imagine a world in which millions of people are at the mercy of a small band of extremists in which works of art are subjected to government censorship, and freedom of expression is a crime. Now stop imagining Welcome to America 1990. This is calling you Hearst. As an actress I'm terrified by what is happening in our country today. extremists like Jerry Falwell, Pat Robertson and Senator Jesse Helms are trying to destroy freedom of expression for their own political and personal needs. And since this freedom is so powerfully demonstrated in the arts, they especially want to silence the artist. That's why they're determined to restrict the National Endowment for the Arts that an organization that supports artists all across America. We must fight back. Please call or write to your member of Congress today. Because silence for the arts is silence for America to come down from the sky. brush the teeth from your your is China. Any case spa Paul. Well, hello neighbor. This is evangelist Jimmy Swaggart and once again, you are tuned to the camp meeting hour. You know when I when I say that a thrill comes through me because you If the Lord bless his something, and if he touches something, well, I know it's going to help you. And the Spirit of God is well, it's something that's totally different than anything that's in this world today. I've seen the time that I needed to pray and so heavy laden with problems that I just felt like I couldn't go on. And then all of a sudden, the Spirit of God would come home and it just seemed like everything would vanish. Some of you know exactly what I'm talking about. Say I want to say one word. Right now, this last two weeks, we've offered three albums, far the unheard of gift of just $8 or more, if you could give a little more we'd appreciate it. But we've done this because so many folks can afford the higher prices and these records have been such a blessing to so many people. And just today and tomorrow we will offer them and whatever you do take advantage of this if you give it for birthday gifts, or the set of three albums, it has our greatest songs on the mouthfeel some golden Daybreak is one of the albums and I've got nothing to lose as another one and then you don't need to understand the you don't need to understand I think is one of the greatest we've ever made. I want to sing a song from it right now girl called when I go to the channel.

21:11

Okay, let's Treasury's Sheila.

21:12

Ladies and gentlemen, we did another miracle if I can look at that clock. Ladies and gentlemen, we need help. The storm is rising, folks are getting the state that is going to escape your house. It's not the storm is rising. And there's some people say well, I'll get raptured for we got any problems don't believe that either. It isn't going to happen. I believe in a rapture. But I don't believe in it just because trouble is gonna start and you will get out of it. This land is in trouble. We have shown persecution against Christians, we've shown the deliberate reduction of your civil rights. We have shown techniques in the media that have been used to inflame people against Christian values. We have shown the rise if you will of vile, filthy language in the various types of music and painting and so forth. We have shown the incredible lobby and the rise of homosexuality of the gay lesbians as a political, well funded political force that is having incredible impact on the laws of our states, the laws of our cities in the election of offices. We have at least two acknowledged homosexuals in the House of Representatives and perhaps many more than a quote in the closet. But the the things that are going on that have been uncovered, there was a homosexual ring working in Washington that implicated some very high level people. One of the people were said to be taking tours to the White House at 12 o'clock. Connections. There are so many that's my favorite line,

23:04

no sex until marriage and then this jerk is caught. Had a cheap hotel. He doesn't even take him to a hotel. He is cheap. Okay, now Mama's running around his car naked.

23:07

23:16

I know.

23:18

We're talking about Jimmy Swaggart. Did you see the killer in the Houston Post today? So remember, third. Atwater? Lee Atwater, the Republican whiz kid Yeah. At water turns to the Lord. For what? After cancer diagnosis. Lee Atwater, who is accused of negative campaigning, as the head of George Bush's presidential campaign said he's turned to Jesus after being diagnosed with cancer.

23:45

Didn't we have some guy do that a few years ago and thought hang on Jesus.

23:48

It's that simple. And he's made a difference in my life. Okay, Mary, throw that away with all the rest of those lies.

24:11

One of the best things we do on this show is bitch, and make you mad about what happens in the world around we do right make you think about it. And we saw this video on Houston public access called Todd's greatest regret. And there's a gentleman who lives here in Montrose, right? Y'all gotta scoot up here, girl ready? Oh, there's a gentleman who lives in Montrose who sought to matter than we did.

