- S Scott Lewis 00:02
You know, we played that song, especially for all my little Hispanic honeys out there. Because, and my voice normally doesn't sound like this, but I have a cold. Usually there's a lot nailer, um where's he at, what mic is he on? Nine? Nine. Okay, I want to include Patrick in the conversation.
- S Speaker 1 00:26
Oh, I'm sorry. I didn't mean to say you were a woman.
- S Scott Lewis 00:29
Yeah, well, I am woman, hear me, whatever. Um, oh. Girl do you need do you need us to call? 911? Are you okay, girl? What was that?
- J Jimmy Carper 00:45
Don't say that around here.
- S Scott Lewis 00:49
We are sitting around here talking in between music, bitching, complaining, whining, screaming, laughing, crying. Did I miss anything? We're not masturbating.
- S Sneaker 1 01:02

 Speaker 2 01:02
Sleeping, maybe?

 Scott Lewis 01:03
We're not sleeping either.

 Michael Crawford 01:05
A long time to go, what? Two hours?

 Scott Lewis 01:07
We have two hours to go. And you can join the party at 526-KPFT, 526-3738. Is that right?

5738.

 Scott Lewis 01:16
5738. Whatever they have figured out KPFT, 526-KPFT. Call up and you can join in. You can laugh with us. You can cry with us. You can even criticize this as this next caller will. Let's see. Here we go. Marilyn. Are you there? Hi. How are you this evening?

 Speaker 4 01:34
Thanks. How are you?

 Scott Lewis 01:35
Wonderful. What can we do for?

 Speaker 4 01:38
Well, I just want to make a comment. I'm really, really outraged at the mean spirited remarks that you made about the guy who wrote the letter to the press. I saw the letter in the press. I thought that he made a very valid point. And I think that just because you don't share his opinion, I can't believe the way the comments that you made, you know, and saying, well, since he wasn't listed in the phonebook, he must live out in the suburbs with his, I mean, since you didn't find him in the Montrose area, he must live out in the suburbs with his dog. You know, maybe he had an unlisted number. And especially like, well, he got out his thesaurus to write this letter. You don't know that, you know, maybe the man does have a vocabulary that consists of more than four letter words.

M

Michael Crawford 02:36

What is it about the letter that you agreed with?

S

Speaker 4 02:40

I think that ACT UP causes people to have more negative feelings than positive feelings about the organization and what they're trying to do. I have very negative feelings about them.

M

Michael Crawford 02:53

Well, well, first of all, we should realize that ACT UP is not about queers, queer rights has never been a part of ACT UP's agenda. ACT UP is an AIDS activist organization. And they will do whatever it takes to save people's lives. Now what I have

S

Speaker 4 03:07

You're doing it in very negative way.

M

Michael Crawford 03:09

Well, we've done more than you've done, honey. And I'd like to say that had it not been for all the work that ACT UP has been doing over the last five years, then we would not have the amount of AIDS funding that we'd have now, we would not have the amount of constants about the AIDS epidemic,

S

Scott Lewis 03:22

Lower drug prices.

M

Michael Crawford 03:24

We would have lower drug prices, we would not have health care reform going on now. We would

S

Scott Lewis 03:30

Drug trials in this town.

M Michael Crawford 03:31
Exactly. women, people of color would not be involved in

S Speaker 4 03:35
In other words, anyone who does not share your opinion does not have a valid point of view. Is that correct?

M Michael Crawford 03:42
No. If we thought that you wouldn't be on the air right now. What I'm saying is that ACT UP does what ACT UP does because it is effective. We're in a situation where people are dying, a person dies of AIDS every six minutes. And I'm sorry if that offends you and Denis Hughes, but ACT UP has work that has to be done. I don't see other people out doing the work. I mean, one reason ACT UP's actions have to be so militant, have to be so dramatic is because so few people are involved. I think it's pretty embarrassing that we live in the city with the fourth largest number of AIDS cases yet we cannot get more than 50 people out for a demonstration. If you really care about ending AIDS

S Speaker 4 04:21
Maybe it's the way they go about trying to recruit people.

M Michael Crawford 04:25
We don't recruit. Hello. I mean, if you don't like what ACT UP is doing, it's really easy to form your own organization.

S Speaker 4 04:32
That's not the point of my call. The point of my call is I didn't think you had a right to say the remarks you did about the man simply because he didn't agree with you.

