 Chris Harrison 00:00

So, you know,

 00:02

the school strikes and plastic.

 Chris Harrison 00:07

Okay, we've been talking weeks and months here a while for about gay marriage. And you know, it finally happened. This past Monday, Massachusetts started issuing full line marriage licenses to same sex couples. Yep. And it was, you know, I had a bout of insomnia last Sunday, and I happen to stay up late enough to actually see it. The News, the news stations were covering, they open up the courthouses like for I am out there for this event. And so here's all these people when they go in, they get their license come out. And there's this big hoopla on, you know, there wasn't that many protesters there. That's the disappointing word. Because all the protesters are busy sleeping at that hour, what I found interesting is like the way that Queens age divide, then basically, you know, the older people don't like it, and the younger people could care less.

 Chris Harrison 01:04

Yeah, it's, it's one of the generation gap events, it's just a matter of time. But I mean, that I mean, that's the interesting thing is when you see the I mean, just the people going in and getting this piece of paper, and then you know, where it goes from here. I was saying earlier, I was watching, I don't know why I was flipping through the stations. And I saw, it's called ACLJ. This week, as the center, the American Center of Law and Justice, that's pat robertson's version of the ACLU. And they were talking about, you know, gay marriage, and, you know, supporting the freedom to marry act. And, you know, trying trying to deal with like the, the County Clerk's throughout Massachusetts, who, you know, they feel it's against their religious convictions to sign that paper to, to grant these same sex marriages.

Okay, so why associated be called the freedom to marry act?

c Chris Harrison 02:07

I'm sorry, it's federal marriage act. Oh, I'm sorry. I remember the initials and I got the I got the letters. I was thinking of the counter proposal that we're putting forward. But no, I mean, the fact is that this is a strange summer, that this is going to be happening, that we're gonna start to seeing these battles coming back of at the state level, because, you know, this is happening in Massachusetts. And, you know, the governor said, Okay, you can't marry out of state couples, where this marriage would be illegal. And he's going as far as demanding the applications from the towns that told him you know, because all we're going to do what we're going to do. And he's going to please plan on getting these applications and going to court to nullify the marriages from say, say, say a couple that came from Houston from Texas, that went up to get married that to go File saying, you know, under DOMA, you can't do that. And all this is going to turn into a big Supreme Court case here soon, when one of these people go back. And you know, try and file for something as a married couple. And the someone that state says no, and go, Wait a minute, there's a little thing called the Constitution. Try as they might, they haven't destroyed the Constitution yet. It's it hasn't gone through the shredder yet.

B Bobby 03:26

They've come real close. But 03:28

that's why it's really important to keep things in perspective, too, because this is an election year. And there were a lot of issues that are equally as important as gay marriage, and not to let that be this big distraction from everything else, that it's important that it needs to be on the front line. But there are a lot of other issues. And there are a lot of things that are going to get at least what I think would be good. We get big at Mr. Bush, I don't like it. But there are a lot of other issues that are going to play into that and to make sure that everything stays

B Bobby 03:56

visit least we can put a list of 04:00

everything else. Well, the

Chris Harrison 04:01

problem is this. I mean, both candidates are have come out opposed to gay marriage. Bush's is opposed to gay marriage opposed to civil unions and supports the federal marriage amendment. Cheney is opposed to gay marriage. I think he approves of civil unions, and I think he's opposed to, but that's what I'm saying. There are other issues that this is this is happening, it's going to happen. We're very determined about that. And it is happening. So just to stay steadfast in that and but there are other issues that they do disagree on, and that it does make a difference that Bush doesn't get back in the White House and keep that in focus as well. Yeah, the issue of what, you know, the election just cannot come down to what the Dean campaign called the three G's of guns God and gays, right. You know, there's a lot of other things there. Let's talk about oil. Let's talk about Iraq. Let's talk about the economy.

04:20

04:54

There's a lot of other topics about Haiti. Yeah, I mean, there's pharmaceuticals Tax, you know, healthcare also guarantee reform. Yeah.

