SUMMARY KEYWORDS

gazebo, gay lesbian, people, houston, montrose, gay, aol, folks, call, issue, transgendered, transgender, anheuser busch, couple, support, sarah, campaign, beer, walk, news

00:02

That really hurts does

00:05

try us has a requirement of 18. Or if they're under 18, they have to have a parent with them, if they want to come to meetings. I'm like cat, I've had 1000s of emails from people that are under 18 years of age, and I just do the same thing. I like to help them, it must break your heart. Because you know what, these kids are Google issues. Yeah, there's just nothing I can do. And I don't know where to send those kids. Really? Don't I have? You know, an answer. I gotta apologize, because I heard you talking about hatch and what a wonderful organization does and I know what it is. But hatch doesn't want to acknowledge, at least in my opinion, they don't, they've never acknowledged to me that there are transgender children out there. And there are, because I asked him about it a couple of times who none of our kids are transgender. And actually, that's not true. That's not true at all. Because in 01:02

00:23

00:25

00:57

01:01

the last year, there have been at least two, okay, at least, it's probably been about a year and a half ago, that was the last time I talked to him. And that was No, I don't know how much support they're giving, giving these kids to tell you the truth, because I don't think they I don't think they know how to deal with

01:05

01:11

01:19

Yeah, and I and I know, you know, I went over and did a presentation for PWA coalition about three months ago, on transgendered people and transgendered issue issues with in regards to AIDS and HIV. And they told me going into, they had a pretty good idea of what was going on, and what transgender was all about. When I got done with the presentation, I was told by their leader, that he felt like he was a kid in a nuclear physics class. He had not a clue. About 90% of the stuff I was talking about.

01:58

Find that all the time. Sure. And find that all the time. Yeah. And it's just and it's sad, you know, we can do all the education we want to do we just need to keep hammering and hammering and hammering and not met up with education. You bet. Because I'm still learning. You know, and I've been with her for a while not, not with you. I know. Laurie is wonderful. I love her. But we've been together here on this show for almost five years. And just just recently, I think it was in the last month. It wasn't just tats, or GCTC. But it was for, for members of our community did another presentation over at Baylor College of Medicine to first year medical students. many of whom simply are not familiar with the whole issue and they year medical students, many of whom simply are not familiar with the whole issue and they want they need to learn to Yeah, they know, they know that they need to learn. The whole process was started a couple of years ago by my first year student who had come across the issue somehow. And she was actually from very conservative, at least his story was told me she's from some conservative, small town, I think, in Pennsylvania, and the issue came up. She said, Well, you know, irrespective of whether whether I approve of it, I'm gonna be a doctor, I need to know about this. There you go.

02:01

02:10

02:23

02:43

02:45

03:12

I'm very lucky, I have a doctor that that is very transgender friendly. But even she has difficulty with the pronouns. At one point, there was some thought that I might have to go to the hospital for some tests. And she wanted to put me into Texas Women's Hospital. And I said, Well, that was fine. I had no problem with that. I said, Do they understand what they're getting into? She said, Well, sometimes it's a little hard to explain the pronouns, but they'll get it. Which I thought was kind of interesting. But I'm really very lucky. But I searched a long time to find a doctor who was very who was it really had a knowledge of what the hormones were about, and that transition? Oh, yeah. Because I need to be able to talk to her about anything, you know, my life could be

03:54

Well, I mean, Howard, you know, what's going to be the interaction with any new medication that you might have to have for something?

04:00

That's right. It's not it's not only the doctors, it's the psychiatrist, a psychologist. The general operating procedure was with somebody going through his class through four years of medical school is generally about one hour of transgendered information to in four years of medical school. And it's about what the police get. Yeah, it's probably more than the police get. Or maybe the police can maybe get a little bit more than that over over a four year period of time. But, you know, to find any kind of a psychologist or psychiatrist or doctor that understands is like, Yeah, well, we were holding up the folks with the news here, so we need to bring this to a close. But I do want to mention this, because this happens so often. For those of you that are transgendered and you're below the age of 18. Yes, I am getting the email that you're sending. Yes, um, I understand the issues that are involved. I just want to say to you that all of us in the transgendered community who have ever served in leadership positions, know that you're out there. Were aware that you're there. I have, it's a real problem for me because I do get your emails. And I'm not even sure that I can legally answer you. So I tried to answer all of you as a group on the air and say, Yes, I'm getting the emails. Yes, I understand. If I had the answers, by God, I could be a lot wealthier than I am. Yeah, and I mean that sincerely. But at the same time, let me say that I'm not the only one who knows that this issue is about the situation. And we are trying to work out what that solution is, without all of us ending up in jail. Yeah, that is a tough issue. And we have a request from a listener who wants to know if we can please give up the numbers one more time. And let me start with GCTC. Somebody found it for us. It's very simple. 713780 GCTC 713-780-4282. That's the Gulf Coast transgender community. And go ahead and go to numbers one more time.

04:36

06:12

For HCDA. my pager again is 281-520-3610. Okay, and for Trius is 409-856-6759. Or B I n d i a n@lcc.net. In you want to give out the email.

