First, you're gonna make them change their image, what they're looking for. No, but what this book is really basically, is a really healthy way of looking into the issues about I don't know, it's got a little social skills, things going places in there where it tells you, you know, when you meet, make eye contact, you know, shake hands firmly, but not, you know, don't try to break. Yeah, and don't pay some lip fish in their hand, you know, like an old knuckle stablsh. You know, actually, it's kind of little Dale Carnegie. You know, manners. Yes. Louise Hay, a little, a little, probably, Dear Abby, but just just some common sense stuff.

00:39

00:43

But it tells you it does a lot of that stuff. How about half the book is on kind of self discovery, being aware what you're looking for? Is it really what you're looking for? And I think a lot of times that we just start doing something, because that's what we did last time. Yeah. It's a start, what is it? I really want?

01:03

It's a circle. I mean, that's not 01:04

it. Yeah. And it talks about that and our expectations. So it deals a lot with the reader. So it's kind of interactive, and then it talks about more like what you would think the book you know, how to meet women have to the art of meeting women is how to meet where to go. And it talks about some things that you know, we used to do on like we do on the switchboard at the switchboard constantly, constantly, you know, somebody calls up, they're new in town, you say, okay, hey, how about an organization? We got 150 organizations out there. Here, I can name you a bunch of these what kind of thing are you interested in? You know, and it says that that's a great way to meet people. And that's what we tell people on the on the telephones that when you walk in the door, you have common ground with these people because they pick that group too. So you got right there jump on Common Ground? Well, exactly. Because then you have something in common and you're gonna meet people who liked the same things you do.

01:49

01:55

That's right. And talks about that and, and some of the other places that you can meet them. You know, at festivals, women's festivals, duh.

02:04

Oh, really.

02:08

It's very general magic, you can stand that's right. But it's, it was a cute, it wasn't like it wasn't. I don't want to use the word cute because people say Oh, I don't want to read, it was worth it was worth three, even to an old sage, like me who's quite happy in my it was worth read. because it reminded me of things, generally, things that we should do every day to feel better about who we are and not to let those little you know, rejections guide our lives, you know, and run run things for us. So if I was going to recommend the book, you know, I've done that down here, a scale of one to 10 I'd give this an EIGHT. Okay, so that's pretty good, even though it is definitely you would definitely find this more of a self help book, then, you know, directions for your next lover, directions to your next lover. And I would say that it would be better for you this book than the book directions to your new love. If you're going to if you're going to check out a book this week, you might find the art and meeting women a guide for gay women how to meet the woman you want to meet by Rhonda Sachs. It's a slope slopes book publishers, and this book is so less than $20. So you could probably if you don't find it, you can ask for it. I'm sure somebody in

03:27

Crossroads or listen Lobo Sally is working across Lobo now and so good to see sadly the women's section is expanding rapidly. Yes, I was down there just recently. Yeah, that's the only place I really get to anymore because when I come into town, it's usually to get a sticker for somebody who can't get into. Yeah, pick up a sticker. Next I'm in town so I end up at logos. And you know what else logos has the best oils in town? At the reasonable size. See? I could go into Kroger's it got to be too expensive.

03:39

04:03

And I see Nancy nanpi Four and 04:07

Nancy was so happy to learn that 04:12

her wagon suggestively into the 04:15

land of comedy,

04:16

do the show but I gotta go oil oil.

04:21

That was wrong, cheaper

04:22

than cheaper than Kroger's and last longer to is cheaper than Kroger's on that one right there. See that mic right there?

04:30

Yeah, that's the one she wants.

04:32

The dike, Mike that Happy Pride

Jewel Gray 04:36

y'all and you brought your luscious partner see I'm using that word lately partners the word we chose say hello to Jessica. Hello Jessica. Jessica, who we always call. See I call her when she's not here now. She's not here.

04:49

No she gets that from a lot of people. I don't see that for once easier.

