And see, ya know, I know, we only have about a half hour left on this special musical version of after hours. But I do want to take time to talk about a couple of things here. On the on the better side of religion bearing Memorial United Methodist Church is having their annual spring festival which means that pancake breakfast, you know, they are beautiful people. Oh, they are they are. They have always been in the forefront of helping who ever always the first, the first. And now they operate the daycare center for AIDS patients and the dental clinic and all kinds of other things that you don't hear about bearing is right here in the neighborhood helping out and they do this great pancake breakfast. It's like five bucks and it's all you can eat. Plus this year, they're having like a rummage sale, silent auction, and the health fair and entertainment. So that is market calendar. Definition pro choice oh yeah, well that's the best. No, no, actually prime is the best. And then your top choice and then select cuts and then utility cuts. Yeah. You want to avoid that utility cuts though because that's beaks and feet and entrails and all that stuff they put in wieners. Yeah. So Prime is your best cut of beef but choices right there. So I'm definitely pro choice.

J

Jimmy Carper 04:05

Oh, yeah, go west. Great remake by the Pet Shop Boys and you requested all the time, especially from Howard McHale. You've been listening to after hours, queer radio with attitude. And it's been a special three hour musical version because it's the fifth Saturday of the month. Next week will be our Easter Show with Scott Lewis. But it's going to be a short one, only two hours but he'll have those tickets for that movie brain candy. So be sure to listen and he's gonna give away just the fist full level. And I am doing this now because I'm gonna cut this off just a little bit close because what I want to play is the famous buddy Johnston version coming out of hiding and it's got all of that great Harvey Milk stuff and all those those crowd things from the March on Washington and all of that so I want to put that on right now. And I'll see you next week. Take care KPFT Houston began with a routine police raid on a homosexual bar the Stonewall on Christopher Street in the heart of the West Village.
