Peter, Jimmy Carper

---

J

Jimmy Carper 00:19

You're listening to after hours on KPFT Houston and ke O 's College Station.

o

00:25

The phones were ringing so much during that it was all ready to pick up. But why did we ran out dead air? What's Jimmy? And know nobody knows what button to push to make anything happen but him

P

Peter 00:30

o

00:40

I know it like

P

Peter 00:45

I could see 40 people out there but technically we're back. We're back.

o

00:52

Come on push your button again one more time.

J

limmv Carper 00:54

And that's right, the phones are not ringing.

00:57

And our last little segment here as we wrap

P Peter 00:59

up, they're not show because we had dead air. It's your last chance to help us reach our goal. Chloe Hollen 526-573-8526 KPFT. And while we're waiting, why don't we put this in your ear? We'll be back in one minute.

01:03

J Jimmy Carper 01:11

01:25

Hi, I'm Alexandra. I work for Whole Foods Market. I want to encourage you to call 713-526-5738 Now to support KPFT Pacifica radio, Whole Foods has been a longtime supporter of KPFT. And we would like to continue that tradition by donating 5% of our day sales to KPFT. On Thursday, October 23. All three Whole Foods stores will participate. Whole Foods is located at Woodway at bas Shepherd at West Alabama and Westheimer at Hillcrest Whole Foods 5% to KPFT day is Thursday, October 23.

J Jimmy Carper 02:05

That's right, the 23rd that will happen at Whole Foods, you're going to donate 5% of the whole day's earnings. Wow. Wow. Oh, that's really nice. Hey, that is incredible.

P Peter 02:20

When they did that they're gonna do

J Jimmy Carper 02:23

the 23rd of this month.

02:24

So if you need some milk or something on the 22nd Just wait one more day. Well, I think I might run. Yeah.

02:29

Peter 02:30

Anyway,

J Jimmy Carper 02:32

any doing all kinds of comedy stuff. I have got to do it, baby. I've got the best of lesbian comedy volume one, which is really superb. This is remind you that I know this is a good CD. It's new. It's it's very new. I gotta get that. And one of my favorites is, of course, she's always been my favorite Kate Clinton. Oh, yeah, she's funny. She is funny. She is funny. I want to do the little blurb that she has. Cool. Okay, you ready? Yeah. Yeah. And while you're listening to this, you can give us a call at 526-573-8526 KPFT. With your pledge of support for this show. And the station.

03:14

The New York gay pride parade this year was wonderful. One of my favorite cheers. And we do excellent cheers. Was we're here we're queer, get over it. But I went to the Washington Peace March, which I kept calling a parade because I am queer was very grim until we found the queer contingent. Because those stray people don't know how to march. They don't have to march. I mean, we have to march every couple of weeks, don't we? We got to be out there. So we know how to have a good time we had kickline marching down the streets and I love how they reported the peace part in the paper was like, well, there were 400 people there and they were using Mears but I know many of you have checked in your rhyming dictionaries and know that the only thing that rhymes with Saudi Arabia is labia.

04:10

We had some good cheers read these lips, you know it's my gender gap. My favorite was the acronym that said labia and it was lesbians against boys invading anything.

04:38

gave this ability nights are important. I'm dreaming of dark night at the local water slide. I can see a slide with pride. I went through the Gay Games. They were great. There were 7000 participants. There were 40,000 people at the opening ceremonies. Vancouver will never be the same When I told my dad I was going to be Gay Games. Actually, I told him I was going to get games decided by him. But no then I told him that I was going to the Gay Games. I'm trying to share the rich and full details of my life with my father. Because I just came out to him but I know you're sitting there going honey go around the country talking about being a big old lesbian for 10 years. You didn't tell your dad yet? I forgot.

