 Harvey Milk 00:47

Hi there. This is Joe Bob Fenetti from the Bob's, and you're listening to KPFT Houston.

 01:11

The following program contains language or images of a frank or sensitive nature that may be considered objectionable by some listener discretion is advised.

 Harvey Milk 01:21

And I'll tell you what the gay movement is about. After I got elected, I got the phone call. I knew I'd eventually get curfews when was from a 17 year old child in a small town in Minnesota. And the boy is handicapped. And the boy's parents found out that he's gay, and they want to put him in an insane asylum. That boy needs help. In the gay mood is about the letter I got from Southwest Africa when he read about a gay person getting elected here and that person has hope. And that 17 year old kid in Minnesota has hope and we have gay leaders not understanding that in a more word about their own personal power and not Elite is offensive.

 02:26

I think that's Robin Tyler on the stage leaving the chance for love her for life. We're not going back to the national march on Washington DC for gay and lesbian rights

02:35

02:54

I'm Bruce Hopkins

03:02

want you to savor this next moment? I have the task of telling you that the official count of the lesbian and gay rights march the official count is.

03:21

500,000 Strong

03:43

500,000 strong.

Harvey Milk 04:13

You, we must destroy the myth swings and draw shatter them. We must continue to speak out. And most importantly, most importantly, every gay person must come out you must tell your immediate family. You must tell your relatives. You must tell your friends if indeed they are your friends, you must tell your neighbors you must know the people you work with. You must tell the people that historically can shop you Once they realize that we are indeed their children, and we are indeed everywhere, every myth, every lie, every innuendos will be destroyed once and for all. And once you do you will feel so much better. If you wish for KPFA come on out. Join us bring a friend. What do you think about the turnout? Well, it's never enough. Never enough. And I asked.

05:29

Harvey Milk 05:31

I asked people to do one thing

Jimmy Carper 05:43

When happy birthday baby

whoa, happy birthday, baby.

B

Buddy Johnston 05:47

Is that a sign? Yes, now? Oh, it is. Birthday time. Yeah.

J

Jimmy Carper 05:51

Well, my birthday. Look at it. It's 14 minutes after midnight. Is it 14 minutes after midnight? Officially your birthday? How old? Are you Mary 36. Whoa. We're here and we're queer. Thank you. Oh, Alan, I love to hear that. But I also love to hear on Saturday night at midnight. After hours radio is celebrating live from the heart of Montrose. And what's really important is you have to understand this is the only place in Houston you're going to hear those words. Not only at midnight, but at anytime on any radio station in this city. Right.

B

Buddy Johnston 06:10

J

Jimmy Carper 06:34

And for the longest period of time, you're going to hear it anywhere. That's true. You know that? That is true that after hours is like the longest running radio show. Four hours. Isn't that incredible? Four hours every week, and we've been doing it for almost three years. Oh, make sure horn honk. Anyway, it is marathon time again. And that's three times out of the year we come to you and say okay, Queen pick up the phone and call five to 657385 to six KPFT that's the number to call.

B

Buddy Johnston 06:47

J

Jimmy Carper 07:11

We also invite lesbians to do the same. Oh, okay. Yeah, girl. Did I tell you what happened Wednesday night? No. Why? I am now. The president of the Houston Police support personnel union.

B

Buddy Johnston 07:15

J

Jimmy Carper 07:24

... ..

How can you be you're gay?

B

Buddy Johnston 07:27

Well, we'll talk about that. The head queen I want to change it from presidents to Queen I won't push my luck okay. Anyway, this is after hours radio celebrating live from the heart of Montrose. We're here and we're queer certainly are and we want to invite you to call us at 526-573-8526 KPFT we're going to be celebrating my birthday and marathon and just gay and lesbian pride maybe because it's happening all these look to the future T shirts child the future is Now.

09:55

In this nation in this decade there is only One way to deal with an individual who is sick with dignity, with compassion, care and confidentiality and without discrimination once disease strikes, we don't blame those who are suffering. We don't spurn the accident victims didn't wear a seatbelt. We don't reject the cancer patient. But in with smoking, we try to love them and care for them and comfort them. We don't fire them. And don't a victim don't cancel their insurance.