Chris Harrison 05:03

Unfortunately, what's going to happen is, you know, this is in a way this is being pushed forward kind of a smoke and mirrors. But it's important. It's important where they stand pass. Yeah, we're not we're not doing I'm not denouncing it. I'm not condemning it. But you know, this is something that I don't really think our community pushed forward. I think it was the Republican Party that pushed forward a lot of this stuff to say, hey, let's, let's, let's focus the attention over here a little sleight of hand that, you know, Houdini would be proud of,

Bobby 05:30

and let's face it, gay marriage. Were concerned about that. Right. How much a tank a gas costs? Everybody who drives the vehicle? Yeah. Well, they're worried about that.

05:42

That's not necessarily something government can control though. Yes. But you know, they,

Bobby 05:47

they have an amazing ability to stick their nose into it every time OPEC gets all bent out of shape. Okay,

c Chris Harrison 05:53

hold on. Yeah,

05:54

Newsweek had a really interesting article in the past couple of weeks about how basically Will and Grace has done a lot of good. And it's a very much a thing, like when integration first started having the more that people knew black people, personally, the less of a bugaboo, it got to be and now everybody, you know, has a friend, most young people know somebody that's generally sort of wonderful, that's gay. And so it's sort of just, you know, that part of the battle is kind of done and and it's just started staying steadfast. And like I said, keeping, and the gay community sort of historically, doesn't care about anything other I remember, at the beginning of the AIDS crisis, before the AIDS crisis, it was really hard to get the gay community interested in anything other than going out to bars. And one of the things that the AIDS crisis did was all of a sudden it broadened the concerns of the gay community. I'd like to see that happen even more.

We do have another person we need to thank their someone living up to their first name, charity has given us a pledge of support. And we do appreciate that that's helping out, you know, do a little gap stop there for how we were low last week, we've, I think we've Thanks, Jared. Over our pulito we've made our goal, we've taken care of our new member goals, which is to stop pledging, that doesn't mean stop pledging

07:13

c Chris Harrison 07:16

because you know, I mean, you know, the more money we raise this year, this this time, you know, next time, you know, we won't be able to cut it short there. That's one thing about the new administration and after the regime change and all that other stuff is you know, what if we're doing okay, you know, we stop harping about it, we'll cut it short. And that's the important thing of what to look at with this is speaking of regime change. I like the cover of the Northern the most recent northern Sun catalog, which sells all kinds of cool bumper stickers and T shirts. It says regime change begins at home by Trump the White House

yeah

 Chris Harrison 07:56

quit throwing out the elected officials let's go for the unelected ones we got

 Bobby 08:01

this selected ones Yeah,

 Chris Harrison 08:03

I like Karis wife here. She's quite a catch up don't put me in a pickle. Oh

 08:17
that was so uncle. funny as hell but don't put him in a pickle or pickle in him.

 Chris Harrison 08:38

This according to Houston voice this is going to be the queer summer ever. Yeah, apparently we are going to be getting a lot of gay movies coming out. We're not just talking about film festival stuff, which hopefully we'll be coming up soon the Houston gay lesbian Film Festival which is coming up here. Here here's a couple of the films that are coming out because I mean, it's a whole page worth of stuff they've got here and I've actually seen information on one of them. The first one is adored a diary of a porn star. writer director Marco Filbert de plays in Italian screen idol famous for gay porn who reconnects with his straight brother after years of estrangement from his family. So it's a gay film star who reconnects with I mean, you know, even even if you put it as a straight porn star, going back and meeting up with the family. Yeah. It was strange. But you know, and by the way, Troy is like, really bad, don't go see it. They've managed to take the greatest Greek epic of all times, and completely erase any bit of homoeroticism that might possibly have crept in completely, and they turned Metropolis from our Achilles as lover into a whiny little bitch.

09:36

Chris Harrison 09:59

As you get for taking Gift of that big size really 10:04

young in the restless in sandals and swords.

10:06

They got a picture stars Brad Pitt, what 10:09

did you expect? He just doesn't cut it

Chris Harrison 10:12

put in Michael Pip.

10:13

He's Mr. Jennifer Aniston as far as I'm concerned after this movie.

