Oh yes, you've tuned into after hours a continuing tradition on KPFT Houston 90.1 FM. The crew of after hours is ready to bring you news, interviews and music geared for gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgendered people. Hear it after hours, we may be diverse, but we have one thing in common. We are all out of the closet and urge everyone to come out of their closets. That means standing up for yourself, taking responsibility for your own life, and being proud of who you are. Realistically, we know not everyone can do that because of a job or frame of mind. That's okay. We're here for you too. So sit back, relax, and enjoy this week's edition of after hours. Hello, Houston, it's Jimmy with after hours, queer radio with attitude. And you get to hear us every week. Right here on KPFT Houston and KEOS College Station, Bryan, well guess what kids, it's the fifth Saturday of the month. And that means that means three hours of queer music. And we're gonna take lots of requests all your requests for career music. So give Roy a call at 526-573-8526 KPFT. We're going to start it off with a remake that was big. In 1995 by Bronski beat it. They remade an old disco number from Alicia bridges. Who, by the way, runs a gay bar in Atlanta. And she had a big hit in the 70s with this song. Jimmy Somerville with the title cut from the movie Orlando it's called coming. And that's a song that we've been getting some requests for lightly even though the movie has been out for a year or even longer. But that song, people are starting the tabbing revival. People are liking it. And I am liking getting your phone calls for queer Music here at 526-573-8526 KPFT. And we're going to kind of play some of the highlights of the favorite queer songs. Over the past year we're going to start out with boy George's newest album called cheapness and beauty. And David we are going to play if I could fly but not right now we're going to start out with with the song that started that album out and packed. It was a single before the album was out. And you heard it here first, on after hours, career radio with attitude. And it's called boy George's version of fun time. By request RuPaul and we are taking your requests for queer music at 5265738 and they are coming in and I does my own heart good. I'm Jimmy.
