M Michael Crawford 00:02
I liked it. I thought that was cool. And it's from where is it from? It's from out fuck number two by Matt. And if you like want to get an issue of out punk sin two bucks two out punk PO Box 170501 San Francisco California 94117.

E Eric 00:27
And include in that when you request a letter that you heard that, uh, he got anyway that we read his letter on the air.

M Michael Crawford 00:35
Yeah, tell him you heard it from afterall was and he should send us free stuff because we're promoting him.

E Eric 00:40
Yeah and we know that there are a group of users out there in the city that have out punk and others that we never see anywhere. Cuz you're not contributing to the Houston queer youth movements.

M Michael Crawford 00:56
Well, I must admit we didn't see them in heaven last night.

E Eric 00:59

Did we see anyone? Okay, wait, we did. That was Tony Francesca on it who will say that's the god Tony franchise con. ASIMO baseball.

M

Michael Crawford 01:12

Okay, okay. And we did saw the guys who were very Miami. Oh, we saw South Miami Beach right here at heaven. It's gonna be that kind of a crazy summer that kind of take your shirt off. Tell your best friend. No, it's okay. You look good. You look hot. Keep your shirt off. Even if he doesn't. And he did. He didn't know any good. Okay. But that insecurity was even more charming and appealing. And when are we gonna get to that featured speech?

E

Eric 01:17

M

Michael Crawford 01:43

Oh, well, it's not hooked up yet. But what we'll do is let's, you know, warm them up so that they know what's coming.

E

Eric 01:50

M

Michael Crawford 01:53

Yeah, actually, what we're really going to do is we're going to start a little bit and talking put things together. Okay, but what is this? What No, I'm we're not doing the speech first. Actually. No, but later on, we'll Okay. Well, here it is.

Eric 02:11

Jesus. Well, this was a really fabulous speech by Larry Kramer that first we heard at the hands around the Capitol. Michael and I went to Washington DC to march for equality and health rights were important health rights. And so after the hands around the Capitol, there was a rally and Larry Kramer gave his fabulous speak about Donna do nothing and build a wheelchair and build a wheelchair his wife so righteous Larry Kramer, God and we have that speech. No, not now. We don't actually we're going to a song and I know but we have that speech later on after you call in at 5265738

M

Michael Crawford 02:58

and we have a drag queen in the room because well it's transgender. Oh, I'm sorry.

E

Eric 03:02

Well wait a minute that's a good lesbians and

M

Michael Crawford 03:06

okay, but first, we're gonna go all right. That was of course Nine Inch Nails. Led by Trent Reznor, who we all know as a fag. The song was, that's what I get from the album pretty hate machine

E

Eric 03:23

with an introduction of

M

Michael Crawford 03:24

fan. Because, you know, we are all sitting queers. And actually, to be perfectly honest, I wanted to play something from the newest Nine Inch Nails album, but it has all the words all those words like blank and blank, blank, blank and blank, blank blank that we can't play over the air. So, you know, pretty hate machine is all we can play.

Eric 03:46

You were supposed to agree or I agree, but I'm still in this hole. Let's raise some money for the radio station mood, and that number, and then five to 65738. And you really have to call because without the donations from the listening audience, there is no station. Therefore there is no us. And the gay voices so seldom rarely heard anywhere.

M

Michael Crawford 04:16

Yeah, I mean, we should be perfectly honest with the whole thing. I mean, one reasons that the Christian right can just totally Wipe our asses over every single issue is the fact that they have television and radio stations, you know that they constantly blare 24 hours a day. The queers are evil queers are bad crews are disgusting. queers are actually having sex. And we only have the three hours that we get for after hours and the two hours that we get on Friday from six to eight for lesbian and gay voices. And that's all the queers get.

Eric 04:45

That's right, because Jane wintney ain't gonna be having a talk show every night about my lifestyle.

-  Michael Crawford 04:50
But she's she's been having quite a few though. She had lesbo go girls. Then she had the gay bashes versus the you know, the queers went forth.
-  Eric 05:00
Only we're all male and all white. Such an excellent show.
-  Michael Crawford 05:03
Yeah, and the scary part was that one of the gay bash look more queer than the queer today. In fact,
-  Eric 05:09
I saw guy like that that they are

M

Michael Crawford 07:08

Well, okay. I bet the next Thursday meeting they bid me out for saying it. Yeah. Yeah, we did that a lot. today. It's one o'clock and time for a station ID. Which means it's my turn to tell you that you're listening to after hours at KPFT 90.1. Houston World Radio. hour. Are we going to have cards now? Okay, maybe? I think we should. Let's promo other people.

