That's okay. We're here for you too. So sit back, relax, and enjoy this week's edition of after hour.

Sarah Dipalma 02:00

Well, hello, Houston. Welcome to After hours a continuing tradition in Houston right here on KPFT Houston, and KEOS College Station, Bryan.

Jimmy Carper 02:07

Sarah Dipalma 02:12

I'm Sarah Palmer, and with me is the usual co host of the show jimmy Carper today. Hey, we've got a lot of cool stuff to talk about. And why here in a why here. And we're going to do a very interesting show tonight, actually, it's going to be two shows. We're going to be doing kind of a best of ah, it is there was a comment you made on the last show that really made me think we were talking about something or another and you said, Well, there's an awful lot of material that we didn't use. And I thought about that, that gee, that's a good point. So back over some of the interviews that we've done in the show and thought, gee, there is a lot of material there. And they often we've had to sort of race through the material and not really have a chance to talk about that.

 Jimmy Carper 02:57

Because you always have a four hour show. And we have to squeeze it in three hours.

 Sarah Dipalma 03:02

I plead guilty as charged. So I thought it might be nice to be able to go through the show, then actually listen to these and have time to talk for cheering. Yeah. Well, one of the nice things is this has made me go back through the shows. And listen. And you know, we've had some pretty good discussions on the show you and I have.

 Jimmy Carper 03:20

Well, it's been a learning experience for me and for all of our listeners at the same time. Well, I think for you, what did I know about transgender people?

 Sarah Dipalma 03:31

Actually, I think you knew a lot, you know, not really, you know, I thought I did that. That was the thing and I think a lot of people think they know, because they watch TV, or they read an article or two and they think they know all about it. But no, no, no, no.

 03:35

 Sarah Dipalma 03:47

You know, it's very I was I saw an article in the paper the other day, apparently Phil Donahue has been dropped from the Houston market. Yeah. The reason is that he cleaned up his show and his ratings dropped. Can you believe it? Well, considering some of the things we've said on this show about television talk shows. It's amazing how close to the mark we were. Yeah, no kidding. We weren't not shocking enough. I guess that's it. And of course this is marathon. Yeah. And so of course we're going to be asking for your money, as we always do. And actually I've been sort of looking forward to doing marathon it's been a while you know, the first time I met you, we were doing marathons right Jimmy was in a grassy skirt. Pitching for money and I thought I'm gonna fit in well here.

Jimmy Carper 04:36

J Jimmy Carper 04:36

I don't I remember Sarah G came in and put that skirt on me and I have to tell you the truth. I don't know why not just you know, I was just I was oblivious to everything. You walk in and here I am in Nebraska. Okay.

S Sarah Dipalma 04:50

I thought this is home you know? That was like a year ago wasn't That's right. You have been here a year. This is this is a one year anniversary of my being on the air strikes one of the parties The reasons for doing this

J Jimmy Carper 05:00

Yeah, and as a matter of fact, this month is the eighth year that after hours has been on the air. Does it feel like eight years, do you? Well, I've been here for seven and a half of those years to tell you the truth. And yeah, I mean, the show has changed a lot since buddy Johnston came in here on September 6 1987. And started the show out, it was mostly geared toward gay men. I remember that with some lesbian overtones. And then he got some women involved. And people kind of came and went, and then he laughed, and we started getting other folks involved. We got transgendered people involved, we got bisexual people involved, more lesbians, because, you know, I can sit here every week and talk about queer issues and transgendered issues and bisexual issues. But I ain't one. You know, it really makes a difference.

S Sarah Dipalma 05:58

I've made that comment in talking about transgender people of color that I don't feel qualified to talk about that because I don't face those same issues, right? And boy, finding transgender people of color to open up is talking about looking for the proverbial needle in a haystack. We know they're there. But getting them to come forward is not easy. Has marathon gotten any easier?

