

Diane Carpenter Oral History Interview Part 2 Index

- :42 Introduction of Rafael Arenas, editorial assistant
- 1:09 Introduction of Patricia Hamilton, publisher and friend
- 3:02 Diversity of Alaska delegates to National Women's Conference; link to Seneca Falls and International Women's Year
- 3:58 Seating of delegates and proximity to Alabama delegates; thoughts about the Alabama delegates; gay rights; power of talking to those with different opinions
- 6:55 Plan of Action vote and high approval percentage
- 8:45 Media coverage and bias
- 11:29 Cancellation of press interviews because of world events—President Jimmy Carter's decision to go to Israel
- 13:38 Carpenter's thoughts of conference legacy and next steps; change in status of women since the Industrial Revolution; desire for another Women's Conference
- 15:58 Plans for a new conference; "I don't think there's ever been a time when historians have been more important to helping people understand what's going on in the news."
- 16:52 Call for papers online and Carpenter lists topics that papers could cover
- 21:04 Plenary Session Day 1
- 22:24 Lunch and speaker, then afternoon speaker
- 22:39 Two days of workshops and discussion groups
- 24:01 Issue to focus on is relationship between women and men; family groups and legal issues
- 25:52 Gender, marginalized groups, and discrimination
- 26:44 Women of color
- 28:16 Reproductive rights
- 30:00 Need for new models and solutions
- 30:39 Fourth day as action day and goal of new Plan of Action for the future
- 32:20 Informal discussion between all regarding plans for a new conference
- 34:59 Hamilton said she would put in AI all of Carpenter's plans
- 35:35 Carpenter's group involvement: Planned Parenthood, ACLU, mercy ships, and local groups ex. managing a relief group; local political action group
- 41:06 Questions about interest and leadership in another women's conference
- 42:04 Questions from Patricia Hamilton regarding the interviews
- 44:18 Vince Lee and archive collections