Chris Harrison 10:18

They got a picture of the star of adored on the front cover the voice and very very yummy. Look biscotti Lu was the blind swordsman. It's a Japanese film. To Shiki candidatos revival of cult hero swings wildly between wacky comedy and serious swordplay. Among the good guys are two sisters. One a proud transvestite bright young things remains to see whether there's much queer content but Steve, a gay actor Stephen Fry, was apparently channeling Oscar Wilde when he adapted and directed vile bodies, which is going to be this movie Broadway movie is going to be coming out in Bulgarian lovers. Karen do cowboys and angels. There once was a young straight man from Limerick who had a gay roommate but wasn't his trick. They learned about and learned about life in the big city. That ruined okay. Okay, who wrote that one? Boy we're gonna going to have to hurt him. D lovely Cole Porter was straight in his last screen biography but in this one's Kevin Kline plays closer to the gay truth in an all star musical cast. musicals are coming back. Yay. To me. It's about time. Gypsy 83 a delightful road trip from Sandusky, Ohio to New York. With a plus sized Stevie Nicks Devo Tay and her best friend and 18 year old gay golf.

11:59

Yeah, that's a great that's reality.

Bobby 12:03

Right there.

12:04

met them.

12:06

Yeah, at numbers.

Bobby 12:09

c Chris Harrison 12:16

at home at the end of the world, an early novel by gay author Michael Cunningham. The story is a man Nadja tois made up of gay Dallas Robertson straight Colin Farrell, and Robin Penn, right. Yeah. We get to see more of Colin Farrell and Oliver Stone, they actually announced that they are not straightening out he is going to have boyfriends money to not be gay. And so this thing is too kinky.

12:33

B Bobby 12:41

C Chris Harrison 12:42

Let's get Frank Barney Frank. It's a documentary about his roles as Clinton supporter and anti Clinton target. Message Dr. Robert Ray. Which I'm sorry, I haven't taken Francis in second grade. So I can't do that. Well. It causes a gay man with his lesbian mother witnessed a murder in Paris. And a lesbian mother is played by Diane Weast.

B Bobby 13:08

I can buy that. Yeah, yeah, I could. I could buy that. I could.

C Chris Harrison 13:13

Yeah. For everyone here anything. Everyone who says that's not if you think that's a stretch, raise your hand? No. Anything. She really got the mage boy traumatized by the death of his mother a farm boys best friend is a chicken. Yeah,

∅ 13:26

I saw some stuff on that. It's gonna it looks good until

C Chris Harrison 13:29

he finds his hunky

∅ 13:30

neighbor better. And they're both real cute. He's

C Chris Harrison 13:32

a male Hirsch. That name. Sounds familiar. It looks good. Yeah.

∅ 13:35

c

Chris Harrison 13:36

My mother likes women. And when a mature Spanish woman comes out as a lesbian, one of her daughters reacts by trying to seduce her lover. My wife, Maurice, keeping it it sounds like sounds like Springer Has Two Mommies and a couple of ex girlfriends. Proteus

c

Chris Harrison 13:57

which is a interracial gay love story set in 18th century South African prison colony. Yeah, yeah, no. Yeah. Well, you think about gay movies with prison life. You usually think lesbian, but you know. So about time we have a good mainstream gay film. So basically, oz relocated.

Yeah, but the whole interracial South African slant that got him Yeah.

c

saints and sinners, a documentary about Edward tibone and Vincent men, men Ascoli in their efforts to get married in the Catholic Church. Here's the one that's gotten a little bit of notice about called Saved. Men want to see that Mandy Moore and other girls at a Christian school are really mean two gentlemen alone when her boyfriend gets her pregnant by trying to prove he's not gay. And starring in also in this movie is Macaulay Culkin who has grown up so hot and he'll be in a wheelchair

o

c

Chris Harrison 14:59

This show even better

b

Bobby 15:03

way to go for the disabled thing.