05:44

So I told my dad, and even though you're on the phone, I could see this look on his face. It was like the Gay Games. What in God's name are the events? Doesn't make biathlete sound different? It does. And so I went right along with him. I said, Well, there's the triathlon for gay men. It's tanning, brunch and tea dance. And then I'm trying to explain to him about the sperm carry, which is a woman's event. Very unusual. Yes. The poor deer he's 79 years old. Do you think he needs this? So I came out to my family and when I first came out to them, they shunned me. Which when I think about I kind of enjoyed I mean I had more time then. Now they want to come and visit. Now we're getting to be friends. I'm not sure if I like this. When they first would come and visit I would go through that whole thing where you go around and you do like the apartment. We call it straightening up homophobia does begin at home. I used to go through that whole thing and friends would come over and they would want to give a good impression to mom and dad. That would be like Eddie Haskell lesbians. Oh Mrs. Clinton. You look beautiful in that blue my family had a great time. Now I get calls from them. Well, honey, we got the supersaver ticket and we're going to be there from Tuesday to Tuesday next two weeks? I don't think so. Now I noticed that instead of d diking. The apartment I crank it up leave out old copies of on our backs open around the house it begins dialogue Well Mom I don't know how anybody could get their legs behind their ears like that she is clean you're absolutely right No I've never done anything like that. Well not kneeling and then you leave on a big 10 speed variable vibrator by the bed and my dad in dad give it a whirl So Black and Decker go ahead big fella get your safety glasses on things are gonna fly Come on 08:32

06:58

07:20

08:18

08:55

It does work may came on Tuesday. They were gone on Friday My mother said um Honey, I've got a sweater soaking at home you better please welcome the very talented Bobby McFerrin.

08:48

09:20

14:46

lions and tigers

14:55

day

15:20

Bring me though hit oh, it just blows and I will look back at your request

15:51

boom, boom, boom Whoa, whoa, whoa

16:10

Catan ton tons on top tom tom Todd

Jimmy Carper 16:57

very funny stuff Yeah. No, but he does incredible things he does a concert every year with the Seattle Gay Men's Chorus. Oh, I really like him. Yeah, yeah. And that can be found if you can find it on a compilation called for our children hmm it's out of print. So you're gonna have a hard time finding it. What what they what they have out is where are children to but they don't have the original one so it's kind of hard to get I got this from a friend of after ours actually Beth RICHARDS

17:40

I think it's such a shame that so many people only know Don't worry be happy. Oh no, because that's incredible. It's so tired.

Jimmy Carper 17:47

You know? Like this is a very very talented man.

17:53

Oh, absolutely. And Kate Clinton before that. Yeah, very funny. Very funny. Very funny.

Jimmy Carper 17:58

We did get a caller called he see. Okay, and gave us a pledge. All right. And says I found the person I wanted through after hours. Oh, and who GiGi show Binet? The by that group. Oh, cool. Wish

- - - - -

P Peter 18:18

I find the person I want it in after hours. That'd be wonderful. If I find

J Jimmy Carper 18:23

that meeting, you never heard

P Peter 18:24

enough hours in the

J Jimmy Carper 18:28

cold. I did want to bring up that for ya really? That? Coming up? November 9. Mark your calendars at Sunday, November 9 at 8pm. The gay Comedy Jam is coming to Houston. Hey, with their new CD release party that Scott Kennedy, Kevin May and Bob Smith, Scott Kennedy and Kevin may our Houston comics who put together this gay Comedy Jam was several years ago and you know, and now they they're booked all year going all over the country performing this. Where's it going to be? This is going to be at the laughs stop. Oh, 1952 way west grey.

P Peter 19:08

I see one of those flyers. You're coming. Can I see that? Yeah.

J Jimmy Carper 19:11

Is it a benefit? It's a benefit for Q patrol, as a matter of fact that Tada?

Q 19:17

Yeah. And anyone who comes out on Q patrol on those times when Scott is in town and not out doing the Comedy Jam other places in the country. Scott comes out on Q patrol with us. So last night, I had three hours of Scott Kennedy. Oh, yes,

J Jimmy Carper 19:35

yes. And in fact, Thursday night, I did the lesbian and gay voices show. And Scott was on with you, Michelle. Oh, yeah, we had fun. We had a lot of fun. I don't know that. We raised so much money, but we had a lot of fun. All right. Well, Jack Wolinsky and Joan Devlin were out of town on business. So they asked me to fill in and I really enjoyed doing that. That was a lot of fun. Bye When is that again? That is November 9. Sunday, November 9, just a few weeks from now. Bob Smith is the first openly gay comedian to appear on the Tonight Show. He's been getting a lot of coverage late lately. He's funny. Yeah. Billy Bob. Yeah. It's his second book.

20:11

J Jimmy Carper 20:17

As a matter of fact, it is. Yeah. And Scott and Kevin are funny. Scott's really dirty. I know. That's how you live before. Me.