04:51

04:52

But yeah, when I was lying in bed the other night I heard Janice or an auntie Ford's over Jennifer Who the hell is that? I don't think so.

05:00

Hey, let's clarify that she didn't she was not lying in bed and hearing that for me. She was listening to the show and I was here I see. So, Oh, how's everybody how you doing? Great, great. Great Good to see 05:12

05:10

you ride pride pride pride pride pride pride

05:15

pride all year long. It because, you know, I'm gonna have to start being proud every week because I'm gonna miss Kay prime. Now that I'm out there.

05:23

Isn't it like Christmas season? I know. It starts like do not buy that cow farm you wanted those fainting goats? Do not buy. What are you talking about? Do not move out of the country. It doesn't have something to do about your hose wrapping up your hose that I was listening to on the hose was 05:43

05:25

05:37

4400 foot No 43 Okay. 400 foot hose because you got to reach the outside fence now. I'm telling you that's right.

05:56

Speaking of size things, and so on and so on. Pac Man jumped 06:01 to that size thing right?

06:03

Did you ever get your rubber friend in the mail? That was not sure did I sure did.

06:10

You had a rubber friend in the mail that was lost?

06:13

I had an order from Adams. Adam and Eve catalog one time and we wonder why posted people the way they are. Let me let me tell you I got out there. It was open. And I only had one of the two items I had in there. And I was upset. So I called Adam Adam and Eve and they sent me another one. So a postal employee he looked really happy. They were all happy so I couldn't pick out which one grabbed my toy.

06:35

Oh, now we know why our postal rates are going up. Oh yeah, they took the jelly the expensive one.

06:40

06:43

The one with a sparkling

06:47

find it in the dark sparkling jelly.

06:52

He's been hanging out those bookstores.

06:54

Oh my god. This is how we're celebrating Stonewall. Y'all. I don't know.

07:00

Stonewall, we would not be sitting here we would not be able to talk like this.

07:04

Let's talk about Spark somebody

07:07

that's rounded art and oil

07:09

at Lobos oils at logo Center. I'm so Hi Sally. Are you listening? Sally we love so much she's at Lobo Oh, me too. And I saw her when I saw her I was just like, I just had a heart attack. She was just so welcome a sight to see Sally there. I thought I would never see her again. When when Inklings Inklings I was gonna say Brooklyn's Inklings closed up.

Jewel Gray 07:16

07:31

What is that? Inklings the ranch? What's next? What is it?

07:37

I don't know. We depot

07:41

we have nowhere to go when I go to Sutherlands it's out Meadville. We have nowhere to go after that. Oh, Lord.

07:52

So the ranch is officially closed? I don't know. Yeah, it's not tonight. It's still i Well, it could be tonight. I talked to Janis the manager, Monday or Tuesday this past week. And they said it was on a week to week basis. Actually, I did. I talked to Janice but I also talked to Betsy, the owner and she said it was a week to week basis. That it just depends on how well they did tonight as to whether or not they're going to open next week. How can 08:18

07:54

I not be doing well, my lord. It's packed there all the time on Saturday. Right Saturday nights. That's right. Thursday nights when you were doing your show you got quite a turnout. Well, I'm glad you brought that up. As a matter of fact, thank you very much. And we just started doing a new thing at Riches Riches at Riches on Sunday nights. The next Sunday's for sisters. Sisters night out on Sunday nights is going to be July 11. The same type format as we did at Miss B's on Thursday nights for so long. We're moving it to Riches on Sunday nights. Six to nine. No cover 75 cent well drinks dollar I know why I am there. I have never been funnier. Never been funnier. I'm serious. But it is so neat because they take Riches and they turn it into a lesbian coffee house almost. They bring the chairs and the tables down on the dance floor chairs, beanbag chairs on the dance floor. I'm right there on the floor, not up on that big drag queen stages of fabulous stage but it's like performing in another state. You know, so it is so fabulous. It is just so cool. So July 11. And again there's no cover but if you want to donate a cover, it goes directly to his sisters and it's

08:28

08:20

09:38

Mike it's open mic, you know group want to bring your band or bring your poetry or just like Thursday nights at Miss bees used to be. Except now I'm not rooting for women every week.