c

Chris Harrison 15:07

Yeah, I saw one of the clips there, they were showing they're sitting in an outdoor cafe and you know, one of the one of the girls from the schools coming out of a Planned Parenthood and they go there's only one reason these good girls come down to the come down to the center city like that. We're practicing the movie about the chicken, the guy with the chicken, I read an article that where the guy was talking about, you know, getting the chicken to act and how this chicken cooperated and was a real star. And it really does sound like it's gonna be a great little movie. It's

c Chris Harrison 15:37

just reading that thing. You 15:39

think it could be on the internet? I mean,

c Chris Harrison 15:42

just based off of that thing, you know, you know, wait till you see the two of them. I mean, it's really gonna be it

15:44

c Chris Harrison 15:48

sounds like it's worth the eight bucks just to go find out more about it. She hate me. It's a Spike Lee film. An unemployed executive starts his own business impregnating lesbians for a fee. And Spike Lee's likely to be controversial No.

16:32

that sounds like it might be a lot of fun documentary way. Did you see show girls 139 Boobs because like one girl had one of them covered? Still didn't save that movie.

16:35

16:48

Star and I'm sorry, you can't be saved by the G string and I'm gonna show enough nudity to make So boys worthwhile. Oh,

16:53

Chris Harrison 16:56

okay. Let's see my last attempt tonight to try and speak French so in Korea, his brother, gay brother becomes caregiver for his homophobic sibling who has terminal illness. It's always an interesting topic. There was one about that.

Bobby 17:12

That's awesome. Oh, wow. The straight guy has a terminal illness and this Yeah.

Chris Harrison 17:18

We've come a long way by population control The Stepford Wives. Love Nicole Kidman bet Mettler that two news you cannot find two bigger fag hags. And those two one even married one Absolutely.

17:35

Christopher convinced Nicole's

Chris Harrison 17:40

and what she just couldn't handle faking it any more with Tom I don't know.

17:44

I think they're all over Tom about being gay but they need to look at her she's got some very big qualities about her. She's Australian her face also looks like a drag queen.

17:53

Yes, it does. She just looks like an all around fun kind of girl. I love her superstore and a house dress Jackie Curtis Andy Warhol's transvestite star is recalled by those who know her.

Chris Harrison 17:58

18:07

And shown in some scenes were filmed some of the people in this room me Lily Tomlin and Harvey Firestein. I remember Jackie stretched out across a car hood on the Lower East Side one time in the early 80s. Fabulous person, really Jackie was fabulous. And went to one of her fake weddings every now and then she used to have fake weddings when she was you know, Provillus bloodlessly and I got to give my brother and sister in law in New York moment because right at the fake wedding, Andy Warhol and Jean Michel Basquiat walked in and sat down. exactly opposite their sight line. It was like you got your new yard minute now for Jackie's bag. Were they that way? No, I think that would be a big thing. But I mean, at that time, yeah. 3000 clouds of peace. A gay teenager wanders the streets of Mexico City having sex with a lot of men while trying to reconnect with the one he thinks was his true love. direction so he doesn't remember his face.

19:06

I mean, so it's like coming out 19:08

in Mexico sounds very romantic.

19:33

Sounds like an extended commercial come out. And

Chris Harrison 19:36

Cary Grant's ghost is going to be played by Colin McLaughlin.

19:42

Save me.

19:45

Spare me twist.

Chris Harrison 19:46

A new twist on Oliver Twist sent and sent in Toronto, where Gary farmer is the Fagan with a stable of male hustlers including Nick Stahl as the Artful Dodger Right and newcomer Joshua closest Oliver the newbie Now interesting. Nick Stahl

20:07

yet bully.

Chris Harrison 20:10

Bully yeah sound about he's done a couple of gay characters I think. Yeah, that's high and the final gay themed film, which I find it hard to believe when I see the first two names after the title. This movie is called white chicks. Marlon Wayans and Shawn WANs may be the first FBI drag queens since J. Edgar Hoover died as the impersonate a pair of blonde hotel heiresses to become bait free kidnapping it's just weird !

