Oh yes, you've tuned into after hours queer radio with attitude right here on KPFT Houston 90.1 FM. The crew of after hours is ready to bring you news interviews, dialogue and music geared for gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgendered people and their friends. Hear it after hours, we may be diverse, but we have one thing in common. We are all out of the closet and urge everyone to come out of their closets. That means standing up for yourself taking responsibility for your own life and being proud of who you are. Realistically, we know not everyone can do that because of age job or frame of mind. That's okay, we're here for you too. So sit back, relax, and enjoy this week's edition of after hours hoo hot man just came into the studio anyway. Hello Houston and college station and welcome to after hours queer radio with attitude. This is the June 10 edition. I am Jimmy Carper.

S Sarah DePalma 02:00

And, and I am Sarah De Palma. How the hell are you Houston.

J Jimmy Carper 02:04

And before we go any further I want to read this, which is the very first time I heard about this news it was on the internet. It came from Michel Katyn, it says I'm very happy to report the following the opinion and the 2106 homosexual conduct case was issued today holding the statute to be unconstitutional. Under the teak Texas Equal Rights Amendment. Gay and lesbian people are no longer considered criminals under the Texas penal code. This came on June eighth.

S Sarah DePalma 02:41

marked that in your history books, folks, march 8. Now this is not over yet. And everybody needs to know that June 8, June 8, this is not over yet. No.

J Jimmy Carper 02:53

But June 8 is now the the Texas gay and lesbian Freedom Day and I might add one Why do you think a transgendered person is interested in in the sodomy law because in many, many cases like yours, Sarah, you are transgendered from male to female, and you find yourself in a lesbian relationship point, as it says pointing out to someone today, transgender people can be gay, lesbian, bisexual, none of the above. Yeah. I mean, that can be none of it can be any of those. If you you know, regardless of what you are, this is cause for celebration. This is the you bet change. June is pretty good month for players all over the place. You know,

S Sarah DePalma 03:17

J Jimmy Carper 03:39

I already talked to Jack and said, you know, next year, the opening of Pride Month has to be on June 8. So is this our June team? Just just the microphone. You do daddy raise there. He's got. You've got all the mics. I turned them all on Yeti race here. Actually.

R Ray Hill 03:59

I learned a long time and you understand that Sarah and I have known one another for all low. Sarah's a&m days.

S Sarah DePalma 04:09

When radio came up with Phyllis Brian created right. Yeah, right. Right, right. We opposite the corps commander that

R Ray Hill 04:12

S Sarah DePalma 04:16

day. As I sit here, one of my

R Ray Hill 04:20

villas had been an Aggie back before women could go to Texas a&m. And then she came back. And the corps commanders showed up, and villas hide her Gulags up and showed her her Faisal birds and Zed and Z. My birds are much more advisable than your duck husband. And Sarah, I met when I met Sarah, Sarah was right was well running is not a fair word for student organizations because it's kind of like herding cats

Sarah DePalma 04:50

that was more Emma's more like it.

R

Ray Hill 04:55

She was doing she was doing all of the slave labor but They're on javelin. It was funny. We did what we call a blue jeans day. And I'll never forget this right? And everybody was said, oh, yeah, yeah, sir. We're gonna support you. This is all gonna be fine. I mean, come with blue jeans day. You're the only one in jail. They saw me coming. They would cross the street, they wouldn't come near. I was like, Hey, what happened? No the support? Well, gee, this was a really great idea. I can't afford to chicken.

Sarah DePalma 05:02

J

Jimmy Carper 05:28

Yeah. Yeah, that's only half of the word you meant to say.

R

Ray Hill 05:35

Jim started off with the President of the United States, declaring June the middle of the night when the news media was right to be gay and lesbian Pride Month. Yes. All right.