M Michael Crawford 04:42
We had, we have the right. Now whether or not what we did was a good or bad thing because is an entirely different question, it's with our right to say that and it's what they also

S Speaker 4 04:51

Morally, I don't think it is.

M

Michael Crawford 04:53

Morally?

J

Jimmy Carper 04:57

When people are dying

S

Speaker 1 04:58

Morals? People are dying here.

J

Jimmy Carper 05:01

You can do it.

S

Speaker 4 05:01

You know, people aren't dying of other things besides AIDS, too.

M

Michael Crawford 05:05

ACT UP is not about other diseases, it's about AIDS.

J

Jimmy Carper 05:08

Where are the ACT UP groups for those people?

M

Michael Crawford 05:10

Yeah. I mean,

S

Speaker 4 05:12

I think they're accomplishing more going about it in their way than the ACT UP group is accomplishing.

S

Speaker 1 05:20

You know, a lot of a lot of things in the health care area in general have changed because of things that ACT UP has done, changes that have helped all people with terminal illnesses, not just people with AIDS. It's made a difference in, the whole thing that Hillary Clinton is doing right now about health care in large part was due to the pressure that ACT UP brought on to to the government.

M

Michael Crawford 05:44

And also when it comes to drug pricing and drug, and drug approval. The FDA, before ACT UP came became involved and began pushing the the the issue of faster drug approval, it took up to 10 years to get a drug approved and people were dying in all that time. Now because of the work that active has done which may have offended you and Denis Hughes, the drug approval process been shortened to about three years and the faster we get the drugs out to people, the more people we can keep alive. Now while you may disagree with us and, and it's within your right to disagree with us we have to do what we feel is necessary to save people's lives.

S

Speaker 4 06:22

And so you have to make the comment that the man got out his thesaurus to write the letter.

M

Michael Crawford 06:27

We did not do that in ACT UP. ACT UP said nothing about Denis Hughes.

S

Speaker 4 06:30

So I'm saying the comment you made tonight on what, what do you base that on? That he got out his thesaurus to write the letter?

M

Michael Crawford 06:37

Maybe it's something to do with the clunkiness of his wording? I was, I was criticizing the fact that he's

S

Speaker 4 06:43

Maybe you have a problem in reading the letter.

M

Michael Crawford 06:45

No, I did not have a problem in reading the letter. But if you look up in your dictionary, you will find out that boorish and insipid are not the same and in fact are opposite and he used those those both, both words to describe ACT UP. Either active can be boorish which I guess it's sometimes it is or it can be insipid, which never has been.

S Speaker 4 07:04
That I believe is the word.

M Michael Crawford 07:06
Thank you for your call.

S Speaker 4 07:07
Okay.

S Scott Lewis 07:11
Do you think that maybe she stumbled onto this station looking for the one next to us?

S Speaker 1 07:16
That's a good possibility.

M Michael Crawford 07:18
Don't want to be mean.

S Scott Lewis 07:19
No, I don't want to be made and and I, and you made the best point in that if we were trying to squash his opinion, or GLPC's or anybody else, we wouldn't have taken her call and let her talk as long as she did and so forth. And

M Michael Crawford 07:35
She did do that talking on KPFT 90.1 FM, Houston. Yeah.

S Scott Lewis 07:41
After Hours. a continuing tradition. are we going to do a little. we're going to do a little promos

After Hours, a continuing tradition, are we going to do a more, we're going to do a more promo and PSAs right quick, we'll be right back.

S

Speaker 5 08:12

Friday night, Big Jesus Trash Can and the Dumpster Dancers bring you a sampling of counterculture trash, metal, hip hop, punk, hardcore, alternative guitar rock, comedy and listener requests. It's three hours of horror old radio with a hand gun and lots of love and understanding.

S

Speaker 6 08:45

The Dumpster can be heard when Friday meets Saturday on weird radio KPFT Houston.

S

Speaker 7 08:58

In December 1981, the Gay and Lesbian Switchboard went online to give out information and referrals within our community. Over the years volunteers spent thousands of hours answering questions or providing a sympathetic ear to some people who just wanted to talk to another lesbian or gay person. The Switchboard always needs new volunteers and has a training class slated for two weekends in August. To become a volunteer call the Gay and Lesbian switchboard at 529-3211.

S

Scott Lewis 09:43

Little Johnny, are you queer? And that's what we're all about right here at After Hours, a continuing tradition, just a bunch of queers sitting around causing problems. And we're gonna go to a little Sylvester and when we come back, we'll take some of these phone calls that I guess we've got a couple of people riled up. So we'll be back right after this little Sylvester tune called

J

Jimmy Carper 10:04

"Someone Like You."