09:45

09:51

Those beanbag chairs once you get in those darn things he can't get out.

09:56

So wonder once you're in that's the point. Yeah, that's right. 75 ever sent drinks? Think think

10:01

Oh my God. Love to have a nice big beanbag chair. Really?

10:06

On the rocks. Do we need to stay?

10:07

10:22

where do they get their voice that come out of a can?

10:26

It's even know the guy's name. I just call him here.

10:28

Is he local? Yeah, he's gonna say anything about him. He's local.

10:33

Yeah. He's doing this to hopefully further his career. He's not on. She's not on she's turned her thing on turn Nancy on. That's it. Yeah.

10:43

10:46

Is that the voice of that guy at Black Eyed Pea with the dynamic voice of that guy. Oh, that's the guy with the three ball boys. Three. He's about he's he's short with my stash. Yeah. works in the back.

10:52

11:00

And yes, yeah. pickable Yeah, manners. Fabulous waste. That was him.

11:06

Yeah. Oh. My circle is small and tight. You know what I mean?

11:14

So what else are you doing Nancy?

11:18

I just did a show in Arlington. Don't you gay pride in our and about going dark? Why? I don't know Arlington? Just sounds like way out there in the boonies. Well, it was less

11:23

11:29

And they they scraped together the 75 Gay and Lesbian queer people they have out there and we did a little show for Well, I felt like damn, Bob. That's right. Me and elke summers were there. We were fabulous. We gave him a show. You were always fabulous. It was fun. What do we do? Oh, we just been doing pride pride pride, pride, pride pride. That triangle is a proud sponsor of 1998 Lesbian Gay Pride. Great. Six weeks here in Houston. Can't wait for the parade. We have the first Houston parade, Texas triangle entry. And next week, next Friday. I am so excited. I'm hosting the avez event on the Boogie Nights. Yes. It's like it's so cool. We can't wait it's like a black tie thing but you can dress in 70s attire. So I'm going to wear my Dirk Diggler costume as Huggie bear she's already back in baby it's just a joke. Well, I was going to but it was lost in the mail and package was open. It was just a nightmare.

12:29

12:36

12:42

Nightmare you're gonna be a star

12:46

I love so Boogie Nights have as come out if you can everything

12:50

that's at the Edwin Hornberger convention center right

12:53

12:56

That's the old shamrock

12:57

the old sham wrote a lot of events for pride took place at old eh see? Yeah, 13:05

the health Fest was there today.

13:07

Were you out there Oh Yeah was it it was great wonderful.

13:11

Stanley what it was packed very good they were giving away all kinds of stuff some somebody was giving away clocks.

13:18

I mean there's stuff always been 13:20

dip I mean you know Gatorade

13:22

many we missed the clocks in the Viagra they were given away by 13:31

fear that's why he would know

13:34

that why you're not sitting down tonight. I don't even 13:37

buy green bean dip. Oh

13:43

I'm not even 13:45

though but I talked with Tori. From a sisters. Yeah, out there today. She she was out there. I've just everybody was out there. And I complimented her on the great plug that TV Montrose gave us sisters that was a magnificent spot.

14:03

That's TV Montrose for eight. Isn't that just aren't you?

14:07

I wish I could find me.

14:09

Aren't you involved with them?

14:10

I am so involved with them. It's like you guys are like this we are like this out there in radio land. You just pretend you can imagine what we're doing. Oh how they are you just don't want to Steven and Ross with TV Montrose. Just everybody's is really coming together and really producing a really good show. They did a thing at Rich's. In fact, our inaugural sisters night out and did a live thing and did lots of clipping. Lots of editing, but we got it on the air.