20:41

have seen I've seen the news it looks hilarious. Yes,

Chris Harrison 20:45

it is a comedy obviously it's pretty bad when you have to remind people it's a comedy it could be a tragedy it sounds more like it's going to be that sounds like he's backed off a well a bit lately that's I mean that's going to be

Bobby 21:03

that is that distinct possibility that every stereotype known to man will be in this movie once again so weigh ins movie of course every stereotype on demand and their their views on TV show. I used to love their movie reviews on the on the game. Yeah,

21:12

Chris Harrison 21:22

I think it's gonna end on film men on it's gonna end up probably closer to what was that horrible one that came up last year about the guys ended up going on a gay cruise and didn't know until they were there a boat trip boat trip. God that was a horrible misadventure and bad film. I never heard about it. Probably the best thing about it was Roger Moore playing this really aggressive you know, sugar daddy type character that was hysterical bonding James the rest of the movie. And not in a good way. Yeah.

21:35

Chris Harrison 21:53

22:02

Well, like James Bond.

c Chris Harrison 22:05

We won't say James Bond is saying it's a bad way because plenty division songs. Yes. Good song. Excellent.

22:08

c Chris Harrison 22:14

We're getting real close here at the end of our show. Hopefully you haven't seen Rasta mountain popping in the doorway corridor yet here. We want to thank everyone who called in their pledge of support this week and last week, it really makes a difference. You know, let let let the management know that were some that, you know, we're a viable program, you know, we talked about, we go through some of the organizations and that who are looking at closing doors. And, you know, cutting back on services, because, you know, the government's not giving in their share. And the donations aren't coming in. And the fact that you know, we had people calling in and saying, you know, this is a valuable resource out there. And you know, you can sit there and you can listen to our show, and you can love every minute of it, you can hate every minute, you can argue and piss moan and wail about what we talked about. You can do that with any show on the station. You know, I'll be honest, I don't toe the line with what the some of the philosophies that I hear on other shows here on KPFT. But you know what, I'll defend it tooth and nail that we get the chance to say it, we have to say it and learn from it. They're not going to play on the radio, more stuff like Jackie Jackie and Diane. And I mean, just really sort of Yeah, I mean, it's, it's really, I mean, it's important to have this kind of freedom on the air.

23:27

c Chris Harrison 23:38

And that's the, that's the important thing of what this station is about. And you know why we do what we do here. We like to cut up, we like to have a good time, we'd like to have fun, but you know, this is what we're here for. And when it comes time that we have to be serious and let you know something. That's what we do. And we want to extend it, we want to thank all of you, who got us our goals, got us over the goals and really show people that you know, after 16 and a half years, we mean some we mean something and you know, we're 16 and a half we're going for 60 We're gonna go for 60 We're gonna be here. This problem probably has saved lives. Yeah,

- - - -

c Chris Harrison 24:16

that's fine. You know, it was all I mean, we can sit here we can talk about the stuff of what we've gone through. And, well,

24:25

I'm a 16 year listener. I'm 31 years old and I was I was in embel in spring Texas at 14 listening when it came on at two o'clock in the morning huddled under my bed with the light and like just There you go. Like the support that I needed to not kill myself. Exactly, you know, came through my radio once a week and I would call it I mean, Jimmy has gotten me in the archives calling in at 14 hanging out my bedroom window, smoking cigarettes and cutting up on the air. But it was like the strength that I had to know that like no matter what was said that I didn't have to believe it that you know, my life is beautiful. of inheritance. Now I'm being spanked on the air 16 years later.

c Chris Harrison 25:05

The Circle of Life. The circle of life that's really giving back.

25:09

25:11

I gave my back.