S

Scott Lewis 10:07

Girl, I didn't think that song, whatever. And oh, much like my last relationship. But that's another story, god darn it, you wake up the next morning and they're still there. Separate it didn't, somebody called and said separate agendas, said that there are too many separate agendas in the gay community, that we all need to come together and that you don't have to live in Montrose to be actively involved.

M

Michael Crawford 10:35

Okay and to be honest, I agree with that person because I don't live in Montrose. I live in the lovely Fifth Ward. And we do all have our own agendas that we need to pull together into a big agenda. And that's that's all true, which is part of what we're going to discuss next week here on After Hours.

S

Scott Lewis 10:50

The big political agenda, the big picture. Someone also called, what was the woman we talked to a minute ago,

S

Speaker 1 10:59

Marilyn?

S

Scott Lewis 10:59

Marilyn, Marilyn, somebody called and said for you to watch Voices from the Front. Is that available on video cassette?

M

Michael Crawford 11:08

I'm not sure, it comes from a group called Testing the Limits which is a video collective in New York. I know that it's been shown on HBO, but she should probably well, I know it ain't a blockbuster. But she should maybe try Lobo. And it's basically a documentary tracing the history of AIDS activism in America.

S

Scott Lewis 11:27

Voices from the Front. And no, you don't have to live in Montrose to be actively involved and, and yes, we do all need to pull together and get over the separatist BS. And I'll be the first to, I'll be the first to lay my agenda aside and get involved.

M

Michael Crawford 11:48

Phone call.

S

Scott Lewis 11:49

As soon as somebody as soon as I see that that's going to happen. Let's take a phone call. We are at 526-KPFT. We are a bunch of queers down here causing trouble. And all you have to do is give us a holler at 526-5738. And you can join the fun. Roy, are you there?

S

Speaker 8 12:09

I'm here and I'm queer.

S

Scott Lewis 12:11

All right, Roy, how's it going?

S

Speaker 8 12:13

Oh, fine. As far as what that lady was saying to, that she was so riled up, I just want to say ACT UP has done more for the gay community than the Gay and Lesbian Political Caucus ever did. And I'll tell you if it wasn't for ACT UP on a nationwide basis putting the pressure, the government would never, they would have allowed us to all die off.

S

Scott Lewis 12:44

You will get no arguments from me there, Roy.

S

Speaker 8 12:47

I mean, and I hate saying it. But I read that article last week, which y'all read part of, which I think helped substantiate my point that there are people that really do want our death.

S

Scott Lewis 13:03

Oh, sure. No question about it.

S

Speaker 8 13:05

And I dropped off another thing for y'all this morning. I don't know if, if you've read it yet.

S

Scott Lewis 13:10

A little religious pamphlet.

S

Speaker 8 13:12

Right and the last two pages of it, it shows how the Southern Baptist Church, I'm going to come right out and say it, has as part of their agenda to force their beliefs on government, on everybody in this country, as part of their agenda, is bigotry.

S

Scott Lewis 13:35

Oh, sure. No question about it.

S

Speaker 8 13:36

And when they had their agenda done up, you can see it was done back in '63. Part of the Baptist, mainline Baptist fundamentalist Baptist churches here, they were preaching racial segregation and bigotry and hatred and using biblical scripture to back it up and saying that blacks were biblically inferior to the white man. And they're using their biblical scriptures to try to force their beliefs on all of us and they want us dead, d-e-a-d, dead. And if it was not for ACT UP you know, we probably wouldn't have ACT right now.

S

Scott Lewis 14:28

Oh, no question about it. Not only would we not have ACT but we also have it at an affordable price. That was also made possible by ACT UP or Act Crazy as Denis M. Hughes wants to call them.

S

Speaker 8 14:46

You know, there is never any real change in society without people getting into the streets. I don't care whether it's, was ending the war in Vietnam, getting gay rights, getting black rights, getting decent civil rights for the Hispanic farmworkers. People had to get into the streets. It was never ever accomplished by sitting around in little political caucuses saying, oh, I wish.

S

Scott Lewis 15:21

You are you, you go, Roy.

S

Speaker 8 15:24

I am, I am a 43 year old faggot and I am proud of myself, and I want to tell you some, I ain't stupid.

I

[Together] 15:34

You go.

S

Speaker 8 15:35

 Speaker 8 15:35
I watch what goes on.

