But oh, I mean, I'm sure they're very I'm sure whichever song hatches decided to play tonight is very good. I certainly haven't heard the whole album. Okay.

J Jason 03:48

Hi. Anyway,

J

Jimmy Carper 03:50

now let's start at the beginning. That question I asked. Because I always say had kids, and I've heard members from hatch saying why not kids? Just say hatch. hatchling, actually hatchlings. hatchlings is a very accepted term.

J

Jason 03:58

J

Jimmy Carper 04:06

What if somebody's not in hatch?

∅

04:09

Then they're not ager. They're not a hatchling. They may be kids, though.

∅

04:11

J

Jason 04:13

Kids. That could be teenagers. It could be young adults, or young adults.

∅

04:15

J

Jason 04:17

I don't like

∅

04:19

the word for that though. Chicken.

04:27

Yeah, hey,

Jason 04:28

I'm proud to be a poultry family. Okay. Youth is a disease. I do not want to get over quickly. You will. I know I will. But I don't want to admit it.

04:41

I know Jimmy how fast doesn't fade it Well,

Jimmy Carper 04:44

for me. It took a long time.

04:46

It faded so fast.

Jimmy Carper 04:49

I got a great compliment the other day. We won't go into that. Oh, no, let's that's it now. Anyway.

04:56

They went over that they said you look now today over 70 Sometimes that. Oh,

Jason 05:00

you are better for that one. Yes. Well, when you just snap your fingers and say not a day over 69 And don't you forget

05:04

Jason 05:09

69 What a good year.

05:12

So what's that? Oh,

05:13

okay, well we sorry it was running in late I had yes I noticed this claim some stuff from the apartment and was listening to messages of people who said they had one of our people had some early community service to do and this evening here, okay, listen on the other side we had, there's something I want to bring up and it concerns you, Scott. Okay. Because you are in transition right now.

Jimmy Carper 05:33

05:40

Yes, I am.

05:42

About to become a woman

05:46

Well, I've always been more of a lesbian you

Jimmy Carper 05:48

Glen Holt has just arrived. Studio and I think he are walking there and let the hatch kids see.

05:55

Ya already saw

Jason 06:00

my virgin eyes, closed them.

06:03

Assemblies of all things.

06:07

I don't get to see that a lot.

06:11

I went to the the pet

06:14

play party. Well, I bet you Whoa.

06:18

You should have seen Sarah dipalma. Oh, she was dressed. Oh,

Jimmy Carper 06:21

I've seen Sarah. Was she in the black lace number? No, this was pink. Oh, really? Lots of layers of pink taffeta. Wow. Yeah, it was it was a good picture. Camera. Of course you did anyone take a picture of you know what? People psychotic?

06:24

06:35

06:40

Jason 06:42

Well, there, there's

J Jimmy Carper 06:43

I'm glad hold is wearing a mesh jock strap, okay.

♂ 06:47

A leather mesh jock strap.

J Jimmy Carper 06:51

And it's fabulous. Anyway, where I where you are in transition Scott. I'm not the only one going from a hatchling to, to an adult. As a matter of fact. Oh, thank you. And then and well speak the devil. And on this out the window, look out the window.

♂ 07:09

J Jimmy Carper 07:15

And on this show, you're gonna be kind of the coordinator. Yeah. And in a couple of years, you're probably going to be doing other things.

♂ 07:26

There's an article that I've read in SBC. It's a black gay publication. And it's talking about a facilitator to T two teams.

J Jimmy Carper 07:41

And he was kind of shocked because all of the members were out. And when he was a teenager that just wasn't that wasn't done. And his feelings of it is this was supposed to. This is I'm quoting, this is supposed to be a group of kids who were like me when I was a kid, kids who were in the closet, kids had bass who had basic gay issues. They were supposed to talk about noticing that they liked kids of the same sex. They were supposed to be dealing with someone finding them out. I was supposed to tell them what to do if their parents or friends suspected something. I was supposed to feel good here. I was supposed to feel good about taking time out from my busy life to help them. I was supposed to feel like a so called adult. Yet here I was helpless, helpless as a baby. Because he wasn't. He wasn't really dealing with them. You know, it's difficult to help out a younger crowd who's experiencing something completely different from you. So which is I think, still pretty much the case. Facilitator How do you do? How do ya how can you be a facilitator that way?

