SPEAKERS

Sarah DePalma

00:00

All right, good draw, like I did in 1994, June 19.

00:07

We've heard the story.

00:10

That's why I was giving up. Yes, I know that if you wanted to take a test, which they never gave me, you'd request a test for public intoxication, just like the DWI test just like that they don't read. Is that like right on the spot? Like, I'm not trying to give you a ton less.

00:26

00:32

That's basically what I did five years ago. I said, Give me a test. Give me the same test that Rudy Tom Jovovich refused the week before.

00:45

Don't ask, I would love it. I've been waiting all my life to 00:50

22 hours and 45 minutes I spent in jail for a deed for a public intoxication at a bar where I had just one sip of a drink and was reading a magazine

01:02

I have I've waited all my life to be arrested for PII because as an epileptic, I did not drink.

01:11

Well, hopefully with this resolution, the legislature will consider that. One of the reasons that it was I know approved is because some teenagers sometimes are at parties. Yes. And they might be at home or someplace. cop comes in. And you you it's Eenie, meenie miney moe, that's how they pick these people. And if the teenager was one of the ones picked, and gets a public intoxication, he might have a hard time getting a driver's license. Oh, yeah. And so it passed unanimously. The resolution was passed few days out any dissenting votes next night.

01:53

You're a member of the Houston City Council. This is Moon isn't it?

02:04

Also the worst walk away from kind of the Ted Kennedy scenario.

02:11

Chappaquiddick cell.

02:13

Jimmy there was also seven resolutions submitted to this by the Senate districts all over the state. Wow, not all of them were on the floor. But you will be able to get you'll be able to find these resolutions if you go to I think it's www.Texdemocrats.com. And all that stuff should be on the internet tonight. That's what they told me. And they read the whole platform 16 pages because we didn't all get a chance to read it. You know? Let me tell you, the people that stayed for the platform reading, they loved it. They applauded almost all the all the sentences that you know all the ideas and everything. So it was even though it was 16 pages long. We sat there and listened to it because we wanted to know what the plat right there are people that didn't trust. They wanted to hear every word. Motion, there was a motion to accept the platform without anybody reading. Hey, was it people said no, we want to hear when we go home tonight, we want to know what's the plan,

S

Sarah DePalma 03:24

but there is no document that's new. There's no document created that is of less value than a party platform. Because the very second the ink is dry the candidates we're going to go out and ignore the platform. Well, I'm sorry, there is nothing that is more useless, if you if you say that, but I mean it has affected Texas Republicans.

♂

S

Sarah DePalma 03:47

Well, that's true. But the Democrats are the most undisciplined, which if you take a look, especially at the national elections, they spend all this time but in together these national platforms and the Democratic standard party stands for this and that the other, and the President runs right out and says Well, that's what the platform says. But my belief is no one says a word. So I mean, I guess platforms in some sense era has some value in that it may be the part a we use a party stand for this. But the candidates are not bound by any part of it, because they won't do what they want to do. Except for the Republicans because they're all walking lockstep. The Democrats never they don't walk in lockstep they read most of the resolutions also lists peep, which is also important that's what the Democrats for I mean, that's that's really what the convention to me is for is the resolutions as tells you who you really are. You want this idea. You want that idea.

S

Sarah DePalma 04:42

How does How are the Texas Democrats viewed nationally?

04:52

Have you badly we're just we're just been written off. Well, a great place to come and raise money and they do.

♂

04:58

Yeah, thank you. $1,000 played dinner video I mean I mean we're here and we're alive and we can still raise money and we can still view. I mean, I mean, we're here and we're alive and we can still raise money and we can still deliver just this isn't the optimum time for us. I mean, we've got the governor from Missouri coming in on the 22nd for a fundraiser trying to get rid of Senator Ashcroft. So when people still come in, they come in for money, and they take it out, but few of us are getting a little bit more stingy and not writing. So big checks, to $1,000 dinners.

05:24

05:28

But we, you know, what, are you turning back around? It just?