14:37

It was all good. And they're on Mondays and Wednesdays Mondays

14:41

and Wednesdays now eight o'clock channel 54 Warner cable was shut down and I got a satellite. I went out to the boonies. They don't even have cable. Oh no, I could not live I had to go on by satellite.

14:46

14:54

Are they still in between the Chevy's and the Chinese? What they did there shows that come on. Yeah,

15:01

the Chinese are after and 15:02

the Chevy place before.

15:05

I guess I'll just say Oh, so you've been reading the triangle lately.

15:16

There seems to be an article in there about this new movie out.

15:21

Yeah. Yeah, the text files. See I'm I'm not a fan. I've never seen The X Files before I had to go out and I know is that crazy? It's like after King of the Hill, I'm done. You know, I hear you. I can't that's all I got to give. You know, it's all the entertainment I can soak up. I can't believe you haven't watched it. So no, we'll see. I rented some. And I watched I watched some episodes and I think I could be the well you know, I heard Jean Charlotte say that same thing. He said he'd never seen it before. He saw the movie. And now he's gonna watch the series he said maybe piqued his interest. That's interesting. Yes, it is.

15:48

16:00

We've been watching some of the reruns or something. Yeah, went out and rented I've been watching

16:05

it from planning and you know

16:07

the pilots Oh, that's 16:08

the one I saw with the with the little girl in the face on the digital printout thing

16:13

Yeah, well I like her here longer.

16:15

This too scary

16:21

you know they invented that very instrument. Just for that movie when verse man walked on the moon remember that movie? Jim knows my movie.

16:31

Can we is it

16:34

weird machine they had a movie about 16:39

are we on the same show?

16:43

Jim go off anywhere.

16:45

You can hear that music and 16:47

every Edward That's right. It would sound wonderful.

16:53

16:55

Any caller call in and tell me what this noise is that I'm actually doing? How I'm making that noise how I'm producing. Okay, listen free movie tickets. Here it is. Here comes the noise listeners. Ready? I didn't find the noise How does she get up off her toes let's show oh well. Nevermind.

17:19

17:22

That's right back here on show FCC so good to be back. We haven't seen you guys for such a long time. Well, it's good to see you too. Geez We you know I haven't been here a long time.

17:26

17:27

17:32

Really heard about your tooth?

17:34

Oh my Lord you see is the callback here.

17:38

Jewel I know it's gay pride but I know I don't want to see your tooth in it. Pull it out pull it out. So they did they checked it out.

17:42

17:48

So we're all looking at the whole

17:51

place to put chain

17:53

I thought about that. That's hard because I know you don't carry a purse stop using my belly button never stop using your belly.

18:00

18:02

Oh no, no, it's so useful

18:05

to work one day found a pill that 18:13

yes, one of my blood pressure pills years ago I must distill them down.

18:17

Well you know it doesn't mean your belly button or in your tooth it doesn't exactly she got her teeth pulled and found a really

18:28

no that would be in the acquire 18:34

it doesn't exactly absorbed through your skin. Yeah.

18:38

So it does happen so good bass. Just like passing out you know he's not even close.

18:48

Left the room. It's so bad. I told him Nancy. I don't know why they let me come down here and do this anymore. I'm so out of touch with things because again, Dragon. Oh, we just woke up. Woke up. We might not even be awake right now.

19:02

19:08

So appreciate you guys coming down. That's right.

19:10

I love you. You kidding you. You are You are Miss radio. So Miss Rick, you are you are 19:16

Did you see the tapes out there? I brought Jimmy tapes from 1909 From 1960 to 1992. And when I was doing shows every weekend I had these tapes stacked up and they just got to be too many. I had to bring him down here. He was just a gas. I think he expected like 10 or 12 tapes when I told him I was bringing him like a box at Batavia.