08:34

J Jimmy Carper 08:47

08:53

I'm not really sure this one had to go in therapy for a couple of months. I couldn't even really even put myself in those shoes. Even if I did go. If I do go back to hatch and facilitate there and a couple years, I still won't have quite the same experience he did because I was pretty much out. For most of my teen years. Actually, we do we fill up was on the edge of our generation. I mean, we take facilitators all the way down to 24. So we're not necessarily dealing with that big of a difference. Will and Jimmy's looking at the pink taffeta and we just can't stop staring.

J Jason 09:17

09:36

J Jason 09:40

We're just awestruck over the 09:42

lovely Sarah. We have 09:44

to we have to interrupt here. Sarah dipalma has come in from a party and she has on a pink taffeta maid's outfit. It's fabulous. Just yeah, it just works and Laurie is in red lace and leather and red leather. Oh, 10:01

my God, it's the main and Miss Scarlet

J Jimmy Carper 10:04

came from the PAP party. Oh, boy, we talked about that, Nathaniel, and we'll be talking more about that later. We have a man out in the lobby who will be talking about PAP and other things. Yes. Okay, back to hatch. Well, where were we?

10:25

We were talking about the facilitators. Yes, relating to the youth. We, we take it all the way down to 24. So we're not necessarily Phillip just recently left us to go to Boston. And I think he was actually the youngest facilitator we had, yeah, but he could, he could very well, for the most part relate to us.

J Jason 10:31

10:45

I mean, the most of them that have already. I mean, after Philip left, we've got a lot more facilitators, most of them are of an older crowd. And there are a couple younger ones are a couple younger, older meaning

10:53

J Jason 10:57

of a different generation, we'll just put it that almost

J Jimmy Carper 10:59

my age, some of them really, yeah. And they range in age from, like, 30 to 50, I think, you know, and all of these people have different experiences of their own coming out. And sometimes it's really difficult when you're in your 40s, or your 50s. And coming out was a very personal thing and your 30s to do and you would never think about doing that in a teenage, as a teenager. And and to think that teenagers are coming out, it's hard. How can I help these people? How can I help these folks? Because I think the best the experience,

J Jason 11:33

I think the best way to really relate to it, though, would be to kind of, you know, take your your experience of coming out in your 30s Back it up, you know, to when you were still living at home. And I that seems to work it. Yeah. Try to relate it that for the most part, though, I don't think it really becomes that big of an issue at hatch. The answer actually is it's not about the facilitator.

 J Jimmy Carper 11:51

 11:56

That's right. That's right. It's not about the facilitators coming out. Right. And the facilitator is there to help the hatchlings, right, whatever stage they're in. And if it's just to be an ear, that usually the best way to facilitate a youth group, or any support group is to just listen, because most people just want to be just want to have heard what they have to say.

 J Jimmy Carper 12:00

 12:10

 12:25

And is that what happens? Yeah.

 12:29

Especially in the small 12:30 group 947.

 12:34

And the small group portion of our of our meetings on Fridays, usually, just about everybody is given a chance to talk if they want. And when someone starts taking up too much time, we have to say, you know, we respect the difficulty you're going through, but there are other people who have issues they want to bring up. But they do say it very nicely. Actually, they usually ask, Well, we haven't heard from you lately. Do you have anything to discuss? And if sometimes if there's nobody else that has anything to discuss, right? And then serious issue, usually what they'll do is they'll say we'll talk about this after if you can stay for somebody who's really troubled if they really had a problem, then usually what other facilitators will do is put them aside. Usually, you know, during, you know, they'll go out of the meetings and talk or after the meetings, one or the other.

J

Jason 12:51

13:00

What about talking with other hats?

13:20

Well, that's the other thing is there are occasions where you know, where somebody has approached me and said, you know, so and so's having a rough time when y'all go to coffee, Can y'all because we usually do there's usually a couple big groups that go out and go hang out after the meetings and they said, Well, why don't why don't you talk to them for a little while

J

Jimmy Carper 13:36

and you are Tigger Miss Congeniality? Yeah.

♂

13:39

I'm a social

♂

13:41

justice. But Michelle just brought to Michelle Meyers, that Hatch has a nice little spot in the Houston gay Yellow Pages on page 288 are also listed in the regular phonebook and information if anybody has ever had a Yellow Pages. Yes, sir.