P Peter 20:31

Yeah, we know we.

J Jimmy Carper 20:32

And Kevin. As a matter of fact, Kevin and I go back a long ways we worked together at tenneco years ago, early 80s. He was a teenager than that was still an old fart, but he was

P Peter 20:46

Oh my god. I was gonna say that he beat me to the punch.

20:52

So have you been having fun with us the last almost three hours, almost three hours. Okay. Got it is almost three hours. That's really we've used up enough material for three months. All these fabulous Joe.

P Peter 20:56

J Jimmy Carper 21:07

You haven't we? Because I know you only sign up for an hour and a half and you've done the whole show tonight. That's, that's really nice. Well, geez, alright. And I still go home without anybody calling away to go to coffee. I just that's ~~okay~~ Well

P Peter 21:15

Okay. Well,

21:22

grimy river, but you can still call in and give us dollars.

Peter 21:25

You can do that. You can call and do lots of things. You say? Your name is Pete you can call in and hey, I'm what's that number?

21:35

526-573-8526 KPFT.

Peter 21:40

This has been a marathon performance for a marathon time. We've just had more darn fun than you can shake sticks that I still don't know what I'm going in for Halloween. But that's the big city. Wow. I know. Well, we haven't heard from tonight. We haven't heard from anybody in College Station. We certainly have and we are listening on.

21:51

Peter 21:58

Aggie joke probably did it. Well, I played one I told one when you weren't here last month to an Aggie joke. Yeah, yeah. Maybe we should never the one about the kid that got kidnapped.

J Jimmy Carper 22:08

Oh, yes. That was really tasteless. Yeah.

Peter 22:13

That's probably why they're not calling anymore. We just taste that list of them right out of here.

22:18

22:18

What happened to the kid that got kidnapped? Oh, tell

J Jimmy Carper 22:21

that joke. Well,

P Peter 22:22

that the Aggie if you can remember, low on funds and he grabs the kid. He decides he's going to kill him. So he grabs the kid and, and writes this note and says, If you ever want to see your kid again, bring $10,000 in a paper bag and put it here by the slide and the playground and pins the note and the kid and sends him home. And the next day I see that look in your face. You got it. The next day. The sack is at the slide with $10,000 in it and a note and it says I can't believe when he would do this to another.

23:05

Now I just had them on the phone. They were probably in the middle of dialing Yeah, well.

J Jimmy Carper 23:11

$1,000

P Peter 23:14

Well, let's capture Connie. Give me 10,000 tomorrow. So anyways, and we'll never see her again.

23:22

We got a suggestion for Halloween from the studio. Go kid anyway. We could go as Peter and Connie but in reverse roles.

J Jimmy Carper 23:32

Oh, well. What

P Peter 23:34

can I do to make my bodacious, big?

J Jimmy Carper 23:38

They need to be any bigger or do to about the same size? Oh, look at that. You're looking through a glass window. Is there something wrong with your eye?

P Peter 23:44

23:48

I mean, yeah, your dad does her blackness view.

P Peter 23:55

Connie, we all know that you we from the beginning of time we've talked about your VA they should talk to us. In fact, it got us in big trouble with the prison system. Yes indeed got us froze out of the car. A few other things we don't hear a lot from the boys anymore. But when we hear about the boys we just say we hear from the boys we don't use their names because every time we use their names, they get sent off somewhere or whipped to 24:20

J Jimmy Carper 24:11

beat radio frame

P Peter 24:21

so you know, honey, girl, we'd have trouble on that one. But we get I think that beats the maybe even beats Oprah and Rosie Yeah, we could switch this around. It would take her a while to grow that mustache now.

J Jimmy Carper 24:36

P Peter 24:42

Oh, maybe not. Your Molly Connie. Now look who's payng around the face in the eye. I'm not gonna go there. It has just been just A little piece of heaven. Yeah.

J

Jimmy Carper 25:01

We have one more person called in with a flat. That would be, I would like that.

P

Peter 25:06

So you get one real quick instant replay of anything you want. Right? Well, I mean, people, I mean, we've been here three hours. My God, don't tell me the person that was there at 12 is still listening. Or they probably dozed off, or the people that were in the bar be surprised by that.

J

Jimmy Carper 25:24

How many of our listeners stay the whole show?