06:22

06:34

Yeah, my email is Tex katrina@aol.com TXKTR i na@aol.com. And Vanessa, who's president of both tats and GCTC, her email address is moonflower@aol.com. to ours, the N spelled mo n flowrr@aol.com. And mine is our host of just like, it's the letter R, our host@flash.net.

07:01

07:08

My website is www dot Brenda t.com. And my there's a link to email right there to me, if you have the internet, my God, there are resources on the internet. Unbelievable. I really don't know where I would be with decent. Yeah, yeah, you just for a second, tell folks about what the gazebo is and how they can take advantage of that.

07:17

07:30

The gazebo is the the what I call the real transgender chat room on AOL. I mean, there's, I've lost track of how many chat rooms that are all when you get into the real, real sex areas, where you really can't just walk into the room and say I'm looking for cyber sex or whatever. That's not what the gazebo is. gazebo is under the transgender forum. And it is a support oriented role. And there's some other chatting going on just people who go in there all the time. There's a lot of silliness goes on. But if you walk, if I say, well, you're top of so what if you go into the gazebo and AOL and say, I'm new? I need help. Please give me some advice. Odds are there will be someone in there who will be able to answer your questions or at least tell you somebody else who can. And it's just a wait way to meet folks. Because when I was reaching that crisis point is an I mentioned the law school, but it was during my second semester of law school. And I was needing to find somewhere to go someone to talk to some some place to go. As I got, I got on to AOL. And I found my way into that chat room. And I'm met a lot of people in that chat room who were from Houston. And they told me about tats. And that just after a couple days, well, there's going to be meetings this coming Saturday. And I went met several of them. You know, at that point, there's some of those particular folks I were, you know, your pre op two yeses, several, several of whom are now now post ops. And I've just met, met so many people, not only from Houston from all across the world, literally. When I was part of part of law school, I did a study abroad over in England. And when I was over there, I got to meet someone in London, who I'd met in the gazebo on AOL. I can't tell you what kind of an enriching experience that was sure. Yeah, there's someone there is that there is absolutely no way on earth I would have ever even heard of much less met, but not for AOL and that specific chat room. And if you get on AOL, the there's a couple of different keywords that will get you there. You can either type in gazebo that'll put you into one screen where you can actually click into the chat room. A gender will get you there transgender will will get you there. It'll it'll put you into a screen where you can pick gazebo, chatroom TCF will get you there. There's there's probably several others. But again, basically if you type in the word transgender on the keyboard on AOL, you can find a whole lot of stuff. There's a lot of resources. It's a good starting place. If you're if you're not familiar with your way around the web, just, ya know, AOL, clicky, and transgender go to the transgender community forum. There's a lot of information as far as the gazebo specifically just typing gazebo. It'll, there'll be a little pop up screen. I think it'll list a couple of different chat rooms in the gazebo is one of them now, Beverly, you're from Austin? Is that how you met? Katrina?

10:29

10:36

10:41

Yes, it is. Katrina is my one of my best friends. My attorney. She She made me legal a couple of months ago. Hey, overdid it. Yeah, and thank God for the internet because I would have never met her. And we actually kind of bumped into each other at the transgender lobby. That's true. Back in January. But if it wasn't for the Internet, that wouldn't, we wouldn't be able to chat.

10:54

11:04

I want to thank everybody for coming. We need to get the news on the year. But I want to thank everyone. I think this has been some good radio tonight. You got a and from what I'm hearing, I gather, we have helped some people in the process. And that is what this show was all about. So thank you very much. Thank you. YEAH. Jimmy, we went to some music. Well, let's see. I want to I want to say a couple of things. First, I want to say thank you to Pete who called in with a pledge for after hours. And he says he's been listening to after hours for about three months. And he's calling in with a nice, generous pledge. And you can do at 7135265738713526 KPFT. We've got people sitting by waiting to take your pledge a cast of 1000s Yeah, yeah, maybe not. 1000s But plenty. Okay. And 11:58

11:22

11:53

now and now.

13:06

Oh, it's time for after hours news and views with big. And Chris, y'all. Yeah, these are really broken. I can hear it. Okay, so the first thing I want to do is talk about this is really incredible news, folks. You will remember that donna, donna Garrett was on the show. She is Houston's Premier, lesbian poet. She was on.

13:14

13:16

13:10

13:36

Oh, look, I'm giving Jimmy when back in 13:39

November, back in November, because we had a guy on who had just written a book.

13:44

Oh, that was during the BI net show wasn't Yes.

13:48

So Donna Garrett has now published a book entitled The spoken touch. This is a collection of 26 of her favorite love poems. There will only be a limited publication of 300 copies. That's it. That's it. Once they're gone. That's it. Each copy will be numbered and autographed. This is an opportunity to own a copy of the very first efforts of this talented artist to obtain a copy. Send 1999 Like the year two with check or money order to Donna Garrett, g a r r e t t at PO Box 52276 Houston 77052 Dash 2276. I want my checkout this afternoon. That's right. I want to be in on that. Because she is the Pat Parker of the 90s as far as I'm concerned. Yes, Pat Parker who wrote that fabulous poem. Where will you be when they come out? Okay, yes.

