Oh yes, you've tuned into after hours Queer radio with attitude right here on KPFT Houston 90.1 FM. The crew of after hours is ready to bring you news interviews, dialogue and music geared for gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgendered people and their friends. Hear it after hours. We may be diverse, but we have one thing in common. We are all out of the closet and urge everyone to come out of their closets. That means standing up for yourself taking responsibility for your own life and being proud of who you are. Realistically, we know not everyone can do that because of age job or frame of mind. That's okay, we're here for you too.

01:29

So sit back, relax, and enjoy this week's edition of after hours.

02:05

Hello, Houston in College Station and welcome to 02:08 after hours Queer radio with attitude. This is no no. November 30 slash December 1 edition. And Jimmy Carper. I'll be your producer for the evening. And my co host for tonight is JD Doyle right here. Right here. I've got a couple of things to do before we get into music night because this is the fifth Saturday of the month. So first of all Hello to all my MBBS out there You betcha that green eyed devil as I'm still enjoying that envelope, die newbie and Prince. I haven't heard from you lately and and all your wonderful artwork that folks around here are. I mean, just the daytime people, you know wait to to get something to see your artwork. We've got Mark, sloth mark, and

02:12

03:04

Caro and Roy and Paul and 03:10

probably a whole lot others that I've missed, but those are the ones that have lately. A couple of events is the community tree lighting ceremony that's happening today. Sunday, Sunday, Sunday yesterday at tonight at 7pm at the lesbian and gay community center that's located at 803 Hawthorne, Hawthorne at Stanford, and that seven bucks and no 7pm I was wondering as donation if you'd like at the door. Yeah, so but the official thing is Gulf Coast archive and museum in conjunction with the Houston lesbian and gay community center are currently working on a joint project for the 15th annual World AIDS Day. On December 1, we will be lighting up the names project Houston, Christmas tree of remembrance, we will be using many of the ornaments which have adorned the tree at its lighting ceremonies in years passed. This ceremony is unique to Houston and was first introduced in 1989 by Larry Ray POGIL and Pete Martinez. As of the year 2000. Over 4000 ornaments had been placed. Everyone is invited to bring an ornament to add to the tree personally made an old sentimental favorite or when you've purchased and if you can, please put the name of a loved one who has passed on. Alex Soto from the names project Houston will be our special guests for the lighting ceremony. Tim Brookover will of course be there and the two of them will mingle traditions as they light up Hawthorne street with our glorious tree of remembrance and hope. The names project. Yes, so that's going to happen tomorrow. over tonight at 7pm 803 Hawthorne. And now it's time for the court report. Yes indeedy, boys and girls, ladies and gentlemen. Let's see here. I want to congratulate the Imperial Court of Houston space city empire on a wonderful, wonderful show tonight at at AJs raised $400 for the lesbian and gay community center. Tim Brookover is going to be really thrilled about that. And though let's see, there's a couple shows going on here, December 1. There's one at Mary's it's earthquake's show for the NLA toy drive. Please bring a toy or a check or cash. Then at eight o'clock at the BRB, it's the it's Dennis and Cheyenne show for the toy drive. And let's see upcoming now. I'll do that later. And yes, now it's time for the Royal Sovereign Imperial Court, the single star and tonight at at 830 at the BRB that that is going to be Dennis and Cheyenne show from the heart. And that's for the NLA toy drive. And Saturday, next Saturday, December 7, at 1415, California. That's the old Sonoma candidate for Emperor the 19th. Ronnie Siebert presents name presents a show, this show will benefit AFH camp hope and the Montrose clinic women's program. And Wednesday, December 11. Oh, that's the general meeting. You don't need to know that. And Saturday, September the 14th is another show at chances at five we'll be giving you that information as it comes up. Now. The Imperial Court is going to have a show on the 13th at E js and titled superstitions 29 Again, and the old wives tales that's being put on by treasure Ray summers Carter, grant that just one of the space SETI empire and that is her exact birthday. That's why they're doing it. But we also don't want you to forget this the big show Sunday, December the eighth. It's the lady victoria last annual Christmas show. And that's taking place at the BRB, December 8. That's next Sunday at 7pm. And then the fifth on the 15th. The SAM Buka sisters has their annual Christmas show at the app outpost at five. I mean, there's just shows coming out the wazoo. It's Christmas, it's Christmas. And all of these shows are for charities, mostly the NLA toy drive or AFH, Children's Fund, things like that, and they are worthy of your support. And I can guarantee you you will be entertained at the shows too. And next I want to mention that the men's gathering is going to what are they going to do? Oh, Saturday, December 21st. It's their next scheduled meeting at 630 to 930 at Community Gospel Church and and that's located at 4305 Lillian and Houston. It's going to be facilitated by Paul Guillory. The the rumor of his stepping down has been greatly exaggerated and he is staying with the men's gatherings. So that Saturday December 21 For you folks, and for you bisexuals, Dr. Fritz Klein will be in Dallas to speak to by net doubt the by net December by net meeting in Dallas. That's Friday, December the sixth from 730 to 930. Dinner to follow, and that's going to be taking place at the John Thomas gay and lesbian Center. 2701 Reagan at Brown in Dallas. And now some other fundraisers Christmas song fest, which it's the annual thing now these are these are more pricier folks. This is the this is the Christmas Songfest presents occasion Christmas. It's an evening of caroling and festivities benefiting the Center for AIDS. Yeah, but look who's going to be there and bearing omega? Well, yeah, you know, this is going to be Jerry at with Sharon Montgomery, Terry Pierce, Kimmy Yvette. That'd be Boley, Tommy Lee Jackson, Sean Smith and Marcy Ray, the Marcy ray that you've heard many times on the show and tickets for that. That's going to be at the Edward horn. burger Convention Center at 2151 Holcomb Boulevard. It's 50 bucks. But hey, you're getting some quality entertainment here. Professional entertainment most a lot of these people, most of these people like Deborah Wiley has done shows at stages. Yes, that's right. Most of these people get their livelihood from there entertaining. So that's going to be on December the eighth next Sunday night. And I kilworth manner at 109 Stretford is having the in the spotlight at the manor it's a star studded variety show featuring Broadway style entertainment from Houston finest. Aaron Coleman, Donna how're Depew Vincent James. And true soul is going to be there today are good doing live. Yes, they are really, really good. That's $35 that's Thursday night, December the 12th. Seven to nine at the kilworth Manor 109 Stratford and, and this goes to AIDS Foundation Houston for tickets, contact Wendy Brown. That's the Special Events Coordinator at 713-623-6796. Extension 249. And if you didn't get that, give us a call and we'll get it to you that and you know our number. It's easy. 713526 KPFT. Right. And one more thing before we get to JD Yes,

