Jimmy Carper 00:34

Yes, I remember when that came out originally. Yes, independently produced and it's, it's really it looks like a much more big budget movie than it is. You newly open AIDS hospice. Meanwhile, the room was raised at homosexuality is being spread in the water. And they are the director and some of the cast members will be there as well. They were there at the Saturday screening. Oops, didn't get to that part there. Dear Jesse is going to be at also at the Museum of Fine Arts tomorrow night. Also, there is a interview with Matthew Shepard as a part of that interview with Max Matthew Shepard. That's what I'm reading here, a poignant coda, features an interview with Matthew Shepard, the Wyoming College Student killed last year in a gay bashing incident. So it may have been just coincidence that they spoke to him. And it may take a little more impressiveness. Now that now that we know what has happened, that's going to be Sunday at 5pm and 9pm. And sandwiched in the middle of that is Qaddafi. Oh, it's a Greek subtitled fell film. He was power, one of modern Greece's greatest poets. And that's going to be at seven. And it's going to be preceded by a short French film called a summer dress.

Chris 00:48

J Jimmy Carper 02:10

And that's, that's still at the museum before it's at the Museum of

C Chris 02:13

Fine Arts on Sunday. Also coming up there at the I'm just going through the whole book here and that with what's coming up this week. Okay, June 1 at the Aurora Picture Show.

J Jimmy Carper 02:33

Oh, yeah. It's between like it's around 25th Street or something. And Ray Hill was

C Chris 02:37

Wow, these four short films, it's probably going to be about an hour in length total. That's going on at the Aurora picture show on Tuesday. 734. I'm going to be broke by the time this thing is over.

J Jimmy Carper 03:28

R Roy McCarthy 03:31

And it's just the first week folks. Well, actually

C Chris 03:34

 03:40

So that Wow. So if you want to be chintzy?

J Jimmy Carper 03:44

Well, you know, when they when they put that I usually give them a little bit more because, you know, it's, you know, ya

R Roy McCarthy 03:52

 Jimmy Carper 04:06
Miller is gonna be back in Houston.

 04:09
And he's gonna be naked again. Oh, well, he's

 Jimmy Carper 04:11
always naked.

 Roy McCarthy 04:13
Here's his return returns to Houston falling in sold out in 1998. Show Yeah, shirts and skins which was sold out everywhere. Yeah. And this is a blending of autobiographical virgin nets, naked sensuality. And they find politics into a realistic celebration of gay identity. This performance is for adult audiences only. And yes, folks, it does contain nudity. By the way that word has been yet whatever. What am Annegret Get your mind out of the salad.

 Chris 04:36

 Jimmy Carper 04:46
Salad on Tim Miller's body,

 Roy McCarthy 04:47
you know, that's right.

 Jimmy Carper 04:50
Also, that vinegar read off of them.

 Roy McCarthy 04:53

Jimmy Carper 05:23

There you go. And it's views because we give our opinion. No,

Roy McCarthy 05:27

Jimmy Carper 05:35

I know it's it's not Pride Week anymore. It's pride month, and it's spilling over into May into May. So it's more.

Roy McCarthy 05:44

Jimmy Carper 05:50

Roy McCarthy 05:54

Chris 06:03

you this picture of Quentin Crisp and Leah de Leiria holding each other's hands over a martini. Let me see that. And Leigh Diller does look like the Butch one in this scene.

R Roy McCarthy 06:18
Well, anybody looks Butch next to quit and Chris.

C Chris 06:21
Well, if you want to see that poignant moment not

J Jimmy Carper 06:24
only that anyone looks too young. That means you and

C Chris 06:30
Jimmy got it. I look like chicken. Well, you want to see him in this other scene in the picture. Those two guys were in the skin tight tights and nothing else. Oh imagine the two of them together. It looks like she's playing when she did it.