24:41

24:46

And he had his friend tech Wilson come to his aid or to his support. And they just produced something called the minister Mike Show, which we've been talking about a lot over the last couple of weeks, sure, which I saw part of on access Houston. We might ask him about that later. Which we're going to hear here in about 25 minutes here, here here. You were talking to Mike. Michael

25:14

Michael Morrow and tick Wilson.

25:16

Thank you lovely tech from civil service. Yeah. Hey, welcome to after hours.

25:21

Thank you for being here. Tech, we play your your guys, you guys. Civil Service stuff all the 25:28

25:24

time on the show. You're just as sick as we are.

25:31

Thank you. Praise God. Mike, Michael, you saw this video, Todd's greatest reads

25:36

Yeah, I caught it. Late one night, I was just flipping through channels on on cable, and came across this. Todd, they were interviewing him, he probably weighed about 80 pounds was covered in Ks. And he was looking at the camera quite blankly, expressing that he had accepted Jesus as his Savior, then they cut to his mother. And I think the most horrifying thing in the program is that she here she's one of those Bible thumping, you know, East Texas people had a homosexual son never could deal with it. And basically, what she said was that if it was down to her son always being a homosexual, she would just assume he died of AIDS. And I mean, that's what public access is for, right for everybody to express her opinion. But it just blew me away. I was so angry about it. And you know, like all of us, we've, we've, we've all lost so many friends. And to hear these people exploiting this, this, this young man, like they did to make their Christian point.

26:54

But rather than then get excited and are angry and yell and scream at the cable company, you guys actually did something. Right, right.

27:01

Well, I think, originally, I was going to scream and shout. And in fact, I started writing a letter. And I realized, you know, I just envisioned these women reading my letter, and I could see them all getting down on their knees and praying for me, we get those letters all the time. You cannot, you cannot, you can't reason with that type of mentality. We all know that you can't even argue with that type of mentality, you get nowhere. So you might as well just make fun of them. And maybe if if you can do that, maybe they can see themselves a little bit. And that's how we chose to deal with it. And had a great time creating it and putting it together. In the meantime, the the radio adaptation that we're going to hear in a few minutes was produced by civil service. That's right by you guys for civil service. How did you get involved with Michael and, and the whole thing,

27:45

27:57

Michael and I have been friends for a long time, we had not collaborated on anything of this nature until now. But I think we always knew that we shared a common viewpoint, Jesus. Thank you, Michael. And we, we've had a lot in common and just you know, a chemistry that's worked as friends. When this came up, it really brought a new dynamic to our friendship. And it's really been wonderful. It's the whole thing is just sort of unfolded one day at a time one step at a time, from the very beginning. Well, it came from an idea that Mike had and I guess I got in on it pretty early in the project. But I always have to say that I really think that he's the heart of this project. We'd like to see it go on and on and, and take and take on other issues besides this. But I really I really think it is although it's been a true collaboration in the best sense of the word.

28:57

Jimmy Can you tell our kids listening what KS is because we talked about this video and they might not understand what ks kappa see sarcoma is a cancer. That is that a lot of AIDS patients get, which looks like little purplish splotches that kind of grow and grow and grow on your physically it looks awful. Yeah. I mean, you know, we're such a society that has this deep bedded thought that we have to look beautiful, especially gay may well, it usually happens to very, very old men. When their natural immune system starts breaking down, but because people have AIDS, no, no, no, right?

29:04

29:19

29:30

29:44

It's just that it's become more prevalent, and no one has ever died of it before aids. I mean, they just kind of had it and most of the men would kind of die of old age before they would actually die if the Ks just you guys saw. So you saw Todd's greatest yet I have it on video. What's so interesting about it is if you, you know, you have to sort of read between the lines on the program. Here Todd has, they're so proud of the fact that Todd accepted Christ as his Savior. But you know, what they tell the story about is about his his life that he went to New York City lived as a swinger, I think is one of them refers to him, you know, lives lives, his homosexual lifestyle, but he comes back when he gets aids. If you read between the lines, I think, you know, he had nowhere to go, you know, here he was living in New York probably had no health insurance, no money, he finds out, you know, the diagnosis is that he has AIDS. He has no one to turn to except his fundamentalist Bible thumping Mother, you know, what, what did they expect him to do? I mean, if it was accepting Christ, or saying that he accepted Christ in order to, to have a bed to sleep and to have somebody to take care of him.

