

- Baby.
- Well, this police officer that just called, it doesn't have anything to do with masturbation. But this-- [LAUGHTER] This cop that just called told us how much he loved the show. But he doesn't have any hair on his chest. That's what he said.
- Child, I can make exceptions. I'm willing to work it out with you.
- Anyway, I just think it's a rip that Pee-wee Herman, we've got people really worried about crime, that people are starving in our streets. You know what I mean? That the gay community is worried about walking in the streets.
- It's incredible.
- That we're trying to figure out now, just why the hell a year ago, we watched Kuwait being invaded, and then charged over there, and dropped all those bombs. We found all this money for bombs. But we can't find money to feed our children.
- Or the homeless.
- Oh well, anyway, you wanted to talk about the Broussard thing.
- I do.
- We're going off the air in 15 minutes because our engineer is working.
- Yes, there's some new information that's come about, about the Broussard incident. It seems though-- you may have read in the papers or seen on the news-- that the 10 young men have been arrested, charged with murder. And it seems that this was not their first foray into the Montrose. It is alleged that they've been doing this type of thing for several months. And in doing so, there were three cars involved, not two. So Sergeant Vachris, over at homicide, has a video of all 10 in a lineup. And what they're asking for is anyone who has been involved in a gay bashing in the last few months, that could recognize the culprits or the cars.
- And not just physical bashing. We're talking about people yelling faggot and queer and--
- You bet.
- All these other things at you.
- The three cars involved was a dark blue, almost black-looking Mustang GTO, a white Mitsubishi Galant, and a gray Mitsubishi Galant. So if any of you out there have been involved in the gay bashing and you can-- you recognize these three cars or could recognize anyone in a lineup.
- Just call homicide.
- Right. Sergeant Vachris, he comes on at four in the afternoon. That number is 247-1000. That's for homicide and Sergeant Vachris.
- We're going to be going off the air at 3:00 o'clock for technical reasons. And we're getting ready to celebrate our fourth anniversary on After Hours in KPFT. A lot of things have happened. And things continue to happen. We had a request for something for the pope, that we don't have.
- Yeah, the Judy Fiel thing. We don't have it. We can bring it next week. But we have something even better.

- Brand new from Romanovsky and Phillips.

[MUSIC - ROMANOVSKY AND PHILLIPS]

- Well, sometimes, we just get mad as hell, which is like every week.

[LAUGHTER]

- And if you don't want to listen, well, turn the damn thing off.

- Yeah, please. If you're that cop and you-- no, no, no, I better be nice.

- You better be nice.

- I don't have any hair on my chest, is what he said. We can work that out.

- I'll bet.

[LAUGHTER]

- We're going off the air at 3:00 o'clock for technical work, which is good. Because I want to go home and go to bed. I got a union meeting in the morning.

- Do you?

- Yep. And next week, we'll just bring lots of music and have lots of fun.

- OK.

- Because there're just--

[MUSIC - JASON DONOVAN, "TOO MANY BROKEN HEARTS"]

- I'm not kidding about this. I quit doing tranquility base because I was fed up with it. I was fed up with the fact that at marathon, nobody called and pledged. And I'm just about fed up with it here.

- Oops.

- Because when I went to Florida last year, or last May, during marathon, we didn't get diddly squat in pledges.

- I know. I really felt bad because we tried, we pushed.

- There is no excuse for that. We shouldn't have to push, Mary. This is the only place in the city of Houston, and actually in the southwest, that you're going to hear anything like this.

- It just seems that when you're here during marathon, we get more money.

- Well girl, I'm going to be here screaming and yelling. Because we're going to get some money.

- All right. We're going to do it. We're going off the air in just a few minutes for maintenance. But KPFT will be back on at 4:00 o'clock, for Blues for You. So stay with us. If you need to write us, please, please do so. It's After Hours and care of KPFT, 419 Lovett Boulevard, Houston, Texas 77006. Or, you can call us on the After Hours hotline, at 5294636. If you're a cop and you need that number again, it's 529.

- 4636.

- And if you want to know what's going on in the gay and lesbian community.

- Call the gay and lesbian switchboard, at 5293211.

- Once again, the Houston police department sent me, as an openly gay member of that department, to Channel 13, Friday night, to take part in town meeting number one, sponsored by Channel 13. And I think that's a hell of a note.

- I do too.

- And I would like to say thank you to chief Watson, and to assistant chief Bradford's office, and to even my captain and my sergeants. Because they don't realize that they took part in history. And history will continue to be written at HPD. Because one of these days, there are going to be gay and lesbian police officers marching with us in the parade. Write that down in your little black book. Here's Romanovsky and Phillips, one last time, "When Heterosexism Strikes".

- OK.

- Strike back. You're supposed to say strike back.

- Oh, I'm sorry.

- Let me do that again. Here's Romanovsky and Phillips, one more time, from their new album Be Political Not Polite, and "When Heterosexism Strikes".

- Strike back.

- Yeah.

[MUSIC - ROMANOVSKY AND PHILLIPS, "WHEN HETEROSEXISM STRIKES"]

- Romanowski and Phillips, "When Heterosexism Strikes".

- Strike back.

- Yeah.

[MUSIC PLAYING]

- That must be it.

- That's it, yay.

- You hear that music, and it's just about all over.

[LAUGHTER]

It's all over but the writing. Please write down this address.

- Oh, please. If you'd like to get involved in this, no. Next week, we're going to be-- what are we doing, anything special?

- No.

- Oh, OK. That's cool.

- I know I'm falling down on my job, aren't I?

- Well, if this cop were here, I would like fall down on my knees and thank god, no.

[LAUGHTER]

- With the Blues Broads.

- Yeah, and Blues for You. So have a great week. And remember what Harvey Milk said, listen kids, rights are not won on paper. They are won only by those who make their voices heard. Jeez, are you guys listening? I know you are. And we thank you for it. Have a great week. Bye.

- Bye.

- Oh, this is KPFT Houston.