J

Jimmy Carper 05:48

I have transgender, we're no,

R

we're getting there. But we made you know, you know, that was good for President. I, we want a better president next time. And so that was the beginning. And that's the first thing that happened. And then, in Texas, we took the whole Chase, because you understand for the first diamond 200 years. In Houston, Texas, and throughout the jurisdiction of the 14th Court of Appeals. gay men and lesbians and bisexuals may express their love for folks of the same gender. And you will come to think of it I can't think of any other great besides gay men, lesbians, bisexual and transgendered people. I don't think anybody else would do that. Maybe the terribly drunk. They're already drunk. Already, but anybody that would choose to do that with a smile on their face, all right, can do that legally. For the first time in over 200 years. Under Spanish law, such activity was punishable by execution. And then came the Texas sodomy statute, which really kicked in, well, first, before the zombies died. There was the Texas law against abominable and detestable crimes against nature against nature. And that kicked in sometimes in the 1800s. And then, early in this century, those laws were declared basically unconstitutional. Because I mean, what is detectable? I mean, I did testable and abominable crime against nature.

S Sarah DePalma 07:33
Copying a Republican

R Ray Hill 07:38
thing is unnatural for

J Jimmy Carper 07:40
me now,

R Ray Hill 07:40
Dale carpenter seems to think he's got it figured out. I don't dress down garden or anything else.

S Sarah DePalma 07:47
hightail it out of town, take the take the heat, don't

J Jimmy Carper 07:49
we have to Don't we have to make a caveat on that because the Texas Court of Appeals had handed down this decision. We're what three Republican judges know until they know what it is. I'm not there yet. Oh, okay.

R Ray Hill 08:00

J Jimmy Carper 08:03
I just want to get the Bronx there. I'm not saying that you're. And then in 1974 Governor Dolph Briscoe, bless his heart. He was the governor, Governor Brisco and Jamie were very Baptist. All right. Let me tell you how Baptist they were. They did not allow the serving of bourbon and branch water in the Texas governor's mansion. Miss Jamie made Kool Aid. That's how Baptist Jamie at golf work.

J

Jimmy Carper 08:37

That must have been the first

Ray Hill 08:39

I mean, I mean, do you have any idea of what that did to like Sam Rayburn? Johnson? Yeah, who got gags and politics lubricated with bourbon and Brightwater? Did you know that? And so but genuine. And so whenever Texas adopted the Model Penal Code, oh, what is that you ask? Model Penal Code was written at Princeton University. Oh, by a gay legal professor, and out of the closet gay labor. But the name of author Varner and author Varner was a gay guy. He had a bunch of graduate students, he rewrote everybody's penal code, because Penal Code was getting cobbled up and was very archaic around the country. And he wrote a clean penal code when he got to the section that dealt with beastly ality and homosexual behavior and all of that he just left that out. The key that was easy, just wiped it out. Good idea and went on to the next topic. Yeah, that was first adopted in 1968 by the Illinois legislature. With all that stuff left out, and the governor signed it and Illinois became the first state in the United States in 1968. To greet decriminalize homosexual behavior. Well tick tock, tick tock, it's 1973 And Texas criminal statute is more cobbled up than anybody else. It's time for a new statute. So some young men in the Texas Legislature, State Representative. Would you believe Mickey Leland? State Representative Would you believe Craig Washington with a great big afro as a State Senator, would you believe Barbara Jordan? Yeah, all got together on the various adheres jurisprudence committees, and they adopted the Illinois Penal Code. Cool. Governor Brisco refused as I called one now that didn't know about them. Goyard brother, and so they went back. Now this is the legend. Went back to Craig's office, Craig was the chair of the committee and Mickey came in and said, What are we going to do? And Craig says, What is the least thing we can do? What is the absolute minimum thing we can do? And Mickey said, Well, we could make it a Class C misdemeanor, punishable by fine only not to exceed $200 with no jail time. Cool. Yeah. So Greg said, Give me a pen. So section 21.06, was actually added to the Penal Code by a dear friend of the gates, this Greg Washington, and the printer, he had to add it. He had to add it in there to get the governor signature on the rewrite of the penal code. Now, Mickey Leland said, Craig, I'm going to make a crusade out of fighting it. Tick tock tick tock two years later, takes his representative House of Representatives 1975. The year I got out of prison, and today, Craig Washington stands before the house and does an impassioned plea to repeal section 2106 of the penal code. He gets a vote Oh, he goes back and he sits down his desk redacted. And Craig Washington said Mickey, sometimes, the principle is worth the effort.