29:46

31:06

It is a very sad story at the point that we're gonna see him. He's, he's very isolated. And of course, he's emaciated and, and ill, and totally dependent upon these people around him. They've isolated him, they've refused to grant him the comfort of these friendships, and they send away any gift that might be sent to him. We've seen that so many times.

31:30

31:32

And sometimes at that stage of the disease, you just don't know what you're saying, right is what made me angry in this video, he has coached so much right to say the things that they want him to say their scriptures taped on the wall by his bed. And what really angered me the most is that these three women in the program, pat each other on the back about what wonderful, humble, selfless Christians they are, and the whole program was about them. The mother talks about her son's illness, and there's this great conflict that she's experiencing. Because if she takes her son in her friends might reject her. She mentioned that she has grandchildren from another one of her children has, she has grandchildren and that if she takes care of sick Todd, that then she can't be around the grandchildren. So there's this misinformation about the AIDS virus that just being around somebody that that you can catch the disease. Another one, Linda, actually you got we based your character's name on only the character's name. Linda Haddix is the one who actually did the saving of Todd she ministered to her she Minister she has a ministering preference for homosexuals which she she lets us know he literally casts herself in the role of Jesus Christ. She describes herself as Jesus as she says, I walked through that door or Jesus walked through that door in the person of Linda had Hicks and ministered to Todd and how many times did she tell us? Graphically? You know what she did for him? How many times do we hear that she changed his diapers. And of course this is this is not pleasant. And you know, but she's horrifying herself for doing this.

31:43

33:00

33:37

11 33:32

As a as a woman, how do you think a woman could do this to her child? I mean, do you think this woman is so blind? You know, what is so interesting about this, to me is that, although the mother says the most shocking things, and I guess you could say the meanest things about her son's situation, to me, she does not seem like the real villain of this piece. She seems like a totally misguided woman. It's the it's the narrator and Linda who ministered to him that really seemed totally self serving. In this sense. The mother did not strike me that way. Although she seemed very misguided, or maybe a lot of peer pressure. Well, they're victimized themselves they they come from, from East Texas, fundamentalist Christianity. They're raised that way. How many people do you meet today that appear to be very progressive minded people and you push a couple of buttons and these old fundamentalist were all up or all sorts of victimized by that 34:42

 33:39

 34:15

 34:17

or either you raised in church or active in church or I was raised in the Catholic faith. I come from a small town in Texas and I certainly have access to this mentality. Right, exactly.

 34:45

 34:54

My parents dropped me off in Sunday school. When I was a kid. That was the only time of the week they could have sex. And so it basically it served as a babysitting service. And I owe our church. Well, it was the Bel Air Presbyterian Church here in Houston. And all I remember from that is coloring, little pictures of Jesus. And I praise

 35:15

God.

35:16

Well, and you sure are good artists. To this day, so you had a lot of fun. Stick with we had a blast. In this video. Yeah, we did, especially putting those wigs on.

35:23

35:32

Michael and I walked around for about three weeks mirrors, and called each other on the phone every day, several times a day, and just giggled and we wondered the whole time, if anyone besides us when we were worried about we, we hope that other people would find it as funny as we did. We went to see Ron romanovski and Philips last night, and I rushed home in order to see it in 11. I was kind of disappointed, because the very beginning wasn't there. Yeah, I knew the beginning wasn't there, because I heard the beginning on the on the team that too later on civil service probably has a little shock value does. And we were a little disappointed about.

35:45

35:51

36:09

36:14

Do you think maybe something's going on? We're 36:15

gonna find out. We 36:17

definitely have a bone to pick with public access. Yeah, either. They're incompetent or they don't like the beginning of our video. We don't know what it is yet. But either way, we hope to have it rectified. It will be airing for the next several weeks.

36:30

You have and Nigel have some of the upcoming Yeah, we could 36:35

we could read you a list if you if you really wanted us. Sure. Tomorrow's

36:39

the Sunday, the next few 36:41

days. So Michael, what's your schedule for Sunday? The fourth, we are scheduled at 9:30pm. And again at 11. That is if they have it together and public access by that time. And then on Monday, we're at midnight on election day on Tuesday 1130 after everybody's either very happy or very disappointed. But enjoy middle mastermind of Clayton Williams wins. Mr. Michael put things in its proper perspective. He better not when I'm leaving. We'll stay here. We'll stay here make fun of him. Well, we'll have a lot of material. Go ahead. And new minister Mike program.

