

[MUSIC - WASHINGTON SISTERS, "JUST AIN'T RIGHT"]

MAN: Oh, yeah. That was the Washington Sisters with "Just Ain't Right." and before that, we heard Sway doing "Miss Celie's Blues." Then Girls in the Nose with "These Hips." Pussy Tourette with "If I Can't Sell It." Before that we heard a couple of country and Western tunes. Doug Stevens and the Out Band with "Out in the Country," and KD Lang by request, "Trail of Broken Hearts."

And then we had a couple of kind of newer things here. "Rumors of the Big Wave," "Needle Full of Dreams" and "Kitchens of Distinction." We'll be playing more of them in following weeks. In a cave. You're listening to a special edition of After Hours, a continuing tradition on KPFT Houston.

We're doing music tonight, and I think I'm going to pep it up maybe for the rest of the show and do some dancey stuff. Get you moving out there. We're going to start out from a blast from the past, from a bunch of gay boys called Bronski Beat. Where did they ever go? Give us a call at 526-5738 if you know.

OK, that was Erasure with "I Love Saturdays." That's from their brand new album I Say, I Say, I Say. Before that we had the Pet Shop Boys in "Go West," the most requested song on After Hours, and we started that off with the Bronski Beat of "Why." And I like to play that because that's a classic, and it's real long, so you don't always get to hear that nice, long version on the other commercial stations.

So we're kind of heading up to 3 o'clock hour. We're at 2:47. You're listening to After Hours, a continuing tradition on KPFT Houston, and how about a little Boy George, "Sweet Toxic Love."

[MUSIC - BOY GEORGE, "SWEET TOXIC LOVE"]

Oh, yeah, "What Kind of Self-Respecting Faggot Am I" by Romanowski and Phillips, and before that we had Andy Bell and KD Lang doing a version of "Enough is Enough," and "Sweet Toxic Love" by Boy George. You've been listening to After Hours, a continuing tradition on KPFT Houston, and it's been a special music night. Next week, stay tuned for Jewel Grae, and she's going to be the host, and coming up will be Eric with the "Carbon Dating Game." Thanks for listening, and we've got some very important messages coming up, so listen.

I was walking down the street holding hands with my lover when suddenly we were attacked after being publicly identified as breeders.

[SCREAM]

MAN 2: Heterophobia can kill. Education is the only lasting weapon against bigotry, which is why the National Federation of Contributors to Overpopulation wanted you to hear and think about this message.

WOMAN: (SINGING) Don't cross the street in the middle, in the middle, in the middle, in the middle, in the middle of the block. Don't cross the street in the middle, in the middle, in the middle, of the middle, in the middle of the block. Teach your eyes to look up. Teach your ears to hear. Walk up to the corner where the coast is clear and wait, and wait until you've seen the light turn green.

Don't cross the street in the middle, in the middle, in the middle, of the middle, in the middle of the block. Don't cross the street in the middle, in the middle, in the middle, in the middle of the block. Don't cross the street in the middle, in the middle, in the middle, in the middle, in the middle of the block. Teach your eyes to look up. Teach your ears to hear.

Walk up to the corner where the coast is clear and wait, and wait until you've seen the light turn green. Don't cross the street in the middle, in the middle, in the middle, in the middle, in the middle of the block. Don't cross the street in the middle, in the middle, in the middle, in the middle, in the middle of the block.