J

limmv Carner 12:07

 Jimmy Carper 12:07
Yes, yeah. Yes, it is.

 Ray Hill 12:09
So every year after that, until Diane Hardy Garcia became director of the gay and lesbian rights lobby, and attempt to appeal 2106 has been made in the Texas Legislature. Diane said this is not an important issue for her. So since Diane has been in charge of TRL, there have been no attempts to repeal 2106 But prior to that under iser low under Glen Maxi as long as and even before that it was carried by our friends like Mickey Leland and

 Jimmy Carper 12:43
I didn't I don't understand that because that although it is has not been you know what? A misdemeanor, it's been used against us. Okay,

 Ray Hill 12:53
now let's let's get to it. Okay. All right. In 1973, when the law misdemeanor law was passed, I was in Texas prison. By the way, all of this is going to be in my new show. Outlaw I've been waiting to see how long it will take.

 Sarah DePalma 13:05

 Ray Hill 13:09
A while it doesn't take me long. No one has ever accused me of not being a shameless self promoter. I love it. And so while I was in prison in 1973, whenever the law became governor Brisco, did the right thing. And he he gave clemency to everyone locked up in Texas prison under the old sodomy statute, which was a felonies decades. Now. You'll notice there were no heterosexuals in Texas prisons. For oral sex, Texas had an illegal anomaly. It's a footnote in Black's Law Dictionary. Only in Texas is their old sodomy. That does not occur in anybody else's law. But oral intercourse, which was illegal under Section 2106. And illegal under the sodomy statute, and annual intercourse, which is, of course, the classic definition of sodomy. And all those those were felony offenses for is going to be punishable for for prison time. Yes, from time five to 15 years. And if you got convicted three times under the sodomy statute, then the Texas habitual criminal act kicked in. And you could be sentenced to life in prison for doing what all of us do when we do what we do when we do it. And so, all of a sudden, that becomes a Class C misdemeanor, where the officer really can't even arrest you. I mean, it's a citation event. There's no jail time, supposed to come in catch you're doing it. So Aha, and write you a ticket and they show up in court and leave presumably so you can go back to doing it

 Sarah DePalma 15:03

No one wants to do that. No one No one we know we do have done that.

R

Ray Hill 15:12

I mean, do you sometimes you have to tell him no, you can't arrest me. I mean, yeah. Oh, it says no, no, no jail so, so all I couldn't get a citation to go show up in court,

S

Sarah DePalma 15:21

you ticket and get out of my bedroom, right?

R

Ray Hill 15:23

Get out of here. We were busy when you came in and so they let him go. And I was in prison. I was a convict at the time. And I was living on the Ramsey unit and I knew the warden very well. He knew my grandfather's Sidney linear if you saw the prison years then you know, and big said called me in his arrow. Hale. They don't call people by their first name in prison. Hale understand your interest in all that queer stuff. And I said, Yes, sir. I am. While I'm Oh, got a couple of fellas loose tomorrow, if you want to go visit with them. I'll give you a pass. That's it. I've already arranged that with the major board and I'm gonna go down to the wing to that. Where these guys lived in there were five but when a couple of was five of it. Good. One of them. Didn't want to talk about it at all. I mean, understandable. He didn't want to say a word. He wouldn't say a word. I couldn't get him out of conversation at all. I mean, like, Oh, I'm going home tomorrow. I got to tell him but they were going under my good. And that's all he wanted to say. One of them asked me a question. What is the shortest distance to a state line? Getting my ass out of Texas. All right. I mean this guy to live for doing what they've been doing they do when they do it. So So I told him you go out through Beaumont law was worth a question you asked me a question. Give me a great answer. All right. Or some kind of answer gay answers. Yeah. And but one of the guys I mean, that's two down with no conversation. Hardly. One of the guys was Alvin Le Roy Buchanan. Now out in Biller, Roy Buchanan got busted in a Sears and Roebuck Tea Room in Dallas, Texas when the officer opened the bathroom door and saw too many feet in one day he opened the bin there