37:24

37:26

Oh, yeah. We've just finished a first draft of our next script, which deals with censorship. Jesse Helms, the NDA problem, a lot of lyrics censoring of the record industry now. And we'll be touching on all of those issues, which I think have probably touched on all of that in one way or another.

37:35

37:50

Will you have any way to get any of the feedback that they receive?

Will you have any way to get any of the feedback that they receive.

37:53

Or on public access? Yeah, well, what they told us is that if they receive phone calls, they have strict rules that they can't give out any numbers of of any of the producers, but they will take messages or take notes, or they take letters and forward letters, I guess. If we had talked about maybe putting a phone number at the end, so we could get some direct feedback. But you know, there's gonna be a lot of angry people out there that are gonna be very angry. To protect our, our privacy a little The reason being is that a lot of a lot of a large percentage of the garbage that's on public access is Christian garbage. Right. And I say that because I thought public access was for the public and not for the churches. And if it's public, maybe there should be a separation of well, it's just that they're dealing with taking advantage of exactly, you know, that's what's so sad. There's nothing airing. And, you know, it does cost a little money to put something together, but it's worth it. And I'm hoping I used to live in Los Angeles. Being that it's in LA a lot of people use public access. There's some very creative avant garde just weird stuff on that one on Houston public access, not much that you know, the way it is the fundamentalists are dealing with really using it out of the black community you're seeing a few more programs coming on that are that deal with black community issues.

38:25

38:42

39:22

My favorite is the preacher that stands in the fountain at the park and does the baptisms and yeah, but have you seen that cute one? Cute one it's called more excellent way thank you. And his wife is about 15 years older and they sit like Minister Mike and Linda do a sister and he just babbles on like an idiot but he's really cute

39:27

39:44

Listen child, they all they also like 39:50

you know, it's going to be interesting that we're finding you know, when we first finished this piece, we you know, we did a we did a screening at a nightclub For anybody who has seen it, they come in knowing that it's a satire, yes. When it starts on on public access, where a lot of these little Christian programs are airing that are real, people are gonna see it cold. Yeah. And we play it pretty straight. It's very realistic. And so we're thinking that, you know, God, what if we get people wanting to donate money?

40:20

Take it and use it for the next show. There you go.

40:24

But that's, it's gonna, you we're gonna wig out Houston. We're gonna, you know, it's gonna play for about two and a half weeks. And it's on it times where, you know, in the later evening when people are flipping channels, right, and you come across it, you hear homosexual, you're gonna stop on it. What the hell are these people talking? You know, why would Yeah.

40:45

So we're gonna listen to the minister Mike Shaw. I haven't heard the radio for just a second. We're gonna hear. Okay, okay. You're listening after hours on KPFT. And that let's all get down on our knees. Oh, Madonna.

40:59

In the position, please. And we'll be 41:01

back in just a second.

41:12

That's Madonna. And just like a prayer. We'll get you there. Minister Mike and the lovely Linda. We'll be back in just a second, right? You betcha. There's Harvey Milk.

41:26

The legislators and the executive offices be the the local supervisor did this statewide, run your life. They run your life or they spend your money when they collect tax money from gay people. And don't give us anything back and returned. Take it for their golf courses, take our tax money for their pet projects. And give us an interval that insult us by not giving us our rights. That's not motivation if you like being harassed by the police, if you like being a third class citizen, if you like being beat up by pugs, if you like the church yelling at you don't register don't vote. But don't complain. If you want to shove you be shoved back in your closet. If you want to be the traditional gay person who gets beat up and whip his home and say, Well, I'm gay and I deserve to get beat up. Otherwise, the only thing you could do is register to vote.

42:22

In Chile, 8 million people who want to vote in South Africa 25 million people who want to vote in the United States 81 million people who can vote don't democracy. It can't be of the people and for the people. If it's not by the people vote for God's sake child go vote Tuesday, or we're gonna have that hateful Republican as governor.

