

The disorder began with a routine police raid on a homosexual bar, the Stonewall, on Christopher Street.

[CROWD CHANTING] Say it loud.

Say it proud.

We take great pride and what's happened in the gay community, and what's going to happen.

People of gay county have said enough, enough, enough.

[CROWD CHANTING] Human rights are here to stay. Anita Bryant go away.

There's no question in my mind that the people of California don't want homosexuals teaching in their classroom.

State senator, John Briggs has just conceded the election.

Both, Mayor Moscone and Supervisor, Harvey Milk have been shot and killed.

Dan White has been found guilty of one count each of voluntary manslaughter.

[CROWD CHANTING] Right now! Right now!

And has now broken loose, cops are now bashing heads.

And here comes the National March on Washington for lesbian and gay rights.

Gay power and gay pride, that's what this report is about.

You hear gay and lesbian people singing out here, what's your reaction to that?

Well, I think it's terrible, if I had a rock, I'd thrown it at them.

The real message of these gay games, is that every one of us is a winner.

Tonight we are marching, as our others across America. And we shouldn't have to be.

Say it so they can hear you in the Capital. For love or for life, we're not going back. For love or for life, we're not going back. For love or for life, we're not going back. For love or for life, we're not going back!

I think that's Robin Tyler on the stage leading the chant, for love or for life, we're not going back.

Good afternoon and welcome to the National March on Washington DC, for gay and lesbian rights and [INAUDIBLE] Lets hear it out there! I'm Lea Delaria.

I'm Bruce Hopkins.

I'm a dike!

I'm a faggot.

And we're best friends!

I want you to savor this next moment. I have the proud task of telling you that the official count of the lesbian and gay rights March, the official count is over 500,000 strong. 500,000 strong! Look at you! 500,000 strong! 500,000 strong! One of the largest Marches in the United States history. One of the largest Marches in United States history! 500,000 strong!

[MUSIC PLAYING]

Well, good morning and welcome to KPFT Houston 90.1 FM. This is Buddy Johnston telling you that the after hours program is coming at you live. 100,000 watts of full stereo from your Pacifica station. The Robin Tyler and friends, open the program from the Historic National March on lesbian-- or national March on lesbians. Laura was at a National March on lesbian Sunday. Say National March on Washington DC for lesbian and gay rights.

There you go.

And pastor, Laura's with us this morning from the Church of the Rock. And Terry's in there with us. Terry are you with us?

I'm here.

Trying to find Terry.

Terry's here.

Terry's here.

Testing, one, two, three.

There she is. Terry and Laura with us this morning. And they're going to be talking to us about the Church of the Rock and all the wonderful things going on there.

Yeah.

And believe it or not, there are homosexual churches. I don't like to use that word. But there are churches full of homosexual people, that are what? Praising the Lord?

And having a wonderful time doing it, I might add.

We're going to be talking about all of that this morning for with you, on the after hours show. I'm going to open the phone lines later on at 526-4000. If you want to call up and talk to Reverend Laura or Terry about the Church of the Rock.

We're also going to have some very nice looking people from the church out in the lobby, to take your phone calls. If you don't want to get on the air, if you just want information about the Church.

Going to be playing a lot of music tonight. A little more diverse than we usually do. Someone asked me one time, what kind of music are you going to play on the after hours show? I said, well, it's going to be as diverse as the gay and lesbian community in Houston.

There you go.

And I can guarantee you this morning, it will be. We may even hear Tammy Baker singing the God and--

[INTERPOSING VOICES]

They may even hear a little bit of tongue tugging going at over here.

Just stay with us on the After Hours Show, right here on KPFT. And we'll have all kinds of surprises for you.

[MUSIC PLAYING]

Hi, this is Denise from Big Franks on the corner of Montrose and Westheimer. And we're celebrating live from the heart of Montrose. And you're listening to After Hours on KPFT Houston.

My name is Rory and I'm on After Hours, the radio celebrating a life, from the heart of Montreal.

[MUSIC PLAYING]

This is "Sticks" from the album "paradise". And we were rocking and rolling in Washington DC last weekend about 3 and a quarter, well 3 and quarter, 300, geez. I can't even talk tonight. What do you guys think about this? We're in trouble. It was almost 3/4 of a million gay and lesbian people in Washington DC. And they were rocking, baby, rock and roll.