J

Jimmy Carper 17:21

R

Ray Hill 17:23

at the booth door and their ally. Oh, good. Anita was shopping back in a bit home free. Shopping backtrack. Yeah. Yep, nobody knows about his job. But Alvin been very bright, and really less bright men, as you will know is the story of vote. So you hope the officer opened the door and found Alvin munching out and buzzing him on the spot. Now I don't know what happened to the other guy because you know, it doesn't you can't get 2106 by yourself. It takes some money. Yeah, somebody's got to be there. Somebody's got to. So they busted Alvin his friend. And Alvin took a conviction. Maybe they gotta let the other guy off. He plead against Alvin or something. Was it good? No. I mean, how do you handle testimony like? So Alvin was convicted of the Sears Roebuck thing, but while he was out on bond, a wedding trolley got busted at a Dallas Park men's room that didn't have a door on there. They obviously just walked in and there was Alvin munch and Danny buzzard. Wonder that boy didn't gain weight.

J Jimmy Carper 18:35
All that much. And yeah.

R Ray Hill 18:39
And somewhere along the line, Alvin picked up another case. So Alvin was sentenced to life in take. Alvin Roy Buchanan, there's appeals case on that. Now they the court ruled that men's room and Sears probably had a reasonable expectation of privacy. But Alvin's last sentence still stood. Yeah, he was getting out that day. And Alvin and I talked about his court cases in trouble he had with lawyers and all that. And, and so the only thing Alvin said was, which direction do I leave here, so I don't have to go through Dallas. I mean, that was fine tuning it. And then the other two guys were this old gay couple from Schneider, Texas. Now, one of them was Ken to the sheriff. And he had inherited some land that the sheriff apparently got, he shouldn't have inherited. And so what happened and they would go home to that link, because that's the only thing they had. And they would go to that land. And the sheriff would come kick the door down, arrest him for under the sodomy statute. And you're having trouble getting Comanche county jury to indict and convict her until they got convicted. And so they went back to prison. But when they went to prison and went through diagnostic together and the prison system assigned him to the unit together, and they were just the old gay couple up on the third year, whoa, and so they were very excited. about getting out of bed and they were very excited that no longer could the sheriff come arrest him for felons. It was misdemeanor and they were going back to Schneider. I don't care what because they own land there. That's all the pizza property they had. And I don't know. Maybe maybe the cars would get over his thing whenever they took the law away from them I don't have alligators.

S Sarah DePalma 20:18

R Ray Hill 20:21
So we've been executed we've been sent to prison as abominable and detestable buyings. We've been sodomized sent to prison for that. And now for since 1973. We've been misdemeanor. Yep. And nine before last Thursday was the first night that we could do that. In the jurisdiction, the 14th Court gram appeals and I even stopped getting me and I said you wanna go do some legal Virgenes it's true. Okay. turned me down. Every now but then of course. What's his name is coming into town.

J Jimmy Carper 21:01
Yeah, right. Stanley's coming. Yeah, so what's his name?