19:40

Nine Oh man. Yeah, that's 19:41

right now see that's gay and lesbian history right there. Look at him someone got your name on it for when you were down here. Remember that time Jan was on Jan was here we remember nothing about that that night. My lover so we're not supposed to be like making it the state.

19:44

19:54

Who's not who's not I was not 19:56

drinking. No. That's right. Everybody came 20:00

While that's when mother's just across the street

20:02

ever went across, and I still I listened to that the other night again. And it was one of the best shows we ever did when you've been worked co hosting with me right around that time. Who knew?

20:15

We even worked in the old production room that you know, you have like wave a dead chicken and perchance some kind of voodoo thing over it to get it to work. That's right when the cricket or the board the board Public Radio. That's right. Wonderful days. Since then, Nancy, and I don't want to tell people how old you are. But 43 gone ahead. Well, no, because you know what? I'm 43. Are you really? I am February. Okay.

20:22

20:39

Put that all together. That's 86 years of lesbian experience.

20:44

Hey, collect that much? Anything? Don't be afraid. And have no qualms about telling it? No.

20:57

Yeah, actually, it's really an I, I have, I consider myself very fortunate to have kind of been at the beginning to see the beginning of the not the beginning. But But like, like the, in the early 80s is like the Gay Pride movement was really starting gay lesbian movement was really starting in Houston. And so I got to see a little bit of that, then bam, AIDS hit us. And then things got a little bit like we were just complacent in our morning. And then we started to come out of it. And now it's just, I have no idea what I'm saying. But I guess what I'm saying is I kind of seen a timeline in Houston. And it's a cool thing. And it's a good time to reflect back on the things that we were because that's what gay pride is about building on the, you know, blocks of the past to you know, step our steps to the future.

21:35

And I really think that's what you know, we celebrate on gay pride days, is both our steps to the past and our steps to the future. So it's good to remain reminisce. So people, some lot of people are new to Houston, or very young, or we're, you know, not out and not aware of things going on, and not aware of the struggles in the distance that we've come in the last 1012 1520 years. You know, you and I have known each other for over 2010 years. I think that's all right, over 10 years. I mean, we have not been like super close people, but I've known you for over 10 years, I think there's really no, you know, there's only about five people I can think of I've known that long in my life. So that's pretty cool. But you know, we've seen a lot in the last 10 or 15 years right here in Houston, the growth and it's a lot to be celebrated. You know, when we celebrate, that's what I celebrate is our growth and, and what that means for our future. So we you know, what you reminisce and tell people about those things, what you were just saying about there are a lot of people who don't know, some of the history and that sort of thing. I think that's one of the reasons why, why things like organizations, like the pride committees are so important, because I'm seeing that, from people I've talked to, it's starting to be made up of people who are just coming into the community, when I'd say just coming in, I mean, like within the last 234 years or so. And it's bringing in energy, I think, to the festivities and a newness and well just like like a breath of fresh air. You know, that's what it means periodically.

22:37

23:06

23:09

It's inspiring to see you know, these other people, these newer people get as inspired as perhaps we were at that time still are but it's it's at a different level to the different

23:21

PBS special Nancy recently about Castro, know, 23:24

oh, man, it's wonderful. He's a king of Cuba, right?

23:27

That's right. Yeah. Speaking of new things, time to do a new thing.

23:30

23:32

No, well, it will be here soon. But I want to get this out before what what are you gonna say?
No, go ahead.

23:38

Okay. Let me

23:43

okay. The, the defunct heaven was supposed to be up and running before gay pride and I see that it's not. I wonder what, so heavens close to the Lord. Bird.

23:54

23:59

Don't look at me. Prior we got what? Well, I didn't know the ranch is.

24:03

24:09

Hell came to heaven that night when it just kind of burned. They just burned.

24:14

But I didn't know it, like burned down.

