Hmm,

Jimmy Carper 00:03

that was a nice set by Romanovsky and Phillips. You just heard be political, not polite before that one of the enemy, then give me a homosexual guilt trip. What kind of self respecting fagot am I and we started out with Prince Charming tango, you're listening to Jimmy and a three hour version of gay and lesbian, bisexual and transgendered music on after hours a continuing tradition right here on KPFT, Houston, and KEOS College Station, Bryan. In 1992, Ron Romanovsky, put out a solo album called hopeful romantic and it it contains one of the most romantic songs I think I've ever heard, or really, really liked it. At the time, romanovski and Phillips had broken up. And they were they were touring together, but not they weren't lovers anymore. And it was after this album that they got back together and came up with brave boys that will be playing after that. But right now, Ron, romanovski, and baby, take advantage of me.

01:29

We've been traveling around a bit, and we get to have quite a perspective on things because we get to go to so many places. And while I generally feel like the gay 90s are here and things are starting to change, the anti homosexual movement is sure going full force to and the propaganda that these groups put out is like so out of my reality. I mean, like they're always talking about the homosexual agenda, as if gay people could agree on anything for one minute, right.

01:48

01:56

I love that when I hear that I always picture millions of little memo boards on the refrigerators of homosexuals throughout America Mark queer things to do today. And another thing oh, they're always talking about special rights. I mean, okay, there is a little bit of truth to it. I think we deserve some special rights, you know, like, parking. Just some little pink triangles next to the handicap spaces. That's all I'm asking for. My life's been a little difficult. And that would help.

02:33

You know, but I'll tell you the thing that really pisses me off about these people is that they always talk as if they own God. So we'd like to add our two cents to this discussion. Oh, yeah,

Jimmy Carper 02:49

Romanovsky and Phillips, doing if there's a God, he's a queen before that. Ron romanovski. Solo, baby. Take advantage of me. You're listening to three hour music version of after hours. A continuing tradition right here on KPFT Houston, and KEOS College Station, Bryan. That's 90.1 and 89.1. On your FM dial, respectively. Welcome College Station. And Bryan. If this is the first time that you've tuned into 89.1 in College Station, you're probably getting an ear full. That was just, we just did a half our concert of Romanovsky and Phillips their hits over the past. Oh, gosh. Their first album came out in 1984. And they they were together a couple of years before that. So hey, whatever. And we're taking your requests for queer music. What's queer music you say? That's music that's done or composed by openly gay, lesbian, bisexual or transgendered artists. And we're taking those requests at 526573852 6k p f t. And if you want to hear more romanovski and Phillips, you're you could probably see them live at spectrum 95 business expo, art Expo concert and much more. That's happening June 18. At the Astro Arena right here in Houston. And there's going to eat you can call an 800 number 1-800-203-4597 To find out free information on the concert of the stars, which will feature romanovski and Philips, the business expo an art exhibit and town meeting to do and that this is very, very important for this town. Because town meeting one which took place way back in the seven days fostered all kinds of good things including the gay and lesbian switchboard and the Houston gay and lesbian Political Caucus and wonderful outreach programs like that. So it's time for town meeting to to see where we are and where we're going right here in the queer community. But in the meantime, if you want to hear some career music, give us a call at 526-573-8526 KPFT. And I didn't want to talk about something else here, but oh, here we go. Hippie hippies doing a carwash, June for? Oh, gosh, that's kind of far off. But we can be talking about it every week. Hippies doing a car wash June 4, that's a Sunday 10 to three at basic brothers parking lot. Okay. Now I want to do kind of a transition song. This is a song that's a favorite with the soiree of aubergine crew. It's by suede, and that's the American suede, not the London suede. And it's called Miss sillies blue.

06:44

Ooh, yeah, suede

J Jimmy Carper 06:45

with Missy Lee's blues. And that was for the swirly Albertine, folks. And right now we're going to take a little break and talk about something going on in the neighborhood. That's not too cool. I've got Roy with me. Good evening. Hi, how you doing? You brought in some some kind of disturbing pieces of paper that you found posted in the Montrose area?

R Roy 07:18

Yeah, that's correct. Jimmy. I was gonna say literature, but I don't want to defame that word.

J Jimmy Carper 07:25

Now. No, no. These are the kinds of Xerox copies that are been put up on telephone poles and along the Westheimer area, right. Starting from what's hammerin Dunlavy on down Westheimer till about one block short of the the police storefront. These This is literature from the National Socialist white workers union, the not the Nazi Party, American Nazis that are here in Houston. And this one that I have in front of me right now is from the Houston unit. And it shows a pretty poor door drawing of gay men supposedly dying from AIDS. And there's a guy on there with a T shirt that says gay and proud and the caption underneath it says, Boy, those San Francisco gay pride parades just ain't what they used to be. Very disgusting.

