 Michael Crawford 00:02

is actually wrong. And it's really funny while they're trying to destroy all all programs that are relating to art and culture. France spends like $5 billion a year on the arts, you know, and they're going to going like this. Wait, wait, wait, the White House?

 00:20

How low?

 Michael Crawford 00:25

Do you have fun here?

 Eric 00:26

Just asking about the aides are Yeah. Hello,

 Brian Bradley 00:34

It's Bo getting another haircut or what do you want went to Boston? He's in Boston.

 Eric 00:37

 Michael Crawford 00:40

We aren't ringing anymore. Okay, let's try that number against. What we're doing is we're calling the White House and we're leaving a message for Bill Clinton. We want to know why has he not appointed an aide czar and most in particular, why he has not appointed Lowell Weicker, governor of Connecticut, not an aide czar, not an a czar, a domestic policy advisor for aides, please. Okay, the PC term, and most importantly, why hasn't he given oral sex to Al Gore?

 Eric 01:02

 Michael Crawford 01:06

Okay, that'll be our second question.

 Brian Bradley 01:09

tampered hair was in the way that's

 Michael Crawford 01:13

it? Okay. Yeah, so you want to leave a message for Bill Clinton?

 01:25

Close to come Monday at 9am.

 Michael Crawford 01:28

And what what hours? Are

 Brian Bradley 01:29

they open? Nine to five Monday through Friday.

 Michael Crawford 01:32

Okay, thank you. AIDS want Wait?

 01:25

ERIC 01:35

What's the purpose of her being there?

Michael Crawford 01:40

Well, wait, wait, wait, wait, pull the car back out and tell us about it. Oh, Eric, you tell him. It's the community, the community spread. And it's it's the alternative that we have two companies like a TNT all money that you pay for your phone bill, a percentage of it goes to AIDS. 2% goes to AIDS research and funding. And no, it goes to any gay, lesbian, queer or AIDS related charity that you that you wish and the business itself is queer owned, meaning that we don't have to give our mind to those heterosexual to AT and T because I'm not in the habit of giving my money to heterosexual because they don't count on around the wellway like us or whatever. But that also is not including and I'm no MIDI. And okay, okay, now, have we gotten Bill Clinton and when you call Bill Clinton, this is what you should tell him that every six minutes a person dies of AIDS. And the longer he waits, the more people die. He promised He promised us that he would appoint a domestic policy adviser on AIDS, correct? Yes. And we want it to be Lowell Weicker, governor of Connecticut. And it's it's a pretty unusual situation where everybody from Larry Kramer, who I think is just just God, to David Geffen, the sorry, son above all saying that we want this man and you and you must admit there's there's there must be something good about this person if Larry Kramer says good things about him. Because I can only think of maybe half a dozen people in my entire, you know, knowledge of Larry Kramer of him saying something good about somebody. And this, this domestic policy adviser must be a cabinet level official and equivalent to a cabinet level official who has the ear of the President and who has the appropriate staff and funding to get the job done to implement the National Commission on AIDS recommendations that are sitting there on shelves gathering dust. Okay, and so that number again, is area code 202-456-1414. And we're going to continue our literary excursions with the lovably and Tanel did Brian Bradley I'm sorry, this deadlier Brian Brown that I'm I'll pass that okay. You're reading talent? It's bad. Which chapter are you reading from?

Eric 01:50

Michael Crawford 02:06

Eric 02:21

Michael Crawford 02:28

Brian Bradley 02:01

BRIAN BRADLEY 04.01

Oh, it's Eric helped me with these big words here.

Eric 04:04

Ryan, Bryan, will be reading from the chapter postcards from America X rays from hell.