24:16

No, we had an exclusive. We had an interview with Charles that night that night, eventually would burn down there was just so much heat generated in that building. I knew one day it was gonna burn down this day it was gonna burn down and 24:30

24:22

story that I heard today, actually, from Larry lingo, was that he had talked with Charles and that the opening was going to be later on in the year. And I had heard from another source that they were possibly going to add a second floor to it. Oh my god, you know, while they're doing Purgatory and Heaven Hell, well, when they reopen, it's going to be under a new name that Charles will not divulge yet. Mm hmm. I see. I bet it's not going to be called the ranch.

24:58

25:02

There's something else up for grabs. You know, the ranch used to be across from St. Luke's Hospital on Maine down there. Next to where majors bookstore was right upstairs upstairs. It used to be there. And it was a men's bar then wasn't it? Yeah. Then then moved out it and had it there for a short time and then moved over to South Main. That's right. Oh, right. Next to majors bookstore. Well, actually, actually, that's all gone to. Yep.

25:29

25:31

We may just go on there. I've been 25:35

putting up town houses.

25:37

A lot of people don't know that. The whole building has gone. Oh, really? Jesus. T.

25:43

We're so old.

25:46

You know, it's good to know your history know, things like that, you know, staking of history. I mean, we're talking about Stonewall because that's what pride is all about whether Judy Garland died.

25:50

25:54

25:57

That, you know, they don't make the Studebaker anymore, that 26:04

I have a quote that I bring in or because because we always talk about coalition building and inclusivity and all the various parts of our queer community. And there's always people that want to kind of kick certain groups out. So in this latest edition of circle magazine,

26:30

yay, look who's gonna

26:32

cover with I didn't see it. Flashing again.

26:36

Okay, Clinton. Oh, that

26:37

Oh, hottie enchilada. Oh, yeah, me too. Oh, gotta 26:41

think for those older women comics

26:42

don't Oh, my God. Love Caitlyn. Oh, you're all right. She's She. Girl. I got the interview in person when she was here last time. That was like, stop my heart. I couldn't hardly talk. She was dressings room taking pictures. Oh, absolutely. That didn't sound too good.

26:57

27:01

Anyway, there's a great interview in here with with Kate Clinton. And she talks up. She's talking about kind of what's happening with gay life now. And she says, well say I think that straight people are getting to be more gay. And gay people are getting more straight. Oh, it's true. Oh, no kidding. Instead of blowing up the patriarchy. We're replicating it. How annoying. It's not what I've been working for. Actually. It's shocking. And there were some of us who kicked the doors open. And then these conservative idiots parade through then yell at other people for kicking the door open.

27:49

She is brilliant. Yes. I mean, you know, I want to know what you think about this bar. And she was talking about PCs. Yeah. About what a PC as far as as being a comic yourself. Yeah. How you how you receive this. All right.

28:03

She says for me, PC is just another way of saying Shut up. Want me to speak now?

Jewel Gray 28:12

See, the way I saw it? And the way I was saying to him out there and I wanted to see how you felt about this? Was wouldn't that be generally, how a comic would feel a comic who is expressed sometimes express purpose is to irritate and to instigate thought and to sometimes be downright rude. To make a point sometimes and that, that you can't include PC in that because PC is not fun. It's serious.

28:41

Well, if you balance that instigation with inspiration, right? Oh, that sounds like Jesse Jackson. Hey, man, you can cut glass. I know it seriously. If if you do for me, for me, it's not and I certainly am not, you know, 100% aligned to this all the time, because I'll go for the cheap, you know, shot, you know, whenever whenever need be. But you know, it's like a matter of balance. Like I said, I think if you want to, to really annoy somebody are really taking a stab at something. Have it be for a purpose other than just stabbing. You know, let it let it teach a lesson. Let it make a point. Let it you know,

29:23

I've always felt strange to hear the truth. Listen to a comic. Oh, sorry. Yeah, that's right.