07:39

I was walking down the street holding hands with my lover, when suddenly we were attacked after being publicly identified as breeders.

Speaker 13 08:30

Rebecca and I went camping. We made camp. We spent some time eating. We were laying down by stream, and all of a sudden they were shocked. My arm exploded. Rebecca was hit twice and started to bleed to death. tempted to carry her. I was unsuccessful. The entire walk out of the woods, I believed myself to be hunted. My name is Claudia Brenner. We were identified as lesbian by a stranger with whom we had no connection. He will spend the rest of his life in prison. But Rebecca, who was 28 years old, is gone.

The preceding was brought to you by the National Committee to save unborn queer baby whales, which wanted you to hear and think about this message.

M

Michael Crawford 09:48

Thank you lovely and talented Scott Lewis, who I guess is our version of Vanna White. Eric Martin Washington, Larry Kramer set us up.

E

Eric 09:59

Up Okay, this is gonna be the most excellent speech that Larry Kramer made at the March on Washington and he officially got to speak at the rally on Sunday. And then here it goes.

O

10:21

know if you saw the front page of The New York Times today but there's another SEC survey out. There are now 4.6% of us how we multiply.

O

It has been six months since we elected bill the welcher. President. It has been five months since we heard Donna do nothing Shalala with the health secretary. What has six months bought us build the welcher has announced no new aids programs, nor put in place anything that would change and alter the horrors of the last 12 years. Bill the welcher has announced no new aid czar. No one even knows what kind of aid czar they want. Far worse, there is no head of AIDS research. Stupid Ted Kennedy has pushed an appallingly dumb plan through a blind and ignorant Congress that establishes yet another bureaucracy at NIH. When Will everyone realize that as constituted there has never been a cure for any major illness that has ever come out of NIH. NIH is incapable of operating in time of Crisis, Emergency or played. But who listens to us we who understand what's wrong with the AIDS research program and have ideas how to make it work. Hillary bill the Welch's wife has placed on her health panel, not one single aids expert Dr. Anthony Fauci, for better or for worse, the government's leading point man on AIDS has during these past six months, received not one single phone call or a summons to a meeting from Bill the welcher or Hillary the Welch's wife, or dama do nothing or any of their many lackeys. This is appalling, not one single person of importance that the White House or in the entire health bureaucracy has cared enough to call Dr. Fauci and ask him, how's it going? What do you need to cure this plague? What can we do to help? This comes at a time when very important scientific breakthroughs are occurring that need to be pursued immediately. Time is being pissed away. Just like under Reagan, Bush. Nothing is any difference. What kind of inhumanity is this? This is yet another president and yet another health secretary who do not care about AIDS. Why are we kissing this President's ass?

14:17

He may be saying all the right things, but he isn't doing anything. While we are dying. Donna do nothing. So Leila is a lesbian, and I know it and she knows that and 1000s of lesbian from coast to coast know it. So why is she denying it so vehement Lee and helping us so little, we do not need another Ed cops ruining our lives. Dr Hazeltine at Harvard now Now predicts 1 billion people will be HIV infected by the new century, when I started yelling, there were 41 cases 41. That's become 1 billion. And still no one is addressing this with the attention and urgency it deserves. This new president made us promises. We are a viable, important voting bloc. He made us promises we paid for those promises. And he has done nothing to implement these promises, or to even discuss with us the possibility of implementing these promises. We have been completely shut out from any discussion, which is bad enough until you realize there aren't even any discussions going on. We are being intentionally allowed to die. Can't you see this? My brothers and sisters, this is genocide, the intentional killing of gays and people of color. There is the new Holocaust Museum just over there. This is our holocaust. Bill the welcher cares as much about homosexuals as Roosevelt cared about Jews. Roosevelt said all the right things and the desperate Jews Bellbird hook, line and sinker. And when they woke up when the war was over 6 million of their brothers and sisters were dead, and now there's a museum for them over there. Martin Luther King said, if a man doesn't have something worth fighting for, he might just as well not live. We must fight bill the welcher and Hillary the Welch's wife and Donna do nothing we must fight and make them appoint Lowell Weicker as Azar, and give Fauci emergency powers to undertake the research he must perform to find his cure. Oh, my brothers and sisters, embrace the danger of life. We are here we are alive. We are together, we are united. The future We have waited so long to live is here on this small on this very day. Not only can we do it, we have done it. But now harder than ever. We must act up, fight back. Fight AIDS. Thank you.

17:53

ACT UP, fight back, fight AIDS. Fight Back fight. ACT UP.