S Sarah DePalma 05:33

Are they gonna start running some people that the lower end of the races, county commissioners, things like that judges are going to continue to let Republicans run unopposed, these races, there's a big split in our party, at least here in our county. With that, I mean, I'm one of the people that believes we should have had a Democrat and every slot on the ballot. Unfortunately, even at the experience of running the race, right, and then, I mean, that's sort of right, for respectfully disagree with our chair on a couple of things. I mean, our or our activists get out of get out of practice. And you know, I don't believe we can. With I don't think we can go back to voters in two years and say this is the issues where we represent one two years ago, we didn't offer you the candidates that stood for these ideas. Right. So but we'll get there and part of the problem is one of the reasons that they're repulsed that the right wing has the influence it does is because there have been no candidates running against them. So you end up with right wing Republicans on school boards, you end up with white right wing Republicans as judges. And because no one has run against them no choice was offered. And that's not a knock against the Democrats in Texas that just been kind of demoralized I think, but at the same time and also meant that they were never know the elder means there are no young people being groomed to run future races. And these poor people forget nice Parker ran didn't wait until her third trousers tried right there try and she didn't win by the gay community either. She won city wide in Andres

05:42

05:55

05:57

Sarah DePalma 07:05

Burr, America may very well run again at some point in it the same in at the same for the same reason. It may be that you're gonna lose, you might lose a couple of times, but you learn but every race you run, you learn from it. One of my concerns is right now the Texas Democrats are not developing a core of people at the bottom that they can train in take to the top. I think that's a serious weakness that the Democrats are going to have to address. And of course, that all comes back to money. You need money always, always always. It's money. Yeah.

07:37

07:43

And we actually have unfortunately developed a habit or people that are supposed to in our show, stand us up. Brian was supposed to be here to talk about right Yeah. But yeah, we do have another guest and we're gonna play a song. My boyfriend David, whose music you hear hear every second Saturday more often, that is actually more of a thing because I pull it off the tape, but I'd rather have CD and every nice copy telling you that David, will get you. So this is the first song from his new demo, and we're gonna listen to that. Then we'll come back with David. Okay.

08:04

08:11

08:25

And this is by an artist called Devin is is I recall is that is that the name we're using? Okay. Devin, I like that name. I like that name in the title of the song is 08:41 is available.

08:42

Oh, that's nice. And you're listening to it on after hours career radio with attitude KPFT Houston and ke O 's College Station.

08:56

Hi, this is Elke Michaels inviting you to tune in to Houston's 90.1 KPFT the sound of Texas every Monday nights last Tuesday morning for the rusted cage electric radio program. I will take you around the world with the best of Americana triple A pop res from the KPFT music files, as well as other alternative style musics from Texas and all around the globe. That's the rusted cage electric radio program heard every Monday Night Slash Tuesday morning from one to four a on Houston's 90.1k bf T the sound of tech says

09:42

Juneteenth is just around the corner and in honor of the holiday. The Houston Chapter of the American Civil Liberties Union is proud to present a cross cultural blue show highlighting women in blues. The event takes place on Sunday, June 11 at 3pm at Billy blues Bar and Grill and kicks off with performances brought Mmm, sweet mama cotton lady, Sandy Hickey, Diana Greenleaf and other great women blues artists. Their performance will include a short presentation from ACLU representative Martina Cartwright who will speak on racial equality. There is an admission fee at the door and proceeds will benefit the Houston Chapter of the American Civil Liberties Union. For further information contact the ACLU at 713-942-8146 or check out their new website at WWW dot ACLU dash Houston dot o RG

