Oh yeah, there's people from Belgium, Spain, France. We've got a Chinese guy here. Really, really cute. Well, well, well, language barrier is not a problem because we all know the common language. Baby. Yeah.

Peter 00:20

But he went downstairs gotta go back home on Thursday and said he was walking down the street and picked up. He was by himself in new harness. And after he walked out of there, he didn't walk four blocks and four different cars pulled over to, you know, go and play and do all these things. He said, I've never had so much fun in my life. There's most gorgeous men in the world that I knew you were there. And I went oh, you mean, but I think I met those four cars.

00:44

00:48

You're good for you. Good for you. Good for you. This is a this is a wonderful competition now. Oh, yeah, it is. And this person is probably the most visible spokesperson that there is for the leather community. So it's very important that they make a wise choice with this.

00:55

P

Peter 01:07

There's who's there from Texas can actually there's Mark Fraser, Mr. Dallas leather. There's Robert good from San Antonio. He's Mr. Texas letter. There's masters of leather that Stan Harrell.

♂

01:10

01:22

Oh, yeah, no, Stan,

01:23

he he's he's up here. He's competing again. He competed last year. And then there's his name escapes me is Mr. South Texas. That's put on by Archangel productions out of San Antonio. So they're all looking good. And for once, it's great to be on the other side of that. I told him tonight when I was going into physique, they said do you miss this? I said, Hell no. It's fun to go in the front door for a change.

01:53

Ken has been in a couple of these competitions. Yeah.

♂

01:56

One or two. Yeah. I have contest burnout.

02:00

Well, I hope you have a wonderful time and next month, I expect to hear a full report on everything that happened.

♂

02:08

Oh, you will get all the details. Good. Right. We'll just have to put some plugs in Jim's ears. I'm expecting photographs.

02:17

Take pictures. Lots of pictures.

TAKE PICTURES. LOTS OF PICTURE

02:21 with a camera shirt. Y'all have a good night. Thank you for calling. Talking to you to take 02:33

Ken Claude That's fine. He's up there. Mr. International weather contest. Have Have any of you folks bend to that? No, me either. I always help send everybody there. Does that it? Yeah, you did fundraisers to help set Yeah, San Francisco. Very. So Patrick, I didn't I didn't mean to cut you off. But so what is your what are you going to be doing now? With with your music?

03:08

That's good question. Oh, okay. Mostly I feel like I'm I'm just stumbling forward with one foot at a time. And thinking that tomorrow lavender country will die again. But it tomorrow comes and it doesn't see so I do the next thing. I'm going to put out this new recording. Again to show people I'm alive. Lavender country's doing Portland gay pride this year. Oh, very good. Very good. So we're back on the road. And I have a bunch of songs that my sleeve that I'd like to get out. And I'll go sing anywhere.

03:56

I would expect after 27 years that you do have a few songs. I do have a few in the wings. Yeah.

04:00

04:04

I hope they're as wonderful as the first album.

04:07

Well, I like to think so. I like to think I developed during during that time.

Peter 04:14

How long before you think you'll get the mail

04:21

I would love to have it done by next year. I have been concentrating on getting these these six done. It's been a job coming into a cold. Are you trying to tell me that I have to give this back to you.

04:31

04:34

That you do but I'll send you another one next week. Okay, but this is like an unmixed not final version. It's a producer note was played on the air you probably get mad. Oh, when are those? Good. It's good that he's so fuzzy. And then yeah, I would love to make a new CD. I do have enough material to do that.

05:00

And let's get the word out and let's get the music out.

05:03

So I'm gonna keep at it. Somebody tells me I can't.

05:10

Good. Are you gonna be involved in any or a lot or a little in? In Doug and Charlie's group that train Western? I bet joined it on the phone with Doug. Seems like every day. Really? Yeah. We've become running buddies. Yeah. Since since the article came out. Good. And we're building the Lesbian Gay Country Music Association. And it's, it's coming along really? Well. Yes. It's surprisingly much, much, much credit, of course, faster than I thought it would. Yeah. Well, he did a lot of really fine work. But while I wasn't doing music, I was doing a lot of community organizing a whole lot.