R Ray Hill 21:05
He would be worse than the cops

S Sarah DePalma 21:10
probably come

R Ray Hill 21:13
out and I found a consenting adults. He did not really understand what we're celebrating because I don't speak that much Spanish and he didn't speak any English at all. But he certainly knew that we were celebrating something. I splurged on the Viagra and we just

J Jimmy Carper 21:30
I have something that I want to say here came over on an email and I'd like you to comment on it because I know you will. Supposedly this is from set by and since assistant Harris County district attorney Bill Delmore bill. If moral guy if morals change, he argued the legislature is the place to change the law, not the courts. Further, he said the law does not single out gays because it also applies to bisexuals and heterosexuals who engage in homosexual acts. Yeah,

R Ray Hill 22:05
we've covered that earlier. I mean, I mean, who is that? That's the terminally drunk? The that's what

J Jimmy Carper 22:10
I'm saying, you know, heterosexual to engage in homosexual acts. So just on the cuff, then he can legally have sex with his boyfriend right away. Okay.

S Sarah DePalma 22:21
Did I understand you say heterosexual, homosexual sephats? What he said, My message that somebody

R Ray Hill 22:29
has every category,

J Jimmy Carper 22:30
he's trying to argue that it didn't single out gays and lesbians. Does he think that only gay men had or have have anal sex? I mean, honey, he gets.

S Sarah DePalma 22:35

J Jimmy Carper 22:44
Oh, yes, it does. Yes. It's true. This is heterosexual to engage in homosexual acts.

R Ray Hill 22:51
Reality flashback. Young Michel started all of this. I mean, now young Michel is like a real lawyer. I mean, we do have lawyers in this community. I want using the names of Bill Green, who couldn't find a case if their life depended on it. But young Mitchell is a for those who would care to sue the name is RAYH. I,

S Sarah DePalma 23:09

R Ray Hill 23:14
Bill Green knows very well, who I am. I read his cases, I couldn't wait for him to volcanoes. I'd love to pull all those gauges out of the Southwest border and read them in his court proceedings. But the point that I want to make is that young Mitchell is like a real lawyer who can handle it. And young Mitchell who works for the law legal firm that has been briefing my federal cases, from the very beginnings is bernburg and Williams. And I mean, I'm real proud of it. At the very beginning of all this. Young Mitchell and his representative met with the Harris County District Attorney's Office, and it was agreed by all parties, that this issue was going to appealed until the final resolution of 2106. Yeah, I don't care what you read in the paper about Johnny home finding something to gum his microphone over. But whatever that is, I understand that Johnny is in favor of the repeal of 2106. Why would Johnny humse be in favor to the bill 2106. In the years since 1973, there have been five cases of 2106 in the jurisdiction of Harris County, coming from a civilian situation. We don't know what people have been charged with in jail and in prison, but in the free world situation. There have been a total of five application to 2106. The last two are the subject of this case. So there really only been three incidents, three people charge and two other incidents besides this one In over 25 years, 25 years, therefore, it does not pay Johnnie Holmes to train his prosecutors to prosecute 21 Ah, it is easier for him. So when you hear the word appeal that takes Court of Criminal Appeals, that is not something that is a surprise, all parties agreed going in here that we were going to do this, because we have been here before it was the England case in Dallas, a woman by the name of England lesbian, wanted to be a Dallas cop, and they wouldn't let her and she sued. And she got to the Dallas District Court of Appeals. And the court ruled that 2106 was unconstitutional and unenforceable by all reasons and purposes. And the Dallas da did not take it up. Therefore, that was a dead end run. That did not get rid of the law, presumably 2106, what became unenforceable in the Dallas District Court of Appeals counties. But it was a great going in, that this was going to appeal and get rid of it. The principle is now we've tried several attempts, yes, to get 2106. There have been two cases there was the Baker case, which was a federal case went up. Judge buchmeier in Dallas gave us a very fine opinion. And that was appealed to the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals. And then that was appealed to the Supreme Court United States. And A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Supreme Court, the Hardwick case come in laterally out of Georgia, which was a felony statute, and it got all the press and all the attention. So Baker became a footnote to Hardwick. And when they poured Hardwick out, well, they didn't really board I was five to forward. And Justice Powell said, three weeks after the decision, if he had known his favorite nephew, and all of his clerks were gay, he would have voted the other way. It's true.