J

Jason 13:56

J Jimmy Carper 14:02

How's it done in the regular phonebook?

J Jason 14:04

Because under hatch

14:08

area, is it links?

J Jimmy Carper 14:10

I know I understand, but that's an acronym. So is it under Houston area? Or is it just like in the beginning of the H's or what? I don't know what Michelle was gonna do some research right now. Work at this very moment. For those who don't want to look at the phone number right now. Here it is. For those who don't want to pay for 411. Here is the number at 713-942-7002 to voicemail system so don't be intimidated when there's not a warm body on the other airline to answer it will be later.

J Jason 14:18

14:31

14:48

But under your your 14:51 discretion. Yes, you leave and it will be

J Jason 14:54

a US it will be a youth that calls back so as not to arouse suspicion family and They won't say I'm calling from the Houston gay youth group for your child.

15:00

J Jason 15:03

We are we are very discreet. When we return calls are like, okay friend you go to school with or some sobriety.

15:09

15:11

Okay and we just had to get that out there gay youth in issues this week we are talking about sexual etiquette and behavior and oh boy yeah. Or at least we're broaching the topic? Well, you know, I think it's been created. I don't think there's been a sexual etiquette before.

J Jimmy Carper 15:23

J Jason 15:30

I think it is very important. It is a very important topic to discuss now. Because a lot of it is sort of, I think, modeled after the sexual advocate of the older generation. But there's a lot more with hardly conservative thought will hardly had one I'll tell you, right, we are we are becoming a bit more conservative. We are a bit more conservative than the previous generation being raised in a generation where we've experienced nothing but HIV. And that's right. Yeah, I think a lot you've ever known anything but Well, no, I think what happened was in the 80s, we had a great scare. And then a lot of people kind of realized what was going on. And that helped in our sexual etiquette, too, if you want to say better ourselves, and promiscuity from the old times really died off right when that big scare came. No, it didn't. I wouldn't, I wouldn't. It didn't. It didn't. But then I wouldn't say a lot of people just kind of why. Maybe in the youth it did. Because we hadn't really well. That's what I'm talking about. I wouldn't I actually wouldn't say promiscuity died off at all. Even in the youth. I would say that safe sex has become a very big issue, though. Not as big as it should be. Well, safer sex. I was I was corrected several times the other night, I don't remember who I was talking to. But I kept on saying safe sex safe sex. And I each time Oh, it was that I was at a panel talking to a bunch of doctors up at Baylor. And I kept on being corrected. It's safer sex. It's not safe sex.

15:33

15:43

15:46

J Jason 15:50

J

Jimmy Carper 15:54

15:58

♂

J

Jason 16:26

♂

16:55

The only safe sex is no sex or your hand. That's just not as good.

J

Jimmy Carper 17:00

Oh, I know. I know. But I was kind of worried about that. We were talking about that earlier. Right.

♂

17:08

I don't know. I'll ask Keith when I see him.

17:12

Kurt, but seems to be a lot more movement towards relationships in gay youth because I think there was kind of a big move towards the relationship ideal. Okay,

J

Jimmy Carper 17:22

what we were worrying last 10 years is that that there's been so much about sexual negativity. And we want to promote positive sexuality. Yeah.

17:38

Oh, okay. I just got where you were talking what you were talking about. I couldn't make a connection or anything.

J

Jimmy Carper 17:44

You know, there's so many there's been books written here like Mike, Mike Michelangelo's senior rallies book and several others about, about how we should be sexual, sexually conservative. And why? And that's, that's my point. Why? Yeah, you know, if if we know about safer sex, we can be promised? permission. Do you think it's a matter of

♂

♂

18:10

all of all the words that you might have trouble saying?

18:12

I really do. I think there's anything else? Excuse me, I think it's a matter of the person themselves, if that's what they want to do. You know, if you want to be conservative, you're going to be conservative. What's your view? I understand our generation of the gay population in general, though, is a bit more conservative. Yeah, I wouldn't say go out, you know, and you can't simply say, Well, if you're going to be a slug, just be proud. And it's okay. Because most people are going to try and read look down on you. I would say that there's a lot as far as the people I know, it hatch, and a lot of the gay youth I know there has become a lot less tricking and a lot more of working on getting a relationship

J

Jason 18:41

KNOW, THERE HAS BECOME A LOT LESS CHECKING, AND A LOT MORE OF WORKING ON GETTING A RELATIONSHIP DATING.

