J Jimmy Carper 00:01

Very, very, very nice. Yes, the flirtations, something inside so strong. And before that Dean McBride with my heart belongs to Daddy that was for Carlo and David who were celebrating will celebrate their 11th anniversary on Monday. And a lot of that was, Well, I think that my heart belongs to daddy is kind of self explanatory. But on something inside so strong that song was originally written by Labby Safaree sa FF, fiery,

J JD Doyle 00:36

I don't know that name.

J Jimmy Carper 00:37

Yes. And he's a black man who lives in London. And it was written against apartheid. That fits was it was done in the late 80s. But it has such a universal message. And for I think for gay, lesbian, and bisexual and transgendered people. What it means is, though, is that, you know, even though we cannot have a recognized marriage, we are not going to let that stop us. We will not let you stop us from having wonderful long relationships. And just like Carlo and David, have well said, Yes. And something I meant to say last time, and at two o'clock time to corn, turn your clocks back, it's, you still have 50 more minutes if you're in the bars. And do you still have an hour and 15 minutes of after hours right here. And we're gonna be playing More music more, lots more music, lots more music, lots more music. And we're happy to play it for you. Because this is what this show was supposed to be the fifth Saturday of the month, the music show. That's why I'm here to do it.

J JD Doyle 01:47

J Jimmy Carper 01:49

That's right that JD had, he doesn't usually stay up this late folks actually tape it. And then here in the next day, they but he wanted to make sure that we finally got a fifth Saturday music show. So he's here to provide it. And we're getting a really nice history of our queer heritage and in music. At least the lighter side. Yeah, well, yeah. Important. It is very important. It's very important. And it's, I see some folks coming up down down the way that looks kind of interesting. And let's see what we hear. Next. We have another trio or so. Well, who wouldn't say? Boy, he's not giving me any lead is not at all. Okay, here we go. Okay, that was an interesting set. The paint is set, I guess.

J JD Doyle 02:48

J Jimmy Carper 02:50

That last one was by King missiles.

J JD Doyle 02:53

Detachable penis. Before that was something very special. It was actually recorded at a party in New York. Oh, it was by Patrick arena, who you've heard many times on this station singing Johnny Angel. Yes, very, very nice, mellow jazz cabaret type of voice. But this was more of a fun size called side, which he wrote called My penis has a mind of its own. Backing up was Grant King and Dan Martin. Also. Gay folk.

J Jimmy Carper 03:26

Yes, artists. Yes, we've played them. But it's been a very long time since I've played either of them. So that was a very unique song to hear. Yeah.

J JD Doyle 03:32

J Jimmy Carper 03:34

I mean, there's like, that's one copy purely. Wow. Wow. You wouldn't even call it a demo. It's just something they taped at a party. Thank you could hear the phone ringing the back like that? Yes. And like, I met Patrick last year and condimento. Who copy now you met Patrick last year how I went up to see the glamour awards in New York.

J JD Doyle 03:40

J Jimmy Carper 03:56

The Gay Lesbian American Music Association, right. Third Annual third annual. And I got to be a judges this time. You were a joke. Yeah. So yes. And Patrick was a presenter. And so I sat at the cut the seat at Patrick's table with Rick Jensen who won one of the awards. I sat with Veronica Klaus, who was a presenter. Yes. I met lots of neat people Mark Weigel. Doug Stevens. Wow. Steve Cohen. Oh, I could go on and on. I was in heaven.

J JD Doyle 04:00

J Jimmy Carper 04:30

I Yeah. I remember when you came back. He spent an afternoon talking to me and I was just my mouth was just hanging open. I think the whole time it was just all of these folks that we've played here on after hours. Were there live he was a very neat event. Yeah,

J JD Doyle 04:45

J Jimmy Carper 04:47

well, I gotta go next year. Gotta go. Anyway, it's now officially 120 in the in the morning and it it's time it's time it's time it's time for big Roy and Chris with news and views and other

C Chris 05:35

confusion because now the phones are working again. Yeah, okay, whatever.

J Jimmy Carper 05:37

05:39

Okay

R Roy McCarthy 05:42
welcome everyone

J Jimmy Carper 06:00
Okay, guys, what happened? You're gonna have to start that all over again because I didn't have your mics on. We're we're getting call calls out the wazoo. I am so sorry. Okay, I knew I was gonna hit the wrong button or not a button. Can you hear us now?