Michael Crawford 18:00

Okay, that was Larry Kramer, who we all should know is like, God. He's the founder of Gay Men's Health Crisis in New York, the largest aid service organization on the entire planet. He is like, let's say he found that act of AIDS coalition to unleash power after visiting Houston. Yes, thank you. He said something must be done. And being a New Yorker and going back to New York, he did it.

E Eric 18:23

M Michael Crawford 18:32
Yeah. And now act up is like the most amazing Direct Action Group ever to hit the United States and

E Eric 18:38
Larry Kramer just doesn't quit. You know, he's got that great little article on the end of the advocate, AC T Blake and Barbra Streisand is finally directing producing the normal heart. It will be movie.

M Michael Crawford 18:51
Yep. And his play the destiny of me still hasn't come to Houston.

E Eric 18:57
It will on PBS.

M Michael Crawford 19:01
And let's see, let's let's I don't know I think my personal favorite part of the speech was Donna Shalala is a lesbian. I know she's a lesbian 1000s of lesbians across the country know she's a lesbian, why won't she come out so we're gonna give the number and meaning time for ACT UP Gulf Coast again. That is what ACT UP Gulf Coast meets at the Montrose activity center.

E Eric 19:35
Right behind the right behind the Wendy's on ground Stark and Westheimer in the little tiny building and there's just field it's like by under 21 I mean, you can't miss it. It's right there and personally going to act up Gulf Coast after I don't know how long have a hiatus I looked around the room and there was only one person I would hit on the head with a hammer Maren, I think everybody in the room felt that way. And but everybody was really, really hot and cute this time.

M Michael Crawford 20:07

Yeah. And the interesting thing for me personally, is that they're, you know, politically militant, you know, we're getting more militant finally, in our old age.

E

Eric 20:14

M

Michael Crawford 20:17

Yeah. And I think we're probably going to be telling you about what happened today. A little bit later. I mean, there was an act act well, not an act of action, but ACT UP made an appearance at a community forum to set the agenda for HIV and AIDS in Texas. And that was kind of an interesting event. Pissed me off. You know, made me angry.

E

Eric 20:39

And once again, if you donate any money, Sue Cooper will resign finally, and the number is 5265738.

M

Michael Crawford 20:47

And since anyone no one seems to want Scott Lewis I think we're gonna like like, go go down a little bit on his price. Anyone calling up? Pledging $60. Dollars? One bid the weekend with Scott Lewis.

21:04

50 bucks for the weekend? Yes. Hell, if they call they can have me for the weekend for free. We're not under your premium.

M

Michael Crawford 21:13

We're raising money for the station, say.

E

Eric 21:18

And the whole idea is to gradually go down that you're so good at that.

S

Scott Lewis 21:22

And I am real good at gradually going down.

 Michael Crawford 21:25
Now the question is how many donuts have gone down?

 Scott Lewis 21:28
It's my first one

 Eric 21:30
bitch. Jimmy had a scintillating you know, I should 21:33

I just took over as producer your job is in jeopardy.

 21:38
Well, hey, maybe that's maybe that was the announcement. That was it. Oh, that's it? Oh, well, maybe we should like Like, like, you know, do it up a little bit more. Okay. Basically, what happened was the lovely and talented Jim Kapur has ascended to what's your new title? I am a producer emeritus. Which basically means that he sits in a throne on a crowd with the crowd and just kind of points in waves. Okay. And all the grunt work is now done by Scott Lewis. Introduce yourself make some kind of noise or something.

 Michael Crawford 21:45

 Scott Lewis 22:15
What noise Do you want me to make Michael? Let me let me sit in your lap and then I'll make a noise.

 Michael Crawford 22:22
elated. bacony. Your lap? Well, yeah, well, it's in my lap. And jewel Gray, who is not here. So we'll make a noise for her. And they have like become official producers of after hours. And I think it's a pretty cool interesting match. Jewel is like a really cool intelligent in your face. Kind of dyke and Scott's same

 Scott Lewis 22:55

SCOTT LEWIS 22:55

a really cool, intelligent, interesting dyke in your life. Oh, sorry. Well, you know,

Eric 23:01

but queers the other

Jimmy Carper 23:03

well actually, they both have very, very good ideas for the future of after hours. Jewel being well, she's maybe a little bit older and a little bit wiser.

Scott Lewis 23:12

Stick it in your face. Girl. You should be used to that by now. The mic I mean.

Jimmy Carper 23:18

Oh, okay. And so I'm looking forward to stepping down and watching from afar, just kind of not stepping down. Spending. Oh, yeah. By it's an ascension.