10:26

B

Buddy Johnston 11:23

Five to 657 38 five to six KPFT that's the number to call and make a pledge to marathon. Yeah, this is fun. You know, I really do enjoy marijuana of the three times a year that our listeners can call in and let us know how much they liked this show.

J

Jimmy Carper 11:30

B

Buddy Johnston 11:38

Now wait a minute. Speaking of listeners, who has that nice looking man that just came in here?

J

Jimmy Carper 11:44

That was mad? let Matt who calls in every week? How come I didn't get to see him? Well, because Matt's on his way to work. And Ben was waiting in the parking garage. Oh, Mickey Mouse in a suit of pink shirt. Thank you very haha. Minnie Mouse holding the baby mouse.

B Buddy Johnston 11:55

J Jimmy Carper 12:03
Where'd that come from?

B Buddy Johnston 12:05
It was in this card. No, no.

J Jimmy Carper 12:06
I mean the baby man.

B Buddy Johnston 12:07
Oh, I don't know. Happy birthday you just entered the metallic age. Silver in your hair golden your teeth and led in your pants.

J Jimmy Carper 12:17
Oh, well, they know you don't say

B Buddy Johnston 12:19
look forward to another year of listening to you on after hours. Happy birthday Matt. Happy Birthday made your life fill to be me. Your life failed to be unworthy and unfilled. Whatever that means love you. Been that sweet? Yes. We have such nice listeners that are just Queens caring and more presence will open those as the night goes on. Okay, but the most important birthday present I could get right now is to hear the phone ring at 526-573-8526 KPFT. Roger, are you in the lobby? No. That's not him. That has to be them. Are they on out there in the lobby? Well,

J Jimmy Carper 12:59
that oh, here it is.

R Roger 13:01

I had to find myself. Oh.

B

Buddy Johnston 13:06

I've heard that before. I'm

J

Jimmy Carper 13:07

surprised it took so quick.

R

Roger 13:10

All right, Jimmy.

J

Jimmy Carper 13:13

What's going on in the lobby, baby?

R

Roger 13:16

Well, I've got a pledge. Oh, no kidding. Huh? From Matt. Oh, one. He came in and gave you a birthday present.

B

Buddy Johnston 13:25

He not only brought birthday presents, but also pledges. That's right. Matt, why didn't you stick around and say hi, because he had to go to work.

J

Jimmy Carper 13:32

In fact, he was late. Okay. We don't want you to be late. We'll hear from Matt later on. Then bring in presence and yeah. All over the place. And it's Mickey Mouse for days.

B

Buddy Johnston 13:44

Well, that's right. 526-573-8526 KPFT. That's the number to call marathon is your chance to say thank you to after hours in the game. You know, we're not going to ourselves out literally for almost three years. In fact, I tell Roger, I said I don't want to go down there on my birthday child until I walked into the lobby. All kinds of balloons and food and Mickey Mouse for Mickey Mouse stuff. It's wonderful. There's all kinds of wonderful stuff in the lobby. In fact, if you'd like to come by right now and say hi and drop off a pledge you're welcome to do that. We're located at 419 Levitt Boulevard that's just a block southwest time or three blocks east of Montrose. You know the place, but you had to put a Mickey Mouse birthday hat on.

R

Roger 14:06

B

Buddy Johnston 14:08

R

Roger 14:22

B

Buddy Johnston 14:25

Yeah, well, we'll throw in that chip. Anyway, not only will we be pitching this morning for marathon, we're going to be talking to Ray Hill. Yes. And around two o'clock or so we're going to be listening to Rock Lobster

J

Jimmy Carper 14:37

reflections of a reflection, which is the story of Aaron Frick taking his boyfriend to the high school prom. Yeah. Well, that was about my favorite radio today.

