Oh yeah boyfriend wanted by pansy division you're listening to a special pansy division concert presented to you by after hours queer radio with attitude, which is heard every week on KPFT Houston and KEOS College Station. Before that we heard a song that I never wanted to play. It's off of their second album, the floured. And I really didn't like it at first, but I got requests from listeners for Denny. And so it became part of the rotation on pansy division favorites. And now another favorite of mine. It's a song that lets Chris shine. And I think this was probably his his first solo. It's one of my favorites. And we do get requests for this too. I just have to edit right at the end there. It's James bondage. Remember, boy, you will control the action. Oh, yeah. And that stuff, believe it or not a cover. I think the words have been changed a little bit here and there. Cowboys are frequently secretly fond of each other the first time I heard that was when John and the gang were here for the first time in Houston playing it. Oh, some old place that isn't around anymore. But it that just hearing pansy that division live just knocked my socks off. And John and I have been friends since it actually before that, because I sent sent him a tape of the of us playing pansy division on the show long time ago. And he remembers that he remembers that still. And that's real impressive for a DJ, I'll tell you, I'll tell you that's real impressive. And I want to do actually, the pile up album is my favorite, because it's a lot of great covers. And so let's do a whole bunch of covers, starting with one that isn't on there that there was on their second album by that wonderful group, the buzz Cox with featuring Pete Shelley, who did that great song that's covered here by pansy division. You're listening to a special pansy division concert that great group headed up by John John ollie, and you're hearing it on after hours queer music for you on KPFT Houston and ke O 's College Station we've been doing a whole bunch of cover tunes that pansy division has done that I that I've liked over the years. And let's see if you liked this one who Yeah, cover a prince? Jack you off? I like that. That's pansy division. Now how about some new pansy division? Well, it's relatively new. You've been hearing it for the last several weeks. It's their brand new album, wish I'd taken pictures. And it's got good stuff too. I mean, every just just about every pansy division album has a lot of good stuff on it. And a lot of stuff I can even play on the radio. So let's start with something I think we all experience. And that is something that pansy division is anything but vanilla. This is a group that as you as you've listened to the music and the past that we've played over the past hour is the embodiment of gay pride. Because they take gay sex, gay relationships, and put it right out there for you with with with pride with pride. And yeah, they offered no apologies or given excuse. Oh, that's right. That's right, Tom. That's right. So the latest group they're members of pansy division, Dustin Donaldson, who