29:27

Yeah, we're the only ones you can really get away with it. Make money. I think

Jewel Gray 29:30

for me to tell the truth. You can't necessarily be PC. You know, you can't Oh, you can't be politically correct when you're telling the truth. Because sometimes the truth is not sometimes the truth is quite ugly. And it's difficult to you know, to tell somebody something in news, you know, the correct vernacular when it just whitewashes what really happened. So, you know, being a comic, I'm sure that you run up against that many times. You know, that she's not feverishly

29:59

Yeah, and some And sometimes what will work with one? One audience that is, in tremendously well received is just appalling to the next audience is just how could she say that? How could she be so offensive? So you know, it depends a lot on the individuals and who's What did the hell are you laughing at? Jimmy's is cracking on but I'm just thinking it's the type of person who would be appalled.

30:17

30:21

Really, it happens. I believe me it happens. But you know, it's, you know, balance it with with some intellect and with some, some do goodness.

Jewel Gray 30:32

I mean, if they had PC, we never had comic genius like George Carlin or Lenny Bruce or, you know, Richard Pryor PC, would they they would never exist and we'd have missed the genius of those people. That's true. That's true. Anyway, was some you know, in one way I agree with her another way I see the the need for PC you know, to make people feel it's been so separated people have been so separated that I think the PC is intended to bring make people inclusive. And the purpose and the meaning behind it, I think is valid and just and I'd fight for but the way it has turned out sometimes which can be very, very silly. You know, I'm kind of pathetic, but I find out but she never said it. I never know when I made one of these tremendous Fox passes until, you know, somebody points out oh, gee, that's not politically

31:16

31:24

I made what they did today, too. I made one today. It doesn't have to be a political thing. You know, I walked into a door and neglected to say something to someone who's from a culture that if you didn't speak to when you walked in a door, they took offense and now I'm on a three day like no speaking to me. No, I mean, who knew? That's right. So it can be you know, not just about politics and be but social. You know stuff so I sometimes I agreed sometimes I'm lost with PC what he's given us the rolling and 31:59

31:57

the hands around the throat so 32:01

shout out as I was saying, shut up.

32:04

Get it over with get it up with girl Big Boy was begging me for extra time so I know we're like cutting it close right now.

32:12

Yeah, because big rolly and Michelle. We're gonna be 32:15

32:32

32:37

32:40

33:37

33:41

I just know so little. I feel so guilty. Michelle could do this. Michelle says yeah, I want it.

34:17

And now it's time for big ROI. And Michelle with the news. Good evening.

Roy 34:26

Good evening. How's it going?

Michelle Meyers 34:28

Oh, pretty good. We've got a list tonight. And I'll say this nice and slowly because this is the last thing we're going to say slowly. We've got a list of 23 or 24. events or things to talk about. Most of it's not hard news. But you've got one hard news item. Do you want to start us off? Well, it's really not so much hard news as it is pride news. I'm very pleased to announce that our very own mayor Lee Brown became The city's first chief executive to attend the annual opening ceremonies of the Gay Pride Week. And I have pictures to prove it.

Roy 34:48

35:08

Roy 35:10

And his appearance and presentation of a proclamation on the June 12, at June 12, at the rivers restaurant, was proof of his pledge to be mayor of all Houston. And he said that he believes that everyone should have an equal opportunity to participate in what the city has to offer. And that means that he wants to leave no one out. And he does believe in inclusiveness and not exclusiveness. Now, pride, pride cheer, Carol Clark introduced the mayor, and there was a big crowd there. And they welcomed him with a very enthusiastic and a very extended applause at Rivers. And we have only to look at what happened. According to Lee Brown, he said that we only have to look at what happened and Jasper to see some of the problems of hatred and bigotry. And he said that our city is better than that, and that he is very glad that this is the case. And he said that he stands behind those who are victimized by such hatred. Hate is a powerful force. And we have to work together to make sure our city continues to be the great city that it is. And we will talk about our hate crimes hotline later on in the news coverage

Michelle Meyers 36:28

I mentioned and later on. Yes. The thing I wanted to mention was the Houston's Gay Men's Chorus. We'll close the season with time travel. The last performance will be tomorrow night. I'll be there. And that's at Lambert Hall and the height at 16/17 street. So it starts at 7pm. And there are limited tickets. Oh, I'm gonna purchase them basic brothers Crossroads market, Lobos bookstore and cafe for 12 and $15.