S Sarah DePalma 10:40

Yeah, look black little little something there for you, and that and Elkins new show elke does engineering on lesbian and gay voices which is heard right here on this radio station every Monday night eight to 10pm so matter of fact that I've often mentioned in all in all of Houston somebody I've Chris was the one who kind of kind of averaged out that there's about 5000 hours of radio a week in Houston with all the stations five hours are devoted to gay lesbian, bisexual and transgender issues which is more than you get in most city and it's all on this station. So remember that next time we're just talking about that blues. Yeah, blues. We're just talking about Irma Thomas. Oh Irma Thomas get a really good wage. I remember her start kicking way back in the 50s. In Irma Thomas is is one of the great divas if you're going to Orleans new. She really is she is when you go to New Orleans Irma Thomas sings gospel over there that will just absolutely knock your socks off. And if she's going to be participating in the women in blue show, it'll be good. She's worth the price of admission just by herself, which I put her voice up there with with Aretha Franklin. I mean, we've got lots of listeners out there tonight Charlie Pacheco called in to say hi. He was listening. Yeah, he heard that part about me gonna jump his bones. And so he said, Tell him we'll talk later. You bet we will. And German garden Oaks is listening in. Thank you. You are listening to after hours. That's the show. KPFT Houston and ke O 's College Station. It's headed up the segment by Francisco Sanchez and Sandy. I don't know. Lopez. I didn't know. Okay. And Sarah department still here.

12:54

How do y'all and

S Sarah DePalma 12:57

you were talking about the convention in Fort Worth. And Sarah, you had a couple of things you wanted to finish up. And it's it's well covers all bases here. I was talking about an organization called North and I found it is called the National Association for Research and therapy of homosexuality. This is the group that says they're going to cure you. Well there's nothing wrong. Stop being homosexual Praise God. Stop. We're gonna put our hands on the radio.

13:38

Yes, I know.

S Sarah DePalma 13:44

Walkman Jack a couple years ago, because a lady called him on the he used to talk about take the good use position. 69 on the radio, baby. Finally somebody calls in and said, Well, man, what is this position? 62. What do you reply? That's when you put your radio between your legs. Man, well, you got kicked off the Air Force. Anyway, what I was going to say if this group north, you said you might say, Well, I never heard of this group. Well, this is the group that took out all the ads last year, these anti gay ads. And they were talking this they were talking about how tricky they were in the wording. What they said was that they have developed these television ads that say they use phrases like our people had been involved in homosexuality. They walked away from homosexuality, they receive freedom from homosexuality. They were former homosexuals. But at no point did the advertisements claimed to anyone and actually changed their sexual orientation from homosexual to heterosexual. The ambiguous phrase, as it turned out, had been carefully chosen to imply a change in orientation without actually lying But then with that, yeah, I'm kind of curious about this, this reparative therapy crap that, well, the American Psychiatric Association just flat out it doesn't work. I know.

15:01

15:00

15:07

15:12

But I'm wondering how it is how it affects the Latino community, the Hispanic community, because I know there's a lot of macho machismo going on there. And is it this type of thing that I know? Off the cuff?

15:28

I don't know if I can just call it right out stupid. First of all, yeah,

15:35

I mean, I think the reparative therapy in Hispanic community has been that you just marry the opposite sex and you keep.

15:48

Here's how South Americans

15:51

I was married for eight years didn't care when, in fact, visiting me made me run to become

15:57

No, I mean, the way the way for the Latin Latino community to just to ignore this. They just they just look the other way. They just keep them happy. It's like, as long as I don't mention the word homosexual, I'm still.

16:11

Yes, but that that kind of keeps still keeps the undercover. Yeah, unfortunately. Yeah.

16:19

That's the saddest part. And you know, you they don't actually want to accept it. And until you accept yourself as you are, they won't be no change.

 S Sarah DePalma 16:28

I've run I'm running something that I thought you might find interesting and pull this off the net. This is from the Family Research Council. Now, folks, Family Research Council is about as right wing as they get. Yep. Okay. And this is their explanation, which I thought was interesting as to why domestic partnerships and gay marriage threaten the family. Okay. Now, that's something Jimmy and I talked about for a long time. Yes. What in the hell? How in the world? Would gay marriage threaten heterosexual? Gay people don't steal spouse, heterosexual spouses, other sexual? Watch your husband really when you don't? Never, never understand this. So finally, there's an explanation. And he they said that gay marriage sends a clear signal that companies or cities no longer consider marriage a priority worth encouraging, above all other relationships. I have one question about that. What business? Is it of companies or cities to encourage any kind of relationship above the other? Why would it make a difference? It was gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender, whatever. Why is that the business of either any of them?