 Scott Lewis 15:36
You go and we will see you in the streets. Roy. Thanks for listening. Bye. Roy, Roy is there every week, he listens to us every week and he brings us by little articles and things and leaves them in the box. And he's, that's great.

 Speaker 1 15:52
What is this religious article?

 Scott Lewis 15:53
This, we are going to talk about that a little bit later. The religious article he mentioned I've got that somewhere. We'll talk about that in a little bit. Right now. We're gonna go to Lynn, another one of our avid listeners who would have no life if it weren't for After Hours, isn't that right Lynn.

 Speaker 9 16:14
How are you?

 Scott Lewis 16:14
Wonderful. Lynn, how are you doing?

 Speaker 9 16:16
Fine. I just got something, about three little things right quick here. Let me ask your first. What is a women's foundation?

 Scott Lewis 16:25
Women's Foundation? Haven't heard of it. Well, isn't that what they put on first in the morning, their makeup?

 Speaker 9 16:34
That's what I thought. Yeah. This is, isn't this the organization that gives out words to women doing something in the community or doing, or giving grants to women for something?

S Scott Lewis 16:45
I haven't heard of it Lynn.

S Speaker 9 16:46
Oh, okay. Because why I asked is, you better hold Michael down. Randalls is doing a fundraising for them with an under, brightened by Coca Cola. And I I have a feeling it's suspicious. That's why, knowing them. I just have a feeling, I don't, you know, feel comfortable. You know, for Women's Foundation is you know, for women and you know, the good stuff and why is Randalls in there? They're pro-choice, you know, that they're not mean maybe, I guess they're in there.

M Michael Crawford 17:19
We just got a person who's run in, Tom, who hangs out with us a lot and he says that the Women's Foundation is for ex-lesbians. Now, what exactly an ex-lesbian is, I don't know.

S Speaker 1 17:34
Isn't the the same thing as an ex-queer or somebody that wants to go back into hiding.

S Speaker 9 17:39
I don't know. Could I be an honorary gay man?

S Scott Lewis 17:42
I think you already are Lynn, you listen to the show every week. Okay. And for all ex-lesbians that are listening tonight, you're dialed to 90.1 FM, you actually need to be at 89.3. So if you'll just grab that knob. Come with me quickly. Grab that knob. There you go. You've got it. Okay, just a little bit to the left. Am I getting staticky, as soon as you can hear me anymore and the music starts getting pretty. There you are. You're there. Okay, your other points. Lynn?

S Speaker 9 18:11
Okay. John Lindsay.

S Scott Lewis 18:13
Yes. Thank God, ding dong, the witch is dead.

S Speaker 9 18:23
What was the script that Brian was talking about before when he said he couldn't say anything, before something hit the fan. Was this it?

S Scott Lewis 18:32
No, I don't know if this was it or not.

M Michael Crawford 18:34
Brian knows a lot of stuff.

S Scott Lewis 18:35
Brian knows all the tea.

J Jimmy Carper 18:37
Well, I can tell you that I'm aware of Clyde Wilson. I know him personally. I'm Jimmy.

S Speaker 9 18:45
Hi, Jimmy.

J Jimmy Carper 18:46
Hi. How are you doing?

S Speaker 9 18:48
How's Stanley by the way?

J Jimmy Carper 18:49
Oh, he's fine. He's, he's in Seattle. He's coming in Monday. I'll pick him up.

S Speaker 9 18:53

Oh, good.

J Jimmy Carper 18:54

We had a great time in San Francisco last week. Oh. Yeah. Oh, anyway, Clyde Wilson who, who was kind of on this case with John Lindsay worked at Tenneco when I worked at Tenneco. So I, I've got, I mean, he did security for Tenneco. This guy is incredible. You cannot keep a secret from him. He is gonna find the dirt. So I mean, I've seen him in action. And when I saw that he was assigned to it I thought, oh, yeah, they're gonna get the dirt on this dude.

M Michael Crawford 19:28

And he's also being investigated by the FBI.

S Speaker 9 19:31

Oh, yeah.

I [Together] 19:32

Good, good. Good.

S Speaker 9 19:33

So maybe, did he say he was gonna run for '94 then?

S Scott Lewis 19:38

No, he said today he's not gonna run.

S Speaker 9 19:41

Judge in there, hopefully. Oh, gosh, and Randalls and also too, my bank is in Randalls. Now Randalls discriminates in everything, wow do I tell my bank that I'm concerned about it and that even though my bank has a branch office all the way in LA, what do I do?

