. What are we talking about the same? We talk a buck. Oh, yes. We're doing a fundraiser. Ah, I see. And we're gonna be pulling down and getting it dirty. To raise money for the bisexual network. That thing is all hooked up weird. So anyway, we're all kind of hooked up weird around here.

J Jimmy Carper 07:59

One of our mics are out tonight. which one it is? Ah, okay. Hello. Hello. Yeah, that's much better.

Gigi 08:08

So anyway, we're gonna kind of unless you have something we're gonna go right into it J for the tricks and treats.

J 08:17

Okay, the first one is called first book is called Tricks and Treats and as you say, yeah, it's very appropriate for this week. Didn't even know about the whole Jeff Stryker thing. So it just worked out. God wanted us to talk about this book, I guess. Okay, let's go. And actually, actually, we could have talked about it last week too.

Jimmy Carper 08:32

J 08:35

That's true. It's subtitled sex workers write about their clients. And the sky the editor is Matt Bernstein Sycamore sycamores his last name from Hayworth press the Harrington Park press the

Jimmy Carper 08:50

that's that's kind of the Uptown presses Yeah,

J 08:53

they've been it's got some nice stuff in it and then they have a whole section on you know gay lesbian stuff Fritz Klein's book yeah bisexual option

Jimmy Carper 09:00

is this is important stuff this is just not bad for him reading

J 09:05

Exactly. No it's not not sure why not read in there. And it's really good

Jimmy Carper 09:12

it's don't do that when Melanie is taking a second time this month so yeah follow one hand and reading or something. Okay, so sex workers write about their clients. As Sycamore systems introduction, we get a lot I mean, there's there's books out there on prostitution, sex work and all that other good stuff. But it usually focuses on the sex worker. And you know, so much of it is basically just oh, look at how oppressed these people are. Look at how degraded they are by it and blah, blah, blah. Unless you get someone like, you know, Carol Queen writing or Yeah. But Carol, Queen Annie sprinkle, you know, you can count the number of sex positive sex workers out there on one hand, basically. So what Sycamore did is he basically put the word out that he was putting this book together and just basically talk about the clients. So it's looking at John's not so much he didn't use any name study. I'm not in there. Relax, Jim.

J 09:22

J Jimmy Carper 10:25

J 10:34

Well, now that you mentioned at page 90 So the books divided into three sections, and the first one is called tricks. Second one's called treats. And the third one's called Tricks and Treats. So the tricks section is interesting, because it's, it seems to most like the bad experiences, you know, my worst client, the treat section is like, you know, the good part, the sex positive people and what have you. And then Tricks and Treats is kind of the stuff I guess that he couldn't figure out what is was it a good experience or a bad experience? So he kind of stuck it in there, but just the weird experience. Yeah, things like that. But the interesting thing is the tricks section was all about basically my one bad client. So it was all one day I did this one day, this happened. The treat section. I personally found a lot more interesting because well, it had Nina Hartley in it, you know, porn star. Oh, yeah. Carol, queen, of course, my baby. And yeah, boy, Jill Nagel, who wrote horrors and other feminists is in there as well. And they tend to especially Nina Hartley and Carol Queen really got into more of the, you know, who are prostitutes, what do they do? Sort of the kind of theory behind it, why I got into sex work and stuff like that. Really great stuff. Really great. So I think Hartley opens that section. And she just, she sounds like such a nice person. And she says, you know, these people come up to me that her fans and they're all nervous about meeting her real life. And she says, I just try to love him as much as I can and be as friendly because it's so hard for you know, a fan or even a John to kind of open themselves up to a prostitute. You know, I mean, I mean, that is kind of the whole point. Right? And Carol queen has a great article in there. It's it's basically what do men want? Jon's really, but she says, basically, all jobs are men. Very few are women for women. They want attention, don't they? Well, it was interesting. She says, what do they watch this blow jobs? What did you think I was gonna say?

J 12:36

J Jimmy Carper 12:44

Yeah, that's probably it, you know, and all of these gay men, you know, going without

G Gigi 12:51

it's a crime, send them my way.