c Chris Harrison 25:12

Yes. So we want to thank everyone for listening. We're gonna be back next week, we wanted to get us a fifth Saturday. So, JD oil and music show people theater, suburbia, the usual cast of characters and general insanity that we usually provide. The last trio of songs you heard. Believe it or not, we're all the same artist performing a rendition of Harvey Harper Valley PTA. What a wonderful world and don't let the sun go down on may play a couple other covers from that CD here a little later as well but pretty good range there for one performer. But before that we did a little Rufus Wainwright. That was the first song of what a world from his latest CD want. And trying to think what we had I think we did. Oh, and we started that off with somebody to Marcie ray in the middle of that desperate old guy. Live at the Hollywood hotel down in Galveston Island. Very nice event. This is pledge drive and even though Rasta man is not here, you know, the station still is here and it's an important station for the community. Normally you'd be here in Rasta man giving you this good vibrations of the Caribbean and the good reggae music that you need to get you through the day and get you into the dawn comes and hits us and smacks us around in a couple of hours. But you know this station is important and we need people to step up and show their support for the music you normally hear this time and the music you're hearing now it's an It's a strange little mix we're playing you know some of the stuff we don't even play on our after our show that often. But we're trying to just mix it up give you a little something different to hear something to get you ready there for the Red Eye special coming up at 6am. So we've got about another hour and some change until we hand it over to the next crew. But we do need your pledge of support the phone number 713-526-5738 at 713 Jam que PFT and a fills out lobby. stalking around. We've got half the crew here from after hours. Mr. Eden has rejoined the after hours family and they stopped in for a visit and we've shanghaied her she's looking for someone to tie up right now. Type a few odds are she's too She's too relaxed and we're in loosened up here. Magic fingers over here. turned her into a ball of putty. You never thought you'd have a gay man they are coming out here and hitting just those bright spots. Did you Mistress Annie?

33:47

I've learned a long time ago it didn't matter Gay Straight bi whatever. You either got the hands Oh, you don't have that. And he's got Thank you man whoever want to cross over to the other side. Just let me know. So his hands are welcome. Anytime.

Chris Harrison 34:08

I never saw Robert bush

34:11

but now it's well, you know, Virginia said the same thing. Amy said the same thing. Miss Max rule said the same thing.

 Chris Harrison 34:21

I think he's already planning for the other team. Now did I pull up the Santa pull the Sports Illustrated line? I think we missed a trade waiver here.

 34:32

Now now now you should know anything goes Yes,

 Chris Harrison 34:36

yes, I

 34:36

did. Do it and baby that felt wonderful. You know I was falling asleep when I got here and now I'm wide awake. It's totally reenergized. The shoe centers all your energy back in.

 Chris Harrison 34:48

They push the right shock or didn't I?

 34:51

My buttons are pretty obvious and you know there's something about for me my back is my biggest rock So it didn't hurt that I'm a little sore from

 Chris Harrison 35:04

now you take somebody needed a good flogging earlier and add a little bit and I kind of overdid it arousal stuff. And he just worked those kinks right out went right to him. I can

 35:09

 Chris Harrison 35:16

CHRIS HARRISON 35:28

see going there to the physical therapist going, yes, some. I strained my arm, they're whipping some boy, that's good, but he needed a good beating. And you know, I just people sit there and they go, Oh, well, the poor, the poor chap, you know, he took so much it's like, Do you have any idea what it took to give?

Chris Harrison 35:38

It depends on the side of the whip who you're who you're rooting for there. But that just the whole are touch. There's people who know how to touch and there's people who don't know how to touch and anybody can give a good massage. If you just take the time and think about Jesus. Am I touching this personally, I'd want to be touched. Yeah,

35:43

Chris Harrison 36:00

that's a lot of it comes down with that you mean when you're in a sack. So it's good, what you want done to you, you got to be able to do to the other person. Well, and it's also a real good way to tune in to the other person because if the way they're touching you isn't the way you want to be touched. Maybe it's the way they're trying to tell you that toy say want to be touched. You know? And it's like, you know, for me what comes to Masada, like firm, hard, but not fast, nice and slow, but very hard.

36:10

Chris Harrison 36:33

And we know we need you to come out and touch us. We need to, we need to feel you out there who's listening to us. If you if you're a fan of Rasta, you know, send, call in, give us your pledge of support.

36:44

If you're a fan of being touched.

Chris Harrison 36:48

CHRIS HARRISON 30:40

I mean, you're listening to the stage in for a reason, you know, is is not the normal programming. But you know, you're still out there listening. We hope there's somebody out there listening to the show and getting an idea of what we're the type of music we're playing. And we're gonna if you thought we were going weird and eclectic. Oh, honey, just hold on to a weird and eclectic just people in your bedroom.