[MUSIC PLAYING]

What you doing tonight?

Come out, come out, wherever you are.

I'm here.

It's what I like to say, we started that the night that Mary was here going to Washington. Come out, come out, wherever you are. That was one of my favorite games as a little kid. And they did come out last weekend by the hundreds of thousands.

And in fact while the Reverend Jesse Jackson was speaking, he said tens of thousands. And you can hear about 750 gay and lesbian people going hundreds of thousands, hundreds of thousands. We have got March, March, March for you. KPFT and Pacifica brought you the coverage from the rally last Sunday.

I hope that you heard it. If you didn't hear it, you missed one of the most wonderful things I've ever heard in my life on radio they had some tremendous speakers on the platform. And over the next few weeks and months and days, we're going to be bringing you a lot of stuff from the rally. And the tapes are just full of good stuff. And we're going to be bringing you just as much of that as we can.

Also spoke with Poke and Jack and Jerry and Ray and Bob. Few of the other gay programmers that do-- gay and lesbian programmers that do programming here on KPFT. And we're going to all get together and put together some special tapes. A lot of people have been calling us here at the station, saying when are you going to rebroadcast the March?

Well, it's unlikely that the entire five hours, that's right ladies and gentlemen, five hours we carried the March, the rally for you. It's unlikely that we'll broadcast the entire five hours in its entirety. However, the lesbian and gay programmers here at the station, we're all throwing together our talent and energy. And we're going to be producing some tapes for you. That'll be available hopefully in the next week.

Of highlights from the March, including some of the more prominent speakers. And my Lord, there were prominent speakers there. Ginny Apuzzo, former director of the gay and lesbian task force, I believe. If I'm wrong, somebody call me and correct me. But Ginny Apuzzo said some very beautiful things.

Robin Tyler, Robert Blake, Whoopi Goldberg, who will be hearing from them later on this morning, said some wonderful things. Everybody, it seemed like, had beautiful words to share. And we're going to be putting all that together on cassettes for you. And they'll be available as a one time donation to KPFT. So we'll keep you posted as to when that's going to happen.

Also, Lucia Chappelle and Greg Gordon, the anchors and producers of the rally from Washington, are going to be producing all kinds of things. Once they get back to California and get a chance to put all the tapes together. And as those programs become available, believe it, we will bring them to you.

As I said this morning, we've got Pastor Laura.

Hello.

And Terry.

Hi there.

With us this morning from Church of the Rock. And Church of the Rock is located at 7018 Long Point, between Silber and Antoine in the Spring Branch area.

Roger, my other half and I, attended the third anniversary of Church of the rock. When was that, Terry? The date? The dates all run together. Alan's standing there. Allen when was it?

Four weeks ago.

Four weeks ago. And we had a wonderful time. It was a wonderful, wonderful time. We heard a lot of good music, including a young lady by the name of Nancy. We're going to be playing a song that Nancy did for you later.

She sang that song, it was given to her to sing from a man in Dallas who had AIDS. He has since gone home. And it's not a religious type song. But yet it is insofar as he was playing this to his friends. And it was the only way that he could put his feelings down. So he did it to music.

Nancy has an incredibly, beautiful voice.

Yes,

Yes, she does.

She's like Sandy Patty junior, if you know who that gospel singer is.

Just incredible.

Just incredibly beautiful.

Yeah, she's great.

Anyway, we got some more music for you standing by. John Lennon is going to come in and sing for us. And last Friday, Bill McHale, that does the a little feature here, called "street beat," every Friday for the news department. Goes out and talks to folks about different things going on in the news that week.

Well, Bill was out of town Friday, so I went out for Garland Gantor, our news director. And got reaction to people in the street about the March, and how they felt the March went. So we're going to listen to that. And then we're going to listen to John Lennon. And who knows what we're going to listen to. Just stay tuned. This is After Hours on KPFT Houston.

I was saying that I think Marches are always good, whether people think that you are looked at or not. You are looked at. Whether you think you get the media coverage that you need or not. I mean, obviously everyone knows about the March on Washington, I think.

Yeah, we need to take time to see what's going to come around. Because like Black people, we took so much, and we just had to wait time, time, time. It'll come around and then OK, two gay guys can walk in the street hand in hand. But you know it takes time. We have to wait till it comes around.