18:55

However, they were in that transitional period of serial monogamy. Which thing and gay youth? Oh, yeah. Date one person for maybe a month or two. Having sex with them in the process? Yeah. Break up. And then you find somebody else some but we did weekly.

19:10

We did have a lease they're dating.

Jimmy Carper 19:13

I don't think that that I think that's a team thing. I don't think that's a thing. Well, no, no, no, I'm saying it's part of our youth. thing right here. I'm not saying it's the the older generation. I'm saying it's

19:21

Jason 19:31

it's, I don't see. I don't see that big of a problem with serial monogamy. Because we did have a discussion on this. When we decided to do this topic. That was our topic for the night at hatch. And I forget what it was read out of, but we were for some reason. I always mentioned that we ought to start modeling our relationships after lesbian.

19:51

It was in psychology this in your la book. Yeah, we should start modeling our relationships after lesbians, not necessarily A lifetime partner, but fewer partners, but for the partners, because you're just limiting your sexual partners, and by limiting your sexual partners, you're lowering your transmission of any STDs.

Jason 19:55

Jimmy Carper 20:11

But isn't serial monogamy, a form of promiscuity? Yeah,

J

Jason 20:16

it is a form. But when you think it's promiscuity, but instead of a one night stand, it's a one month stand, right?

♂

20:18

J

Jason 20:22

Yeah. So instead of instead of 31 nightstands in a month, you have one month long stand. So you know, instead of, you know, maybe 3040 partners in the year, you have to we're talking, you know, yeah, six or 12 complaints, we just use different names.

♂

20:36

20:41

But the danger in that it sounds better. Thank you. The danger in that is that a lot of the people that I know who are basically serial monogamists will look down at people who go to the bars and pick somebody up. Off Yeah, you know, about as often as would be necessary for the sermon and not monogamous and the sort of tricking person to have the same amount of partners in a month. You know, they'll look at the person go into the clubs and say, You need to correct your behavior. And then that's the thing is the only difference there is that one is dating their trick. The other one is not

J

Jimmy Carper 21:15

I think what eight has taught the gay can gay man. Is that we should date. Actually, we never dated before.

21:25

No, usually the first date consisted of movie on the couch and sex afterwards. Yes.

J

Jimmy Carper 21:30

It order on. It was lost. Yeah. And then you find out if you like this person. And a lot of times it's like, oh, I can't believe I slept with that one.

J

Jason 21:41

I do think speaking from personal experience, because I've I'm, I'm one of the people who doesn't generally have sex outside of a relationship. And so sorry. I think I think it is really a good thing, though, to get shot down. I think it really is a good thing to get to know other people. And I've never had sex on a first date. And I've tried to get to know if I'm talking to brick wall before.

o

Yeah.

o

22:09

I've walked both roads and had sex before the first date. And yeah, if you're looking for an actual relationship, it's best just to put off the sex and actually get to know the person because I always wanted to or not sex will mess things up.

J

Jason 22:24

Okay. And let me make sure that I'm not missing understood. I'm not putting anyone down. I think now, whatever. Whatever you choose is your choice. I mean, whatever you where

o

22:33

you want to live, you're happy being the way you are. Well, it's really

J

Jason 22:37

I actually that. Tonight, I was talking to somebody on the street, and he said, I'm just a street person. And somebody else said just a street person. He said, Yeah, I may just be just a street person, but at least I'm happy. And that brings up you know, it's very important that they are just happy.

o

Okay, I gotta I just gotta throw this in here. You guys have have got to appreciate the fact that not not only your your you see, okay, let me see if I can say this, right, you see that? You see it as your rules are changing. As far as as how dating in high school can go. There was no dating. That's what I'm trying to say. There was no when I was in high school, which was not nearly as long ago as you were in high school, but kind of in the middle between me I graduated I graduated in 80. Okay, but um, there was there wasn't dating in high school. If you if you did have sex, it was it was something that was snuck entirely. Nobody else knew about it. It's more

23:40

sounds like my experience is in the boy scouts.

J Jimmy Carper 23:42

So So what we're saying is just go there. What we're saying is you are developing a new etiquette. Yeah, yeah. But are we really developing it? Or are we modeling it after?