R Roy 07:33

J Jimmy Carper 08:27

Yeah. And very disturbing. To me. It's very disturbing to see him see trash like this in our neighborhood.

R Roy 08:36

Very disturbing. And they recently were on a recruiting bench. Down in the Montrose area. They had these recruitment posters posted all over the place.

J Jimmy Carper 08:50

Now who the hell is they think they're gonna get in the March rows for the Nazi party. I don't get it.

R

Roy 08:59

I don't get it. But apparently, I remember a number of years back back in 88. I was doing security work at a an apartment complex out here in Hawthorne. Yeah, the aid I believe some AIDS Foundation was getting ready to purchase it. It fell through. But there was a lot there was some not a lot but there were some AIDS patients that were living there. But there was also Neo Nazis living there. Go figure and in this was a very tiny complex with had the mole max it was 20 units,

J

Jimmy Carper 09:35

Max. Gosh. And that's weird. You know it. And one of the things I want to bring this up is because there are gay skinheads Oh yeah, there are gay skinhead. And so you know, if you you see a skinhead walking around Montrose, you cannot assume that they are members of what is what the hell they call these white workers union whenever that

R

Roy 10:00

The National Socialist Workers Union Yes. No, there's a lot of truly wonderful, gay skinheads with tattoos, oh, yes, that would frighten mom or dad. But if you get to talk to him, they're just absolutely sweetheart. Sure. But the only way you can tell when you're in the company of danger is by what these people say. Yeah, I think you're right. listening for buzzwords, faggot and queer. As it is like spit out of their mouth. Exactly.

J

Jimmy Carper 10:38

Yeah, we say faggot and queer because it's our words, right? I can call you a faggot. Right? I am not gonna put up with somebody who isn't a faggot calling you a faggot and, and using it, you know, the derogatory term, and in a derogatory manner.

R

Roy 11:00

Correct. And what really bothers me is that we all know that these Nazis, the National Socialist white workers union, whether it's here in Houston or anywhere else, they are not content with just speaking about what they want to do. They actually go out and do it. Oh, yeah. There was a gay bar. I believe it was on the East Coast or no, it was up in Washington, Washington. Yeah. That was blown up there from those Idaho boys by Nancy. And after what had happened recently up in Oklahoma City, I think it would behoove the entire community to be on guard just be on guard. Yeah. And you know, Q patrol is out there on Friday and Saturday nights. And they're watching and they're taking license plates and all of that, because they see what's going on in the neighborhood. And, gosh, what a great group that is.

J

Jimmy Carper 11:51

Roy 12:08

Oh, tremendous company. And I kind of worry about them. You know, I worry about them every night that they're out. Oh, I know. I know. Because there's a lot of sickos out. Oh, I know.

Jimmy Carper 12:18

Yeah. I fully expect anytime now to have the Q patrol in their patrol car drive by and flip me off. They shine the light in the window here. Oh. Oh, go on. Yeah, they do. When they whenever they go by shine the light. I get flipped off

12:36

Jimmy Carper 12:39

by Q patrol every week. It's great. Great. And

Roy 12:42

now. We really do appreciate them because Oh, yeah. Are you kidding? What was disturbing is that the hair in Montrose, this is our home. I moved from the southwest section of the city into Montrose so that I could be who I am without fear of retribution. And yet there's all this a bottle throwing. And God knows what else that happens to us by these cowards who drive buying cars. Yeah. And I call him coward.

Jimmy Carper 13:16

Oh, yeah. Coming into our neighborhood from from outside to do this.

Roy 13:22

And I hate saying it, but it's predominantly white people. And I'm a white man. I mean, and they are racist. Yeah. And they are bigots. And they have got to have people

Jimmy Carper 13:39

Yeah, people who are only can only be content, living among like minded people. Now, that in itself is not bad, because that's kind of what we do. We're here in the Montrose. But, but we we celebrated diversity in in people's lifestyles and people's background, their ethnicity, ethnicity,

R Roy 14:04
ethnicity, yes.

J Jimmy Carper 14:08
My lips aren't working tonight. It must been something I did earlier. I don't know. I've never heard that before. But no. See, one of the things in the gay community is that we are so diverse and we do come from so many different backgrounds. There are liberals there are conservatives, there are lesbians, there's all these different groups within we are a very open and very accepting society. People and when we when I was doing security at that, at that complex, the other gays were still accepting of I mean, here these guys that are dying of AIDS, and they're still it didn't bother them they were accepting of these nasty skinheads. Wow. And that's just our nature. That's, I think it is. I think it is. Yeah. We we like to be around like minded people. But we're open to anybody.

R Roy 14:13

J Jimmy Carper 15:07
That's right. There was dirty once though. Oh, what did they say? We don't turn the cheek anymore.

