Oh yeah, not exactly dedicated to anybody but I do have a couple of friends that kind of friends so that fits that was Doug Stephens in the out band with white trash. And before that out in the country and before that Brand New Music by Sid Spencer, from his new album out and about again, we did one called All I can handle and that's just one man that's all he can handle. And there's another tune on here that's written that's real pretty that I that I like it's it's kind of a song for his daddy. It's called Daddy shoes because we all liked our our daddy's. So let me play that for you right now sit Spencer daddy shoes

Yes, that's the Williams brothers. twins who are nephews of Andy Williams and one's gay one straight. Doing Don't look now. It's kind of a funky song about AIDS. You're listening to a musical version of after hours, which is queer radio with attitude right here on KPFT Houston and KEOS College Station Bryan. It's a kind of a three hour Q MZ queer music zone, where we feature music by openly gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgendered artists. And let's see, we've got some requested Elton John coming up. That's not exactly what you asked for. But I'm going to do an Elton John set for for our listener and we are taking requests for your favorite queer music at five to 65738526 KPFT now there's a new play in town and it's really a lot of fun. It's called after ever after. It's it's like 15 years after the ball. And that you know, we're Cinderella did last year the shoe and all of that kind of stuff. It's Cinderella. Cinderella. Cinderella. Cinderella. Not send her fella. Believe it or not, let's say yes, it's it. It takes place in a dingy room in the West Wing of Queen Cinderella's castle. 15 years after the ball. The Prince is dead. He died of syphilis that he caught from the court jester and the fame right? The fairy godmother is now a chambermaid. She's lost all her powers and that the two step sisters are held hostage and this is happening at Houston Skyline theater. It's a fat man's production. It's it's the to let me put it to you this way. The wicked stepsisters are played by Anthony EP Hill and fancy paste Lawrence. So this is a fun production. It's 1030 Every Saturday night Houston Skyline theater that's at the Houston house 1617 Fannin it's it's fun theater y'all it'll just laugh your butt off let me tell you saw that last night. Now. Elton John as requested as promised that I'm gonna do a couple of them stuff maybe while stuff definitely you didn't hear on the radio happens to be favorites of mine or people here at after hours so a little Elton John set for listener and specially for Evelyn wherever she may be right right off the bat. messed up. Didn't I didn't hit the right button didn't play the one I wanted to play. Okay. This is called Made in England off of Elton's new album

Oh yeah, by request, Elton John. did quite a few there. But you know, it's time for some women's music. I haven't heard I haven't been playing too much. Women's music tonight and I have a lot of women's music and I like a lot of women's music. So we're going to start out with something I have not played in a very long time. It's Holly Nair, who is singing with Mercedes Sosa. Now I'm not I don't know the sexuality of Mercedes so so but Holly near is definitely one of us. And this is a really pretty song. It was one of these types of songs that when you first hear it, it just blows you away and he just can't forget it. And you're hearing it on after hours queer radio with attitude right here on KPFT Houston, and KEOS College Station, Bryan. And now Holly near they dance alone now we've got a request. Yes, the women are finally calling in requesting music. It's k.d. lang. And Leslie wants to hear Miss shadow lane and that goes out to Fela. Okay. Okay, Leslie, or you're the one that usually calls up and wants to hear CWA. We haven't had that one requested yet tonight. Anyway. Miss shadow lane to fella from Leslie