05:21

06:03

It left me with, you know, with some community organizing skills. But Doug was happy to discover Yes, I'm desperate in desperate need. So, woman, yes.

06:09

06:17

With Doug's expertise in music, and you know what little bit I know about community organizing, we make a pretty good combo. Good. So that's what we've been doing that is wonderful that it's just such great news. You know, it. I am so happy that that woman called you and and revived this whole thing. And I think it's great to have this revival of love and God country at the same time as the birth of the Lesbian Gay Country Music Association, I think, right? Perfect. I mean, yeah, right. And my kids are all raised so I can hit the road now.

06:27

06:51

06:56

You know, another thing too, Chris Dickinson, the editor of the Journal of country music, and the next issue of the Journal of country music, which should be out any day may be out now. She's going to print lots and lots of letters that she got about that article. And my understanding is that she at least as as of a couple of months ago, she had not received a single negative letter. No kidding. Everything was positive. That's amazing. So a large section of the magazine is going to be devoted to these letters. She's, she's, she's still at it. She's Chris Dickinson is not someone who, who who came in to do a quick article and then move on to the next thing. She is a true in the trenches, comrade. And she was supporting us long before she wrote this article. And she's going to be doing it long after she wrote this article. She's in this for the long haul. And she intends to keep at it. And I really love her for that. She didn't just show up to do something quick and interesting, and then go on to the next thing. We can rely on her as a friend over the years. I think that's very important. And certainly we really need to give her a lot of credit. She's not, and you're too all of a sudden now you're the grandfather of country music. I hate to put it that way. But I like that. grandpappy Yes. But you know, hey, truth. Truth is true. Yes. Right. What happened? Yeah, that's what I what I what I ended up being and I'm glad you're back. And I am old enough to be in a grandfather. Also. Me too. I know routers making some serious noises.

07:34

08:24

08:42

08:58

We have a teen group here that has a segment and it drives me crazy because I'm about 10 years older than their parents. JD Do you have anything to add? Treat to see all these guys in I got it on tape at home. Me too. I thank you all for being here. Thank you so very much.

09:23

Thank you, Jamie.

09:24

Thank you. Oh, yes, thank you so much. And opportunity. We're gonna go out with rainbows favorite.

09:28

Peter 09:32

The thing is a lot of I was just gonna throw in is you know, large sets of the gay community but there's a lot of young very young gay people that are outside the bell, if you will, are outside the loop and just like this note from Rick from Alvin is listening right now.

09:45

Peter 09:49

And and a lot of they're young and and, you know, it's very difficult to be young and gay and you know, not think you're the only one in the whole world. It is Ah, where's all in? How do I and you know because a lot of our seniors so bar scene and they can't do that and you can be gay and not like disco music

10:05

Peter 10:11

while especially in Michigan, I just got back from these friends when country is big in their house, I was like, okay, yeah, it's rain but a clown playing with they call and tell us, you know, like, I listened to the show and it's like, I feel like there's some knowing that there's somebody out there that's good and I'm not alone. And it's like a little touch with reality, you know, these kids with little headsets and their little Walkmans under the coverage that you know like and so you know, to have you guys on and with good long history Yeah, so grandpappy or whatever, whatever, you know, starters on the way back when they had the whole thing revitalized, and relive again, and then know that there's new life and new blood coming in with Charlie and and so many people. That is a must. I mean, imagine yourself flow you know, like 1516 Okay, I'm thinking gathers really world out there. Yeah, I got some look forward to and what I'm able to stand up do my thing and if people have gone before me, that's so important for this. Sure. And we want them all to be gay country singers when they grow. Yeah. Thank you guys so much, Charlie. Doug. Patrick, thank you so much for being Thank you JD too. Okay, and we're going out with of course, the most requested country in western sown here KPFT and after hours, and rainbows favorite Doug Stevens in the in the app bands doing out in the country.