J Jimmy Carper 06:19

Actually, it isn't. It's, it's kind of a weird thing. We it's a necessary evil, because it takes money to make the station run. We are non commercial, as you know, yeah. And most for the most part, it's made up of all volunteers who want to come in here and do radio, they want to do either their music show, or if it's a public affairs show, you know, whatever they want to get forth across the airwaves. And none of these people are really very good or very talented. very willing to beg for money. You know, we just want to we just want to do that. But it's a necessary evil. We have to do it to pay the bills.

S Sarah Dipalma 06:58

And they're the best person I've ever heard begging for money is Ray Hill. Oh, he's very gray is really good. Yeah. So happened that one show that we that I did. I think you were in Hawaii?

really good. Yeah. So happened that one show that we that I did, I think you were in Hawaii. And Ray Hill came in after a nice Parkers after the election, which Parker was running. Yes, yeah. He sat at the microphone. And he pitched for three minutes. And I think we raised more money in three minutes than we raised in the entire rest of the show put together.

J Jimmy Carper 07:23

That's right.

S Sarah Dipalma 07:24

It is and he was talking about how about putting the station on the air in 1970. In doing at that time, one of only two gay and lesbian programs in the nation. That's right. I did not realize this, but the first gay lesbian program did not originate in New York, or San Francisco. It originated in Dallas. Can you believe that in Dallas, in the heart of the Bible Belt, folks? Yeah. And Houston was second. And Ray Hill was one of the one of the very first, I guess, was the first host of the show. Yes. And he jokes about having had three listeners and the dog who paid attention. But it was it was true. It was one of the first shows. And I guess what we're saying here is folks were asking for your money in a very roundabout way. You know, because now we are the only radio station that gives a permanent voice to the bisexual and transgender communities.

J Jimmy Carper 08:09

S Sarah Dipalma 08:18

We were the first show in the nation to feature a transgendered co host. There's only one other show in the country besides this one, and that's in Boston. There, they finally got started finally got Boston up and going. Nancy Nanjiani has her name. And she has that up and going. There is some talk about putting one together in Philadelphia, but so far, it has not happened. Wow. So far. It's just talk.

J Jimmy Carper 08:41

Wow, isn't that amazing? It's not New York. It's not California. It's Houston. It's Houston. And it's an it's Boston. And it's not the babies, you know, and we're not proud folks, we're willing to take small donations, you know, you know, we have the usual thing where for $35 You get some things and yeah, $50. But let's face it, if you're really going to contribute to KPFT you're not contributing so you can get a bumper sticker really, are you right? I mean, you're not really contributing because you want a tote bag, or something along those lines. You're contributing because you believe in what KPFT That's right.

J Jimmy Carper 09:19

Right. And that's just the thank you gift. Yeah, the mug, the t shirt, the tote bag, it's just the thank you gift. Because you're contributing, you're helping to pay the bills. You're the one that's keeping after hours on the air, because it costs about $50 an hour, it costs $50 an hour to run the station.

S Sarah Dipalma 09:39

I'm surprised it isn't more than that. I would think that's probably just the electricity part of it. It's because we only have six people who get salaries here six people, six people actually run the station and they don't get paid much. And then the rest is all volunteers.

J Jimmy Carper 09:42

S Sarah Dipalma 09:52

Yeah. Well, you know, Jimmy and I are volunteers. All of the people that you hear on after hours are volunteers. In fact, I would think most of the people you hear after six o'clock in the evening are volunteers in the station.

J Jimmy Carper 10:04

Oh, yeah. Oh, yeah. Actually the people who get paid are the ones that are doing the maintenance. They're the ones that are doing all of the, you know, paying the bills and making sure that everything runs and working with the government agencies and all of that kind of stuff. And just making sure that we're up, you know, keeping keeping the station on the air.

S Sarah Dipalma 10:27

Our number is 526573852 6k PF. T That's for those of you who can spell better than you can count his radio says it's 5265738. We are yes it is marathon. Yes, we are asking for your money and Roy is lonely. He wants to hear from our listeners with pledges you you call him and talk to him every week.