J Jimmy Carper 27:01

Yeah, I read that I've read

R Ray Hill 27:04

that decision was a bunch of closet cases, who were only closet led to the most important person sitting on Supreme Court to make the difference in array. Now backlash begins. You were telling me? Well,

S Sarah DePalma 27:12

R Ray Hill 27:16

now the thing is, we've had all of these victories. And all of this is in the news. And every time we're in the news to this degree with Pride week coming on today, I got two calls of two incidents. I'll be real brief with them because I don't want to get into gory details down in Galveston County, in the clan town of Santa Fe, you understand that school prayer stuff? That's the school town. Church stuff. That is Klu Klux Klan stuff. Yes, that's who's organizing that whole thing is KK gay, and they're gonna get there come up, and it's because the Supreme Court is going to pour them out before the end of this month, and you understand so so they can do all of that they want to, but that is Klu Klux Klan racist organizing. A young man was driving down there near Santa Fe. And he had one of those rainbow bumper stickers, right? Like bumper stickers, and a carload of Christians with little fishes on the back of their car, chased him hollering faggot, queer, faggot, queered throwing bottles at him. And he turned up on the freeway and there was a highway patrolman. So he walked up next to her, and she got out and her uniform and gotten trumped. All of the sure all of the prayer in schools, bumper stickers, and they run away but that license numbers being traced and that's the thing and again and again and again. One guy in a car is chased by a car full of other people. Well,

R Ray Hill 28:43

I've got a researcher working on a bizarre case. Yeah, we're learning a great deal about dog pack mentality and and and how otherwise good boys get caught up in the emotions of a fervor like that. But that's another show. Now the other victim is up in New Caney probably listening the show tonight. So it's an older, gay couple of their ones in business. And the other one is his roommate. And your nights ago. The neighbors came over and sprayed graffiti all over the house broke some windows in the car graffiti on the car and the pickup. Queer faggot Yeah, child molester all this other crap. And then one of them got alone was in his car got blocked out and on the street just round the corner from the house by a truck and the assailants came over the fence out of the bushes like it was planned. And they broke his wind out and dragged him out and beat him severely knighted prisons already handicapped prisons already got some spinal problems and some some serious helping and real life threatening. And so that right there in new Caney that's in montgomery county, Joe Taylor is Sheriff up there and come to find it out. The assailants live in the house with a relative who is a deputy sheriff that patrols the area. Whoa. So we've got some problems with getting a case filed. So I begin to notify me, Mother hill gets these calls. And if you know of a call out there, the radio land if you know of a call of anti gay violence, I should know about it. Because what I did is I gave first the sheriff's department a call using my Lois Lane pass. I mean, this is a regular KPFT radio working story and yada yada yada, then also notified other media and so I've notified some other media, both local media and national media, and we're gonna descend on montgomery county, so that if there is a lack of interest in prosecuting in the Sheriff Department, because the assailants are related to the sheriff, we should be able to plumb the bottom of that report early next week. It's very, very important. I