J Jason 23:49

23:53

I think we're doing both? I think we're doing actually a mixture of both. We take some of the old but yeah, we've combined a little bit of our new and then, you know, like we were changing words about promiscuity that was probably from the old we just changed the words around. And yet, you know, still, I think we're still evolving into a different culture from what was the old? And what is the new, the new, we don't know, it's still evolved.

J Jason 24:18

I do think that we are the ones writing and making it right now. Because it's like you were discussing earlier about, you know, we were discussing in the room over there about how people are coming out younger and younger. And I think that since since people are realizing their sexuality younger and younger, I think we are making up our own culture as we go along. Absolutely.

24:42

It's there's a book that I read that reminds me a lot of this called forgetting Elena. It's the first book that Edmund white published,

J

Jimmy Carper 24:49

I know and I've read that and I just had no idea what it was about.

24:52

The gay youth culture seems to be a lot like the culture I saw on that island where there are rules rules that you have to follow. No questions asked, but nobody's really quite sure what the rules are until they get made up. That's right. And so who are the people who make the rule? We're gonna be? Is it going to be you? Or is it going to be Michelangelo's? Signorelli?

J

Jimmy Carper 25:06

25:14

No, it's going to be you and the person you're involved with.

J

Jason 25:19

Think it's us as a collective, I think it's the youth as a general has the same skill they're bound to there will,

♀

25:23

J

Jimmy Carper 25:26

there will be a peer pressure? Oh, of course, because there was one right and I was right. And it was not dating, it was just so that's why it's a collective because now it's almost that there's a peer pressure to date, and not to have sex on the first date. There is almost a peer pressure. It really depends, though, because there are some times where you get in a group where it is, you know, when you start dating, you do have sex, and then it's, sometimes it's more who you are with it you know who you hang out with who you associate yourself with drop the last round

J

Jason 25:36

With it, you know, who you hang out with, who you associate yourself with drop the last you, exactly. It's the same thing. Some get, you know, even in clubs, when you go there, some people have their little clique forms, and they form and in those clicks, they will only allow a certain people in them, and you know, they'll only date to certain people and things like that. And, you know, that is what drives me crazy about culture. Yes. I mean, I mean, that's such a narrow tunnel vision. It is, but it's it, it's there.

♀ 26:18

J Jason 26:20

I think everybody's in a way guilty of it, though. I think, everyone, I think there's always going to be people that you you just see and you're like, No, I can't talk to that person or, you know, whether it be you think they're too good for you, or you think you're too You're a lot better than that you have closed yourself off to so much of humanity.

J Jimmy Carper 26:35

♀ 26:38

I just, I just gotta say this about that. Okay. I'm, I'm still to this day, at 35. And bad at that. It seems somebody who I who I think, Oh, well, they're, they're not good enough for me. I'm not even gonna bother. And you know what, I didn't say it the other way. Just which way? They're too pretty. I can't approach them. Yeah.

J Jimmy Carper 26:57

♀ 27:04

I've heard I remember, I was watching a talk show actually, a couple of months ago, where it was like, I mean, they're really, really, really like model figure, type of people that were, you know, really attractive. And they didn't have any dates or anything. And the reason why was everybody thought they were either married or they had somebody who was just like thinking, you know, the extremely pretty girl in high school who doesn't have a date to the prom, or everyone already assumed she had a date,

J

Jason 27:19

J

Jimmy Carper 27:25

or they're too late. I could never ask her she would never go out with me, right?

27:29

You know what, it's nothing more than just. And it sounds so basic and simple and stupid is probably the face the fear. I mean, when you when you got something like that, that you're afraid of just face the fear and realize that the worst that they're going to do is go.

♂

27:46

I don't think so.

J

Jason 27:52

When you're when you're a youth, though, when you're a youth, though, that can have a really big effect on you. But

♂

27:58

But you guys, you guys have got enough of a support system. That that you've got something to fall back on.

28:07

See we do we do now. But I mean, there's some people out there that don't right, so they're still going through it. Yeah. And

J

Jimmy Carper 28:14

this is a personal thing to no matter how you know how many close friends you have as an adult? Right when we were talking about sexual etiquette, I mean, to me, sexual etiquette is a personal

♂

28:19