17:47

One of the things that I just found so interesting is the fact that even the civil union doesn't benefit us that much as it benefits heterosexual couples. I mean, they're the ones that are going to get the most out of it. You know, they don't need to get married, you just need to go get see, you know, see you and that get all the benefits they want.

S Sarah DePalma 18:04

So I actually think that the idea of gay marriage is foolish. But the idea of domestic partnership with like the vet in Vermont, yeah, makes perfect sense. Yeah, that makes better sense to me, I can accept that. There was a editorial in the voice a few weeks ago, and he kind of answered the question for me, because all of these religious right wing, religious groups are screaming that domestic partnership is, you know, going to ruin marriage. And it's because there's one area one state, one city that has formed, has domestic partners, and actually, I think it's in Europe. And since they have had the domestic partnership, 14,000 couples have signed up. Yeah, that's the best that partners and in Denmark and Holland for years now. However, more than half were heterosexual couple. Yes, yes. Yes. And so that's the whole idea. It has nothing to do with gay people. It's that heterosexual people see that domestic domestic partnership is better for them efficient than a marriage?

19:18

Yeah, it's more beneficial. And, I mean, it's something that they you know, they can I mean, the institution of marriage has changed a long time ago. We're not changing anything. I mean, people just want to get together. I mean, just, I mean, I have lots of friends that are just flat out living together without marriage, you know, it's like, and they, you know, they see us, I mean, we just want to do the same thing they do.

S Sarah DePalma 19:43

THAT'S EVERYTHING THAT SHE'S GOING TO SAY AND I DON'T I DON'T THINK THAT SHE'S GOING TO SAY THAT AGAIN

THAT'S EXACTLY WHAT THEY'RE AFRAID OF. AND I PREDICT, I PREDICT THAT THE NEXT BIG ISSUE THAT YOU'RE GOING TO SEE THE RIGHT WING NEWS IS THEY ARE GOING TO SAY THAT IF THEY ARE FORCED TO ACCEPT HOMOSEXUALS IN THE WORKPLACE, I MEAN, THE RIGHT WING HATES THE TERM DIVERSITY. THEY REALLY DO. AND THEIR ARGUMENT NOW IS WE'RE BEGINNING TO SEE THIS IN COURTS AROUND THE COUNTRY IS THEY'RE SAYING IF THEY HAVE TO ACCEPT HOMOSEXUALS IN THE WORKPLACE, THAT'S A VIOLATION OF THEIR RELIGIOUS FREEDOM. BECAUSE THEIR RELIGIOUS FREEDOM, THEIR RELIGION DOESN'T ALLOW FOR HOMOSEXUALS, AND THEY ARE NOW BEING DISCRIMINATED AGAINST BECAUSE OF DIVERSITY LAWS. I'M NOT SURE. AND I PREDICT THAT YOU'RE GOING TO SEE INSURANCE THIS COMING YEAR, THAT THAT'S GOING TO BE THE NUMBER ONE ISSUE FOR THE RIGHT WING NOW, ESPECIALLY AFTER YOU'VE SEEN CHRYSLER AND FORD AGREE TO SOME OF THESE ISSUES. COUNT ON IT, YOU'RE GONNA SEE COURT CASES AT EXACTLY THIS ISSUE.

20:39

I've been I've been having a Muslim background and a Catholic background and a Protestant background in you know, wow, 20:47

gotcha coming and going.

20:48

Yeah. I'm gonna I'm gonna tell you this.

20:52

You're a Muslim, Christian atheist.