You can only work hand in hand in the Mantra. So you couldn't do that out at the Galleria or Sharfstein, right?

Right, but it just going to take a little time to get equal rights with everybody else, with straight people. Because we all are people, we all are one, we all come from the same God.

I just got back from living in Brazil. And I've spent some time in Canada, too. And we in the United States, when we get a group of people that are down, seem like we try to [MUTED] just a little bit [MUTED]. We do that here.

Instead of the people of the United States getting behind the gay people, because they've got AIDS or whoever you know, it don't have to be gay people. Still supporting them and trying to make life better for all. Seem like we try to push them just a little bit further down. And that's what we've done in this country. My family have even turned against.

They haven't turned against me, but I don't feel comfortable around Them Like I used to. They used to have no problem with me being gay. But now that the AIDS things came about, it seem like we turn our back on people. And that's what's happened in Washington. Yeah, I think the demonstration was OK, but it fell on deaf ears.

Thanks.

It's very good for the gay community in the United States and the world. Because even we're spending $50 million that we should spend in AIDS research. We are showing ourselves they ostracize people, the world, that they need to show their rights and their feelings to the government of the United States, and the Governments of the world.

That we, as gay people and homosexuals, we are human beings. And we deserve the rights because rights or rights is something that people was born with it. It's not something that you deserve, as rights is something that you were born with it and you deserve it.

And you have to fight for your rights. And the March on Washington show that the gay population in the United States wants to get the rights to live, the rights to love, and the rights to be themselves.

I think the coverage should have been more on the March than what it was. I hope that we got our establishment across. It's about-

Do you think we could have done more?

Basically, no. I think we're done as best we could.

Do you think the government could do more?

A lot more.

Right.

Well, I would tell people that I think that it's a necessary thing to go up there and demonstrate for the people's rights. And whatever they feel like they need, because it's guaranteed by the Constitution. And definitely, it's a thing people have to do, just like they vote, it's a necessary thing.

I saw the way the media covered it, was kind of unfair and one sided.

What do you mean one sided?

Oh, they said something about there were some arrests, but it was a nonviolent March, so it kind of left you hanging. You didn't know why there was any arrests or anything.

OK, there were arrests on Tuesday at the Supreme Court for civil disobedience, about 800 people were arrested. But the March itself, there were over 750,000 people there. Do you think the government was listening to all those folks?

No, I don't think they did.

It would appear that the government was trying to turn their back, but I don't think they can. I think they realize that they put the numbers are out there. There are a lot of people who care and want something done. And we do have some senators and representatives who do care. And I feel with our push, with the March, and them, we'll accomplish something.

Do you think we did all that we can do last Sunday?

As best as we can at this time, I think. I really do. And I'm sure there's more we can do, with organization we'll get there.

I think it was great and I think they should continue it.

[MUSIC PLAYING]

And the world will live as one.

And the world will live as one, that's John Lennon and "Imagine" all the people. Can you imagine all the people, Pastor Laura, living as one?

I wish we all could do that right now.

You know that's a song of hope. And I'm sure that you have a song of hope that you speak in a verbal way to your church every week.

I consider the people in my church, not just those that are attending on Sundays or come to Bible studies, I'm talking about the ones that are part of my church. If you want to call it mine, which it isn't.

But all those out there that are listening to me now, that aren't going anywhere. All those yet to come, that the Lord shall have us to have. Someone asked me, well, how big is our church? And I said, well, what are you talking about numbers or are you talking about spirituality? There is a difference.

Yes, there is.

There certainly is. We've got something to play for you now from the March. I've wrestled all week with trying to decide what to play, because there were so many wonderful speakers.

Uh-hmm, there really was.

And there were so many wonderful things that were said. And as the week went on, I heard from many, many people how disappointed they were in the press. I thank God for Pacifica radio that was there to bring the rally to us, in its complete coverage of a gay and lesbian rally from the Nation's capital. I'm so glad that Pacifica was there.

But CBS and NBC and ABC were all there. Unfortunately they said very little about it. I mean, 750,000, almost 3/4 of a million people show up on our Nation's capital on a Sunday. In one of the largest demonstrations ever to take place in our Nation's history. The largest demonstration, I believe. And it's completely ignored by the media, not completely, but almost completely.