37:04

It's incredible. I saw the lineup of the music, and it's songs that are old standards from the 50s through the 90s Oh retable every song you know, you know all the music. It's great. It's gonna be great.

Roy 37:20

So it's gonna wind up being a singer.

37:23

I hope they don't they do a CD.

Michelle Meyers 37:25

And we will talk about our hate crimes hotline later on in the news coverage

So remember Sunday, June 21. Tomorrow at 7pm at Lambert Hall at a height and 17th Street.

R

Roy 37:33

All right. Okay, next I want to talk about the annual daddy of Montrose Contest, which is going to be held at Mary's on Westheimer. And all tips and proceeds are going to benefit colts 45 stone soup. And that's going to be at 1022 Westheimer. And it's it's going to be tomorrow at 6pm. Father's Day. Again, this is the daddy of Montrose contest at Mary's at 102 to Westheimer. Okay, I'll be there.

M

Michelle Meyers 38:10

I like to mention the lesbian Health Outreach Project and the Montrose clinic. Now, let me introduce Jimmy YES. He's going to tell us what's happening July 12. through July 10 through July 12. For staff volunteers. Oh, the gay and lesbian switchboard is having their training at that weekend. Well, we usually have it the first weekend of the month, but of course July the first weekend is the July 4 weekend. So we're holding it the second weekend. And we're looking for people who want to volunteer for phone duty. And what we do at the switchboard of course is information referrals. We do Do telephone counseling? That's probably the most important thing we do. Because we've just got, we've discovered that with the advent of computers, people can get gay and lesbian information, queer information on the internet very quickly. But if you're having if you're, if you have questions about AIDS, if, if your same sex partner has maybe abused you, or you're having problems, or you're coming out, we are the ear, we can talk to you, we can help you see your way through a very difficult time. And though that's the kind of person we're looking for the kind of person who, who wants to do that kind of helping to their community. I haven't got a hold of you 5293211 or leave a message on the hate crimes hotline, which is a 5299615.

o

39:29

M

Michelle Meyers 41:03

Again, that's five to 930 to 11 or four message five to nine, nine to 615.

R

Roy 41:11

Yeah. and another advantage that the switchboard has over the internet is that you're actually

Yeah, and another advantage that the Switchboard has over the internet is that you're actually hearing a alive voice right? And not the cold, impersonal printout. Well, I don't want to make it cold and impersonal. But I mean, we're immediate and we're there and you hear, right? Yeah. Okay, next on the agenda for the gern Pride Week. This is an official Pride Week event. avice presents pride Gala. 98, also known as night fever, and that's going to be Friday, June 26. They're going to have an open bar and a silent auction. And the guest of honor is going to be actor David Marshall grant. Now he's the star of Lifetime's television show labor, labor of love. And the music is going to be by the awesome GTE DJ. And it's really going to be worth your while to get out there. Also want to mention that there's a new club, club energy has given birth to another club. And this one is called amnesia.

41:23

Roy 41:28

Michelle Meyers 42:32

You almost forgot.

Roy 42:34

I almost forgot that one. Yes, and this is called gram. And this is called amnesia, and it does a pre grand opening, which is going to be held this coming week. And this is twice the fun two clubs in one, energy and amnesia. And the baby amnesia has a great light show big cages vibrating dance, vibrating dance floors, a place where your inner body and can come out and your mind has amnesia. And you really need to go out and check it out has the latest in the dance music and is a fantastic Latin bar Latin club.

Michelle Meyers 43:16