C Chris 06:19

R Roy McCarthy 06:21
Are we on the air? Finally. This is community radio

J Jimmy Carper 06:24
folks. After hours, we're radio with that. And mistakes on KPFT Houston.

C Chris 06:33
I was wondering what was going on? Because I can understand this not hearing the music. But I couldn't hear Roy on the on the headphones. I'm going on what in the world is going on? Okay, Jason, go with it.

R Roy McCarthy 06:46
All right. Starting from scratch, folks. I want to talk about deaths in the community. It's unfortunate, but the Ryan White foundation is closing its doors for good for lack of private funding. dwindling donations have forced the Indianapolis based ryan white foundation to lay off its entire full time staff. Ryan White, who was an 18 year old kid who died of AIDS back in 1990. And right after he died, his mom, Jeannie white Kinder started the Ryan White foundation. It's very unfortunate, folks. But a lot of people think that with all these new miracle drugs and everything that AIDS funding is not necessary to make donations to these organizations. And this is one of the major tragedies of such erroneous beliefs. But I do want to point out that the closing of the foundation is unrelated to federal aid funding that also bears Ryan White's name. Now the good news is that Jeanne white Ginder is not giving up, she's now going to start the Ryan White project, which is a new effort to bolster AIDS education among young people, and to lobby for continual federal funding for AIDS programs.

C Chris 08:12

Which is good because I think the that's probably the approach that's going to work the best right now is going into the education and letting people know that yes, there's the cocktail. There's all these new drugs that are coming out. But it's, it's still on a cure. It's not one shot, and you're done with it, that even even people who are having a better life with it. It's a long, expensive road. And so they need to be people need to be educated in it's not time yet to start throwing away your condoms and being unsafe and unprotected.

R Roy McCarthy 08:47

And I'll say this, too, that, as I've said many, many times, not everybody's body chemistry can take these new drugs. Plus the virus itself mutates much. Okay, keeping with the spirit of things,

C Chris 09:05

I'm glad because I think I screwed this up the last time. The men's network of the Montrose counseling center will be having their next meeting for on November the ninth. The topic is gay spirit and the sense of the fabulous. It's been said that being gay or bisexual is a gift. That by virtue of being different, we are given the gift of enlightenment, perhaps Perhaps not. Certainly, we have an opportunity to be creative on how we engage or disengage with the world. Please join them for the festive look at camping enlightenment, be prepared to have fun. That's going to be at the Montrose Counseling Center at 701. Richmond from 715 to nine o'clock on Tuesday, the ninth and for more information you can call 713-529-0037.

R Roy McCarthy 09:58

Okay, coming in and from the Austin AP wire and the Associated Press. The police in Austin, Texas say that they found Matthew McConaughey dancing naked and playing bongo drums at his home this past Monday. Authorities were called to the actors house in an upscale neighborhood after someone complained about loud music. And officer says that he saw makhana hay through a window naked and playing the bongo drums and another man dancing and clapping Hookway which had to have been a fight and a half.

J Jimmy Carper 10:33

That is just too weird.

R Roy McCarthy 10:36

No, no. Where's the paparazzi when you need them? Anyways, please say that they had a faint odor of marijuana and found a pipe and a shallow bowl containing containing marijuana stems and seeds. McConaughey was originally booked on marijuana charges. But those were dropped.

He does face a misdemeanor charges like his pants. Pictures. Probably not. They didn't want to show his shortcomings. But he does face a misdemeanor charge of resisting transportation. I've never heard of resisting transportation. But that's what he faces.

C Chris 11:20

It was probably because I couldn't get him in the car. Oh, he wanted a limo.

J Jimmy Carper 11:24

Maybe he didn't fit at that particular particular time. It might have been very excited.

R Roy McCarthy 11:28

Anyways, he is taking a very a very upscale attitude about all this because he said that after his release makhana he joked that he wouldn't want to rent a place in the urban county jail. Quote, but it was a nice day for a night. So go figure.