And the local papers here, The Chronicle and The Post, they both have bureaus in Washington DC. And I spoke to one of the gay programmers here that does the Wallenstein show. And he said there was very little said in the local papers. And yeah, I don't know why the media and the nation continue to deny the fact that we're here.

We're here and we're not going away. But anyway, I was talking to people as the week went on. And they began to express how unhappy they were, I guess with the media. And the way the media did not cover the event. And there's a story, I'm sure you've all seen it, because it's been in all the papers.

It's been on the news. It's been the hottest thing going since what? Since the hula hoop. No, I don't want to say that. And I honestly don't mean anything bad toward this story. But there was a little girl trapped in a well in Midland, Texas. And she got more press coverage than the entire March did.

Now I'm not saying she's not important. I think she's very important. But it's just like the Challenger incident, seven astronauts go up, the Challenger exploded, and the whole country fell apart. When every day there are people killed in automobile accidents. There are other things going on in the world. And somehow, I think we need to get our priorities in order. But that's what I've been told during the past week, that we need to get our priorities in order.

And the reason I decided to play the speech that Whoopi Goldberg gave us at the rally. Is because today on the news, I heard that President Reagan was going to call this little girl in Midland, and probably send her a check for $1,000. The President's always doing things like that, unless you have AIDS.

And if you listen to Whoopi Goldberg, she's going to talk about three little boys down in Florida, who happened to be straight. And they contracted AIDS from, I believe, drug blood hemophiliacs, contracted AIDS from blood transfusions. And it's very unfortunate, but President Reagan has yet to call these kids. And you'll hear what Whoopi's got to say. So let's go back to the March. This is from last Sunday.

Whoopi! Whoopi! Whoopi! Whoopi! Whoopi! Whoopi! Whoopi! Whoopi! Whoopi!

Wow, makes you want to play football you know.

We love you!

Thank you, hello. I'm here with a message. It is not a message to the American people, per se. But it is a message that affects you all, and me very deeply. There are children who are walking around with AIDS. They are 8 and 7-year-olds, there are 5 and four-year-olds.

And people are making it tough for them to have the little bit of life they do. And I am appealing to you, to show these kids how to live with dignity. I'm begging you. Because you see, while you're sitting sometimes you'd be thinking, Oh, what have I done with my life?

You've had a life. You've had 20 or 30 or 40 years. These kids have had 4 and 5. I have a question that maybe somebody can give me an answer to. When those children's houses were burned down in Florida. Mr Reagan, did you send them a letter of condolence? Did you tell them what happened to them was wrong, and that is not the American way?

Mr Reagan, did you explain to these kids that sometimes ignorant people act in such a way that is frightening? Did Mr Reagan, you tell them that you were going to support them and live with them through this? Because that's what America does for its own. I don't think so. I want to know why.

I mean, if we're supposed to be all American, looking out for each other. Then why hasn't the President of the United States said to these kids, I'm behind you. I am your president, too.

When you all have your sit-in, I would like you to scream the words, how long. How long is it going to take before people get smart? Educated people, not just people with no education. We're not talking about illiterate people. We're talking about senators and congressmen and the President.

Now, I can't believe there's like 500,000 people here. Would you do me a favor, please? Because I'm going to be working on Tuesday, or dead. No, they won't kill me off till after the movie. Would you all, all 500,000 of you, I just want to hear how how long is going to sound when you scream it at Mr Reagan. On three, please would you do that for me? One, two, three.

How long!

Well, I can tell you when they see you and they hear you, when they see the faces of the children who are going to be inspired by you. I can only believe it won't be that long. I don't believe that people who walk around and talk about Christian brotherhood, or have problems with certain kind of lifestyles. Will ever be able to look at a child again and say, Oh, yeah, you're sick, you must be gay.

I don't think that they'll be able to do that. As long as you and me, and all those guys up there behind the cameras, and all the people who are watching, scream how long. Go in peace, go in light, my love, good night.

[MUSIC PLAYING]

Hey, Sandi Patty.

All right, Amen.

You said Nancy, your friend from Dallas, sounded like Sandi Patty. That's Sandi Patty.

That's right.

That's a fairly old album. But we used to play that with the, well, a couple of churches in Omaha, Nebraska, that I was associated with at one time.

Yes, buddy.

Uh-hmm.

Terry is going to tell my path.

And I'll just confirm it.