B

Brian Bradley 04:13

One of the first steps in making the private grief public is the ritual of memorials. I have loved the way memorials take the absence of a human being and make them somehow physical with the use of sound. I have attended a number of memorials in the last five years, and the last one I attended, I found myself suddenly experiencing something akin to rage. I realized halfway through the event that I had witnessed a good number of the same people participating in other previous memorials. What made me angry, was realizing that the memorial had little reverberation. outside the room. It was held in a TV commercial for handy wipes had a higher impact on the society at large. I got up and left because I didn't think I could control my urge to screen. There is a tendency for people affected by This epidemic to police each other or prescribe what the most important gestures would be for dealing with the experience of loss. I resent that. At the same time, I worry that friends will slowly become professional pallbearers waiting for each death of their lovers, friends and neighbors and polishing their funeral speeches perfecting their rituals of death, rather than a relatively simple ritual of life, such as screaming in the streets. I worry because of the urgency of the situation, because of seeing death coming in from the edges of abstraction, where those with the luxury of time have casted I imagine what it would be like friends had a demonstration. Each time a lover or a friend or a stranger died of AIDS. I imagined what it would be like each time a lover, a friend or a stranger died of this disease. Their friends, lovers or neighbors would take the dead body and drive with it in a car 100 miles an hour to Washington DC and blast through the gates of the White House and come to a screeching halt before the entrance and dump their lifeless form on the front steps. It would be comforting to see those friends, neighbors, lovers and strangers mark time and place in history in such a public way. But bottom line, this is my own feeling of urgency and need. Bottom line emotionally. Even a tiny charcoal scratching done as a gesture to mark a person's response to this epidemic means whole worlds to me if it is hung in public bottom line, each and every gesture carries a reverberation that is meaningful in its diversity. Bottom line, we have to find our own forms of gesture and communication. You can never depend on the mass media to reflect us or our needs or our states of mind. Bottom line with enough gestures we can Deven the satellites and lift the curtains surrounding the control room.

M

Michael Crawford 06:47

Okay, that was Brian Bradley reading from close to the nose and memoir disintegration by David was a now it's from vintage publications and that can be found at crossroads. We just got a message from the lovely and talented Scott Lewis who I don't know for some reason isn't in the studio right now to give us an update on how many points he's had. This

Brian Bradley 07:05

— is for boxes, I don't know.

M Michael Crawford 07:10

But Scott has had her has has I don't know I don't know how she's worked it. But she's worked at where we have two pairs of passes to the Deborah Cooper concert coming up at heaven on June 26. Next Saturday night at heaven

E Eric 07:24

if you're over 21 Well, no, it's alright. Yeah. Oh, great thing because it's Saturday night. And we all know who Deborah Cooper is. Eric knows because last summer when we went to heaven a lot. That was the song I liked least. And of course, since I like most we had two dads to it. And actually just did a couple. One of the songs is a deeper love singing that. Yes, she will be singing her one hit wonder stop.

M Michael Crawford 07:52

She had two hits. She looked to hit wonder okay.

S Scott Lewis 07:54

The woman she was with a band called change in the seventh day. She had five albums disco stuff, you know? And she also Cletus and COVID are producing her solo album that comes out this just later this year.

E Eric 08:07

And you can watch her put her teeth back in

S Scott Lewis 08:14

bitter, bitter bitter,

M

Michael Crawford 08:15

okay. He's he's just me. Yeah, I'm just I was not a sequined Disco Diva in the 70s. I was trying to come back tour.

E

Eric 08:18

M

Michael Crawford 08:23

I wait. I like this woman. And that's why, you know, while you're not going to be here anyway, so there That's right. I'll be in New York celebrating the 25th anniversary of Stonewall. No, that's what a darling. Well,

E

Eric 08:29

o

08:33

E

Eric 08:36

the mantras was what what do I care? I'm not gay.

M

Michael Crawford 08:39

Okay. That's right. You're queer. Okay, okay, we're gonna give away the first pair of passes to the first person who can call 5265738 and name us three supermodels. Okay, we don't want Lauren Hutton or anyone from like the 70s we don't want crisnet Brinkley we don't want Kellyanne Berg we don't want all those totally 80s people and it should be easy if you watch the house to style this week. It was the next house style will be a model show.