J 12:55

But But then she also. But then she also talks about things like, yeah, they want variety. Some of them just want to try new things. Some of them, you know, can't get it at home type thing. And so both Queen Anne Hartley kind of go into that, you know, what do they do as a prostitute? And how do they feel about that's the stuff I really like. And the interesting thing about this book is that it is balanced. You know, because I think all too often you get either one side or the other. And you're even going to pick up a book that says, okay, all women are, first of all, they only talk about women, all women are degraded by prostitution, once they do it, they can never have a normal sex life. And isn't this just awful what we're doing to them, it's evil sin, blah, blah, blah. Or you pick up a book, like Carol Queens just basically talks about the good part of prostitution. And she admits quite openly in this book, she says, I've never worked the streets, I've never had to worry about cops. I always had, you know, good clients and was able to screen and stuff like that. So she admits she had she wasn't in the, you know, rough part of being a prostitute. But um, so it seems like the books you get are, are so one sided. And that was really interesting about this one, because you did see some of the bad side and you did see some of the good side. And another interesting thing is that some of these people like Hartley or queen, or Jill Nagel, or somebody like that are writers, you know, and very literate. And some of them, you'll look in the back and they have a list of contributors and authors and things like that. And quite a few of them, it's just basically so and so he lives in New York, New York, which probably means these people you know, we're like off the streets and stuff like that. Some of them you read it, you say, oh, yeah, that's who these people are. So it's interesting to get that that range. Yeah. Oh, and speaking of range, by the way, this is interesting. Well, for one thing, he said he wanted to get a wide range of genders, so he got male, female transgender all in there. And sex worker. Usually when you say sex worker, people think okay, hooker, phone sex operator. a porn star. And all of those are in there. But there's also a guy who's a sperm donor, which I thought was interesting.

J Jimmy Carper 15:07

sperm donor.

15:08

Yeah. It's all under that category. Exactly, exactly. That's what everybody said. That's basically what it is, you know? And he said, Yes, what he's doing is he's selling sex, quite literally. Although, whereas Yes, okay. He's, he's not selling the fantasy. He's selling the reality.

Jimmy Carper 15:20

15:26

So that yeah, that's it exactly as everybody else. They're selling the sex without procreation. He's selling procreation.

Bobby 15:34

So which, in some cases can be a very good thing? Yes.

15:39

So it, you know, so that's thing too, is sex workers. Wide, wide variety. They got peep show people, people who just dance, people who actually do go out and have sex. And so sex worker in and of itself is kind of a broad category. So that was really interesting. Since again, it's essays written by a number of people, some of them are better than others. Some of them are nice and short. Some of them are really kind of long, and you wish, maybe done a little more editing. But there's really just one I mean, just kind of went on and on and on. It's like, okay, skip over to the next one. But it was it was well written, though. I mean, maybe I was just bored with it.

Jimmy Carper 16:21

No, no, that's, let's just be realistic about it.

16:24

Yeah. But for the most, for the most part, they're good and short. I'm just sort of like a little old sound bite or something. But it's interesting, because there isn't a book like this out there. Talking about the clients and how the sex workers feel about it and stuff. So it was a really good book. As I say, hey, worth press. From there. Harrington Park press, the gay and lesbian press. So Matt Sycamore is the editor. Look it up. Sounds good.

Jimmy Carper 16:51

Do you know where it's available? It's probably at Buffalo in crossroads, I guess. Yep.

 16:55

I imagine. So I haven't checked on that. If you don't find it at Lobo. Just

 Jimmy Carper 16:59
ask Sally.

 Gigi 17:02
And this is a month for Tricks and Treats.

 17:06
Oh, yeah. I didn't even think about that one.

 17:12
So on that note, speaking of treats, I finally got the best bisexual erotica from circling. Circling, it's actually a joint venture between circuit press and Black Books. Okay, black boxes.

 Jimmy Carper 17:27
Oh, yes. That's that's Bill Brent. And yeah, and the black sheets. Yeah, group those those folks that put out that wonderful. Bisexual magazine, black and I have to say I just got the latest black sheet. Yes. Is it hard baby? It's about

 Gigi 17:39

 Jimmy Carper 17:47
public sec. Oh, my.

 Gigi 17:51
There we go down. And so

 Jimmy Carper 17:54
like Gaby, I haven't read it yet. Oh,

 Gigi 17:57
baby, read it. You will not sleep well.

 18:04
Maybe he'll sleep real well. So today best bisexual erotica is edited by Bill Brandt. And of course our very own Carole queen. And both of whom have essays ever excuse me stories in there. So does Jamie Joy gotta we've met her at the bike camp. And of course, my favorite a raven caldera. Just read that one today. It's hot stuff in there. So anyway, great stuff. I mean, it's it's the quality stuff you would expect from circlip. Press. And it's, again, it's got like a wide range. There was one story in there that I found. It was it was hot and sexy but extremely poignant to Oh, it was two men and two women told from the point of view of one of the women who are living on a beach in Mexico, in Mexico, period. And just kind of basically seemed like homeless people living on the beach and had their own little family there. And so as I say, there were some hot sex, but it was also it was just very sweet and very kind of sad and not very sad, but kind of sad. And just a great story.