 JD Doyle 10:13

 10:17

 Jimmy Carper 10:56

11:43

I'm fine. It's a

Jimmy Carper 11:44

Wonderful Life Toys for Tots benefit screening. That's it Wednesday, December the 18th at 730 at the River Oaks theatre. And this holiday season. Please join us for a special community gathering and celebration, landmark theatres with the generous support as the Houston Chronicle and some other people are presenting the holiday classic. It's a Wonderful Life. Sure you can watch it on TV, but you can see this on the big screen. And that's Wednesday, December 18. Please bring a toy brand new toy for an underprivileged child.

12:20

And now now And now and now. And now first of all, I want to tell you the music that you already heard, I was hoping you would yes and yes indeedly, because that is brand new music for after hours. Thank actually thanks to you. It's from Mary last room ello F S T R O N from her brand new CD called Ginger comes to stay. And she This is jazz

JD Doyle 12:48

music is like jazz and it's out music goes 12:52

it ever. Is it ever I mean, she's got the pronouns right, folks. You know when when she does? My baby just cares for me. She says she

JD Doyle 13:01

and she's singing about ginger and that's 13:03

ginger. That's right. And I'll despite no, since the two songs I did was so nice to summer Samba, which is a seven day seem really pretty and she does she she doesn't mince the pronouns pronouns there. And a nice double entendre called all do dot. And she does some scat singing in that. So I really liked that one. I thought that that was that was very very clever. Ah, now it's music night. And you've brought us some stuff. I brought

JD Doyle 13:36

a couple stacks of stuff Yeah we thought we'd make this kind of like the best stuff of the year a couple stacks of stuff. Yeah, we thought we'd make this kind of like the best stuff of the year. Good. So these are we don't have a top 10 There's no charts, but these are some of the things that have come out over the last year that just really struck us.