Eric 08:59

M

Michael Crawford 09:05

And it to be really easy we want 90s kind of supermodels like that supermodel who's in the Calvin Klein commercials with Marky Mark

 Eric 09:14

Kate Moss

 Michael Crawford 09:17

Okay, that was a free one anyone could come up with two more at five to 657 Stop it Stop it can get a pair of passes to see Deborah Cooper at haben does Marky Mark give them away?

 Eric 09:31

 Michael Crawford 09:34

Men don't count Mindo cow

 Eric 09:36

he has a modeling contract now he does.

 Michael Crawford 09:38

He's just not a supermodel.

 Eric 09:39

I mean, when you're in like

 Michael Crawford 09:42

oh wait, wait, wait, wait, wait, wait, wait, wait, wait, wait, what? You didn't do that as the caller there.

 Eric 09:45

 Michael Crawford 09:49

Now the caller isn't there

E Eric 09:50

won't do something.

M Michael Crawford 09:53

There you can Scott in the background Jesus saying hello. Who are you? Okay, Naomi, okay. Yeah, go ahead. Go ahead. Cindy Crawford. Okay, good. Good. Well, he did three. All right. All right. Okay, so you won the first pair, and we're going to put you on hold and get all the specifics and you will be at heaven on Saturday. Okay, okay, thanks. Wow, that was easy. Cool.

E Eric 10:25

Any now you have to name the other boy now group Paul should count

M Michael Crawford 10:31

group Paul. I'd like to you know, what? Got all these people in the background? It makes me nervous. I was really glad he named, you know, the top black supermodel because you know, all of us black girls are proud of Naomi.

E Eric 10:46

Oh, that's right. It's Juneteenth. Isn't it, Michael? Yes. And I'm black and I'm queer. And what is June T?

M Michael Crawford 10:53

It's when this slave of the slaves in Texas found out that the white race government of America decided to finally set them free reign. So why are you gonna hold white people in a republic and be like, What the hell are you talking about? Porn for white boys and one Hispanic. That's right. Anthony Anthony's a person of color and brother. You go. Okay. How do we give away the second pair of passes? It's a trivia question. What was the question? Well, we need it. We need to figure out a way of giving away the second pair of passes. It's our job to fill up heaven next Saturday. Well, it's you hateful bitch. Those people and heaven have been generous enough to give you a job to give classes to give away.

S Scott Lewis 11:33

11:39

E 11:46

Okay, we have a caller caller and the caller with his own question. Wait, wait, wait, wait, wait. I think we should point out that Scott Lewis who is producer of our show is also promotions director for Charles Armstrong investments. Yeah,

M Michael Crawford 11:51

S Speaker 8 11:59

I'll be the glue byla gay lesbian, Hispanic when he goes I'll get there by last Saturday night. Well to be on largest indoor event for gay pride. Oh, you want to tell us where that's going to be and stuff? Oh, sure. Other you can't miss in ticket prices. You can Okay, but it's by law. The annual bylaws sponsored by game that has been Hispanico needles here in Houston. It will be at the Sheraton Astrodome Hotel on Kirby at the 610 loop by the Astrodome and starts at 9pm Next Saturday night. Okay, cool. And I'm going to be here giving my insightful political commentary on Pride Week.

J Jimmy Carper 12:34

Honey, can oh wait, do we want to wait a minute? I want to make a comment here. This is Jimmy. Anthony, you said that was the largest indoor event of Gay Pride Week. That's how it's been built.

12:47

J Jimmy Carper 12:49

Gay Pride Week. Oh, yes. I thought the largest indoor event was the Mazola party's over Scott Lewis.

S Speaker 8 12:56

No, Jimmy, we're not talking about the French Quarter. Okay, I think that's any other week except gay pride. Oh, okay.

M

Michael Crawford 13:03

We still have one more pair pass to give away. How are we going to do that?