 Jimmy Carper 19:15
You mean, these are not just one hand

 19:19
one handed reading? No, no,

 Jimmy Carper 19:21
these are fleshed out. Stories. I mean, really a plot and everything. Yeah. Oh, yeah. Yeah.

 19:27
And even the ones I mean, you know, some of the store like this one was, I would say heavier on the plot. It had sex in it, and the sex was really hot. But, you know, it had this this whole plot and story and characterization going on. And even the ones that are more just sex all the way through, you know, they still got the good characters, they've got the relationships. And I don't quite know what the criteria were for, you know, what makes it bisexual. But there was one story where the two care vectors I can't remember exactly. Now, I think they were both men or something like that. But one of the men was fantasizing about a woman or something. So it wasn't, you know, I guess technically bisexual, but it did have man woman and a man thinking about women and stuff like that. So it doesn't necessarily just because it's bisexual doesn't necessarily mean there's two guys and a woman or two women and a man, although there are plenty of those in there as well. But it could be two characters, one of whom is bisexual and talks about oh, my girlfriend or my boyfriend or whatever, or it could just be like this one was, you know, the guy thinking about a woman or something like that while he's getting, you know, attention from his boyfriend. But again, as I say, I mean, you know, hot stuff, it kind of takes me a while to read this book. You know, I see after every two or three stories he kind of got, okay, well, anyway.

 Jimmy Carper 20:55

That's honest. That's an honest review. Well, I was I was writing a review for mind caviar, which Jamie Joy Gato does it. Yeah, website for it. And it's erotic. Hot. Cool stuff. Really? And yeah, the website, www dot mind. caviar.com. Dia, our caveat. Yeah, like the fish stuff. Yeah. And so a lot of its erotic stuff. And then she has a whole section on buy stuff. And I told her that I do book reviews for KPFT. She says, Hey, you want to type some of them up and put them on the website? So I said, Sure. And I haven't been able to find them. But I haven't been on that website very often. But so I was doing a book review for best bisexual erotica. As I put in there, I see you know, I'm flipping through trying to remind myself of these stories and what they were about and every so often, I have to stop a little bit. It's like, okay, let me take a break from writing this stuff and like I you know, very well written. I mean, like I say, this is you got Bill Brandt, you got Carole queen, I got CircleUp press and Black Books. Nuff said. Nuff said.

 20:57

 Jimmy Carper 22:05

So the name of it is 22:07

best bisexual erotica.

B Bobby 22:10

And I think that's, that's something that you don't see in a lot of books. It's where it's all about the sex and nothing else. I mean, those are boring. Those can be I mean, put a story in there. Give us some give us something about the characters. Besides, well, let me tell you that the other ones, you know, that's just have the sex. And that was great when I was 16. Yeah, it was wonderful. But now, you know, have a little experience behind just kind of like, it's kind of boring.

 Jimmy Carper 22:29

G

Gigi 22:43

More for you these stories and yeah, especially Jamie, Joy goddess story. I mean, you know, really kind of brings in some of the realities that are out there, especially for buyers. And, you know, Jamie Joy goes into this gay bar with their husband. And, you know, they meet the reality of a gay bar being bisexual. Ah, and then it becomes erotic. And so you get all these entanglements? And it's like, you know, when is human sexuality is pure as and most supporting that's out there. You know, it doesn't happen that way. Oh, no, no, no. And so she does in the real life. That's nice.

J

J 23:37

Well, and some of the stories, at least, the initial ones, it was very interesting, a lot of not a lot of them, but quite a few of them were basically like, a couple goes and picks up a guy or woman or something like that. And so again, I mean, there was one that I was thinking as Jeezy was talking about this, I was remembering it where it was, let me see if I can remember. I think it was a man and a woman a couple. And the woman would go out and pick up a guy, or she went and picked up a guy and brought her back brought him back to the apartment. He's almost straight on Wall Street. But of course, you know, once the chips are down, so to speak, he didn't really you know, object to the male influence there. Yeah. So again, I mean, you know, she was talking about the fluid sexualities, which was really nice. And then of course, Raven caldera. Well, Nuff said, you know, was an FTM female to male transgender with his boyfriend picks up a woman who's a male to female transgender person, and they all have really hot and steamy sex and so

J

Jimmy Carper 24:37

yeah, really got to think about 24:41

getting a victor video

J

J 24:47

so of course then when you get the whole DOM sub thing going Yes, Master. Oh, yeah. Oh, yeah. So it's, you know, the stories are all very different. I mean, whatever. turns you on. There's a story for you. And, but a lot of them do have it's interesting. I find this a lot with bisexual stories bisexuals who write porn, or erotica, whatever you want to call it, is there always seems to be some element of SM in there. If nothing else, just the whole DOM sub thing or maybe some leather or, you know, all the way up to whole whips and chains thing. Yeah. So it's, it's interesting. Not all the stories are like that. But there are quite a few of them like that. So, you know, at least again, maybe some of the first ones a lot of the first ones were like that, so I'm just thinking about those but but then there's some that are vanilla. There's some that's you know, just to women, making love to men, man or woman threesomes I don't, I can't think right offhand. If there were any, you know, massive orgies or anything. I think three is about as far as it gets. But there was one. Was there one? Yeah. Okay. It was.