J Jimmy Carper 10:43

S

Sarah Dipalma 10:49

We have three volunteers here tonight with three volunteers here waiting for your money. Yes, as Arlo Guthrie would say, volunteers that's all Yes, I know. We just gave away my age. Well, I don't know what do you say we do some music. We'll come back, do some chatting. Do some show. Oh,

11:12

I got some brand new Boy George. We debuted this album last week. It's brand new, his brand new album called cheapness and beauty, which I think is a wonderful title for a Boy George album. I and you know, we talked about this last time but here's a person who's really cleaned up his life.

Sarah Dipalma 11:25

J

Jimmy Carper 11:30

Oh, yeah. Oh, yeah. And out of the closet and proud of what he is

S

Sarah Dipalma 11:38

honey. If he ain't transgendered, we need to redefine the term.

11:42

And this is a nice queer song just for it. Yeah. And we're off Oh, yes. you've tuned in to listen to the lyrics on this song. Yeah. The Lord is my shepherd. I have all I need. She makes me lie down in green pastures beside the still waters. She will lead interesting. She returns restores my soul, she writes my wrongs. She leads me in a path of good things, and fills my heart with song. And it goes on from there a very interesting, a feminist version of the 23rd Psalm or a goddess worship song, if you wish. Very, very interesting, unusual. And that is Bobby McFerrin. Yeah,

S

Sarah Dipalma 12:11

J

Jimmy Carper 12:49

— can you believe it? You know, folks, you know you I'm sure you remember that sickening song. Don't worry. Be happy till you wanted to puke. Same guy. Can you believe it? Oh, he's very talented. And we were talking during and he sings with Seattle Men's Chorus. He does a show with them.

S

Sarah Dipalma 12:51

J

Jimmy Carper 12:59

S

Sarah Dipalma 13:06

Well, it's one of the things that I've always enjoyed about this show has been the variety of music that we have. Oh, yeah. And as I was reviewing the tapes, to do this show, came across some incredibly good music. You know, you've introduced me to people that I've never heard of. Yeah, into a lot of music that I've never heard and I think is one of the best things that's happened to me. Good, good. Number is 526573852 6k PFT. It is marathon. I do not hear the phone's ringing. We will take any amount. Where are the premiums tonight? I don't even see them. The for $35. I know you get a bumper sticker there. And I've seen the bumper sticker. It's not the usual one. This time. It's nice and colorful. It's white with with? Yeah, it's a whole new design. And the t shirt is just like it. It's a white t shirt with just kind of these brilliant colors.

J

Jimmy Carper 13:50

S

Sarah Dipalma 13:59

Yeah, it's kind of logo. Yes. And then we have premiums, it's $60 $90 $150. And we ain't proud we'll take five or 10 bucks. You know, we're not proud of the fact of the matter is that KPFT like all public broadcast stations right now is facing cuts in funding. But you said it was what 16% Cut this year

J

Jimmy Carper 14:22

15 This year 15 Next year, so 30 You know, it's upwards to 30%. And we get 80,000 A year from CPP So, in the Pacific, the Pacific network historically has been a absolute hardcore supporter of free speech rights. We are one of the last bastions of free speech pure free speech rights left I believe the Pacific network so it's worthy of your support.

S

Sarah Dipalma 14:34

14:51

We're not throwing your money away if you ever came down to the station to see what we look like you know, we don't have plush furniture or or artwork on the walls or anything like that. I mean, this is bare bones, folks. And did you know that a 32nd Superbowl commercial would pay for two and a half years of KPFT? Because a 32nd commercial for the Superbowl costs $1 million. And Kpf T's 9095 operating budget is 399,000. I $100,000 to run a radio station,

S

Sarah Dipalma 15:32

I would think some stations blow that kind of money in a month or two on advertising. Yeah, a month or two. And, you know, I'm glad you mentioned advertising because I get this I've had this comment made me several times people will say to me, you know, I get tired of hearing people talk about asking for money, you know, the weather your your your stations, not really free. You're always asking for money. If you think radio is really free, you don't know how it works, folks. Every time you go out and you buy a Coke, or you buy something in some restaurant, someone plays regime or you paid for that advertising costs, folks, there's no such thing as free radio. How silly is that?