E

Eric 13:06

I know, we can say what's our favorite group that just had a concert in Dallas, but did not come here. God, you told me and I forgot they were at trees Thursday night. Well, they can't do that. Because they wouldn't know. That's why they deserve the tickets.

M

Michael Crawford 13:23

Okay. Why don't we make it really simple and say something like? No, that would that would be confusing. I was gonna say we could ask them to name three of the seven bands that are going to be what are the other two aids films that PBS has shown? I don't even know that. One we discussed earlier. No, that's okay. What's the one aids movie that they always show since like 10 years ago. And that's all they ever show and that they feel happy that they have just shown that movie and they've reached their quota. If you can name that movie directed by Vito Russo, and

Eric 13:33

M

Michael Crawford 14:01

I still don't know what I have. No, that's that's not Vito Russo. Okay, after you have a question question. This is a numerical question. How many drag queens have been on Phil Donahue show? Okay, we need to come up with a good question.

S

Scott Lewis 14:19

Why don't you have somebody call in and give us a question? Okay.

B

Brian Bradley 14:22

Since this is gay and lesbian Pride Week, who was the superstar that everywhere in the world was crazy about who died 24 years?

M

Michael Crawford 14:31

Wait, wait, wait, wait, wait.

 Eric 14:35

Wait and see what she has to say. Okay. And here we go. The caller is not there anymore. Okay, so the first person who calls 5265738 with your own question and the answer to that question, will receive a pair pass to the Deborah Cooper concert next Saturday night. Michael, I have an easy question. This is very easy, easy question that relates to Gay Pride Week. Okay. Who are the two grandmas Marshalls for this year's Gay Pride Week parade and Brian Bradley poses well, what is that supposed to mean?

 Michael Crawford 14:41

 Speaker 8 14:53

 Eric 15:05

 15:07

That's your question. Okay. The number is 526-573-8526 KPFT. Okay, well I guess we'll continue to wait or either no one wants to see the replay that

 Michael Crawford 15:09

 Eric 15:21

Christian death song. Hey

 Michael Crawford 15:27

okay, I guess we're gonna play the Christian death. Wait, wait, there's a call a potential winner and the caller says hello. Hello. Hello, what's your call for the question? Okay, go ahead. Okay. Reverend Caroline Mobley and Dr. Aden real

 Eric 15:32

15:36

Eric 15:43

you're up here and 15:47

the Grand Marshal.

Eric 15:48

Well wait, you're on the air now. Hold on a second. What is in my house?

15:56

Everyone knows Brian

Brian Bradley 16:04

Scott Lewis did you get a free drink when you get 16:09

legendary he's just on supermodel. Okay, good. Go, go, go, go. Go got that supermodel hair. Okay, so let's put them on hold. Not anymore.

Eric 16:14

Michael Crawford 16:17

Okay. You want a pair of paths that will put you on hold and get information from you. Hold on. Okay, so we haven't. Boy do we have? I think that was it. I wish we had something more. But wait, wait, I want to I wanted to talk about briefly about the we're giving away your credit cards. I wanted to talk about that the Houston press gay pride issue that's coming up soon. And what me while Michael Crawford the lovely and talented Brian Bradley, but the supermodel hair and the slutty Scott Lewis are have all been interviewed for this article on diversity of political opinion in the queer communities. Brian, do you want to talk a little bit a little bit about this article?

 Brian Bradley 17:02

Well, I think it's going to be very reflective of the diversity of the gay and lesbian community not unlike the representation that is present in the election of the two grand marshals. It shows that we can't be cornered into one segment and predicted and, and manipulated and used like we have been in the past. We have everybody from, you know, Christian glares to out loud queers, and atheists, queers, and it's, I think it's gonna be a real insightful store, DJ Wilson and Steve McVicker to new writers at the at the press that are going to give us some new new life into it.