13:54

Oops, I need to do something. Okay. Before

JD Doyle 13:56

we do that, we're gonna play one more song. Yeah, one more song. It's a brand new song. It's it was written especially for World AIDS Day, which is which is December 1 today. And this is being sung by Yes, official sheets here checking Naylor, Jackie Naylor, J A C to you i nailer and it's called I remember you it's written especially for it was written by a gay man, Jackie's best friend. And it's especially for World AIDS Day and artists against AIDS. And it's especially touching, especially right now because World AIDS Day is to remind us of the those who have gone. Who have we've lost to AIDS. And we have someone here especially. Roger Kinzer died in 1995 on that 29 That was Friday. Roger Kinser was the lover of buddy Johnston, who originated this show. Roger was very instrumental in getting the show on the air and and keeping it smoothly running and, and he often advised buddy on what sounded good and what didn't and he was always right but he but he always took his word. Roger kins are very loving man that that was really tough when he when he left. And so for Roger and for all the 1000s and 1000s of others out there. I want to dedicate this song we'll be right back okay, that was Jackie Naylor. Gosh, I need to I need something happy. We got a little Pepe. This is Lisa coke. Oh, I will survive. What's 16:13

13:58

15:56

JD Doyle 16:09

her doing? Like a diva number?

JD Doyle 16:17

Well, wait till you hear what she's done to it.

16:19

Oh, okay. And you're listening to all of this wonderful stuff on KPFT Houston and ke o s College Station. Hello College Station. How you doing?

16:35

And it won't there it goes there cuz finally. Okay, we're going into just gonna go right into the second one. And we'll tell you what it is later. Your face crept into that space.

JD Doyle 16:48

Oh, isn't that nice? Check. Checking my polls. Alex Olson, your probably is the most edgy artist in the last year. And I think you're right. It's, you know, there's a lot of anti DeFranco in this. Oh,

16:57

JD Doyle 17:05

she's behind and well, yeah. And of course, there's cuts on this CD. The CD is called built like that. The newest CD, a lot of things are not radio friendly. Boy.

17:16

Yeah, like number 21. You can't play I can't even tell you the title. Whoo. But that song, and there's several others that are just really neat. And I've seen her live at the Music Awards. And I met her she is so sweet. Really? Really? You wouldn't think someone that edgy? would have this? Oh, just sweet personality. But she definitely does boring this like 22 cuts on this thing. And she's been traveling all over the country. She's been working in. Wow, good. Music. And before that,

JD Doyle 17:20

17:45

JD Doyle 17:48

 JD Doyle 17:40

yeah, I need to do justice to Lisa Koch. Yes, her CD is very good. It's got a variety of material material on it is called both of me. And this is her third CD. And she used to be in Venus can be That's right. You're going to be hearing them of course during Christmas on both. Can you show in my show? That's right. Of course in December. It's Queer Christmas music only after hours. And you're doing two shows shows to show.

 18:05

 JD Doyle 18:13

 18:17

Pretty soon you're going to be doing one every week.

 JD Doyle 18:19

Oh, no. Oh, no. This is fine. No, no, what how that happened is I was looking at my Christmas music. I get it all year long. And I was looking at what I wanted to play for my Christmas show. And I realized I had so much new and interesting material that I've never played that I emailed Jack, the producer of Queer voices and say, Can I do two shows? And I suggested he's either gonna say no, we don't want to give up the hour or yes, we don't have to feel that our well, you know, it's yeah, it's tough. He says

 18:48

 JD Doyle 18:51

it's hard to get guests in December. Yeah, it really is.

 18:53

It really is. People are busy. People are doing things they're listening but but they're you know, they're doing things while they're listening.

 JD Doyle 18:59

So Jack and Joan and Glen all said Go for it. So I'm pleased. It's it's more work of course. Sure. But it's fun. And I got to share two hours worth of really neat Christmas stuff. Right? And when is it on? December 16 is part one December 23 is part two. Okay, those are the those the third in the third Monday, third and fourth Mondays? Yes. And I got some things you've never heard. That's right here at 9pm.

19:23

You will be on? Yep, of course. Queer voices airing every Monday night from eight until 10.

JD Doyle 19:33

Who we got next? We got we have artist Yes. Jay. out of LA. This is a very interesting CD. It's very fresh.