20:57

I'm gonna tell you this. I mean, the moment they bring the Bible or religion into into an issue that has nothing to do with it, I'm just gonna say flat out Joe, the hell are you gonna start talking? I'm sorry, can I say that?

21:09

You already did? Too late? Yeah, no, no, no, that's 21:13

not television.

21:15

Do I get a beat? But, I mean, I mean, I totally hated when people are still ringing, you know, hey, you're homosexual. You know, this against my religion is against this and that. It's like, I've been part of your religion already. I know what it says. But at the same time, it's like, religion puts down women all the time. It's like it's flat out right. Women shouldn't have no rights. Yes. And you know, all this other stuff. I mean, men think themselves, kings of the universe. And it's like, Man, I'm thinking, you know, Republicans.

S Sarah DePalma 21:54

Well, they say the gate that a gay gay marriage would seek to legitimize same sex activity in homosexuals claim that they should be able to adopt children. Despite the clear danger, this poses to children's development of healthy sexual identities. Oh, please. That's the I'm just the messenger here. But the man but the person who wrote this, his name is Robert Knight. And you've got to take this guy seriously. Because right now he's suing the state of Colorado for the over their diversity law. And this is part of the argument this guy is attempting to make. Wow. I mean, we you have to we have to take these kind of arguments seriously. Yeah. You know, if I'll take it Colorado is a battleground state because Colorado has more right wing religions based there than any other state in the country. More than Utah. Otello literally, the transmitter, for Focus on the Family is literally behind Diane zicatela was fence in Colorado. She's one of the most active activists in transgender activists in the country. So you have to take this kind of stuff seriously. They say that gay marriage mocks the idea of commitment, since most domestic partner laws allow for easy dissolution of the relationship and the registry of several partners consecutively in a year. You know what they're trying to say? It's going to allow promiscuity under another name. Sure, sure.

23:27

But that isn't that isn't it? That's not true. Of course,

S Sarah DePalma 23:30

it's not true. Almost nothing they say is true. But you know, Jimmy, the Nazis used to say the bigger the lie, the easier it is to believe. Right be and I think that's an issue that you have to take seriously. Sure. They're lying through their teeth. We know they're lying through their teeth. But we're not the audience they're playing to. They're playing to the legislators. They're paying, they're playing to the power structure, and they're playing to the fears of the steroid community. And that's, that's the real danger. I'm curious how in Latin and latin community, do they listen to these people at all? I mean, do they hear them? Do they pay attention to these people?

24:08

Well, from from my own experience, you know, having like four brothers? No, they don't. I mean, when when the issues come to homosexuality or issues that are very hard for the latin community, the Hispanic community to swallow it or to even consider it or think about it, when he brings to the home a term that you just don't want to explain. You just totally ride out, avoid it.

s

Sarah DePalma 24:33

Well, how then let's see is since we're going into that vein, and I was kind of curious as to the Hispanic reaction to the repeal of the sodomy law.

o

24:49

I mean, out I don't think there would be, I mean, drip healed? Well, s

Sarah DePalma 24:56

I'd be more interested to know how they're reacting to the stuff going on in row Boom, where the where the rat latin community, the Italian community are finding themselves in a situation with the Pope is fighting them or having gay rights in in Europe.

I think for the most part on social issues I wrote the far right really doesn't have much of an impact on the spanic community in large part they take the lead from the Catholic Church on, on issues, which very rarely makes a social statement or, or a very outright statement against something. It's very rare. And I don't know if any of you would agree with that or not very going on in Rome. Really, I don't think if the Catholic Church isn't gonna make you have an issue of it here, Sunday service, then it's not going to be an issue.

25:47

The thing is, like, one of the things that I've noticed in Latin America is the fact that they're so far behind on the fact that the the church, the pope pay, you know, the church plays such a big role that America and the United States is changing a little bit. Because you know, us more diverse, you know, you're mingling with other kinds of ideas. And you I mean, you still go to church every Sunday, you just don't pay that much attention to what the priests ignore the advice. Because that's my kind of church. I think the most blatant use of the pulpit for, I guess, for socialists in Catholicism in this country was was, was Cardinal O'Connor. He was the, the extreme,

o

o

26:21

S

Sarah DePalma 26:37

he was actually replaced by someone more conservative than he was.