 Michael Crawford 17:40

Scott, do you want to give us your spin on the article? Get that out of your mouth, honey? Well, it's a three hour show.

 Scott Lewis 17:51

What is my spin on the article? I really enjoyed my interview with Steve, we talked for about an hour and 15 minutes, or we should say you talk actually, actually it was interesting. He asked me one question. And then I interviewed myself the rest of the way, as I always do. And the question that he asked was kind of interesting. The first question he asked me to place my self on a scale with Chris bacon at one end and Michael Crawford at the other end, and where did I fit in? And I guess you have to read the article to find out that is a scale with Michael Crawford at Tan and graphic. And

 Eric 18:19

 Scott Lewis 18:26

I did I did tell him and my only concern about the gay pride issue of the Houston press, I certainly appreciate what they do, because they give us more press than we could never afford to buy for ourselves. But as I pointed out to him, I have a real problem with them putting Chris bacon on the cover last year to represent the gay and lesbian community. Because I would not have the audacity if they asked me to do the cover to accept it to think that I represent the most diverse minority community that exists. And I told him I said if you put nothing against her, but if I see a nice Parker on the cover of this year's issue, I will just throw up because no one person, especially no one white person can represent this community and you need a group of six or eight or 10 African Americans and oriental and Hispanic and men and women and black and white and so forth. And so that's a message that I tried to send to them in my interview is to please try to be representative of all the community and not the Vinson and Elkins attorney segment of our community because that's a community of one.

 Eric 19:35

But the upside of them putting Chris bacon on the cover is that he does have a framed photograph of himself to put above his bed in his bedroom. I've seen it I know. Well, those of us who haven't been in his bedroom, as you have I guess we just don't worry, I guess. I guess we just don't frequent the ripcord enough.

 Scott Lewis 19:46

 Michael Crawford 19:56

Okay. Lawsuit threatened number two coming up. I'm okay. And I'd like to say something about the article because I was interviewed too, although I did not interview myself, meaning I didn't get an hour and 15 minutes to talk to Steve Vickers. But I guess it's kind of cool that I'm placed on one and Chris bacon is on the other end. I mean, I did point out how disappointed and disgusted I am with the level of racism and sexism in the queer community. And how there is this huge level of ageism, I think, coming from the homosexual elite, and how they have made it No, no, no, I'm not talking about you, but rather darlin homosexual elite, but I mean, they seem to have this, they played it pretty much clear that they don't want people who are younger, involved and not too thrilled with what having women involved. They're not thrilled with having people of color involved and not thrilled with having anyone who, whose opinions differ for them. And so all that and more should be coming out in this in the gay pride edition of the Houston press. Do you want to set up the song that you want me to play?

 Eric 20:59

Yeah, can you? Can you pony that cassette hold? It's behind you as Christian death. It's from a singles collection. And its title of the collection as Jesus points the bone at you. And it is a revamp of the nascent Varium which was put out in 91. And it's about what's topical, the AIDS virus. So.

 Michael Crawford 21:35

Okay, that was Christian death, which song?

 Eric 21:40

It's the nascent virion 1991

M

Michael Crawford 21:43

Okay, can we get the album please?

E

Eric 21:46

It's from the album by Christian death called Jesus points of the bone at you.

M

Michael Crawford 21:51

And where to get it.

E

Eric 21:53

I got it at the that place that Chris Kimmerer works at you know, sound exchange across from Brazil. Okay, I got it used sound

M

Michael Crawford 22:06

on Westheimer that's on Westheimer near done lately. Yeah. Okay. Earlier we were talking about the Houston press and their coverage of the queers for their their queer pride issue and the three homosexual elite in the room.

E

Eric 22:18

M

Michael Crawford 22:21

Now we're not we're not to leave honey, you know? It's like, no, it's flattering. You believe me? People have told me I'm not elite. Um, one of the things I wanted to mention about about gay

S

Scott Lewis 22:32

pride or saying that you're not Elise, well,

M

Michael Crawford 22:35

I think it's obvious I'm not a 40 something white woman,

B

Brian Bradley 22:39

but anyway that we're going when you go by Aleta.