C Chris 06:42

Jimmy Carper 08:11

That's why I kind of started when I read it. The group has mixed emotion about their actions. No okay. No. It's To the mother of the mother hand of the group tries to hold everyone together. That's going to be going on SmartThings at Rice University. Something a little closer to home here. Lone Star hate is a British film that won the Special Jury Prize at the Chicago lesbian and gay Film Festival. It's a channel for British documentary on the 1993 gay bashing murder of Nicholas West. Up in Tyler, Texas. Oh, okay. The story unfolds in graphic detail through forensic photographs visits to the crime scene. Oh gee, this is a real upper of a movie you told me to plug Roy. courtroom and police interrogation transcripts, Death Row interviews with the killers and conversations with West friends in the community. Well, this is very important because this is hardly life. Yeah, no, no is a part of life. But it's a part of life that a lot of times get swept under the carpet by channel 13. Kill two and channel 11 News.

R

Roy McCarthy 11:47

J

Jimmy Carper 11:59

This is news and views isn't it?

C

Chris 12:01

And that's going to be on Thursday, June 3 at 6pm at the Rice University Media Center. Also they're doing Thursday June 3 at 930. So after that, will be the a documentary called hallelujah and controversial career of an HIV positive performance artist Ron atthey is extraordinary documentary that depicts his intense grueling and dangerous public pieces. It's gonna be very documentary style, because he's using a little handheld mini camera, and will include scenes from his trilogy of programs, martyrs and saints for scenes and a harsh life and deliverance. There is a special note on this film, if you want to see this one it is for mature audiences only. Yes, it's it's very graphic.

J

Jimmy Carper 12:48

R

Roy McCarthy 12:50

Can I want to jump in here real quick, and mentioned that there's a pride barbecue coming up in just about two weeks. And the private community is planning a barbecue open house at the community center. And it's an informational social event to celebrate their accomplishments. Chris 13:47 as readahead on this other movie and we can't talk about this week because it's involving next week. But what Go ahead, they're gonna show a movie about a how to on female ejaculation. Oh wow. And that was the strange thing. That story is on the opposite page from the KPFT 90.1 FM Houston. Well, where do you advertise? Well, we

 14:13
The blue logo up real big.

That's pretty cool.

 Chris 14:17
Next thing is coming up this week. A diverse works Friday, June 4 through Sunday, June 6. There will be a group of short films. Friday it will be from 7pm Saturday, June 5, it'll be 7pm as well. They're called fairy tales and fireworks. These are all for mature audiences online. Good. And some of the features you'll be seeing in here is a fireworks. This precocious filmmakers first foray into homoerotic themes at the age of 17 it's also his seventh film, pink Narcissus Oh, that is beautiful film and it's very old. It's from the early 70s And it's even older than I am Yeah, and it's that's probably the version where they take out all the explicit sexy.

 Jimmy Carper 14:54

 Roy McCarthy 15:05
Well Chris you barely wait, but as a chicken, it was very

 Jimmy Carper 15:09
ahead of its time. It's it's very surrealistic. It's a beautifully made film.

 Chris 15:14
Its description is pink princess, telephones, Parisian glamour and 42nd Street bordellos are all rolled into one. Also the story of the red rose a uniquely beautiful interpretation of the Oscar Wilde fairy tale, replete with hermaphrodites and strange beasts. On Friday, June 4 At 9pm they will also be showing the quack mix up video rock that's queer artists collective,

 Jimmy Carper 15:22

Jimmy Carper 15:38

Chris 15:41

the only Festival event gathered by open call to gay and lesbian filmmakers throughout Texas and the nation. It's right

Jimmy Carper 15:47

they they did that then it's gonna be all kind of not I don't want to say local but at least Texas, gay amateur filmmakers and it's always surprising always intriguing and most of all, queer. That's right. On Saturday, June 5 at 9pm and Sunday, June 6 at 5pm dikes in Wonderland a set of short works take a walk through the walk Looking Glass and meet lesbians on the edge from Australia Britain, Canada who dare to speak the truth so they're boldly live theme. This is also for mature audiences only. The first one. Let's put it this way. It's titled Michael Hunt. If you change the first name. We can't We can't say the name of the movie on the air. Oh, my Michael Hunt. Yeah, my stead of Michael Hunt. It's Mike.

Chris 15:57

16:45

Okay, Sam.