J

Jimmy Carper 16:10

Yeah, this way you pay directly.

Sarah Dipalma 16:13

And we don't have mattress Mac. We we won't say we really will save you whatever. And I'm sick of it. I'm sick of that. So I mean, at least we're honest about it. We're saying hey, look, we're broke. We need the money. Right? And so the number is 5265738. That's 526 kPa T. And you folks in Bryan College Station. I know school is back in session. I know that for a fact. Yeah. Now the reason I know that is because I got a phone call the other day from gay and lesbian student services on the campus of Texas a&m. Good. I had been invited to go to the campus and speak You go girl? Well, it's it's, it's gonna be pretty interesting. It's the it's the 10 year anniversary of gay student services getting onto the campus of Texas a&m, which I was largely responsible. And they have been kind enough to invite me to come up there to speak. Now, of course, when I was up there, I was there as a male. So they're really in for a double dose of surprise when I show up. Now, to be honest, gay student services is aware that I've made the change, but I don't know that anybody else on campus is, but I told them, I really feel vindicated going to camp going to the campus to speak because everyone that was there when I was there, has been indicted for something. I'm the only one that's not in jail. Well, it's just just a little side. So hello, college station. You know, you folks can contribute money. We will accept it. You can even send maroon money. It's okay. That's right. And coming into the door of KPFT. Right now, as we speak, is Glenn from Q patrol. And I'm sure he's got a little report on what's going on and Montrose.

J Jimmy Carper 17:42

S Sarah Dipalma 17:54

Yeah, there's another organization worthy of support and you know, they contribute to KPFT. Yes, as a matter of fact, they've made they've made donations when? Oh, no, I thought Glenn was coming in. He will be okay. Do we have a pledge here? No. We still don't have any pledges. Ladies and gentlemen.

J Jimmy Carper 18:12

Roy is so lonely. He really needs to hear from you.

S Sarah Dipalma 18:16

He's already upset because shocking. Gray has gone under please don't upset him anymore.

R Roy 18:22

Yes, that's terrible. I do need to hear from you. We you know, we're on the air every Saturday night. The feds are trying to cut off all the money. And we have no one else to turn to what our listeners we really need you bad. Please, whatever you can afford $5 $10 whatever it can be. Call it in. No purchase too small. And what's that number? Roy? Jam? KPFT 5265738?

S Sarah Dipalma 18:52

Well, okay, let's talk. Let's talk a little bit about some of the transgender news that we have going on here. Okay, um, first of all, folks who listen to the show regularly have heard me talk about human rights campaign fund. Oh, yes. And as I'm sure the listeners are aware by now, transgender rights groups throughout the country have been picketing the Human Rights Campaign fund, because they have been responsible for having transgendered people removed from the employment non discrimination act. Apparently, we got the HRC F's attention.