♂

26:39

I can't imagine because

26:43

I don't know that it will be as vocal it is sort of a that's true. With me, I think a lot of folks fell in line at least a lot a lot of the conflict largely fell in line with with Cardinal Connor said, but the reality is, they're not religious activists in that way. They really would prefer not to energize their congregations on issues. And so most Hispanics, being Catholic, I think is sort of one of the things that I was going to mention is fact that Latin America, I mean, we do look at the Pope, because he's a religious leader, but it repeats and, you know, the European country that it's part of our heritage, Spain, and Spain right now, it's having a lot of influence, because, you know, the Royal the royal family started to visit Latin American countries, which I find very interesting. And they're bringing a more ties to the mother one, like, you know, and it's becoming really interesting, because Spain has really good laws that benefit homosexuality. They do now. Yeah. And it's like, and it's something that it's started to be exported to towards Argentina, Chile, which are countries that, you know, are becoming a Costa Rica did, you know might in fact, one day I hope so. Be, you know, it's been more openly gay in the tourism part, which one day is going to start seeing that, you know, homosexuality is not that bad. So I'm thinking in in the next 10 years, actually pretty damn good.

♂

♂

28:20

I'm thinking Sign me up. I'd love to know, could you recruit me, please, if you haven't been recruited this way?

S

Sarah DePalma 28:27

No, I'm just hoping that the sodomy law here in Texas will help. Help Hispanic teens are hurt as Hispanic people come out of the closet to their to their parents, or to their family.

28:43

It's kind of have an influence, but I don't think I don't think it's gonna be like, as of right now. It's not gonna go that far. No, no, because I mean, I mean, I'm already I'm already out to my family. And when I read it, he was so happy for me. Yeah, it was it was.

29:00

We're not a criminal anymore. Yeah. And it's like really? Now if you want to be a criminal, you have to go have sex in the woods or something.

Sarah DePalma 29:13

We did Dr. Cole's today, we had a Hispanic woman from Brownsville. And she was there with her child and just turned 18 This past week. And this child, I said shouldn't say child to young adult was that Dr. Cole's because she wants to transition. And this woman was talking about the difficulty of being Hispanic in South Texas with a child that wants to have sex and wants to change their sex and heart obviously from male to female or male to female but it was very interesting to me because she she made it seem and I believe her that dealing with the Hispanic idea of macho, just complicated things far worse than then she had expected to the point where she was talking about massively moving out of Brownsville someplace where they were not known to get away from the heat they would take.

30:11

Oh, I'm sure that's gonna have to happen. Yeah, cuz

30:13

it community I think once the community finds out Oh, shut her. Oh, yeah, they will totally shut her out that apparently it already happened. Yeah, they will not speak to her immune shield, they will they will do everything in their power to get that person out.

30:27

Well, then she needs to go to San Antonio and meet Kristy Lee

Sarah DePalma 30:31

Littleton. Yeah. Well, I, but I really felt sorry for the mother. Because she said at one point, so the only thing I'm interested in is I want my child to be happy. She says no, I can't understand why we're getting so much heat. And in fact, actually, interestingly, the Catholic Church where the cheese at and where she was at in Brownsville, the priests, they actually met with some of these people said, Listen, this is wrong. You know, that, that to the Catholic Church? I mean, it's interesting transsexuals in the Catholic Church, are they they don't see anything wrong with it, they feel it's a biological issue. And that's the way it is. But that's not the way it was being interpreted where she lived, and apparently a lot of have to do with the macho sort of culture. You know, they liquid nurse can why would you want to be a girl, you know, and she was having a hard time real tough time. Oh, I didn't mean to break in there. When when I it's when I told my grandmother you know that I was scared. I mean, that was was the first question. She told me. How much do you need for the operation?