M

Michael Crawford 22:41

That's what I'm doing by RuPaul impersonations. But, um, what was I gonna say? Oh, okay. Now I remember what while while we here in Houston are still going by like the gay and lesbian pride thing. What something's happened in San Francisco. I was talking to Scott about it earlier, where Greg Taylor, Greg with two G's. Who is 26 He and a lot of the younger people younger, more progressive Queer Nation types, went into their pride march committee and essentially voted themselves into power. How low can you say the power of democracy and now the their Primarch is going to be led by a banner screaming year the queer. And you know, a lot of people are outraged. It's like, well, how dare you use such a word as queer? I mean, and I know that like when some of the backstage deliberations are going on with after hours. And I keep pushing for that use of the queer thing and other people keep talking about how it may offend somebody. I just keep thinking how just completely and totally backwards. We are. And I don't know, I'm just bored with it once it offended people to refer to themselves as gay. But can I now just bring us into the Sam Nuchia thing? Is that what we're talking talking about? Yeah, go ahead. Go ahead, honey.

E

Eric 23:55

M

Michael Crawford 24:03

B

Brian Bradley 24:05

Well, yesterday was the kickoff for the gay and lesbian Pride Week which will soon be known in Houston as queer Pride Week. I'm sure if we have anything to do with it. But city council unanimously with the mayor conferred the honor upon the pride committee of designating this week Gay Pride week not gay and lesbian but just pride Gay Pride Week. However, on the same day with another stroke of the pen, city council and the mayor unanimously approved at chief police chief of police the human eyebrows Sam Nuchia request that Captain Dale Brown Teresa Rodriguez, his husband, by the way, and seven other officers received commendations for their sterling job that they did during the Republican National Convention 10 months ago, and the conventions been over with 10 months any allegations of wrongdoing by the police department had been closed. It's a done deal. Oh George was not reelected, but they decided to do this on the exact same day that kicked off gay and lesbian Pride week just as not unlike in the past when bars would be rated on the beginning of Pride Week This is Sam new cheese cold calculated way of slapping us across the face.

M

Michael Crawford 25:18

Okay, and just to give a little bit of history about why we're so opposed to new T the Nazi on August 17 When ACT UP and Queer Nation were marching on the Astrodome which was where the RNC was headquartered. We were having a basically a demonstration to condemn the Republican Party for its absolute murderous neglect with the AIDS crisis. All right, we're going down the street marching with our thoughts screaming and chanting and yet you know, doing the the general act of thing and at one point after a huge effigy was it an effigy or just a painting big picture GEORGE Yeah, a big picture of George was was set on fire by someone I don't know who it was, but it looked it looked wonderful. But at that point all Brian has a piece of it on his wall. But at that point, HPD officers ran into the crowd on horseback and on foot beating the crap out of everybody in sight. Not not not not the people who were who had set the fire or were doing or whatever

but most vulnerable ones that the PW A's and women women out older people

M

Michael Crawford 26:29

yet don't hit them with the lights on was one of the remarks a person was heard screaming on national television exactly as they beat some three dozen people to the ground. And of course, they're being commended by our loving Bob Lanier and the city council because you know, you people keep telling me every time I keep saying we have to hit Bob like they're you people keep saying but he's our friend. He loves us. He met with us before the election. It's like Hello, Queen. Anyone will meet with you when they want your vote and afterwards. They love to slam the door in your face like Bill the Welsh Bill Clinton. You're gonna make a comment.

Scott Lewis 27:10

Bob Lanier politics Bob Lanier has just got the wool pulled over everybody's eyes. Everybody in this town is just drunk on Bob lunaire punch. And he's like, right at the Metro coffers. He screwed the queers over but everybody's so drunk on his punch. Nobody even they're not even carrying the look.