J Jimmy Carper 19:28

There are there's something you can do, Sara, it's getting people's attention, honey, I know where their purse strings are. Okay. The fact of the matter is that the protests have been going on throughout the nation as a result of this is that this could this coming weekend, seven people on transgendered activists around the country are going to be holding a meeting with the Human Rights Campaign fund in Washington. We have been dubbed The Magnificent Seven by Phyllis drive. And I'm not sure I've I answer that theory. Hey, why not. But the fact of the matter is we will be meeting with the Human Rights Campaign fund. We have heard some rumors as to what it is that they're going to tell us. We don't plan to budge on what we say. But I'd like to think there is some hope, some possibility that that some progress can be made. So when we come back, then when we come back on the air next month, we should have some very interesting information about what the Human Rights Campaign Fund said, what they believe in, we should be able to tell you because we'll tell you directly out of their mouths. It's very interesting. I've told you this before, but the only reason up until they found out there was a transgender radio show. They were not interested in talking to us. Oh, and then they discovered that we could make really bad publicity. And then it was like, Well, yes. Mr. Palmer? Sure, we'll be glad to talk to you works. Another example of why KPFT is worth the money. And we have some other news. Now, this is very exciting on October 2, and third, well there and we are going to be holding an event called National transgender lobby that Yes. Now the idea behind this is that we are going to be having at least two representatives from every state in the country, go to Washington, DC to lobby their congress people. And in fact, here in Houston, thanks to Wendy Allen. We have many appointments with our legislators in in, in, in Washington. But while we're going to be there, six of us had been invited to go to the White House. Yes, that's the real White House, where were the Clintons live? Yes. And we are going to be meeting with a presidential aide. Now, as far as I know, that's the first time ever, that a transgendered people have been invited to the White House. And I'm very proud, very proud and very pleased that I'm one of the six people. But even more importantly, is that I'm very aware of the responsibility that we have. I'm on the internet. And since the announcement has gone out that we will be going to the White House. My mailbox has been flooded by people who are telling me what it is they think we ought to be telling the President. Well, we're not meeting with President. We're not even meeting with Hillary, we're not even meeting with socks. We are meeting with the presidential aide. Hey, it's a foot in the door, baby. It is but I want the listeners to be aware that yes, we are aware of the responsibility that we have. The people who are going to be meeting with with this aid as of right now are Phyllis fry. Myself, Karen Karen, who is a national director of it's time American and Ricki Wilkins, who is the co founder of transsexual minutes,

S Sarah Dipalma 19:32

J

Jimmy Carper 22:48

are you going to give her a lude or something?

Sarah Dipalma 22:51

You know, Ricky, he's got this really weird sense of humor. But when she needs to be serious, she really can be Oh, I know. And she's just she's a real rabble rouser. Ricki adds new meaning to the word transgender activist. She has a wacky sense of humor. The other two people who are going to be speaking be going have not been have not been determined yet. But we're very aware of our responsibility. We're very aware when we go to speak to the HR CF. But what we say the HRC F was going to take as the gospel, that the HRC f is going to accept the fact that we are speaking on behalf of an entire national community. So we wanted folks to be to know yes, we're aware of our responsibility. You don't have to flood my email box anymore, I get the message. Phyllis kept the message where we are knew that in advance, we promise you we will do our best to represent the entire community. And I wanted to say one other thing. There has been some discussion. Some some some hints have been dropped by the HRC F, that if we would just drop cross dressers that they might be more willing to talk about getting us into end if we would just say well yes transsexuals ought to be covered but you know those damn cross dressers it don't work that way baby it doesn't work that way. I've said this on the internet. I've said this to the leaders of cross dressers organizations and I'm gonna say it on the air snowballs will be arriving hell before we drop processors right it will be a blizzard.

J Jimmy Carper 24:24

Right? All right. It's it's the same type of crap that we hear all the time about, you know, the conservative gays, you know, they they that you know, we'll we'll forget about the leather people will forget forget about the drag queens you know, just No, no, no, no, no, honey, we ate the HRC F okay, we don't play elitist mind kids. No, it's all or nothing. It has to be yes. First of all, from a legal point of view. I mean, forget all the morals the for a minute here. Just from a legal point of view. That whole concept is complete nightmare. How are you going to define crunch? processors There you go. You know, by that standard, since Phyllis and I are all are both transsexuals who have not who have chosen not to have surgery, would we be cross dressers? See in many states The answer would be yes. What about lesbians who choose to dress in a very masculine way? Are they cross dressers? Whose definition of cross dresser are we going to use? And who's going to make that decision? It ain't gonna be me. No way. So I just I thought I would say it on the air because I know tonight we have representatives from the Tri Yeah, sorority, one of the largest cross dressers groups who are listening to the show. I've already told this to them personally. But now we've said it. Zilch 's numerous times. So let it get back to the HRC F don't make this suggestion because we're allowed to get up and leave. It's gonna be a short discussion. Jimmy, do we have somebody in the other studio wants to talk?