Anyhow, if you had a message for the gay and lesbian people that are listening to us. And not just the gay and lesbian people. I'm talking about anybody, anywhere, that feels like that God doesn't care about them. Because maybe they're gay or lesbian or they're a drug user, or they're not accepted by mainstream society.

Pastor Laura, what would it be this morning?

Number one, I would tell them that they've probably heard this phrase time and time again in their life, that God loves them. Well if we can get through that and say, OK, God does love me, now what? The what is that he does. And try to understand at the best that we can, that we are accepted by him just as we are.

That old baptist hymn, just as I am, is the one that really gets me. And I'm an ex-catholic nun. You know, and I'm one of them shouting one's now. But he cares so much. And the only way that his love can be shown is through other children of the Lord.

And when he begins to do that through us, then that hurt that we got of non-acceptance, the hurt that we get that nobody cares. The hurt that we get that we're out there all by ourself and no one is even reaching out. If we as true believers in Christ will just reach out halfway, that's all we have to go. Just half way, because all of you out there, and I at one time, didn't know where to reach.

But we were just reaching, and finally a hand grabbed us.

Do you get a lot of-- I don't like the word flack. But do you get a lot of resistance maybe, from the straight community or from other people? When they hear they try to put the word gay and church, or gay and religion, or gay and Jesus, or gay and God together.

It's going to be really strange, but the flack or the resistance that I'm getting, is not from the heterosexual community. It's from the gay community itself. That's where I'm getting it. And once they hear the truth that, I can prove to you through God's word. That Sodom and Gomorrah was not the sin of homosexuality, it was the sin of in hospitality. And you find it in Isaiah.

And I go ahead and tell them that, and they go, uh-uh, it can't be. Because Roman says this, and we go on and on and on. And it's the gay community who's given me the slack.

You know, it's just like that old tape that we've been listening through all of our life, you're bad, you're bad, you're bad.

Amen.

And it keeps playing over and over. And it's those small words, you are bad.

You hear that line and you think you are bad, right?

Well, you believe it, right?

All right.

Terry, where is the church located again?

We're over off of Long point in between Silber and Antoine. It's really easy to find.

And we have some members of the Church out in the lobby. Along with Roger and Alan's here to do our church report for us, during our regular newscast this morning. Which will be coming up about 3 o'clock. This is KPFT Houston 90.1 FM in Houston, Texas. Right here on the Texas Gulf Coast.

The phone lines are open at 526-4000. 526-4000, if you have questions for Pastor Laura or Terry. Or any of the church members are out there to take your questions and give you information about the Church, if you don't really want to get on the air.

They brought some special music with them this morning. And a song we're going to hear now is from a young man by the name of Don Francisco. And the song's called, "I don't care where you've been sleeping" Let's see what Don's got to say.

[MUSIC PLAYING]

One could imagine that its gone--

That was Don Francisco from an album called "forgiven." And a very nice song called, "I don't care where you've been sleeping." And what were you saying?

What I was saying is if there's any of you out there, I want you to know that I've been where you've been. And I've been where you are right now. I used to be going home too, after the bars. I used to drink like an absolute fish. It was nothing for me, at any one given moment, to go through a half a case of beer on a Friday or Saturday night. Nothing.

I was just a fighting Dike from way back. I used to do drugs. I used to smoke. I did speed, downers, you name it. Lord did keep me, though unbeknownst to myself, away from the really bad, bad stuff like crack, heroin, LSD.

You know, Pastor, I used to do that, the acid.

That's right.

LSD, but no more.

No, you know, and then I call myself a little Mary Magdalene. You know, she probably got charged for it, I didn't. I sometimes gave out change.

Gave it out free.

Yeah, you know, I did it too. And it took a friend to say, are you having fun? And I said no, ma'am, I'm not. And she said, well, what are you going to do about it? And I said, I don't know where I'm going to go, but I'm going to go someplace. I can't stand these Friday nights and Saturday nights, walking in and walking out alone. And then always having to wait till the next Friday or Saturday night to get my charge. No, I have something now that carries a lot farther.

Than the circle just kind of starts all over again.

That's right, you're just going in one big circle and you got to break it.

Like that song says, trying to find love in all the wrong places.

That's right, and once you begin to just make the first step. You've got to do it. You've got to make the step.

Just like an alcoholic, you've got to want to do it for yourself.

Exactly.