Brian Bradley 27:29

And who said that we wanted friends in office friends is not who we want an office. Eleanor Tinsley is going to address the the rally at the pride this year. Eleanor Tinsley has done nothing but discriminate against smokers and people who like billboards are your smoker Brian, No, I've never had a bag in my mouth in my life. No bottom line is we don't elect people to office to be our friends. This is not a popularity contest. If it was I'd had Miss Congeniality convert across my rear years ago. You know, we're electing people to get in office to do jobs for us. And we need to start looking at these people. And for that reason only, not because they will show up at some social function and remind them of what our problems are and just how much they don't do.

M

Michael Crawford 28:14

One comment on on Bob Lanier city council people Eleanor Tensley, the next mayoral elections, five months, five months, five months, we have five months to get our stuff together to make up. Wait, wait, wait, I'm sorry to make it known to Bob and everybody who runs for Mayor this time that AIDS won't wait. I mean, I have been saying it all along that we should pick it their campaign headquarters. We should pick it, you know, show up at Bob. Nearest press conferences. We should show up at city council and whoever is reelected I mean, whoever is elected mayor in November, if they have not adequately addressed the AIDS issue, when it comes time for them to be inaugurated, ACT UP should act up not on the outside but on the inside.

Brian Bradley 29:03

And maybe you can go to city council and ask City Council just who they are and who they represent not only at city council in the city, but in their homes. We have a city council member that has two lesbian daughters have a city council member that has a gay son. We have a city council member that has a brother dying of AIDS. We have a city council member whose son died of AIDS. We never hear these words out of these people's mouths. You know, these are our friends know they're our family if anything, and our family is deserting us down at City Hall.

M

Michael Crawford 29:31

Cake but one one thing I want to say about new tea before I forget Nuchia the Nazi is going to be speaking before the GLPC meeting at their next meeting which is what in ladder seven at 730. Okay, and

B

Brian Bradley 29:40

M

Michael Crawford 29:44

where does the OPC meet at Montrose activity center

B

Brian Bradley 29:46

3330 Grass bar, okay. And

M

Michael Crawford 29:48

if you go to that meeting on that Wednesday, the seventh to meet for GLPC, you can go on Thursday. So the act that meeting at 3330 grouse dock Montrose activity center, stop it

S

Scott Lewis 30:00

And we're an ACT UP t shirt to meet with am Nuchia the Nazi. Also, I think it might be a real interesting idea for us here after hours to host a mayoral debate right here on the air later in the year. And let's just see what their plans are. Because I talked to a city council member, have some years a few weeks ago, and when I asked this person, what they had done for the gay and lesbian community and what they would do in the past, they rattled off a couple of things that they did one in 84, one in 85. Oh, but they always come to all of our events. Well, that's just about Eleanor. I'm not going to point any fingers. But I was gonna have to,

Brian Bradley 30:40

I've heard the same speech, and I have it in writing at home. And I said, and what are you going to? What are you going to do for us if you're reelected? Well, the GLPC hasn't set the agenda for the community yet. So I don't know what I'm gonna do. Honey, the EGL PC didn't set the agenda for this community. You know, they're doing a very poor job of it, if they're to setting our agenda, so we need to take over ourselves.

S

Scott Lewis 30:43

M

Michael Crawford 31:05

Okay, any other comments on the mayoral elections? bobland. Here, Anthony, you can you can wait a minute, speaking of people dealing with being disrespectful to their bosses. That guy that the guy who was in the army who criticized Bill Clinton, the one who said he was, let's say,

B

Brian Bradley 31:22

Rear Admiral, a Rear Admiral,

M

Michael Crawford 31:26

who said he was out pot smoking, gay loving, womanizing draft dodging all those things about Bill Clinton. Now, this guy in his case was recently settled and what happened to him was, oh, so strict, okay. He is going to retire. Well, benefits, he's going to retire. We haven't gotten to that part. He's gonna retire and he has to pay a fine of $7,000. Okay, now he goes off and retire as punishment receiving his $66,000 a year salary. Okay, now and then when they when we look at the whole thing with careers in the military, and how some Fagor doc stands up and say, I'm queer. Then they're thrown out on their asses. No money whatsoever. dishonorable discharge, two lives are made a living hell, because they said they were queer. But this scumbag who had the audacity to attack his commanding officer, although I've attacked Bill Clinton plenty. He receives a $66,000 a year retirement benefit.

