 Connie 30:16

Um, well, in a similar publication I think this one actually came out of the star. You do.

 Peter 30:17

I think it did too.

 Connie 30:17

There's a little something on Oprah or as I like to call her Oprah Winfrey. Oprah Winfrey love that Oprah and and you know if you guys follow Oprah and I know you Queens follow Oprah she's lost some weight in the last year and it will I think it found its way to Aretha where the last way up. But um, you know, she she wants to help out her her viewers by helping us keep a daily diary of of our food intake, what's going into our bodies?

 Peter 30:50

Really? I think Aretha could do well with this. We did well, this and we both looked at this both Connie and I who are just a tidge over the perfect weight.

 Jimmy Carper 31:00

You are both generously proportioned women, full figured-.

 Peter 31:02

Thank you. Anyway, this is keep a daily diary. Just like Oprah now this is how Oprah lost all this weight kids cause she's put some back on but Oh, Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, this little thing and there's little little things like avoid this do that little to make sure you burn what you eat have your last meal within two hours a bit. So there's these little questions. And so the number one thing is like your number of fat grams and it said said yes or no to cocktails. Yes, over and over. That's why we on the first day last year, the first question then it says HTO is this coming gallons or what? And then my favorite question on this thing is every day you have to answer this question. hours between the last food for the day and turning in at night. About five minutes for a big bowl of Blue Bear. All right. Happy Cow. Now that's how you're supposed to lose weight if you don't eat but I mean, and then the meals and snacks and length of exercise. This whole thing is spelled out for you in this last issue of the I'm not sure what that is the star and Nether our magazine publication it gives you if you can follow this little thing. You're gonna make it so now if we're gonna send this off to miss Aretha along with her picture and tell her if you just keep this Miss Oprah's die, it will be all fine. It'll just be too fun for words. So that is some of our wild and crazy stuff that we've we've found in our little whatever's-.

 Connie 31:03

And we just want to thank our research department, you know, they put in hours and hours and hours. I mean, their little fingers are just black with newsprint. And whenever we're paying them, it's just not enough because they are a great group of people.

P Peter 32:55