J Jimmy Carper 25:53

Yeah, let's go to this little piece of music. And we'll be right back.

S Sarah Dipalma 25:58

Okay, and away we go. And we are back. And we have a guest in the other studio. Jimmy.

J Jimmy Carper 26:36

We do. Yes. We have Glenn from Q patrol. And Glenn. You're like a co president, aren't you?

G Glenn Holt 26:42

That's right. We just

J Jimmy Carper 26:44
don't have anybody here.

G Glenn Holt 26:47
You get only the very best. They're the creme de la creme. That's right. Well, as usual, you know, I've stopped by again this weekend to talk about Q patrol. spread the good word. I know you guys are doing your fundraising campaign right now. Yeah. And, of course, I definitely support you in that. And to patrol is always looking for money as well. But we're also always looking for new volunteers. There you go. And that's always very important, especially this time of year, because this is one of the busiest times of the year for us with the kids are back in school, and they don't have their assignments yet. And the weather is starting to cool off and they want to go out and ride around. And unfortunately, they think about coming here and riding around and causing some problems sometimes. Oh, excuse me.

J Jimmy Carper 27:38
So this is when you notice an increase in activity.

G Glenn Holt 27:44
That's right. This is just about the busiest time of year for us. And now is a really good time to join up. Because if you want to see how Q patrol works, this is going to be the best time to do it. And this is also the time when we really need to have our patrols out there on the street. And of course we have a patrol out tonight. So far, it's been reasonably quiet. I've got them. Yeah, I've got them plugged into my right ear here. And things have been fairly quiet. I was out there last night. And I guess the highlight of the evening for me. I was working on the fundraising table over at Pacific street with Damn. But at one point, I went over and and parked my truck in Marty's parking lot and then was walking back and found somebody passed out cold on the sidewalk. Oh, no. Just beyond cousins. Well, it turns out that there's a couple of our people on patrol that are their EMTs Oh, so we had one of those people out too. In fact, she was the patrol leader last night notice. Yes, yes. And anyway, she came along I called her over on the radio, she came along and and then just about that time the the police that that that are hired to work over at Heaven came along as well. And this guy was really out cold and he was he had some blood on and in one of his ears. Anyway, we finally managed to rouse him we were at the point of of calling an ambulance for him. So I mean, that's that's the kind of kind of thing that happens as well. I mean, it's not all just about gay bashing. We we do some public welfare stuff like that, too.

S Sarah Dipalma 29:28
And I want to point out that Q Patrol is more than happy to have transgendered people come along. So if you're transgendered, you are welcome. And you gotta get out there and do it along. So if you're transgendered, you are welcome. And you gotta get out there and do it. That's right, because this is everybody's neighborhood. That's right. You know it. That's right.

J Jimmy Carper 29:36

G Glenn Holt 29:40

And we even have a grandmother that comes out and walks with us. Hey, Grandma, grandma. Oh, well, you know, the Q patrol motto.

J Jimmy Carper 29:46

S Sarah Dipalma 29:48

No

J Jimmy Carper 29:49

gland,

G Glenn Holt 29:50

for the foot patrol. It's walk off those unsightly pounds.

S Sarah Dipalma 29:55

Oh, okay. Well, then I got a volunteer like tomorrow.

J Jimmy Carper 30:00

scan. It's really fun. You know, it doesn't take any special training or anything. I am a member I just signed up about a month ago. And it's a lot of fun. You get to know your neighborhood. If you don't know the Montrose area, the bar area, you get to know it. And it's, it's quite interesting. And we
