HOST: Oh yeah, the Smiths. We don't ever play enough Smiths. That was "The Boy with the Thorn in His Side", one of my all time favorites and by them. Before that, we had the duet of Bonnie Raitt and Elton John, "Love Letters," and started it out with Suede, "Ms. Celie's Blues". Got a couple of things I want to tell you about, Boy Bar every Wednesday night. And this Wednesday will be Donna Day, so be sure to stop by and see her. She doesn't make it to Houston all that often anymore.

Coming soon will be Talent Night and Diva of the Year, so Tranae Chardon tells me. And Tranae will be here in a couple of weeks, too, as a matter of fact. Want to let you know that the QMZ, the Queer Music Zone, which is music by openly gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgenderal artists, always supports the Q Patrol. These are the men and women who patrol our streets on Friday and Saturday nights, keeping it safe. Give them a call-- they could use donations of money and/or time-- at 871-8519 or 643-0029.

Coming up next week for the next four weeks, we'll be running a half hour series on AIDS caregiving. We'll do a half hour a week, it's a four part series. So that's going to start with Michael's show next week. Michael will be here. And one more thing-- a longtime supporter of After Hours, Tom Richards, is planning-- he's making his plans for Stonewall 25, and he's looking for others that would be willing to travel to New York and share hotel expenses. Let's see, if you're interested in doing that or checking it out to see what the deal is, give us a call here at the station at 526-5738, and we'll give you more information on that.

Now, Cindy from Pasadena was here last week, and I'm-- you know, I was really glad to meet her because we've-- we talked to her all the time, and I want to dedicate the next couple of songs to her because she's an old Joplin fan, yes indeedy. And I've got some blues stuff-- oh yes, some blues stuff by Joplin. And of course, as I've been doing kind of on a weekly basis, I want to dedicate it to Jim.

Oh yeah, we got Jimmy Somerville in the background doing "For a Friend", and before that, we had "Two" from Janis Joplin. And that, of course, was dedicated to Cindy from Pasadena. "Cosmic Blues" and before that, "To Love Somebody". This has been the QMZ and After Hours with Jimmy.

Next week, we'll have Michael Crawford, and by the way, make sure-- in like a minute and a half, you change your clocks because 2:00 becomes 3:00 tonight, that's why we have such a short show. And starting this week, we do not have the BBC at 3:00 anymore, so directly after After Hours, you're going to get to hear the Carbon Dating Game with Eric. So until next week, be good to each other.