Roy McCarthy 16:48

Has anybody seen my car? That's an old one from Porky see original movie. Oh my god.

Chris 16:56

I'm like Miss Lewis. I try and stay within FCC regulations. Now it's not a big piece. It's only six minutes long. So Australian eight minutes. So a weighty performance piece about one of our culture's few remaining taboos. Also, during that will be she's she's real worse than queer. A rough documentary about punk rock dyke bands. All right, and it's a British film. That's great. I know Candace will be there from from hatch

Jimmy Carper 17:23

C Chris 17:27

and one of the movie that's not a part of the film festival here. But it's one that you should keep an eye on for coming out that's going to be coming around its edge of 17 Oh, yes. It's something unusual. It's from what I've seen. It's a coming of age gay story. But here's the twist. It's made in America. Tada. You didn't think we could make them here. I thought they all had to be a funny accent all had to be British, you know, but that's going to be coming here soon to a theater near you. J Jimmy Carper 19:35

I thought it was gonna be like at midnight

or according to the Houston voice somewhat iceberg as a typo. It's gotta be but June 8 at 9pm Chill eight or is it's PBS channel eight a no each station is getting to program their own. And channel eight PBS K UHT June 8 at 9pm. And if that guy See pulls off, call them up and tell them thank you for finally putting one on during no cumin hours.

J Jimmy Carper 20:07
No kidding. I'm shocked.

C Chris 20:09
And that is a great thing to see. And also, that day hatch is gonna be having special segments during weeknight addition, no good at 630 and 1030, I believe are when those broadcasts are. And it's going to include interviews with a few members of hatch their parents and the director of hatch Carroll for trucky. Thank you. I've been here.

J Jimmy Carper 20:31

C Chris 20:34
Yeah. Trying to do it from memory. And I I'm impressed. I got her first name, right.

J Jimmy Carper 20:38
She's very nice woman.

C Chris 20:41
Also, there's another video that's out. That's very interesting. I actually saw a part of it on C span. Yeah. And, surprisingly, this we talked about before at least log wrap cat. Hello, take two Log Cabin Republicans. It's a show it's a video called on the front lines. It's a fundraising thing they have and it's about their struggle to try and get into the Republican Party convention in Texas last year, and their protests that they had outside the Tarrant County Convention Center, as well as the counter protest by several of the the the religious, religious, political, right wing extremists who were out there chanting chanting right back at them. And it was very interesting. And they went to a lot of trouble some of this stuff because they even have some of the names and locations of the homophobes that were sitting there chanting at them. Amazing because the hilarious thing is the part I saw on C span they were covering, they had covered the log cabin annual convention. And they showed excerpts of this video that they were going to be selling and all that. And I I recognize one of the homophobes that was out there is an old, old somewhat friend of mine. Oh, that out on the soccer fields, he and I never gotten along. And maybe there's a reason why Whoa. And there was standing there shouting, his little slogans and his name popped up and had Houston like, Oh, my goodness,

J Jimmy Carper 22:20
that piece of trash were.

C Chris 22:23
So if you want to get some information on this, you can contact the Log Cabin Republicans at 202-347-5306 and it is part of the fundraiser to help bring awareness to their organization. And I believe it's also partially going into their for their education. Yeah. And yeah, it is Republican. And yes, there is that old sad joke of what's the definition of a gay Republican white squares with pink triangles? I stole that one from Bob Smith. I say well, you know, I you have to I have to hand it to to the to the Log Cabin Republicans especially the in the Houston area for their continued effort to become full fledged members of the Republican Party. I mean, it's a tough thing to go up to a group and say, hey, I want to be a member when they don't want you.

J Jimmy Carper 22:55

C Chris 23:19
Yeah, I mean, it's it's easy to try and blend in with the crowd. Yeah. But to stand there and and say article that I want to be yes. And to sit there and have their counter protest and be able to put up with these people. I mean, that's a very impressive thing. One last thing while Roy is shutting everything down, he says, Don't forget also pride day at Astro we're speaking of potential protests. Sunday, June 20. Sunday, Sunday Sunday, come play all day at Astro for 20 bucks hey when I'm not allowed to say prices, am I

J Jimmy Carper 23:52
Well, this is kind of afford to deserve it

C Chris 23:56
benefits. Benefits pride committee views.