Chris Harrison 37:13

Yeah, the next button I push on here is going to take us to some hip hop. Oh, we're gonna go to we're gonna do a golf early in the morning for hip hop. Well, we're gonna do a little homo, hop, hop, and then come at the bunny app.

37:24

Chris Harrison 37:28

This little, little queer a little hip hop a little bit and then we're going to uptight part of the world that we should never go to a cruel and disastrous time that's caught on CD. And we're going to play that after the home. Oh, haha. Be afraid, you know the Biafra. If nothing else we do during the day there after hours are here during after hours Extended Cut. If there's anything we do that the FCC would complain about, you know, we had a guy bent over getting his ass paddled earlier. That's nothing honey, you know? This, I'm going to play music that will get us banned off the air faster than a SWAT on the foot. So that's coming up after homo hopper. Should I go? Should I go right to it? Like dangerous low so what we need to do is we need you to walk on the wild side. Later earlier. Yes. So here it is need to call on your pledge to support 7135 to 65738 calling your pledge and we'll get we'll get Chris here to take a walk on the wall. And so I have my toy bag. Be afraid you're listening to there's plenty to be saved. You're listening to after hours Extended Cut here during Rossmann vibrations on at on KPFT 90.1 FM Houston 89.5 in Galveston and check out the World Wide Web at KPFT dot o RG and now for a CD that you know there's less useless silicone put into some Hollywood actresses But ladies and gentlemen, possibly the music that will get KPFT thrown off the air. It's that horrible. I'm warning you now. Avert your ears. Brace yourself Robert should I get an idea what I'm playing

Chris Harrison 38:33

No, I'm gonna take a break and I don't think they'll make you wait too long to play the song but I want you to hear about another show. That's queer. I want bigger Harper neg but it's Jimmy Carper's bag after hours is his show and it's where radio is a show with attitude and at times a little rude. A little watch a little fam on Sunday morning. One of the four or five is done on if I'm not a poor woman.

40:00

That's KPFT same station as me. And I also think you might want to know about my site on the web where you can find a list of songs that I designed. That's another way to say hello this very game. Check out the photos too. There's lots that you can view find the artists and their sites with the links I give you my you can listen anytime they're archived. That's right. What's the address? You could say? I'm gonna tell you anyway

40:28

you don't need to call your mom to find this.com where music heritage is it that's as close as I can get because heritage is rife with anything and the roots girls soon

Chris Harrison 40:53

Yes, wrap that up there with little Sylvester and accidentally hit the wrong CD that was the DJ rap. JD rap I hit the wrong button on that I was gonna play cut number one, hit cut number two, but that's all good. That was a that was a tremor who's in the back there think of Dutch boy in the back with the DJ hop. And then of course, we started off the hour with two songs that you know probably should never been made there's less useful silicone put into Pamela Anderson that was made into that CD. And that was the from the Ethel Merman disco album. It's so bad center itself disintegrated. No Business Like Show Business and everything's coming up roses. But you know, everything's not coming up roses here. We have not gotten any calls into the station to let for a pledge of support of for the station. You know, this isn't last amount of vibrations, unfortunately. And, you know, we still want to let people know that there's people listening out of this hour of the night because, you know, we could shut down we put the BBC on for a couple hours. But no one's listening. I mean, well, that we could go into the barbell shop. Heaven forbid, yeah, but we need let people know let the management know that there's people up at 520 in the morning and wanting to hear some music and hear some tunes and put something in your ear. So call them with your pledge to support 7135265738713 Jam que Pft. And we're going to be in here probably for another 1015 20 minutes and that the Red Eye specialists already shown up and we're gonna He's gonna get a lecture mix into the get his show started up a little early hopefully and start get you on your road for that blues marathon we do here at KPFT every Sunday morning to Sunday night. So we're gonna go back to an artist with some other covers here. We're gonna go back to some Mark Allen Smith. You know, we played a three set earlier of all the same artists but we're going to do another three set of the same artist and give you a couple of different views of songs by the same person in a totally different way. And we'll be back
