The following program contains language or images of a frank or sensitive nature, which may be considered objectionable by some listener discretion is advised. Oh yes, you've tuned into after hours a continuing tradition on KPFT Houston 90.1 FM. The crew of After Hours is ready to bring you news, interviews and music geared for gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgendered people. Hear it after hours, we may be diverse, but we have one thing in common. We are all out of the closet and urge everyone to come out of their closets. That means standing up for yourself, taking responsibility for your own life and being proud of who you are. Realistically, we know not everyone can do that because of a job or frame of mind. That's okay. We're here for you too. So sit back, relax, and enjoy this week's edition of After Hours.

Jimmy Carper 02:04

Hello, Houston, it's Jimmy Carper with a special three hour musical edition of After Hours heard every Saturday night at midnight, right here on KPFT. Houston, KEOS College Station. That's right. When there's a fifth Saturday in the month, we do three hours of queer music. And tonight is no exception. I actually I thought this was going to be the time change. And we're only going to get two hours. But no, that's next week with all tacky Scott. And so you get three hours of queer music. And as promised, I'm going to do a pansy division concert a little later on in the show. But just to warm you up for that. I've got a couple of groups here. Somebody I haven't played in a long time. It's the closest thing to queer heavy metal that we have. It's called helix revolt. And another favorite of mine. It's called rumors of the rumors of the big wave is the name of the group and burning times as the album. So let's let's start off with helix revolt. And if you'd like to request your favorite queer music, the number is 5265738 526 KPFT. The late great Michael Callen and you're hearing it on after hours queer radio with attitude. We also had a request for I am what I am by Gloria Gaynor. And I don't happen to have the album with me but I have the old after hours opening that we used to play every week so I'm going to do that instead. So here it is. Whoa, it must be Saturday night at midnight because you're listening to after hours. A continuing tradition on KPFT Houston 90.1 FM. The crew of after hours is ready to bring you news interviews and music here for gay and lesbian people. Just as Gloria Gaynor says in this song, it's time to open up your closets. We at after hours urge everyone to come out of their closets. By our definition that means standing up for yourself and taking responsibility for your own life. But if you feel that you can't come out right now because of your age, your job or whatever reason. That's okay, we're here for you to do Sit back, relax, and enjoy this week's edition of after hours who yeah Gloria Gaynor in I am when I am. That's kind of that's a that's a gay anthem. Well, I'll be doing another anthem later on in the show by pansy division. But first, Eddie called. And he's been listening to this show for six years. And however now he's moving to Mexico. Go on with this, folks. And that's, that's pretty neat. It's nice to hear that we have listeners who've been hanging in there that long, usually long before then you heard something that pissed you off and you turn off the radio and you never want to listen again. But you know, hey, I, my outlook is I hope we do something every week that pisses you off, just to make you think. But Eddie, we're gonna miss you too. Because you know, there's nothing like a long term loyal listener. Now, anyone that asked asked for a Faith No More number and as luck would have it, I work on another show and that CD is in the other box. But I do have my favorite Faith No More that I have with me. And it's not the aggressive which which really is my favorite, but it's my second favorite, which is we care a lot this is for Eddie. reviewable our

Ah, that's from an old Cheech and Chong record, kind of prove coming attractions at a drive in. Just thought you might like that. You're listening to a special queer music version of after hours on Jimmy. And as promised, we've got a pansy to vision concert. They were in town last month and did a great show with Fitzgerald's that was in fact, it was the third time they were they were in Houston. Back in the summer of 1993. I was in San Francisco and I went into a record store near the Castro and I saw this tape by a group called pansy division and at the time, I hadn't heard of them and the people who ran the record store hadn't heard of them. So though it's just some little local group around here, but I picked up this tape and I looked at the song titles and rock'n'roll queer bar, feminine black leather jacket, boyfriend wanted and I thought, Hmm, this sounds like a group that I might like, bought it took it home, and the rest is history. We've been playing them nearly every week since then. And so since we're doing queer music, I wanted to pay special tribute to pansy division group that is really stuck in there hung in there. And they've been on top and they just keep just well, some of them are on top. I think

Chris is a bottom boy. But anyway, this is the first song that we ever played from pansy division. And it's a favorite. I mean, this is the one that gets requests the most fam in a black leather jacket