R Roy McCarthy 23:58
So there you go. You got

C Chris 24:00

J Jimmy Carper 25:09

Okay as you were speaking of movies, and it reminded me that I've been told that the movie bent is now out for rental.

R Roy McCarthy 25:22

Oh, did they make a movie of your life again?

J Jimmy Carper 25:25

No, very serious moving but but it's got a cameo role of MC drag Jack Jagger in drag and MC dragger.

C Chris 25:37

Take two on your part. Hello. I saw that film. When it played here in Houston in the movie theaters. Just shortly after the angelica Angelica theater opened up. And it was a very, very interesting movie. Mick Jagger unfortunately doesn't look any better as a woman. Oh, Mick Jagger give up on the drag. And it's it's very interesting. It's takes place in Germany and Poland. As the story of if you haven't seen it's supposedly it's also the one it was a fly. It's what got Richard Gere started.

J Jimmy Carper 26:18

Yes, he was in it. And it's about homosexuals and Jews, Jews and Jewish homosexuals during the Holocaust. And what they went through in the in the inept part and getting there in some very disturbing moments in there. And it's one of the few movies you'll see about the Holocaust where not everyone's wearing starved David's Yeah,

C Chris 26:21

R Roy McCarthy 26:42

I do without talking about that. Yeah, I do want to urge all of our listeners gay, straight, bisexual, transgendered. What have you to go and visit the Holocaust Museum here in Houston. Because you will have a pretty good idea of what political and religious right and check will accomplish. Yes. And has accomplished people like Jimmy and myself. We are okay. No, we are not chicken. We are. You know, we're approaching the half century mark.

J Jimmy Carper 27:19

We're mature. Yes.

C Chris 27:21

Approaching Jimmy is tripped over. You're crawling on it.

R Roy McCarthy 27:27

But at any rate, you know, we remember what, what life was like before Stonewall. Yes. And believe me, a lot of what you see there at the Holocaust Museum was happening here in the United States, to gays and lesbians, bisexual transgender people. Yeah. And that was one of the reasons why we exploded the way we did on that June 9. Night in 1969,

J Jimmy Carper 27:56

June 26. And 1969. Stonewall, and that's why we march down Westheimer. To celebrate that, that kind of coming out, come out of the bars, streets. That's right.

C Chris 28:12

R Roy McCarthy 28:14
Well, you know, it's easy to say, out of the bars and into the street, but to kind of oppression that Jimmy and I knew back in those days, out of the bars into the street, it just doesn't do it. I mean, you really got to know what it's actually felt like young people, young kids locked up in psychiatric ward combat, put under torture, and I mean, physical torture, yeah. You know, shock, electric shock and a bunch of stuff. Sleep deprivation, food deprivation, and a bunch of stuff.

C Chris 28:55
Well, it just didn't end there. I mean, that sort of thing. Going to teenagers went in through the 80s. Especially here in Houston, where any child showed any, any attempt of being free spirited or non establishment, to the norm. Parents threw them in a psychiatric hospital without a moment's notice.

J Jimmy Carper 29:13
I need to tell you that you're listening to after hours, queer radio with attitude on KPFT Houston and ke O 's College Station, we are at the sound of Texas and I started playing with a pepper in here first.

C Chris 29:25

R Roy McCarthy 29:28
But I also want to point out to them back in those days, if we went to a club, a gay club, which was a speakeasy,

J Jimmy Carper 29:35
it's show us because back in those days, it was illegal for more than say, in many states, illegal for more than three of us to gather at any one time in any one place. Yes. And there will be a little

R Roy McCarthy 29:48

J Jimmy Carper 29:53
imagine that. Imagine that.

R Roy McCarthy 29:57
And it'd be a little people and you'd say Mary St. Mary

J Jimmy Carper 30:00
s&p Always Mary sent me that you know what, that's one of the

R Roy McCarthy 30:03