Michael Crawford 23:28

23:34

I see. Yeah. Well, I never looked at it that way.

Michael Crawford 23:37

Oh, you have to put a positive spin on everything. Uh huh. Okay, and and what we were still saying about Scott goes, if you have 60 bucks in a free weekend, you know, five to six. Okay. Five to six. KPFT? Yep. Five to 65738.

Eric 23:53

And we we did. We met our match of raising 10 more dollars. So you just keep those phone calls coming in. Thank you so much.

Michael Crawford 24:02

And what's what's that? And Scott asked the question, What what are you going to do on the weekend? I think Scott, you in a jockstrap providing maid service will provide the answer.

24:15

Yeah, they believe

Eric 24:19

maid service, you get

Michael Crawford 24:21

an idea. As long as the check is clear. That's all we ask.

Scott Lewis 24:25

Oh, that's good. Yeah. So you get to get to drink free on Pacific Street.

Eric 24:30

And you get to clean his apartment in the nude. While he gives you orders and a little bit of a light of BND that's B slash d when you read it in the magazine. What's BD bonbons? The plan girl I see. I'll be there to supervise for Scott.

Scott Lewis 24:51

Yes. Protect me.

Michael Crawford 24:53

Are we like going to a cart now? Yeah, yeah. Okay, because we're gonna do the cart and then we're gonna do this way out. Right?

Scott Lewis 24:59

Yeah. Let's go. And if they come to my house and do B and D, and a jocks, they're going to be looking for this way out. They're going to be looking for any way. We, you know, we can give that address my address. Yeah. Next alternative points of view the radio offers, so that they just need to imagine Houston without KPFT. And I'm sure they would just first offer to the registration. I think 50 can serve as a focal point for any for many efforts because of the way it reaches so many people in the community at large, which is not as easily done in autumn. The March this weekend, the gay March of 2 million people, is that going to be a plus or a minus for Clinton?

25:15

25:48

25:53

Well, I can't imagine it's a plus for Clinton because he already has the gay community behind him. And obviously this March is going to only alienate people who don't support the gay movement and particularly in its more strident forms.

26:03

You talk about the black community on Nightline, do you have to have a representative of k k k for balance?

26:08

I think it's the kickoff rally for the gay and lesbian 97. I think this is when the year of the queer becomes a decade of massive mobilization and organizing a public conversation, public education with mainstream America about who we are. I think this is finally going to be the decade that America grapples with the issue of homosexuality, which has had an uneasy relationship with in the past. And I think it's absolutely going to be fabulous.

26:30

I think the American people are a bit jittery now about what President Clinton really has in mind for them.

26:35

The Republicans have lost three of their races, they lost aggressive anti communism, which was a great issue for them for a quarter of a century. That's no longer playable. Secondly, they had the tax cuts, that's no longer plausible and believable to Americans as a responsible government policy. So I think if there is outrageous behavior on the march that is covered, the social issues are there.

26:55

Why is the media will focus on the bearded drag queen and leather riding a Harley? Why in 1993? Is this still happening?

27:01

This morning with a friend who has AIDS all of us recommended that he not make the trip because we didn't think he could make it. He looked at us in California and he said I die in Washington DC I die one step closer to freedom. This is clearly a civil rights struggle. It's not about special rights or special privileges.

27:13

27:18

It's about equal rights and ending discrimination. Welcome to this way out the international lesbian and gay radio magazine. I'm Lucia Chapelle.

Speaker 23 27:35

27:40

And on Greg Gordon, last week, we began our coverage of an event that made us history. And we're going to keep on marching. Cindy Friedman and Brian newness will be back next week with news wrap to catch us up on what else has been happening in our world.

Speaker 23 27:53

This week. And next this way out continues a review of the April 25 March on Washington for gay lesbian and bi equal rights and liberation will sample the broad variety of voices that resound did in the US Capitol, as well as commentary from Pacifica, radio and other sources were kicked off at noon today was an extremely exciting moment, a lot of anticipation in the air. There was a small demonstration of anti gay Christian rights people who had signs that said things like sodomized and Lesbos, hear me true Justin and hell for what you do. If people were across from the White House and they were pretty much very small group of people shouted down immediately.

28:34

Larry Basky here, Julie Dresden at the head of that March, which is wending its way very slowly east on Pennsylvania Avenue towards the site, three blocks west of the Capitol. It's probably a mile and a half and marchers pace. It could take them a while to get here. There are 98 different official delegations marching contingents missing the family we have all the pictures all day we are your best friend and we have a store. The classroom the cascade there is no place where we can go Troy Benton call from Boston is a member of the executive board of Prout, a gay youth services agency.