J Jimmy Carper 31:05

R Ray Hill 31:06

have a feeling that not only are the gay couple that is involved listened to denies after our show, I have a feeling that some of the assailants are too because they do that. Oh, yeah, my work, right. Yes, my this is Ray Hill. All right. I'm the Old Man of the gay movement. I have been here. I've been out of the closet since 1958. I've been fighting you suckers all of my adult life. So if you're out there thinking about what you're going to do to queers, let me tell you, you are not going to get away with it. You are absolutely going to be hunted down those 10 Guys in Woodland, most of which are friends of mine now, incidentally, that they're in prison. Yes. But they thought they got away with it because it was anonymous. I use the media until I tracked him down like a bloodhound. You are not going to come into my community, and jeopardize the lives and the safety of this community. And you know what, I would do the same in the interest of your protection, because that's the way gay people are the non special about radio. No human being needs to be in jeopardy for who and what they are. I don't care what their political beliefs are. I don't care what their religious beliefs are. I don't care what sexual orientation they are. Nobody is not to gay people. Just a brief word. All right, put a camera in your car, even if you go down to the local drugstore. And you buy one of those little boxes with the film in it that you throw away, put a camera in your car with a flash ball. All right, because that is the weapon of choice for you to carry in the interest of your safety. So many times, I have been in situations where I needed to protect myself or other people. And I camera is the safest, best way to do it. Take a picture. It'll record the license number. You don't have to remember it snap. Take a picture. You'll know what they look like. You'll have a picture to go into court because they will get caught mother is going to track them down. Oh yeah. Until they're caught. All right. Don't think that just because it's a transgendered person standing alone on a street corner on Houston, that nobody cares. I got up this morning. And I cared and I have cared all day. Don't it doesn't make any difference if it's somebody with a little rainbow flag out in the suburbs. I care and you're not going to get away with it. Gay people be aware of where you are transgendered people bisexual lesbian. I mean, women know because of the dangers of violence against women. Do women stuff guys? All right. I mean, look around, keep your eyes open. Walk on the light side of the road.

Sarah DePalma 34:12

Ray, that's an issue. I've been bringing up with cross dressers the last couple of weeks. If they don't think like women, they're dressed like women, but they're thinking like guys, and guys, they get themselves in trouble

R

Ray Hill 34:26

every time gay men have got to think like that. Yeah, let me tell you the dangers are out. I call Jack Valinski today. I love Jack. I mean pride. Oh, Jack and I are going to go back to the processes of working with the police liaison for the parade to sharpen up because we don't win this much. I mean, on top of all of the other things we mentioned that major three Automobile Workers are going to recognize domestic partners. We're winning all over

J

Jimmy Carper 34:52

I know And doesn't that make look Exxon look really dumb. Now that the three big eggs

Really dumb is that that car with the two little blue equal sign or yellow equal signs on the blue background that I caught it the Exxon service agent who went over and turned off the pump and hung it up. Good for you. What are you doing to buy guns and get us out of here? Because a filling station on three more corners. Good for you to be spending good bucks here.

 Jimmy Carper 35:31
They don't get it.

 Ray Hill 35:32
What do you think you are? I'm Ray Hill. Oh, excuse me. Why me what best the Texaco or the shale as tiny as long it ain't responding. That's right. I'm sorry. Well, they gotta come around sooner or later, will wear him down.

think it's gonna be later darlin, you and I know what to do. Well, I'm here to Sarah. Let me tell you a wonderful Sara story. All right. Yes. This is a great story. Steven little got fired from Randles.

 Jimmy Carper 36:06
Yeah, I remember.

 Ray Hill 36:08
So and So Sarah was back in in Houston. And she was up in coming as an activist and all that. And we went out to meet with Randall Olmstead. All right. Remember that days? Yes, I do. We go out there and read what Randall Olmstead had been doing before. I mean, he made this appointment. All right. I mean, we asked him give us some time. He told us when we could come out there. A bunch of us got together, man, Sarah was in the crowd. We went out there to meet with him. And he walked out and he had on more makeup than Sarah. What he had been doing is it been up on top of the building making one of those Randles commercials. They had pancaked him back down and and I looked at him and he looked at me and I looked at zero and then I looked at him and he got the point, right. I don't know. I mean, this guy, I don't believe in gods and things, but there's something in them stars.

The funny part about it is that we were there for about half the time before he realized that I was the transgendered person right. And then he finally made some remark about being transgender and racism. Well, not everybody has to wear a lot of makeup

I don't give a sucker and even stories and stories got me to where is this show this show is at Ashland Street Theatre in the press is Monday. I mean, that's what I want. I'm up to this hour. I've been in rehearsals since noon. And I'm gonna go back in rehearsals at noon tomorrow, and we're gonna work this out. My new director does this with a whip and a chair. I mean, She's tough. She's little and she's mean and she's done.
