14:48

I'll take either bunk, good either.

14:50

Good answer.

14:51

You know the best answer I've ever heard of that question. What was that guy used to date Camilo. And we went on this we'd gone on a couple of dates and we hadn't slept together yet and we were at Mar frailties. And I said, I said, well, so if you were to join the military, would you pick a top bunk or a bottom bunk? And he said, I don't care. I just want to join the army. And that's a great answer. Anyway, so Jim, tell me about your ideal first date out there with the chickens and stuff. Do you have a farm or anything? Yeah, I do. I thought I heard I heard the birds in the background. Yeah, I have farm and 10 acres and a pond and wow, nice lot of woods. Well, nice and quiet. Did you hear that? Hey, put that out a lot of woods. Is that insinuating? You want to tie me up to a tree? Jim,

15:25

15:31

15:36

I'd love to pay you up to three. And then leave me just like the last one, which I tell you what it took me six weeks grind was starve to death. That damn bird hadn't kept feeding me worms out of its mouth. I never would have made it. So. And then what would you do with me once you got me tied up to that tree? Jim?

15:42

15:58

Oh, well, well, yeah, that's that's a hard question to answer.

16:03

I hope it's hard. So anyway. What do you do for fun out there in the boondocks? Jim.

16:10

Well, it depends. My boyfriend lives here with me.

16:14

Oh, nice.

16:15

So wait a minute. Wait, wait, stop, rewind, stop play. You're on the love connection. And you live with your boyfriend. Ah, maybe they're looking and they call me a whore. Maybe they're looking for a horse. Such a nasty word slut would be better but yeah, so you're just looking for are you just looking for sex? Oh, for good time for good. What a nice spin he puts on it. Are you a flax? You know, flax is? A flax is like a PR agent for somebody. Ah, they like they put spins on bad situation. So you're just looking for you're looking to meet people for a good time. Right. Now. Tell us about your boyfriend. Does he enjoy the good times too? Or is he Yeah. And so it could be? It could be like, there would never be a what they call it? The third wheel is ever be a third wheel and never a dull moment. There you go. So there would never be a third wheel. Never. Oh, so there'd be no problem. But there'd be no problem. But there'd be no third wheel. Well, what if they wanted a third wheel? What if they wanted a tricycle experience?

16:29

16:33

17:05

17:09

17:23

Yeah, that's possible. That's possible. Permanent.

17:26

Permanent. Okay. Within sound to permanent to me is you never know is just never. So. All right. So I think we have all the vital statistics. Right, Jim? You You're picking us up that far out? 25:47 airport. Okay, and we're gonna go to a piece of music by Jeff crasner openly gay head of out music from New York. And he does a remake of that great Old Dusty Springfield song that you always wished that you could hear some guy saying it's called Son of a preacher man.

26:11

Melissa Etheridge, it's called the weakness in me and it's off a compilation called Ain't nothing but she thing. It's really good kids, and you're listening to it on after hours queer radio with attitude on KPFT Houston, and ke O 's College Station. My name is Jimmy Carper. And we have a guest with us in the house and his name is 26:39

Maddie, Bob Robertson. How are you everyone? Hey,

26:41

Batty, Bob. Now there may be a lot of people out there who don't recognize that name. Once you give us a little history about where batty Bob came from?

26:51

Well in 1980, we were in the playoffs against the Phillies and fans like what I did. So I started coming into the games regularly and now this will be my 12th season and I've had a lot of family come out there and support me and I really do appreciate it especially you lesbian girls. Yeah.

27:08

So what does it mean for you to come out to the games? What are you like an unofficial mascot?

27:15

Unofficial cheerleader I bring little score sheets are actually score. For what do you want to call a scoreboard? Yeah, is that the kids can hold up and spell out Astros Oh, cool. Give them autographs met the players. They're beautiful, man. And what else can I say? I've done a few things with orbit. And I really do enjoy it.

27:37

So what do you been up to lately, baddie Bob, I know. Every time I turn around, you're doing some fundraiser for an aid organization through bowling or some sports group or something?

27:48

Well, at present, what I have is I've done about seven of my best songs. And I want to see if I could get any musicians out there for the family that would like to volunteer and come aboard. I know that pet patrol, what is this? What do you mean? Well, what I'm doing is that I would like to do an album that would benefit different aids projects, and we would kind of divide it up into different groups. But my biggest concern right now is pet patrol. Okay, they don't give us the program tablet, which is $5 a tablet and you gotta buy them.

28:03

28:05

28:21

Wait a minute program tablet.

28:23

It's so they don't get flea. Oh, the dogs, dogs, cats, birds. Okay, whatever. Yeah, vermin. Yeah. Birds get fleas. Yes, they do. And the thing is, they can't support that because they consider it a luxury. And I would really like to see that we could maybe possibly get this together with some other musicians and some other vocalists because I can always use the help. Let's face it. And 28:51

time will tell we're gonna we're gonna see in a minute

28:55

shaking in my boots. Ah, but anyway, I do that at the games too. So let's give it a roll. This is called sometimes you win. We're gonna go right into this, aren't we? Sometimes you lose and then we can chat again. Okay, this is Batty, Bob Robertson and Wayne Holt lead guitarist Okay.