B

Buddy Johnston 14:41

J

Jimmy Carper 14:49

B

Buddy Johnston 14:51

It is one of the most requested programs we have here and we try to play it around prom time around this time of the year every year. But we're going to be talking Thinking about ray here. We're gonna radio is gonna be here talking about the summit. Quinton Quist. Did you see this and Chris? Oh, Chris. Chris. I can't read it wear my glasses. It's gonna be speaking at the awards banquet, Mary, really? The pride awards banquet. He's going to be the the keynote speaker. Saturday, June the 16th at the extra village Hotel. Isn't that incredible? That is incredible. looking very much forward to that. We're going to be giving away the after hours awards in the next coming weeks. No kidding. Yeah. First Annual after hours awards. Well, I figured if all these queens in the Montrose could get together and give each other awards, then by God, we can give each other awards too. So we're just gonna figure out what the hell are called. And pass them out. Well, okay. Anyway, 526-573-8526 KPFT, buddy, but uh, you know what's bad for premiums? Know what, then beautiful? World harmony t shirt. Oh, no

R

Roger 15:52

J

Jimmy Carper 15:59

kidding. That's the guy with

R

Roger 16:02

like, the conductor. Yeah, that's what a lot of people call him orchestrating the world isn't guess what, what? It's on lavender. Wow. And it looks beautiful. And the lavender a t shirt, lavender t shirt. Perfect. It's just fantastic. I mean, you can't be walking around laundress without one of these T shirts.

B

Buddy Johnston 16:19

And that's for a pledge of $40. And it's a pledge of $40

J

Jimmy Carper 16:22

to help me and that's the thing. There's premiums to be had here. Not just

B

Buddy Johnston 16:27

feeling good about keeping us on the air. Yeah, and I do mean keeping us on the air. Because girl we pay for the cassettes we give away. We pay for a lot of the records, our pockets, we pay for a lot of the records we play. In fact, the thing I'm getting ready to play right now I just bought this morning at one of the big record shops down the street. So we put a lot of time, money into this out of our own pocket. And what's nice about radio is you turn it on and it's free. Well, it is for you if you listen to big radio station like that one down the street. And the one across town, the one down in the Greenway plaza area. Yeah, but because they play commercials forever and ever.

R

Roger 17:04

You pay for those. Every time you buy anything. You're paying for it. That's right, but you pay for it, what you don't get there is a lot of the truth and we try to tell you the truth. We try to tell you that we're gay people and lesbian people and we're great people. I mean, my God, I was just elected president of the police the Houston Police support personnel Union at HPD Can you believe that? I think that's really it's just too much. That is a hell of a statement. And they came to me and asked me to run for president after I had gone to city council and said thank you for having the courage to hire an openly gay person. Isn't that just incredible?

 Buddy Johnston 17:11

 Jimmy Carper 17:41

Well, I think that shows you that they probably saw that and said hey, there's that guy with God

 Buddy Johnston 17:47

the more out we get the better off things become I just cancelled

 Roger 17:52

we might have some police officers here tonight. I would hope so. Yes, I called them I called them your work behind your back and invited some people

And around two o'clock or so we're gonna listen to reflections of the Rock Lobster, where Aaron Frick actually wants to take a boy to a high school prom. Another boy wants to take a boy to the prom. Can you imagine what they would say child?

J

Jimmy Carper 23:57

I can't. You want to do what? I want to bring a male date to the senior prom? And what makes you think you can do that? Well, you see, sir,

o

24:07

the rules say that any senior can take the date of his or her choice. Being a gay man. I think I'm entitled to take a male date. Absolutely not.

o

24:12

o

24:15

Can I talk to the student council about it?

o

24:17

No, you can't talk to the student council. Now, look, I know what you're trying to do. And I won't allow it. How come? I don't have to defend my decisions to you where we went through all this last year? Or have you forgotten what happened to your friend Peter Grayson?

o

24:33

I haven't forgotten. But there's a difference. Peter was only 17 Then but I just turned 18. I could take this case to court if I wanted to. You would go to court with it. Yes. If I had to.

o

24:51

Jimmy Carper 24:57

With so many gay men and so little time, it never has been an obsession of mine

Buddy Johnston 25:12

short and real Harry glass showers radio celebrating Montrose.

25:23

Good morning. This is Alan with an after hours news flash. A 98 year old woman in Sacramento, California has been found to be pregnant. Due to her advanced age however, she will have an adult. A dog exploded today in downtown Chicago. Several people were overcome by flying for and body parts. No one was injured in the blast. Genetic researchers have discovered that if your grandparents never had children, chances are you won't either. Unidentified Man in Walla Walla, Washington attempted to mail a watermelon with food stamps, no further details. The over 80s nudists leapfrog team will be holding a meet in front of City Hall this afternoon. Afterwards, they will award a medal to the nudist voted most likely I'm not so much interested in who gets the medal as where are they going to pin it? The weather for today is outside clouds with scatterings of air the sun will be rising in the east setting in the west. Thank you and good morning.

