Ah yeah, the Williams brothers twins ones gay one is not nephews of Andy Williams doing Don't look now song about AIDS before that. The great late Pat Parker, where will you be when they come? Poetry? Over on top of Richard odds? Somewhere?

 00:32

Jimmy, that is a song that is just Michael. Yeah. That is a song that we should think about. I I'd love to see you play that every week. To Pat Parker thing it means it's saying a whole lot. It does it saying a whole lot. For those of us that have experienced a whole lot of hope. I haven't been fired from jobs. Okay, sure. I have been. I haven't been beaten because I'm gay. And what just almost couple of years ago I was stabbed simply because I'm gay. Yeah, they will come, they will come. Yeah. But we don't have to be afraid. We don't have to be afraid anymore. Right? We need to stand. And that's what I say in the beginning. I love that song. i It's not a song. But it's the poetry but working behind. She died a few years ago of breast cancer. So we lost a wonderful voice if you can get a hold of some of her poetry, maybe at Inklings or crossroads. Pat Parker. She's wonderful. Wonderful. Yeah. And the song after song after that by the Williams brothers. Don't look now it's, it's about AIDS. And that's something that has devastated our community. As a matter of fact, in this week in the in the twit. They, in addition to the usual, they printed all of the names of all of the people who have been listed in the twit, I mean, and that's not everybody who has died and it's three pages of names. Well, we we know Brian Bradley, yeah. Brian died this year. My my friend, Bill Gaddy died this year, and people who have been died in years past like Randy fields, if you have a chance to look at that list, you will see one hell of a lot of talent. Oh, yeah. No longer here. That's right. You will no longer see see a gentleness or love that these people gave Brian Bradley. Oh, what what can you say?

 Jimmy Carper 01:23

 00:00

J Jimmy Carper 02:53

I know. Well, what I've said it and I think I can be very succinct in it. I'm I am a man with AIDS. I'm alive today because Brian Bradley screamed. Yeah. And I can say that. I mean, it's just the fact of life. And I'm here because he hollered and screamed and bitched and protested and demonstrated this is an Randy field. Same thing. Oh, yeah. Randy fields? Well,

J Jimmy Carper 03:22

I mean, he was demonstrating and pitching when half of the gay community was against Oh, yeah. Randy, Randy was abide with the bicycle. Yes, it's not gay. But Randy stood up when when gay people wouldn't stand. That's right. Right. You're absolutely right in 03:41

03:28

time. And, and those of us that have listened to this, the show? Remember Randy come home? Yes. And fondly, fondly, and and, and there was no, there was no. But yeah, we lost a whole lot of talent. Yes. And then there's a whole lot of names there. And a whole lot of names.

J Jimmy Carper 04:03

That shouldn't be their names that should be alive and doing things today. Yeah. And so

04:10

Well, Brian did not shake my hand. Brian grabbed me and hugged me. Well, I'm real glad to meet you. That was Brian. Ever since then Brian and I became like, what?

And they may be kind of the the brunt of the queer core music. But there's a guy who was way out in the 70s out of the closet doing a kind of a punk, the beginnings of punk. His name is Tom Robinson. And he's had quite a few albums out he had one big hit in England to poor six eight motorway he also did glad to be gay, which you've heard here and he had a CD out and 95 He has now still gay but he has a close relationship with a woman was with a woman who knows he's gay.

Look at yourself. You are one hell of a special person. That's right. It's it's not a theory. It is an absolute fact. If you're gay, you have a talent. It's what you need to do is find it.