42:47

42:58

This is Vicki new president of the Texas gay Rodeo Association Houston chapter. Here to tell you the Texas rodeo is coming. So stay tuned after hours and KPFT.

43:08

Cowboys today's and the rodeo will be here Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the 43:15

Houston Coliseum.

43:39

Well Oh, I feel the spirit. Girl. That's not the spirit. Oh.

43:48

Is there a ghost?

43:51

It's the power of Jesus.

43:54

It's either that or instant karma.

43:56

Do you know why those people get so angry at us because we get all those hateful calls, where they call up and they say we're gonna pray for you. In fact, I got a little brochure on the story of Sodom and Gomorrah.

44:09

Well, that's educational.

44:11

Cartoons are awful. The story of sodomy where their anger comes from I think they're jealous because we have so much fun and they don't that's what I think I have a theory on the minister Mike show it's obvious that that he's a suppressed homosexual himself and that comes from I just believe the people that come down so hard on on gays. I think they have their own sexual demons and they don't know how to deal with it. And so they just they choose to suppress it themselves and so they are damn sure they're gonna lash out on anybody who who's having a good time having a good time.

44:17

44:51

44:53

We're getting ready to listen to the radio version of the minister my program produced by the Civil Service folk Starring the lovely Linda.

45:03

Linda had Hicks tuck had here and here.

45:07

Oh, yes, sir. Now, of course the righteous Minister Mike, at one point in the video and you can even hear it in your voice in the radio adaptation you sort of leave your character and become very angry about this program Todd's greatest revenge?

45:15

45:28

Well, it's it's it's one very serious moment. That is what originally inspired the minister Mike Show.

45:37

We will see ministry, Mike and Linda again.

45:40

Oh, yes, we hope that we hope that you will, Michael and I have a number of ideas for new scripts, we'd like to do other videos on on different subjects. And we have one that's in development right now. In fact, we have a first draft of it pretty well complete, and we're ready to dig in and take it apart and put it back together again, and one on censorship. As we mentioned before, this one deals with censorship. But we have other ideas on the back burner abortion racism.

46:07

46:09

There's so there's one on the 46:11

environment,

46:12

what we thought about what if there are people out here who are mechanically inclined or just interested in helping? Is there any way? Is there a production company? Or is there we've way anyone can get a hold of you to help out?

46:27

Well, we have production company, we just need bucks. We need sponsors, HBO, if you're listening?

46:36

No, we do. We do have a creative team. And that's not to say we're a closed operation by any means. But we do have a creative team in place. And so we're not actively looking for talent as such, but we're really open to the community. And we'd like to, we'd like to talk to just about anyone at this point. Our major obstacle right now is, is getting the money to produce again, then you can just write to administer Mike and Linden care of after hours or Yeah, be sure to get those letters to you.

47:03

47:10

That would be great. We would love some feedback.

47:12

Could you guys go out and find Minister Mike and Linden bring them back in a minute and let them take care of IDs.

47:19

I think they're on the sidewalk right now. See, that is how it's Saturday night and we are in the heart of Montrose. And they do there's much work to be done but we would like to invite them in to record a couple of promos for us while we're listening to this show. Do you think we can find that Yeah, I do have a twist their arm and off from you know cash value. They have a preference. They have a preference for ministering ministering to homosexuals. I bet you we can find them around the corner it mothers.

47:27

47:33

47:38

47:45

Well, we are homosexuals our very own sale we do this then. Well, do you feel that the time is 47:52

47:48

right horse it in? Its 47:55

intuitive.

47:57

And you're listening to after hours and we're getting ready to share with you the minister Mike programs show to the minister macho show, and it is a show and you can catch it today on ACCESS Houston at 930. And again at 11pm.

48:18

Yeah, and the hours closely following 10pm. The the time slots are 10 3011 ish. They vary from day to day, but it's always in that in that area.

48:31

Tech we will of course catch you work on civil service. I hope so. And Michael we'll see you I'm sure hopefully. Oh, good. Okay, Minister, Mike Show with Minister Mike. And the lovely Linda, what are you doing girl? Oh, you want me to do that? twisting

48:51

mv hand around

48:52