29:06

30:18

Imagine for a minute that you're able to return to Stonewall Inn in Greenwich Village. Imagine that you're able to sit down with those who participated in the riots. And you're able to tell them all of the things that have happened to our community. Can you imagine telling them that in 24 years, homosexuality would no longer be considered a psychological disorder, that some states and cities would have laws to protect gays and lesbians from discrimination, that there would be openly gay teachers and students working together to change school policies that the gay and lesbian community helped elect a president, they would probably say that we were crazy. In 2017, when many of us returned to the state of New Columbia, formerly known as Washington, DC, I'll be 41 years old, and 2017, it will be hard to remember the fight to get gays in the military because the commander of the armed forces is a gay man. And the head of the Armed Services Committee, currently held by Sam Nunn, will be a lesbian. The first openly gay Supreme Court judge is well respected throughout the country. And by 2017, gay youth organizations will no longer be needed. And all youth want access to equal rights and opportunities. I want you to come back and 24 years to see if I'm right. But you know, we don't have to leave the future to our imagination. All you have to do is look into the eyes of a gay youth because that is where you will see your history and your future. I am so very honored to be here today to represent the youth of our community. We're here and we're proud of who we are.

We're up to a point now where a lot of gay and lesbian veterans have come through. There's a very large contingent of gay and lesbian youth very loud, big signs. They're representing high schools and junior High's they've already poured into the mall, and a large group of families. I did spend a little bit of time with the older lesbians group who had I think perhaps the best cheer I've heard so far. It went to 468. How do you know your grandma straight for many of them, this is their very first lesbian gay March and they're in their 60s or 70s. It's a really exciting experience for them.

It is a beautiful day here in Washington DC. There are a lot of people who wondered whether or not it might rain which occasionally does on April 25 in Washington, not today that sun is out is a nice breeze, the temperatures probably in the high 60s. Barbara Bernstein is somewhere in the crowd, possibly with the Oregon delegation, Barbara,

33:05

I was trying to find the Oregon delegation which took me about an hour and I'm between the Oregon and the Colorado delegation. And we're just about to move within walking rather slowly and moving a few inches and then stopping for long periods of time. It was a very emotional moment when the Colorado in the Oregon contingent actually brought it up together and met for the first time and I think the feeling of both of these very large contingent Coloradans has traveled over 2000 miles to get here or going into travel it almost 4000 miles to get here. And each container has at least 2000 people in it and did a few states that have really felt the brunt of the victimization by the Christian right. And I think there was a lot of sense of assault while in the place is just bursting with new leaves and blue sky and God is smiling on homosexuality today. I have been watching a volleyball game full of shirtless sweaty Marines, I believe by their hair cuts over to my right. Just so that you know what it looks like here on the mall.

33:53

34:11

We're gonna hear from New York City Mayor, David Dinkins, what I turned out, but there's a movement out there in the country. Spearheaded by Pat Robertson. He called the Equal Rights Amendment, anti family. He went on to say and I quote him, it's about a socialist anti family political movement that encourages women to leave their husbands, kill their children, practice witchcraft, destroy capitalism and become lesbians. But I stand with you today because the preamble to the United States Constitution begins with the words we the people, and many have given their lives to ensure that these words embrace every single American discrimination cannot be tolerated. under any circumstances. Joining us is Jesse Jackson, who's the place to be today in America. A million plus people, send them together to fulfill the American promise, equal protection under the law.

34:14

35:11

35:16

So Wilson, who's coming to us from Los Angeles, one of the founders of the black gay and lesbian Leadership Forum.

35:22

It was 25 years ago this month that an act of violence took Dr. King's life. I was 11 years old, but I remember that day. But more importantly, I remember Dr. King's words, and his dream, he included all of us. I'm a black gay man, my great grandfather was a slave. I'm a part of that dream. And so are you. The Jesse Helms who discriminates against HIV infected immigrants, and 1993 is the same Jesse Helms who discriminated against black school children in North Carolina and 1954. Were a part of the dream. The Strom Thurmond, who tried to undermine the civil rights march in 1963, is the same strong Thurman who's trying to undermine lesbian and gay men in the military, and 1993 were a part of that dream. The Human Rights struggle for lesbian and gay people is a part of America's unfinished business. It is a part of the unfinished civil rights agenda. People are asking us, what do we want, we want to prevent people from getting HIV, we want a cure. We want to work without fear of losing our jobs, because of who we are.