B

Brian Bradley 32:32

Maybe he wasn't soldier of the year like the game. Zuniga was kicked out gay soldier of the year.

M

Michael Crawford 32:39

Yeah, don't you just love it being an American.

Speaker 8 32:42

So we have a couple of minutes left. Comments, general comments, spirit in the spirit of gay pride, queer pride, whatever you want to call it. For all of our gay and lesbian brothers and sisters in Great Britain, they just had their gay pride parade over there was 50,000 people in attendance. Yeah,

B

Brian Bradley 33:01

a lot of Queens.

M

Michael Crawford 33:03

Well, and some diets and some bisexuals and some transgendered people.

E

Eric 33:07

And I'd like to say that I'll be happy that I'm leaving Houston behind this weekend to celebrate with people who are really proud of being gay in New York City.

B

Brian Bradley 33:19

Are you going to mention John Michael?

M

Michael Crawford 33:20

Yeah. Let's talk a little bit about John. And what happened to him?

B

Brian Bradley 33:24

Well, John, Justice died this week, and he was a member back up and a lot of people who used to know him John was just another 31 year old, beautiful young man who died because of people's murderous neglect around age. He valiantly fought the battle for many years, and many died this week. And we're gonna miss him, we're gonna miss the voice that he led meant to the fight and his friendship and it's just another damn shame that another young man had to die and seems as if the world just keeps on going.

Speaker 8 33:58

We also like to say we also lost a very, very great entertainer here in Houston, Lady Chanel. So I'd like to say goodbye, thank you for the many years of fabulous entertainment, we will miss you Chanel.

Brian Bradley 34:10

There'll be a memorial service for Chanel at Lazydays tomorrow, Sunday. Today, if you will, at 4pm Chanel was not just a drag queen, but she was an activist too. She used her platform, her forum to raise money for people with AIDS in gay and lesbian issues in colleges. And she was a really neat person like Anthony said.

M

Michael Crawford 34:30

Okay, Brian, that was kind of the nice version of John's death. Why don't you give us a little bit about how his loving his his loving biological family reacted to his death and to the queer family.

Brian Bradley 34:43

You know, the man had cared for him more than anybody was Stan. Dan providing your place to live and gave him love and friendship and companionship. His mother never came to the house. Except for the night that he died. She had been there for a year and a half and that's just coincidentally the night that John died just brains were not able to speak and express their grief as after they were promised. So at the funeral, Keith Stewart delivered a very beautifully written statement on behalf of gays and lesbians and people living with AIDS. And we placed a few stick to silence at best stickers on his top and blocked his family's practice. So they couldn't leave and they watched it. And John was buried, you know, this is becoming an ever increasingly frequent thing. And, you know, we're having to claim our bodies. You know, we're not even allowed to go to funerals anymore. But, you know, but John, we remember you, Lady shemale. We remember you and we'll continue to fight until we Yeah.

M

Michael Crawford 35:35

Well, and I kind of decided that, should I die of AIDS or should I die of AIDS? I'm hoping that people like Brian Bradley will do just what David were a nerd suggested and take my lifeless body and dump it on the front of the White House steps you've been listening to after hours and continuing tradition on KPFT 90.1 FM Houston. If you have any comments, please write us our dresses after hours care of KPFT fortnightly level Boulevard, Houston, Texas 77006. Stay tuned for the BBC News. No BBC, followed by the carbon dating game with Eric. Good night.