19:42

It's very fresh. It's it's it's it's new. He's not what you would call a singer not polished. No, not at all.

JD Doyle 19:50

But you know, I like to see him live. I bet he'd be really fun. Yeah, yeah, but but the material material he's got is like something nobody else is putting out. I think like, for example, the song I picked, yes, it's called positive. And it's a well, you'll hear the words. It's somebody reacting to a situation that a lot of us have been through, but I can't recall a song about it.

19:53

JD Doyle 20:00

Jimmy Carper 20:11

Yeah, exactly. Let's go to it. Jay Spears with positive use new music from Daniel cardi A. I liked that he had a CD out that really grabbed the critics. But I don't think it did. Well, commercially. It was

20:25

JD Doyle 20:37

ave a yes. No, it really didn't. This is one I like this much better. Oh, really? Yeah. Wow. Well, because the first one wasn't bad, I'll tell you. But at that, I'd like that song that was called Why outside? Yeah,

20:42

JD Doyle 20:53

I first heard that when I was judging the songs for the out music awards last year. So we got to hear some of the submissions. That's good. And I stopped by judging and emailed him for a copy of that CD. Oh, really? I stopped what I was doing, because I really liked it. Wow. Wow. Wow. Before that, we heard David Clemente doing a song from his, I guess you call it a bootleg CD called this CDs called Hard Candy. The song was called strap on yeah, that's, that's what we're discussing. Because tell him tell.

21:23

JD Doyle 21:26

The story is he was signed with some major label, I don't know it was Mercury who it was. And they were bought by somebody else. And that put a kibitz on the release of a CD when they were almost ready to release it. This was like four years ago. Oh, so it was tied up until just this year, when he finally was able to get possession of the songs again, and put out the CD under a different name. But the CD he gave me last spring has several different tracks on it. So you heard one of the different ones. Ah, it's not on the commercial one. The commercial ones called your free gift. Yes, I see that. And you can get that at CD Baby like a lot of others. Yeah, a lot of these artists are at CD Baby. Because

JD Doyle 22:14

it's a very friendly website. It must be a lot of the artists really praise them because they do their business. Well. It's easy to get the product out there. They respond well. Good communication. Yeah.

22:27

And seats. Things like CD Baby are so great for artists that are not national.

JD Doyle 22:35

Oh, no. It's definitely an independent. You bet.

22:38

You bet. You bet. Because you go to like even sound waves and you can't find another thing about seeing maybe I want to mention is that they have a way that you can classify your CD by genre. And the artists can do that. And one of the genres on their site is out and proud. Oh, really? Yes. If you if you're an artist and you're selling your CD on CD Baby and you want it included in the outturn crowd section, they will so that way people searching for out and proud artists will also see yours. That is so cool. I like that a yes, yes. I'm gonna have to check that out. I've never done that. I've never checked out CD Baby. Stick with me, honey. Yeah, I'll go places. Yeah. Well, I know you're taking the audience to new places. This is after hours. This is the fifth Saturday. So that means it's mostly music we we've been JD Doyle gets to bring a whole lot of his stuff that I don't even I don't get and I don't get to play. So I really appreciate these things to play either because yeah, my regular show Queer music heritage is definitely history oriented. So I do play some new stuff once in a while, but not as much as I really would like to Yeah, in on your audio file on the show. I have on this way out. We do three a month but that doesn't cover all the all the artists and they're very Quickie, too. Yeah. You never get to play a whole song. Exactly.

JD Doyle 22:44

23:09

JD Doyle 23:43

24:03

JD Doyle 24:07

Yeah. So this was a good opportunity for me to play some stuff I've been wanting to play in entiretv energy.

24:13

Great. What have we got coming up next? Tashi Regan? Ah, yes.

JD Doyle 24:17

She's not a new artist. She's been doing quality stuff for a lot of years. She has. And this is an especially good album.

24:24

It's called Tashi Regan. Yes. was

JD Doyle 24:27

brand new. I liked the last track on what it's called. What? Just what I need this word. I need it and you recognize the song. It's what she did to it. Oh, okay.