C Chris 11:46

Oh, thank you. Yeah, one of our fellow radio stations that lives down the lane from us was their nighttime DJ was a little ruder about this story when he was announcing it to refer it calling combat trying to out Matthew McConaughey because he is found naked with another guy because somebody is naked they're gay. Hello. Well, because you can understand being stoned he can be understand he understood the person getting drunk and understood having a good time. But he couldn't understand getting naked in front of another guy

J Jimmy Carper 12:03

C Chris 12:07

J Jimmy Carper 12:19

he ever went skinny dipping

C Chris 12:21

I guess not so he then some one of his listeners called up and said hey, get over it. Doesn't mean he's gay. No. So of course the lovely DJ turned around and was saying that the listener mean he's gay. No. So of course the lovely DJ turned around and was saying that the listener was a closet case

J Jimmy Carper 12:40
was just it sounds more like the the announcer was

C Chris 12:43
yeah, no, it's our fellow friends down the street. Yeah, I don't even want to give initials. But let's just say their nighttime DJ has the same name as an artist. No. Oh Greg, whatever movie that was. It was lovely to be hearing all this and they went on for about 50 minutes which is shorter. We're going on it now for in the music vein, the Pet Shop Boys are coming to Houston and I've heard they're dedicating go west to Jimmy they ought to I play it enough.

J Jimmy Carper 13:24

C Chris 13:27
And there's going to be a some special giveaways of free CDs albums and posters you can get over at Jr's Bar and Grill next Saturday, and there's gonna be drawings 610 11 midnight and 1am to support their new saw their new album, Pet Shop Boys nightlife. And they've got a song their new album every six months. And it's usually favourites with one or two new ones thrown in.

J Jimmy Carper 13:50

C Chris 13:59
So your Go West won't be there. Yeah. I have to tease them because I mean Jimmy hides the CD sometimes.

J Jimmy Carper 14:07
There's a reason

R Roy McCarthy 14:12
now we're getting on to the Halloween stuff.

J Jimmy Carper 14:15

No, we're not.

R Roy McCarthy 14:15

We're okay. We're now folks.

C Chris 14:18

I got a microphones on

J Jimmy Carper 14:21

special special notice that I wanted to talk about came over on han net from Deborah Bell, and it cost quite a controversy in another vein, but this is a very important thing that I want people to think about and maybe do if they can, urgent help is needed. There is a woman in our community who has leukemia and is fighting for her life at MD Anderson Cancer Center. You may know of her her name is Lorna Jean Arnold.

R Roy McCarthy 14:52

Why does that name ring a bell?

J Jimmy Carper 14:53

She is not a candidate for a bone marrow transplant and the doctors say one of the few things that makes save her life as white blood cell transfusions. She and her family are desperately requesting donations of white blood cells and platelets from anyone who was willing to help. For more information or to schedule an appointment at the Blood Center at one center, please contact MD Anderson blood bank seven nine to 7777 You will need to mention Lorna's name, that's Lorna Jean Arnold, or her patient number, which is 403914. Thank you for your consideration. Now, the controversy this stirred is you may guess, gay men are not allowed to give blood,

C Chris 15:46

they still have that policy, they still have that policy, it's, you go through and you have to fill out their form. And they want to know if you have hats. If you are male, and they've had sex with another male, anytime in the last 20 years, you are not accepted for blood donations.

J Jimmy Carper 15:47

C Chris 16:05

They just take the blood and discard it. They don't take it. They don't even take it now. They don't even take it. Oh, they refuse. And it's not it's not fair. I understand that it's not right, especially with the eighth grade of AIDS rising much faster in the straight community than it is in the gay community and especially with black women. It's very, very high there not that I placing any blame or anything on any other sector of our society. But I think it's very unfair, especially, you know, there are people who have been in a monogamous relationships for a very long time, and there should be no reason If blood, especially when it's needed that that then that much for Lorna gene. And so I'm hoping that a lot of lesbians listen will step up to the plate, and go down there and give their blood. And you might want to say that it's in the name of one of your gay male friends, you're giving that blood for that reason, because I bet the sound has been a while since I've given blood. And because I used to give regularly. And it I mean, this is unfortunately one of these holdovers from the original days of the AIDS crisis, because unfortunately, enough straight people were not willing to donate a pint of their blood. And many of the men who were infected at the early stages when there was no test and no knowledge of this. They were the ones unfortunately, who were donating blood donating time to the causes. And it's sad that we still have that bit of labeling on it. I mean, that's, that almost sounds as crazy as back in the 50s when they used to label the blood if it came from a white person or a black person. Oh,

J Jimmy Carper 16:09

C Chris 17:14

J Jimmy Carper 17:58

I know. It's the same thing. In my book that's on a lighter note. At your community center, your Community Center at 803. Hawthorne to like a light bulb that means you're already going to do this What?