11:21

R

Roy McCarthy 31:11

You missed part of it when we talked about the pride garden.

♂

31:15

C

Chris 31:24

yeah, Roy, I mean, did you see how dusty his knees were? Hey,

R

Roy McCarthy 31:29

I know. We gotta get some new jeans.

31:31

Okay, yeah. So we're going to go right to a piece of music. The one that I was going to play from the original lavender country album, The titled cut lavender country. This is Patrick Haggerty in 1973. And you're hearing it on after hours queer radio with attitude on KPFT Houston and KEOS College Station.

32:10

Lavender country the title cut from the original lavender country album. Patrick Haggerty singing.

Peter 32:18

We just had too much fun.

32:20

And he was just here in the studios last and yeah, just really, really. Just, you know, like, I got it. You're just paying? Yes. Like I told you I can I'll tell the audience. You know, when when people like, like Doug Stevens and Charlie and Patrick come in, people I look up to my mind goes mush. You know, I just Gosh, and I don't know what to say. Yeah, it's really.

32:51

Anyway, you are still listening to after hours. I'm Jimmy Carper. And Peter is here. And we're going to have a lot of fun till the end of the show. Yes, because he's got,

Peter 33:01

I haven't got it first of all, because we got all indoor interviews and all of their fun stuff. Somebody called and asked me if I would make this announcement. Charlotte, the harlot have your friend your boyfriend or whatever, email Patrick, about Polish poet. But he called in and said, Please do that.

33:24

Can you repeat that? Because that sounded really harlot. Have your boyfriend email Patrick about the Polish poet. Okay. I don't have a clue. I don't think I really want to know. So, oh, the the other thing is, well, there's a lot of other things that we're going to do here but Rick and Alvin was talking about the the Laura site. Yes. And that was he said he didn't have to use the www. But it's, it was given to me. It's www dot pencil. next.com/laura.htm. That's pencil next. Pencil next.

Peter 33:27

33:37

P Peter 34:05

emci I and 34:06

yeah, that's the one s.com/laura.h T m. And you can see some lovely pictures of her about 20 years ago. A very, rather revealing napkin that we talked. Yeah. And she's, she's got like dark hair. So she is not even going there. But she's a suicide blonde. Is that a fat dyed by her own hand? Okay. That was bad.

P Peter 34:42

It was it was what do you got? Well, I have a few little things.

34:51

A few little things.

P Peter 34:55

I'm not going outside of that. Maybe maybe the people that are that are going home from the bars listening in. Maybe we ought to spice them up with a little joke. I had a poll. Okay. I have a poem I need to tell you about. And I got a maybe we could do the one. Maybe. Let's do the one about Todd. Okay. One day Todd. He complained to his friend that his elbow really hurt. Well, and he says, I guess I should see a doctor. I sold a child. He made me nervous back on your opinion table or what can we do on my shoulder? One day Tyler has complained to his friend that he's going by elbow really hurts, I guess. But thank God, this isn't television Mirlande

35:47

and his magic wireless

P

Peter 35:49

wand is out. Anyway, one day Todd complained his friend this elbow hurts sure makes my tongue no hurt. I guess I should see a doctor's friend said no, don't bother. He said there's a computer at the drugstore that can diagnose anything quicker and cheaper than your doctor. Simply put a sample of your urine in the computer and they'll diagnose your problem and tell you what you can do about it and it's only going to cost you 10 bucks. So Todd figured he had nothing to lose So Phil Gerald's here and went to the drugstore. Put the thing in the computer for it in the sample drop in the 10 bucks and the computer started making wild noises and after a brief pause, out popped a slip of paper which said you have tennis elbow.