Jimmy Carper 24:36

Let's go to it

24:50

I know that new artists for Jimmy Yes, absolutely. I've never heard of her before. Her name is Ellis. That's what she just goes by. That's her third album and I've got all three of Mindy are very nice. I liked the refreshing way she she does her lyrics or melodies. She has a nice twist to it and we've had our own audio file. Oh, okay. That was the song you heard and also the title of the of the CD is called everything that's real. And before that, we heard Tashi Regan doing the car song. Just what I need is what

JD Doyle 24:55

25:23

I needed. Yeah, boy. I didn't recognize it. But it's nice job. Yes, it is very nice that she just turned it into a beautiful slow ballad you're listening to after hours Queer radio with attitude on KPFT Houston and ke o s College Station. I'm Jimmy Carper. JD Doyle is with me it's the fifth Saturday of the month so we're on here that's mostly music folks. Mostly music and I hope Christina's listening because she's always complaining well not always complained once that we don't play enough women's music on this show played a lot. So we've been playing a whole lot. Yes. Actually, I think more than guy stuff so I hope she's listening and enjoying it.

JD Doyle 26:03

We expect to email Christine Yes, yes.

26:12

However, just as we say that we got a guy we got a guy he's a young guy. He's just starting up a brand new it's not even a full CD. It's like four tracks like Michael demonetizing but didn't make Tanya I think I pronounced it yes in his song is called a walls come tumbling walls, walls tumbling walls tumbling walls tumbling. And that's from his EP called Wall stumbling. Yes.

JD Doyle 26:16

26:29

Jimmy Carper 26:36

It's he is a cutie. Gosh,

JD Doyle 26:40

he's like 24 or something like that. Hold our Okay, let's go to it isn't that nice? Wow. Wow, that is that is super not usually into New Age stuff. But that is so lush and so beautiful. Yeah. Tony Jones. In the name of it is until the voice Yeah.

27:13

Until your voice kill your voice until your voice and that was cut number five. Until your voice Yeah. Wow. That's beautiful. It remind me on esoteric adventures last night. Jim for Thanksgiving, he always does his annual trip to fan show. And that's the stuff that you know that's a chemical that's that's fed to turkeys and makes you feel mellow and just kind of full and not lazy and just so he always does a new age show. And this would have been perfect. Perfect for it. Oh, boy. That

Jimmy 27:35

 Jimmy Carper 27:53
is really really nice. www dot Tony Jones dot info.

 JD Doyle 28:02
I'd already bought a copy of that and gave it as a gift. Really?

 Jimmy Carper 28:05
That's beautiful music. Wow. Okay. And before that was Michael Michael

 JD Doyle 28:11
de muntanya. Yes. When I was tumbling.

 28:16
Yeah, a nice, nice mixture. They went well together.

 JD Doyle 28:20
I thought so. Coming up.

 28:22
We got more man

 JD Doyle 28:24
sort of a couple of karaoke cup cabaret said cabaret. Yeah, sort of Steve Snelling. Yeah, sort of Steve Snelling doing a perfect strangers to title track from his CD. And then he'll be followed by Steve Kimbrough doing one last prints. Both of those gentlemen have been on audio file. Oh,

 28:47
I need to listen more often tell me caught busted Here we go. Okay. First with steep snow leaves snowing. And you're listening to it right here on KPFT Houston, and ke o s College Station station.

 JD Doyle 29:15
Nice.

 29:16
That's very, very nice.

 JD Doyle 29:18
That was Steve Kimbrough was the title of 29:21

the here and now. He followed Steve

 JD Doyle 29:25
Snelling. We had a set set of Steve's there. Yeah, we do. Steve Snelling CD is called perfect stranger. And 29:31 that was the title cut. And this one was one last print. I think I should mention, I kept throwing the word audio file out. I should tell him all about that. Oh, yes. Tell them that. One of the CO producers of audio file which is carried by this way out. It's heard on the fourth, well, usually the end of the month and it's on one of the Mondays at the end of the month on Queer voices, sometimes at various little bit depending on this way outs, you know, scheduling and so forth. It's today or show after all. The what I've done lately is I've uploaded to my own website, all of the audio file segments since it started in 1997. So that means that wow, if you want to go hear what we said about Steve Snelling, or Steve Kimbrough, or Lisa Koch, or any artists we feature, you can hear those clips. And you can therefore link to their own sites, because I linked to all the artists sites. So if you hear somebody you like on there, you can go find them. That's so cool. And your website is [www.Queer music heritage.com](http://www.Queer music heritage.com). And there's a button right on the homepage for audio file archives. Great, great. And that's, of course, part of this way out. Half hour news, galas been news major national news magazine, like 125 stations all over the world.