R Roy McCarthy 18:16

No, it's a lighter note.

J Jimmy Carper 18:19

Help holding up a light

ne's holding up a light.

J JD Doyle 18:22
Radio, Roy.

C Chris 18:25
Jimmy, I think listeners are calling in now to turn the microphones back off.

J Jimmy Carper 18:31
At your center, 803 Hawthorne at Stanford, there's an art exhibit that that opened up October 17. It's the positive art workshop photographs from the Art Access Program at the Museum of Fine Arts. It is the work of adult students with HIV AIDS. The exhibit will remain on display through January 20 2000. If you have any questions call Patrick. At 713-668-6069. You come to rehearsal more often you drop your cue there.

C Chris 19:16
But I'm the one who has to say 69 because he didn't give me anything on the on the Women's Network. I got to do that.

J Jimmy Carper 19:24
Please remember nothing on the women's we must have something not the next one. If we didn't have anything in the box.

R Roy McCarthy 19:35
I didn't see it. Okay.

C Chris 19:37
I will say one thing about the art exhibit. Being with cute patrol. I get to see some of those pictures late at night. Oh yeah. And I keep cringing in that one. They got at the foot of the stairs with the man with the alligator with a crocodile.

J Jimmy Carper 19:50
What's he doing with it?

 Chris 19:51
Well, it's clamped on Oh, do not. It's north of the equator so it's out. But he's using he's using it is a nipple clamp?

 Roy McCarthy 20:02
No, no, no, no, no. Oh, it's

 Chris 20:05
great because when you come right down the stairs, it's right there with the organization's about

 Roy McCarthy 20:11
Okay, can we move on with our

 Jimmy Carper 20:15
thing too but I'll jump in later.

 Roy McCarthy 20:17

Jimmy Carper 21:27

Chris 21:35

C

Chris 31:49

wrong cable station A little advance warning I found out about this movie that's going to be Wrong cable station. A little advance warning. I found out about this movie that's going to be coming up at the end of the month on Showtime. Oh, it is called execution of justice. Yeah. This is a startling fact based Showtime original picture. recounting the tale behind the 1978 shootings of San Francisco supervisor Harvey mill, who America's first openly gay elected official. And San Francisco Mayor George Moscone. Yeah. Here's the thing. Okay. The drama unfolds from colleague Dan White's point of view.

 Jimmy Carper 32:24
That's it.

 32:25
That's the plot where

 Roy McCarthy 32:26
I tell you about perversion.

 Chris 32:28
Yeah, it's following the seemingly all American boy from fireman to cop to elected official, but whites battles with the liberal homosexual and wildly popular milk and his low lowly salary as a city employee, pushing mentally unbalanced conservative to the brink. Aren't they all

 Jimmy Carper 32:48
met way? Careful,

 Chris 32:50
careful. You got enough people out front door. haze of moral outrage and jealousy leads him to murder only to be followed by a bizarre legal defense that earns white a slap on the wrist sentence. And nearly seven years in prison shocking a city and a nation. The first chance you get to see this will be on Showtime cable network on November 28. At 7pm It's starring Peter Coyote Tim Daly, Tyne Daly, Khalil Kane, and I can't tell from the pictures I'm going to assume Peter coyotes playing Harvey Milk because he looks

 JD Doyle 33:28
he would that'd be a good

J Jimmy Carper 33:29
thing. So rather than George Moscone

C Chris 33:33
it's hard to tell because they got this picture of a guy's of two guys it looks like Peter Coyote standing in that Harvey Milk pose. Oh, yeah. With the vast and his arms crossed. Yeah. And some guy in the background that looks a little bit younger ish, in a full suit, which is how I always saw the news reels of Danwon. And we have Dan White. And I love the picture they got in here at Tyne Daly It looks like she's playing a drag queen. Very scary drag queen.

J JD Doyle 34:00
She named Moscone. Oh my god hey, yeah.

J Jimmy Carper 34:14