M Michael Crawford 19:41

But he's gonna

S Scott Lewis 20:00

Can't you just go to the I know that you're talking about First Interstate.

S Speaker 9 20:04

That's my bank and you know and being in LA too, I don't know about Boy Scouts either.

S Scott Lewis 20:11

I would just go to the, the First Interstate I guess that's not in the Randalls. There's one on Wall and West Gray.

S Speaker 9 20:18

I have a branch out here too that's not in there. But, you know, if you ask somebody about the head office, you know, they feel like, you know, you're, you're asking for something going over somebody's head, not, you know, kind of, I'm familiar with turning this new turning point.

S Scott Lewis 20:33

Is it, is it politically okay for her to use First Interstate as long as she doesn't use it in a Randalls?

M Michael Crawford 20:39

Well, I mean, I don't even have a problem with people using First Interstate in Randalls,

S Speaker 9 20:42

I do, I feel uncomfortable going in there and everything.

S Scott Lewis 20:45

Because you do have to walk through the store.

M Michael Crawford 20:47

I wouldn't go in there personally. Well, they would let me in there. But you know, I don't have a problem with people doing it.

S Scott Lewis 20:52
You're okay Lynn, it comes straight from Michael Crawford's lips.

J Jimmy Carper 20:58
Well if she said it must be okay.

S Scott Lewis 21:00
If Michael said it. It's okay. This from the man who was chained up to a Randalls freezer.

S Speaker 9 21:05
Well, that's good. I was just wondering my, in LA though, and I was concerned, if our bank coordinates too, you know, I don't

S Scott Lewis 21:15
You know what the best thing to do is just call and ask him. Ask him about a non-discrimination policy.

S Speaker 9 21:21
Oh, yeah. Because then Randalls discriminates, and I don't want my bank being in a discriminatory place, then. You know, I guess it's too late since they already have the branches in there, but still. Yeah, yeah. Well, okay. That's about all I had to say. Can you get a thing on Women's Foundation? See what it's about?

S Scott Lewis 21:39
Yeah, we'll check that out.

S Speaker 9 21:40
I thought maybe Joyce? Who's one that you?

S Scott Lewis 21:45
Right. Right.

 Speaker 9 21:46
Yeah, maybe she can tell us.

 Speaker 1 21:48
I'll do that this next week.

 Scott Lewis 21:49
Well, we'll find out, we'll have something for you next Saturday Lynn.

 Speaker 9 21:52
Whatever and keep up the good work and everything.

 Scott Lewis 21:54
Thanks Lynn.

 Speaker 9 21:55
Jimmy, tell Jimmy he didn't play that song for that police officer.

 Jimmy Carper 22:00
What?

 Scott Lewis 22:01
Jimmy, the queer cop song.

 Jimmy Carper 22:03
I don't have it.

 Speaker 9 22:04
Oh, you don't? Sorry about that.

Jimmy Carper 22:05

No, no, you see. Rainbow de Clown promised to bring it and he hasn't done it yet.

Scott Lewis 22:12

And Rainbow, I'll tell him what you're doing if you don't get us that, that tape because I know what you do when you listen to our show, girl. Thank you, Lynn. Oh, I didn't mean to. I think I might have cut her off. Sorry. I know, Lynn's wonderful, she calls every week. Let's take one more phone call. And then let's do a little more music because you know, I'm getting a little tender and a little lightheaded. And you know, all this talking, all this chitter chat.

Michael Crawford 22:40

As if you don't talk a lot anyway.

Scott Lewis 22:42

Oh, leave me alone queen, please, I'll chain myself to you. And you won't like that at all, will ya? Hello?

Speaker 10 22:48

Hello.

Scott Lewis 22:48

How are you doing?

Speaker 10 22:50

Absolutely flawless, thank you, yourself?

Scott Lewis 22:52

Oh, girl. If I was doing half as good as you looked, most of the time I see you I couldn't be doing that bad at all. Well, that's true. What are you up to?

Speaker 10 23:03

I was first of all, so you know who I am. I'm the person that called and said that there was too many agendas, and that you didn't have to live in Montrose. And to also tell, in case the lady can't find Coices from the Front, she can call my foundation, and I will send her a copy of it absolutely free.

 Scott Lewis 23:18
You are wonderful.

 Speaker 10 23:20
For that case, anyone that calls and mentions After Hours, we'll send it to you. And it's just a fabulous video. And I think everyone needs to see that to get a good understanding of what ACT UP is all about.