 JD Doyle 29:36

30:42

JD Doyle 30:49

30:53

Yeah, it's very, very well known. And it's just about as old as this program. As a matter of fact. Yeah, yeah. I forget, one is older by the other by just a couple of months, but and they're, and they're all over the world. And we're all over the world at because you can listen to us on www.kpft.org.

JD Doyle 31:20

And they are also struggling financially. They don't know how long they're going to make it oh, he's believe in that kind of radio being available around the world, two kids in Des Moines and two kids in Podunk. And kids in New Zealand, and so forth. Take a look at their website. And if you feel moved, there's a way to contribute right there from on the site.

31:41

That's great. Yeah. And it's it's very important. All of this stuff is available only because somebody is donating money to do it. I wish I could have heard programming like that. And like this when I was a teenager, yeah, me too. Let me tell us a little town in Ohio.

JD Doyle 31:53

32:01

And I was from this some little town in New Jersey

JD Doyle 32:04

contributing for yourself, contribute for some teenager in in sticks somewhere. Okay.

32:09

Okay. Let's go to actually. Oh, okay. Let's go to, to some, some more music. I almost forgotten that. 230 We have a regular Colin segment by Dean Becker. From from the cultural baggage show. It gives us a five minute recap of what's going on in the world of medical marijuana. And, but And till then, we have an angle. She's a friend of mine. She's a really talented woman. You see her live, I've interviewed her. And I love this song. Please, please, please. You've heard it before on this show. And you're getting it getting to hear it again. After hours Queer radio with attitude right here on KPFT Houston and ke o s College Station.

 JD Doyle 32:43

 32:52

 33:11

Fabulous. Absolutely Fabulous. Yes. That was from

 JD Doyle 33:16

Alison Tartaglia. Yes. CDs called ready.

 33:20

Sure is Gosh, and looks like you got an advanced copy. Yeah, I did. Yeah, yes. That CD was so long in the making. And she promised it so many times that she finally decided to call it ready.

 JD Doyle 33:24

 33:34

Advanced promo copy. Yes. And now we have Dean Becker on the phone. Let's see if you will hit the air button. And then the the blinking one. It should turn red. And Dean should be on the line. Hello, Jimmy. Hey, Dean Becker. How you doing? I'm doing quite well, this evening and I had the illness last week. Doing great doing great. Computers fired up. We're ready to roll.

 33:54

34:01

Hey, so what's been going on? Okay. Well, here's 34:04

a report out of the Toronto Sun coming out of Canada. They're saying that medical marijuana use is still in frequent. They're talking about how only about five excuse me, point zero 5% of medical patients actually go through their doctor. That the you know, the the prevalence that the government speaks about the supposin crime that results from medical marijuana is just not true. Sure, you know, it's a here's a good story. The first Dutch cannabis Cafe is marking its 30th anniversary 30th anniversary the opening of the Mellow Yellow cafe was 30 years ago. Wow. It's being commemorated in the Netherlands. This coming Friday. cannabis smokers will pay tribute to a taboo busting enterprise Yeah. Which spearheaded the spread of the rent and Dutch coffee shops. Amsterdam does remain the one city in the world where people can wander into you know, a cafe buy a small amount of cannabis without fear of arrest or prosecution. And today there are about 800 coffee shops in the Netherlands and even around Amsterdam. The Dutch decision to turn a blind eye to the sale of small amounts of cannabis by licensed cannabis shops evolved in the 70s and developed over the you know, the past three decades to cement the country's deputy reputation as a, you know, a liberal and tolerant place. Folks love to go to Amsterdam. Oh, yeah. The Reefer Madness from the New York Times. They This is a quote from an they're a columnist. We interrupt our coverage of the war on terrorism to check in with that other permanent conflict against a stateless enemy, the war on drugs. To judge by the Glee at the White House Office of National Drug Control Policy, the drug warriors have just accomplished the moral equivalent of routing the Taliban, helping to halt a relentless jihad against the nation's drug loss. The truly amazing thing is that 30 years again, 30 years for our side, into the modern war on drugs, the discourse is still focused disproportionate disproportionately on marijuana.