P

Peter 25:26

Well, we've got to have picked up a bunch of people cruising on home from the bars, and you know, the ones who don't

J

Jimmy Carper 25:31

tape it. No, yeah, yeah. I've heard that from a lot of people. You're kidding that, you know, they can't stay up for the whole show. So they tape it, either from a on a tape, or they have their VCR hooked up to their stereo.

P

Peter 25:48

Isn't that incredible? are hooked to the stereo? Yeah, do that child and record the audio? Yeah,

∅

25:50

P

Peter 25:52

of course. Yeah. Just records the audio. I never even Yeah, isn't that brilliant?

J

Jimmy Carper 25:58

Record six hours.

25:59

Peter still has an eight track that I'll work with? Well, I could I could read. I could read the

Peter 26:07

Jimmy Carper 26:14

actually, I have a couple of serious things I want to bring up oh, well, I rang them up do that. We've been doing a lot of calm. We've done more comedy tonight. But the Advocate has got an article about breast cancer. And it's the title of it will gay men be there. And it's talking about breast cancer versus AIDS. And it's it's incredible when you look at the statistics, because in the federal research budget, 1.5 billion is going to aids when 530 million is going to breast cancer.

Peter 26:18

26:25

Jimmy Carper 26:53

Now, in the number of new cases this year, there are 80,000 going to be 80,000 new cases of AIDS and 181,600 cases of breast cancer. Wow. And in the number of fatalities last year, you know aids dropped, right? Very drastically to 30,700. However, 44,190 women died of breast cancer. So it's, you know, it's we need to pay more attention here to the women. And especially lesbians because even though there's no statistics about it, the statistics, believe it or not, do you know the one group of people who are most affected by breast cancer? nuns, really women who have not had children? So that's why we kind of put lesbians in that. A lot of lesbians have had children, but many lesbians have not. And so that that makes them more at risk, because there's like one out of seven women Yeah. But when it comes to women who have not had children, it's one out of three. Wow. Yes,

Peter 28:19

I didn't know that. Well, and you know, the other thing a friend of mine, who used to work with a facilitator and different things we worked together on a number of projects had had he was a male, but it had to have there is made up there are cases of male breast mastectomies. Yeah.

J

Jimmy Carper 28:35

P

Peter 28:41

Yes. And not that he had like big boozing, but he whatever no had to be taken off. And that's right, whatever. And I think it was a first time I ever even heard or thought of that.

J

Jimmy Carper 28:54

It's very, it's rare and then but it happens. Yeah. And men go through the same thing women come through.

29:02

Lifetime did a really good show recently on breast cancer and Rosie O'Donnell was on talking about losing her mom and finding a lump herself in a breast. Peter we keep in yet, casual flies. That's the tail tail shot sign that the show is wrapping the two and wrapping up. We are tuning down Peter is losing it. I say oh,

P

Peter 29:23

⌚

29:28

we have a little background music they have a little background says it's one of my favorites is Rita from his album, The Blue guide. It's called powerful love. I really like it because it it has a wonderful message to the song and it's it's kind of almost gospel and kind of you know, that's cool. Yeah, it's pretty that's really nice. We get to sign off.

29:30

P

Peter 29:51

29:52

You have been listening to after hours queer radio with attitude on KPFT Houston and ke O 's college Station coming up at the top of the hour will be the return of the sons of musical chairs with Billy Gilbert and Randy and Elmo.

P Peter 30:07

And yeah, Peter and Connie, we'll see you in November unless some other horrible crisis comes up the for the fourth week trade out in November usually. And we were fun and games to be here on the third this task is to sweet forward do a whole show and I really make fun. Thanks for all 30:25

J Jimmy Carper 30:22

your pledges.

P Peter 30:25

Yes, thank you all very much. Time to the land. Yeah, while the song plays we're still get the credit. And we will see you take care of next week is a time change. And so we're going to have a four hour show.

J Jimmy Carper 30:37

P Peter 30:42

Oh, did we switch out or what on time, Connie? Yeah, baby.

30:45

30:47

So we will be won't be having jewel, Jewel gray and Nancy Fardon for the first half. And we're going to be doing a lot of music in the second half. Really? Yeah, I don't get music all that often. So I'm looking forward to Oh,

P

Peter 31:01

that'd be cool. Happy Halloweenny

J

Jimmy Carper 31:03

You bet. Take care till next Love you all.