 Scott Lewis 23:30
Well, and you're with Project Red Ribbon, right?

 Speaker 10 23:32
We're sponsoring Project Red Ribbon. The name of the organization is the Red Ribbon Foundation.

 Scott Lewis 23:37
Okay, and how did they get in touch with you?

 Speaker 10 23:39
Um, they can call the foundation, they can call our voicemail 24 hours a day, and it's 789-0278. And well, just tell them that they want a copy of the video that they were talking about on After Hours and then I'll get my staff to send it out Monday morning.

 Jimmy Carper 23:53
Wow. All right.

 23:54
And one more time.

 Speaker 10 23:56
789-0278.

 Speaker 1 23:58
Thank you.

 Scott Lewis 23:58
And Polo as, as you probably heard, we did so you don't have to live in Montrose. I lived, girl, I lived out in Spring, Texas for a long time and drove in.

 Speaker 10 24:07
Oh my.

 Scott Lewis 24:08
Drove in girl.

 Jimmy Carper 24:10
Then she got over herself.

 Scott Lewis 24:11
But then I got over it and said girl, I can't drive home this full all the time. So she moved to the Montrose and

 Jimmy Carper 24:20
Even, even the illustrious Michael Crawford does not live in Montrose.

 Scott Lewis 24:24
Does not live in the Montrose.

 Speaker 10 24:25
Well, I just, I just wanted that point that you don't have to live in Montrose. This is only like my well, I just, I just wanted that point that you don't have to live in Montrose. This is only like my third time listening to the show. And I started listening at the advice of Miss Jewel Gray. So never on, every time I tune in, she's not in so.

M

Michael Crawford 24:40

I have a question. You said that, that what you said, when you first came on, that there were too many agendas, right? What did you mean by that?

S

Speaker 10 24:49

Everyone has mixed agendas. I mean, one person thinks ,which and I'm not, I'm not criticizing anyone. I mean, because I have beef with some organizations here in Houston, which will remain nameless, but it's just because it everyone seems to be going on a straight line so you get to a certain point and everyone arrows out in a different direction. And it should be the opposite. There should be people coming in from all directions going up to one straight line.

M

Michael Crawford 25:14

I agree with that.

S

Speaker 10 25:15

It's just the gay community in Houston, I've noticed and I've only been back in Houston a year from Los Angeles, and then prior to that from New York, but it's split, you've got, now you've got your cliques, you've got your HIV positive people versus your HIV negative people, then you've got your people with AIDS, and you've got your people with AIDS that are opportunistic and then it just goes on and on and on. It does not end. And people just keep dividing themselves up into groups, which is only hurting themselves because they're separating themselves from other people.

M

Michael Crawford 25:44

I agree with that.

S

Speaker 10 25:44

Right now the person I'm seeing, thank God, but is HIV negative, but that doesn't make a difference.

M

Michael Crawford 25:50

That's right. Yeah.

S

Speaker 10 25:51

So anyway, I just wanted to make that point. And I don't want to monopolize the phone lines. And I'm turning in.

M

Michael Crawford 25:58

Okay, thank you.

J

Jimmy Carper 25:59

Thank you for the offer. And that's really, that's really super great.

S

Scott Lewis 26:04

And the Red Ribbon Foundation and Project Red Ribbon is an incredible deal. It's going, they're going all over the country. They've got a lot of, Madonna has endorsed it, Cher has endorsed it. They've got these celebrities that have donated things, they're doing a big red ribbon auction with celebrity items, to raise money for AIDS, doing a lot of different things. And Polo is very active here locally, single handedly doing a lot of things here locally so.

J

Jimmy Carper 26:35

I like the idea of somebody taking the red ribbon and actually doing something with it, rather than just wearing it and saying that, you know, as if that's an indication of I, that I paid $10 for the ribbon and I've done my part for AIDS, which is not the case at all.

S

Scott Lewis 26:52

Let's do a little music.

J

Jimmy Carper 26:57

Up until now we've played gay and lesbian performers. But now we're going to go to some friends of gay and lesbian performers. You've, you've got your favorite and I've got my favorite, huh? Oh, wait a minute, you're gonna do the record aren't you?

S

Scott Lewis 27:11

The record. This record?

 Jimmy Carper 27:14
Yeah, that record, Mary.

 Scott Lewis 27:15
Well, I didn't know what we were gonna do. What am I?

 Jimmy Carper 27:20
Yeah, wait a minute before, well, there we go.