And when you do it, it's so easy, believe me. It's easy. Just turn around and look. All you got to do, turn around, there's somebody, more than just one out there, that all they have to do right now, right this moment, turn around and you'll find it. You'll find that joy, you didn't find at Mary's or Bacchus. You'll find it.

Call 526-4000, 526-4000, the phone lines are open. We went to the anniversary, I want to say program, what was it, Terry? Was that a program?

That was a festival.

A festival in itself.

Celebration festival.

And a lot of people think, not only in Church of the Rock, but other churches, that if you go everything's going to be a stuffed shirt, everybody's wearing a stuffed shirt. It's not that way. And it wasn't that way when Ray Stevens was a little boy growing up in his antebellum South.

[MUSIC PLAYING]

In that sleepy little town of Pascagoula, Pascagoula. It was a fight for survival, but I saw God in the Bible.

Hey there, you look like a Southern Belle. Have you heard about the KPFT first annual Bluegrass Festival?

Sure have. It's going to be Sunday, October the 25 at Clear Lake Park. Everybody's going to be there.

But I hear they're also having the first ever Ragu cook off in the state of Texas, with some real great prizes for the first five places. And I sure would like to know what the heck Ragu is.

You mean you don't know?

No, tell me about it.

Well, Ragu is a traditional Kentucky stew, with all kinds of meats, vegetables, splash of bourbon, anything that suits your taste.

Well, how do you enter this thing?

You can call Erol at 526-4000 for information on how to enter and a basic recipe.

Well, I guess I'm going to enter. And see down there October 25, Sunday afternoon, down to Clear Lake Park.

All right, I'll see you there and y'all come.

[MUSIC PLAYING]

Well it helps as you push the button. Well here we are, it's almost time for the news. Brian Keefer, our news Reporter, News hound is back from Washington DC and the March. And he's got a wonderful report for you, coming up in just a second. And then Mark Schmidt's going to be in with the sports. And then Alan standing by with the church and community bulletin board report. Anything to say before we do the news?

There's plenty going on if they'll just pay attention.

There's plenty going on, that's right. The big news is that I've got a surprise record standing by that Pastor Laura and Terry don't know about.

Is that one of these ruh-roh's we have to worry about?

Oh, it's a little surprise, but we'll get to that in just a second. We're getting ready for the news. This is KPFT Houston 90.1 FM. And as we push a couple of buttons around, we're going to listen to Dino, I believe it is. Is that right, Terry?

Dino, right.

And what's the name of the song?

Hallelujah.

OK, the King is coming. I kind of put her on the spot. Because she's back in the air studio, and she's looking through the glass at us, but she really couldn't hear what was going on or see the record album. So stay tuned for the news. This is After Hours on KPFT in Houston 90.1 FM.

[MUSIC PLAYING]

And now After Hours on KPFT Houston, brings you the news with Brian Keefer, sports with Mark Schmidt, and our community bulletin board church report from Alan Sands. It's radio, celebrating life from the heart of the Montrose. And it's time now for the news.

[MUSIC PLAYING]

Good morning Houston, Montrose and the world. This is After Hours news and this is Brian Keefer. The largest demonstration for lesbian and gay rights in US history, took place on Sunday, October the 11th, 1987 in Washington DC. Gays and lesbians from across the country demanded an end to discrimination against them.

The October led March follows in the tradition of the historic civil rights March of 1963. Which was substantially organized by the late Bayard Rustin, a gay man widely respected in civil rights March. That action brought more than 250,000 people to Washington, in an unprecedented show of strength, that led to the passage of the Civil Rights Act of 64 and 65.

But we had an excess of 500,000 gay men and lesbians and their supporters demanding our rights. Those laws banning discrimination in housing, employment, education, public accommodations, based on race, religion, and national origin. It was the words, awesome, phenomenal, and just unbelievable. It was civil rights history in the making.

Also in related events days before, people from across the nation and including Texas, lobbied their senators, their Congress people for support. A gay wedding on the steps of the IRS building. That's right, IRS. Thousands and thousands of people being married by the Reverend elder Torri Perry. Such a happy and wonderful scene, covered by media everywhere.

Coming up, information and more on civil disobedience at the Supreme Court. It was phenomenal. There were people from everywhere. Myself, I almost felt like I was going to be crushed with the crowds of people that I helped. I led the Texas delegation, being over one block long, in the March.