G Gigi 26:01
It was certainly Cisco and

J J 26:05
San Francisco.

J Jimmy Carper 26:08
Brent wrote that

B Bobby 26:13
he's in San Francisco. That never happens. Yeah, there's a stretch for you as a stretch.

J J 26:19
So best bisexual erotica edited by Bill Brandt and Carol queen. Oh, so cool. And last time I checked, they didn't have it at crossroads, but they ordered they would order it. Okay. So I did ask them that were asked Sally over at Loma Sally, she she she's still there. Yes. That was there. She's blonde hair.

J Jimmy Carper 26:32

B Bobby 26:40
I know who she Yeah, I thought she had left. Recently.

J Jimmy Carper 26:46
It must have been in the last two weeks.

B Bobby 26:49
Anyhow, go.

J Jimmy Carper 26:50
Wow. Stop by there tomorrow. What's going on? Okay, let's take a little break and go to a piece of music. Are you finished? Yeah. Oh, I'm sorry.

G Gigi 27:03
Before we get a music Yes, I do have to do a big plug here for the BI net conference coming up. Asked me. I have talked to people all over the country this past week. And it is gonna be so awesome. We're gonna have byes taking over Austin. Next weekend. That should be fun. And I tell you we're getting quite a lineup of activities going with workshops by day and party by night. We're gonna have by boys and girls. going go go. Raising money

J Jimmy Carper 27:46
I see. I'll talk about QA attack

G Gigi 27:49
back. Or tech a few Oh, we take plastic we take spandex we take

B Bobby 28:00
vinyl vinyl.

G Gigi 28:04
thing goes.

J Jimmy Carper 28:07
That's great. That's, I know if you've had a hand in it. There's going to be some fun activities. So

G Gigi 28:13
I've had a hand a little bit more than a hand. Of course, miss. We're gonna kick everything off

I've had a hand a little bit more than a hand. Of course, miss. we're gonna kick everything on Friday night with a TGI B which is thank God his son by pool party at the hotel. Okay. And it should be a big splash. And more ways than with water. Oh, my Oh, yeah. A lot more than water. Yeah. Look out. Austin. We're coming. That sounds like anybody that wants more information. Yes. can contact me at by house@flashed.net or call the by net line. 713-467-4380 I think is the right number.

J Jimmy Carper 29:05

Jay is shaking her head. Oh, good.

G Gigi 29:08

That's good. So with that plug, music away.

J Jimmy Carper 29:13

Plugs. Woman that you're probably going to interview next month. Robin Renee. Oh, yes. I have some music from her.

G Gigi 29:23

And talk about hot babes. Oh, look.

J Jimmy Carper 29:28

There's two songs. I really like off of this CD that I've been playing on the air. And it's from her new CD called in progress. It's called for what's it What about which 1am I playing? Oh, I could love you. And that's kind of the peppy one. And you're listening to all of this on after hours queer radio with attitude on KPFT Houston and ke O 's college stick there we go. Robin Renee. With I could love you. And we're back with the BiNet and actually didn't. All of us didn't go because I left the mic on in there. Oh my, my, ah people who were trying to record Robin Renee song they got talking over.

G Gigi 30:21

Oh, wow.

J Jimmy Carper 30:22

You don't just have to go to to her website and order a copy or you go www dot Robin renee.com.

Gigi 30:32

And I tell you, she was I met her at the national meeting last year. And she is so hot.

Jimmy Carper 30:39

Really? Oh, yes, that was this album. Oh, she is talented and beautiful and wonderful. And by activists debate, he could ask for more.

Gigi 30:43

Jimmy Carper 30:52

Tell me, where are we going from here? Where we have Chris and Melanie in the station. And we're gonna talk a little bit about some transgendered issues that have been coming up here in Houston. Oh, there's been several. Oh, and it's, you know, it really saddens me sometimes the people can be as cruel as they are even within the community.

Gigi 30:54

Jimmy Carper 31:21

Want you to when the two three get closer together? Okay. That might go because I'm not you know, it's a community thing. The mics mics are a little iffy tonight.

Gigi 31:34

And how close would you like this one had some Viagra. I think that's the only floppy tonight. That's that's the only one working I think I can help with that. I'm sure. But anyway, what's been going on? Okay, well