31:21

31:32

Guess that's the perspective.

31:36

When I say this story, but one of the things I did, I told people, I have to educate my family. Sure. I have to tell my grandmother, Grandma, I don't want to change any single piece of myself. Because as I like to be, you know, I just happen to like men, you know, but just the fact that that was her initial reaction. You know, that was her initial, her initial reaction, you know, at least it told me what she was thinking. Yeah. Because I mean, my, probably her entire generation. Yes.

32:02

32:05

And my mom, my mom had even a harder time that she did, you know, taking it in, because of the whole match to culture because you don't expect your son to come in and tell you, Mom, I want to be a girl.

Sarah DePalma 32:20

I thought the mother was amazing. She was not she was not highly educated. And what the only thing she she said, she said she made her cheese told her child, if you want to transition, you can but you have to promise me you're gonna get a college degree. She said, Because education mattered so much. Yes. And I thought this woman really had it together. And God bless her. She's facing a tough time, Dan Brown, my app kept me advised like that when I told her she told me, if you get your education, if you get as much education as you can, people will not look at you weird. They will not think you're weird. They will think you're eccentric. And they will make you that will make you feel better. I mean, she would told me about a story about this person who knew that he was gay, but he was a doctor. People didn't care because they you know, he had a position in society that was important. And she goes, people could not look the other way knowing that this person already had something going for himself. They just started MC centric.

32:43

We're getting close to that time. And the early morning groove guys are going to be coming in here at the top of the hour. But in the last few minutes we have I'd like to know since this is June, it's Pride Month. What are you two three going to be doing for Pride Day? Are you going to be in the parade watching the parade? Or is with a group or blow up the president of Global University of Houston so we're gonna be walking. Hopefully, we'll have a float. I still don't know what's going on because I've been working. But I'll be marching with with the University of Houston. And you know, they'll be really good

34:01

Francisco, and that will 34:02

probably be in Dallas this year. We'll probably have a printer flying. It'll be in town from Chicago. Hopefully visiting with him. I don't know if David's going.

34:12

Oh, you see, we haven't even talked about this rabbit trail. Oh, yeah. So, Devin? Yes. Do you know what you're gonna be doing for watching in it or what?

34:27

I'll either be watching the parade or I'll be in Dallas. Okay. Okay. Oops.

34:37

Okay, I was talking to Sandy earlier and that I have a phone number for Jenny Craig. Who is a very she's a socialite. Let's face it. Right. And, like I've always wanted to have her on the show to bring that kind of aspect to see what's going on and, and perhaps next month, we can do that.

34:57

Hopefully, we're we're kind of running out of We're hopefully talking about gay entertainment today because it's a sort of pride and yeah a lot of the talent that we had an astral headed concert today coming up and so for so many wonderful thing Yes, hopefully we can I can talk to you in the coming back. So as we get into some of it, because a lot of that time but because we've got a tremendous amount of talent here in this community we do. Hopefully starting with Devin and you know, I want this CD I'm telling you, and I promise you, I'll

35:18

35:25

Sarah DePalma 35:27

get it to you. Okay. You know, I'm always pushing the local talent over the national talent and, and queer first, of course, you've been listening to after hours queer radio with attitude on KPFT KPFT Houston and ke O. 's College Station, Jimmy Carper. And Sarah dipalma, Sarah Palin, remember when decorum becomes repression, the only dignity free people have is to speak out. And Francisco.

35:54

35:57

We look forward to seeing you next month.

35:58

You bet Sandy.

36:00

Just wanted to thank you for listening to us and hope to hear from you,

36:05

Devin. And I will hopefully be back here soon.

Sarah DePalma 36:08

Good and keep recording. And I'll keep playing in the background in the background. We don't have Devin we have another artist by the name of Neil very, very nice guy doing a song called what you do to me jealousy. The guys are going to be up here in just about two minutes. So enjoy
