from me, and she's the education and training manager from the Houston area Women's Center is going to discuss the prevalence and the rate of domestic violence in both the gay and lesbian communities. And then compare that to what's going on in the in the heterosexual community. So this is, this is a follow on, and the HDL PCs are the caucuses. Focus on this issue is brought about by the recent killing of Mark cage, and the 28 year old gay man who was killed by his ex lover online choice. Back on March 29. For more information, if you want to do the general public is welcome to come, please come. If you need any more information, a number is 71352 1/1000. Although the caucus has moved, we still have the same telephone number.

Roy 01:01

And I would like to say, if you haven't picked up a copy of the tweet, you have to take up a copy of that tweet. On page 76. We have our own Michelle pictures of her own Michelle Meyers.

01:13

I was just toting boxes and there's your second from the right. The community center opening by the way is going to officially be this Monday, it is on the fourth of May will open and it's going to open ceremony or ribbon cutting

Roy 01:29

01:32

I well. I think they've already cut the ribbon. But they cut the cake. I don't know. I don't know what that big boy Rob. Oh. So May 4 will be the first day that it's officially open. For the month of May there's going to be shortened hours because they still need volunteers. It's gonna be open every day during May every Monday and Wednesday, from six to nine, and also every Saturday from noon to four. And if you want more information, or you want to become a volunteer at the center, and be there at the door to receive people call me code 713-867-7904. That's 8677904.

R

Roy 02:19

Okay, moving right along here. The Montrose Counseling Center is offering services for survivors of hate crimes. Now what is a hate crime? A hate crime is a crime motivated by racial, religious, ethnic or sexual orientation bias. Now experiencing hate crime can be extremely traumatic. And people experience a variety of emotions and feelings. And that's why they're having these services for survivors of hate crimes. Now, some of these feelings that the people experience is fear. Like they fear that they or their family may be targeted again, they may experience guilt that they themselves may have contributed to it. Shame for admitting that the crime has happened. They may be you have can be confused as to what to do next. They may feel anger against the perpetrators as sadness that their life has disrupted. They feel isolation from community resources. And as in just about most crimes, violent crimes, they have a go through this withdrawal from family and friends. And so if you are a survivor of a hate crime, or you know someone who is, like I said, the Montrose Counseling Center is offering services for survivors of hate crime.

03:44

And it's very important that we stress the word survivor. We're not talking about victims, we're talking about survivors, a victim is one who lets the crime continue to affect their whole being a survivor is someone who takes this experience and does something positive with it, and gets over the feeling of being a victim and becomes a survivor. So that's so important. And that's what that's what the Montrose Counseling Center does is teach you how to be a survivor.

R

Roy 04:18

Now, the Montrose Counseling Center is a United Way agency and it's located at 701 Richmond Avenue here in Texas. And you can reach them by calling them at area code 713-529-0037.

o

04:34

That's now open Monday through Friday from about eight o'clock to about five, six o'clock in the evening.

R

Roy 04:41

And it's very important that you do attend you know, these, you know, go for the services because there can be some serious behavioral changes that can happen to you. For instance, it can cause you relationship problems, family problems, you can wind up having Difficulty at work. And while there's a whole smattering of things. Now, the center has licensed professional therapists who specialize, you know, in dealing with this type of stuff. And of course, there is confidentiality and is strictly maintained. And survivors of these hate crimes can receive services through grant funding insurance or crime victim compensation for hate crimes at Montrose Counseling Center. You don't need to come in with money. They have a grant from the federal government as right. And if you do have insurance, if you do have a means to pay, that's, that's great. But if you don't, they do have funding. And that's that's a good thing about the center.

05:28

Roy 05:49

And it's very important that you do report these hate crimes to the hate crime hotline, because you do not want other people to feel or to go through what you went through or what you're feeling right now.

06:00

Yes, that's the Houston Police Department. Hate Crime hotline, area code 713-308-8737. That's 3088737.

Roy 06:16

Okay, next, I want to talk about I have a press release here from the Human Rights Campaign. It just came in just yesterday, and it's from the Human Rights Campaign, and there's a coalition of 12 Gay advocacy organizations that have joined the Human Rights Campaign and the Gay and Lesbian Alliance Against Defamation, and placing a full page ad in Variety magazine. Urging ABC network President Robert eager to change his mind on the network's decision to cancel the sitcom Ellen. And the open letter can be found in the new issue of variety. And Ellen's last episode is to appear on May 13th.

07:04

Okay, let me mention that. That Francisco Santos Jr. has declared his candidacy to run for Secretary of the Harris County Democratic Party. All right, so Francisco is an openly gay individual, and he's promised to enhance the accountability of party officers by increasing communication.

Roy 07:32

When the advocate had some really interesting to say about Mr. Sanchez,

07:37

yes. Like a lot of people and if you are political, this is a great way to get in politics. There are a lot of offices that can be run for that are very, that are very powerful, but seem to be very small. Mr. Sanchez was reelected as an Election Judge for precinct 29 this year. In addition to winning during the primary, he won by an overwhelming 76% of the vote. And while we're talking about people,

Roy 08:08

one of our very own

08:12

are our own recode, also known as rainbow, big round, Rainbow, the clown who happens to live outside the loop, and they all didn't area around greens point is the democratic precinct chair or precinct number 366. And this week, he's gonna go down to City Hall and get sworn in, right. He just got elected in and so congratulations to rip hurt.