R Roy 15:15
You can, you can mess with the jack but don't we? That's right.

J Jimmy Carper 15:20
That's exactly right. But this is disturbing. I don't like seeing it.

R Roy 15:28
Yes. Especially after what has happened out in Oklahoma? Yeah,

J Jimmy Carper 15:32
I think because of that everybody's kind of, like, looking over their shoulder. Now, we've got to be well, I hate to say but we've got to do the same thing was around six months ago. We just either didn't pay it enough attention or, or something true. And one of the problems with this is that their hatred is like a festering zit, or pimple and it just gets bigger and bigger, until finally one day that hatred explodes. And they take action they take, whether it's blowing up a bar in Washington state, or blowing up a building in Oklahoma City, or what have you. You've got it. I've always said this, if a person can say it, then they can do it. Yeah, that's true. And given enough time, for this hatred to fester. And for this bigotry to eat away like a cancer. It will manifest itself in physical action. And what I want to say about that is there is a way to counteract that. Yes, the way to counteract that is not through violence. It is not through bigotry, it is not through hatred or segregation. It is through education,

R

Roy 15:49

J

Jimmy Carper 17:02

oh yes.

R

Roy 17:04

explaining to people who we are and who we are as a country, as a nation, and why America is so special.

J

Jimmy Carper 17:16

We are special from all other countries. There's no other country in the world that has the diversity that we have. And that's because of what's written on the base of the Statue of Liberty, give me your tired your poor will take everyone and believe his name is Robert Meltzer, who is the head of the National Socialist white workers union, then the National Head of it. He was just on television a few weeks, this past week. And one of the things that these Nazis love to say, is to bring back a Christian America.

R

Roy 17:29

J

Jimmy Carper 17:53

What do you mean, bring it back? Yes, this country was founded on not only personal diversity, but religious diversity, too.

R

Roy 18:06

Exactly. And then religious diversity was the reason why the Pilgrims came here in the first place. That's right. Because of persecution, persecution in Europe,

J Jimmy Carper 18:15

R Roy 18:19
political and religious persecution, and these Nazis. Absolutely. These Nazis, these militias and whatnot have absolutely no idea. They have no understanding. And I think we need to educate people as to why we are, who we are. And all this this hatred, and you know,

J Jimmy Carper 18:48
that's part of what this show was about,

R Roy 18:50
you know, and as gay people, we've been the targets. And we're going to continue being targets.

J Jimmy Carper 18:58
I think we always will be we just have to, and we just, we just have to educate as much as we can to other people and you see it loosening up because the more a person, you know, if you know a quicker than all of a sudden, it's not this big mystery. Mysterious bugaboo.

R Roy 19:18
True. While there was just this recent article in this week's Texas triangle, when Ms. Garcia Yeah. Lesbian Gay Rights Law lobby was talking to some of the state representatives of the little No, nothing. Senate, state senate district in Texas, and some of them would, would tell me, there are no gays that didn't know gays in my district. There's gaze on every district true. And this last March and Austin proved it. Sure. And so we've got to educate people is that we are there because she was saying Something like 25% of the people marching in Austin came from small towns, right. A small town. They Yeah, Tyler Yeah. Little tiny, Podunk towns.

J Jimmy Carper 19:59

R Roy 20:11
...

Very true.

 Jimmy Carper 20:12

And we're everywhere.

 Roy 20:14

And that's why we're here and we are queer. Oh, yes. I sold your line.

 Jimmy Carper 20:20

That's that's a buddy and Jimmy line. Yeah, I know. Back to music, you're listening to a special three hour version of gay and lesbian and bisexual and transgendered music. And I just did some of the old stuff and some romanovski and Phillips and now I'm gonna kind of liven it up and get to some dancy stuff. Beginning with the late great national. Gay and Lesbian treasure. Sylvester Are you ready? Ooh, we got Q patrol here. And it's report time you're listening to after hours queer radio with attitude and with me I have. Yeah, Jane. Ah. From Q Patrol. Yeah, what's going on out there?

 21:16

Not much. Nice. Nice, quiet little night out there. Everybody's out there having fun. That's what we'd like to hear. Yeah, and any suspicious cars or anything like that?

 Jimmy Carper 21:21

 21:28

Nothing. And i Wow, great. The only thing we got we got this one guy that lost his girlfriend out over by Heaven. New ager been thrown out of the bar a couple of times for bad gay bashing people inside the club. So that takes a lot of guts. It takes a lot of guts to actually go inside heavens. Trying to buy someone inside heavens and not to expect to be bounced off. Oh.

 Jimmy Carper 21:59

my God. Poor guy probably had too much to drink.

 22:03

And it's hard to say with him. From what I was told tonight, it was his like, second or third time of being rejected.

 Jimmy Carper 22:10

Yeah. So you've got a raffle coming up. Q patrol

 22:17