Buddy Johnston 26:28

Oh Allah. Thank you. I miss him somewhere. Don't you wish just once you'd say instead of Walmart, because you know, I wanted to get into Barney's cave. Anyway, after hours radios celebrating live from the heart of Montrose 52657385 to

That's what I'm here. Yeah. In fact, I have a very beautiful birthday card here from him. Oh, and it's got a very beautiful birthday message on the front page. Sure. If I read that, I might cry. So I'll read it later, he would cry. But it does say happy birthday. Thanks for all you do, Brian. And he's joined us in the lobby to answer your call at 526-573-8526 KPFT.

J Jimmy Carper 31:17

You know, I was going through the stack good looking girl. He's a cute man. I was going through the stack of cards and letters that we've gotten over the last three years. So yeah, some of them are really something special, baby. You're gonna reach down. Yeah, get some birthday cards here. And we'll get to those in a minute. I want to see you open some of these presents will open presents here in a minute.

B Buddy Johnston 31:21

R Roger 31:40

Let me want to cut that cake. We do that cake alone. That's right.

J Jimmy Carper 31:43

You have to cut around the ears.

R Roger 31:47

What? What here's? I didn't know kicks head of yours. Well, Mickey does. Oh, okay. Mickey Mouse here.

B Buddy Johnston 31:55

This is a Christmas a birthday card that we got back. Last year. No. Two years ago. Yes. A Christmas card rather. I'm sorry. Well, and I have to read it to you because it is one of my favorite cards. Like this is it? I pulled some of my favorites. Dear buddy in the after hours game, I really enjoy and need your program. It makes me feel normal for at least two hours a week.

Thanks for being on the air. Yeah, that was old enough to remember that child. Yeah, we were only on for two hours, two to four hours. And Patti sent us this birth this Christmas card back in 1988. That has almost become a trademark. I've heard more people. People say that I have heard that. And almost the three years I've done the show is that you just make me feel so good. Make me feel good. Make me feel normal. You make me feel so normal.

J Jimmy Carper 32:35

B Buddy Johnston 32:41

J Jimmy Carper 32:51

And that's kind of I guess the message we're trying trying to get because you're gay doesn't mean you're not normal. That's fine. We're not We're not any different.

R Roger 33:00

Who's to say what normal is? I mean, really, when I go out to my Mom, listen to this dear buddy and the after hours gain just a short note to let you know that I'm here and listening. I'm 19 years old and enjoy tuning into your program each week. Thanks for being there. And thanks so much for caring about others, Michael, and that sweet maximizing those letters are the ones that keep us going. It sure does. We'll read some more of them later on. One of my favorite one. Yeah. Came in this beautiful paper. I remember when that came as came back during last last year during Pride Week, in June last summer, and it says dear friends last week I was visiting Houston, I turned on the radio at 3am. And to my amazement, I heard your program recalling the history of gay liberation. That voice of enlightenment in a city famous for its homophobia was very thrilling for me. You have my highest praise for your courage. I've now reached the age of 60. My early years were grim, hopeless and suicidal. If people like you had dared to speak out as role models. When I was younger, my life would have been positive and creative. Please don't give way to despair or burnout believe in our cause and keep working. Because it is so very important for those who are out there and haven't found their voices yet. My thanks and my love Alan. And that was beautiful.

B Buddy Johnston 33:06

J Jimmy Carper 34:30

That's beautiful. 60 years old John.

R Roger 34:34
I don't really that's not Alan smart. No, no.

B Buddy Johnston 34:37
I can't even begin to realize just how many people's lives we've touched. And how wonderful this program is. This is just a stack of birthday cards right here baby look at that.

J Jimmy Carper 34:49
It's an add on wild and it gives us a lot of satisfaction knowing that at least one person life is easier.

B Buddy Johnston 34:58
And I know Are we more than one life that we've

J Jimmy Carper 35:02
touched? And? Yeah, certainly is much more than one.

B Buddy Johnston 35:05