Roy 08:33

08:37

And the honorable Richert,

Roy 08:41

oh yes, the Honorable Ricky hurt, and long may he reign the old queen. Anyways, I'd like to announce that the Royal Sovereign and imperial court of the sting single star proudly presents case studies and refried queens.

09:01

Oh, yeah, that's the one that Jimmy mentioned before. Who's that benefiting?

Roy 09:05

And this is benefiting the gay and lesbian switchboard?

09:13

You betcha.

Roy 09:14

And it's gonna be Sunday, May 10, at 8pm at the briar patch, and it's going to be hosted by Vice countenance. Vice Countess. Nancy Nylund O'Hare.

09:30

No. fancy, fancy

Roy 09:33

fancy. Fancy Nylund

09:35

O'Hare girls.

09:39

Oh, it's so small fancy paste Lawrence.

Roy 09:42

Anyways, and the first runner up to miss Briarpatch Miss flowers. Clemente ever tried to say the rest of the name chlamydia flowers. Yeah, that anyways, and it's gonna be a fabulous and funfilled Evo. Yes,

09:58

I'll be there.

Roy 10:00

I hope so I'm 10:02

the treasurer

10:06

so nice to be able to receive money.

Roy 10:08

And now we know it's gonna be Mother's Day. I know. So this show is lovingly dedicated to Margaret W. O'Rourke.

10:20

You know why? Why? Margaret W. O'Rourke is fancy paste Lawrence's mother who died who died last month. Oh, so that's a really nice dedication. That's really sweet. Thank you, Bill.

Roy 10:36

And is going to be cast high jinks. Yes. And one of Miss fancies hilarious yet we're that raffles?

10:46

Oh, yes. Oh, those are fun. It's it's raffles and then some of the prizes are really nice. And some of them are really tacky. So it's a really fun thing. You never know what you're gonna get. So there's gonna be a special raffle right for a NordicTrack and this is going to go No, certainly not least. That is a prize to the most inventive yet charming hat worn by a member of the audience. Ooh. Uh huh. Who knew?

Roy 11:05

11:24

Something something to get into the closet for 11:26

so when you know you had enough of the family and you have to be around you just have to have to get be around. Some careers go to this show, Mother's Day Night and it's

R

Roy 11:37

it is benefiting a very worthy organization, the gay and lesbian switchboard.

11:44

I'd also like to mention that there's a toasting roast for Danville coming up this Wednesday, May 6 at the BRB, the Mr. Everything is going to be roasted. If you wish to participate in the roast for three minutes. It's $35. This is a moneymaker. This is a good chance prices at $1 or $10 to get in $15 If you wish a barstool, your own barstool and a table of four runs $100. They're also accepting donations beforehand.

♂

12:21

♂

12:58

I remember to make sense. I remember when it was your year and it was really really sweet because this is also a fundraiser and you you you gave all the money to the switchboard. Right. And you know, we had little benefits here and there. Yeah, everything. Absolutely. So it's it's a it's a great time. And there's a lot of fun. I'm not sure about what time it is. I've heard for I've heard five so you just check the window at Mary but it's next Sunday in the afternoon. Okay. And at, at Mary's in the natural way, naturally in, in the stage area.

13:09

13:32

Yeah. And so what were you doing when you went to crown? Yeah, well, this is what I want. I don't know. It never changed. It may change.

13:34

13:39

You never know with Mary.

13:42

You get a crown. You get a crown he is sash and you also get a toilet blow bow clean. You get to carry that. You know that little brush thing? Yes. That's your acceptor? Yes. After you get to keep that for a whole year. Oh, yeah. Yes, you clean your toilet with it. And then you give it to the next mother.

Roy 14:09

Now that's thing. That's fine.

14:10

It's a mother thing. It's a lot of fun. And there's usually a lot of competition trying to get it because I've heard some some girls that like to have it.

Roy 14:21

Oh, yeah. Jimmy YEAH. To be politically correct. When we're talking to to the honorable Rick hurt. Oh is officially officially the honorable Rick hurt because he will be never been

14:37

15:05

that's where you live. That's a pink trailer

15:07

15:11

Roy 15:15

He was listening to the after hours news when he heard our segment back in January, I believe it was when we mentioned about these different precinct chair positions opening up and for people to go out and get involved. Yes. And again.

15:29

He's always involved in something I think that's fantastic. It

15:33

We love we love the first Saturday of the month because that's just our little gossip and banter and music show.

♂

28:49

It's time to get all the bitterness out so we can be serious for the next

J

Jason 28:53

about yes and this I'm gonna go ahead and preview this next show. It's going to be fairly serious when we're going to talk about substance abuse and get us all right and baptized. I'm working on it. I don't have any guarantees about it yet but I'm trying to get somebody from the Montrose Counseling Center to come down and be on the show with us in case we have any questions or if we would like to get their input because we always like to sow or at least you know kind of sound like we know what we're talking about. So we're gonna have gonna try to arrange that although

♂

29:24

Hatch has no shortage of people who speak like they know what they're talking about. Whether they do or don't as another issue entirely.

♂

29:35

I can't agree with you.

29:38

You're looking at me like you want to read on your toes on that note. Check it out. Let's bench a little bit more fast and everybody what's happening here? What's going on? I realize I realized you like to call yourself chicken but this is not the opportunity to be