15:01

You gotta remember I'm here at the show, but I've never listened to the show.

15:04

Oh, yeah, you're in the lobby. You don't get to hear it.

15:07

Actually today earlier, I asked them to turn the radio up. Go Matt was telling his jokes. So I got to I understand that full. And I want to say hi to JB, who called in to say he's listening and say hello.

15:14

15:23

And I'd like to welcome everyone to this week's edition of after hours news with Chris.

15:29

Don't forget the views, because we certainly give our views.

15:33

No one ever gave you that idea.

15:37

Just kind of I do it. Anyways, and I'm not ashamed.

15:41

I'd like to give a shout out there to Tony up there and Midway. Randy and 15:46

Randy Yes. Yeah, yeah. And Mike, and Mike, I sent Mike a card, it got returned. What happened? Because wherever Mike is they don't accept cards. I don't know.

16:05

Some some goofy

16:07

incarceration thing. I don't get it. So I have to write a letter to Mike and it's long do well, not like having captivity at any rate moving right along here. And folks, will Gordon Chris and I have already said that we are going to make an attempt to be somewhat more serious this week. We're going to try to catch up. We're going to try to Butch up our show. The new this week. We're going to try to catch up. We're going to try to catch up our show. The new segment. At any rate, the layout for the news tonight is Andreas Pereira, who has announced his candidacy for city council at large position number two, and he's using as his campaign theme, home to us podemos, which is Spanish for together we can. Mr. Pereira says that part of his campaign is going to be to create a partnership between the city of Houston and H ISD. To provide a mentorship program for school aged children who are latchkey kids, and have parents who are out of the house between the hours of three and six. He also says that he would like to increase business activity between Houston and Central and South America. And he said that he'd like to make Houston the gateway to Latin America, in addition to being the gateway to Mexico, and he wants to make the city a more livable city. And he'd like to create more public spaces and better public spaces and improve our park system. And as soon as we have candidate other candidates for that position, we will keep you informed of what their positions are.

16:15

17:51

And continuing in the ballot box or election booth or whatever method we use in this little Burg. Okay, Cruz, what kind of propaganda have you got for 18:00

17:57

the what's the group here at the Gay Lesbian victory Foundation recently did a survey of and I want to put this out as a disclaimer, they interviewed 1000 likely voters of the 2000 elections over a three day weekend. And the people were from Madison, Wisconsin, Tucson, Arizona, and Encino, California, because that is a pretty good cross section. I've worked I worked in I've had a couple of jobs in doing public opinion polls. And it's very difficult to try to get a good cross section, you know, from one particular area to try to try to find out what the opinion is, are based on national opinion by taking public opinion polls in Orange County.

18:24

18:53

You know, it's amazing how important having you doing public opinion polls, because you'd be arguing that people go that's wrong, you shouldn't be thinking that. But 1000 People 77% of the vote of the prospective voters said that they would support they would vote for a gay lesbian candidate. Why? Just for standing up for what they believe in that there are people that they believe the gay candidates are actually going to stand up and say, and follow through with what they agree of what they their positions are. Well, I think that my read on the American public so far, and regards to Monica gate and water gate and all these other gates and waters and everything else, all these other scandals that have been going on, which is that voters are finding that gay candidates are more open and more trustworthy than the other ones.

19:27

19:57

I think also part of what might be in some of the even though the The figures that they released out here were based off of their political affiliation. And also in many of these, what their what they consider their religious belief to be. And of course, the numbers are a little bit lower in that part. Just a little, just a little bit 64% fundamentalist Christians 81%, mainline Protestants, 87%, Catholics, they all supported. And they were an answer, I would consider supporting a gay or lesbian presidential hopeful based on the candidate stand on the issues.

20:32

Right. So that's what the people are more interested in now. I think they're interested in the issues and they're also strong support for ENDA and hate crimes legislation, including sexual orientation as a, as a as a part of it. And the interesting part was they said, gay candidates will stand up for their beliefs. 33% said, it's more true for a good candidate, and only 11%. So that would be true for a straight candidate.

20:36

20:58

And I'll tell you, you know, this is really good, a good positive sign. These are good numbers. This is very encouraging folks. And I think that all this media attention to who is sleeping with who the public is finally just got saturated to the point, no more, no more, they just don't care anymore. And I think another part of it is where these people are looking at, I think there's some think of it, I think with what they're saying, and here's they're also willing to stand to vote for someone and believe in someone who's going to stand up and say what they believe. And they're not going to say who's giving them the most money. They're not going to say which preacher on the television is telling them what to say on this, that they're going to stand up and say, This is what I believe in. And I'm going to stick by my guns and this is who I am. Yeah. And that's the part I think that people are showing that they respect more of is someone who's willing to say, Here I am naked before the world. Now, Jamie's not listening. If I see something on naked, they're standing up there with all their their laundry out of the beginning. And that's it. Yeah, hiding behind anything.

21:23

22:04

I think that's very positive. Now, I had a very interesting thing happened to me yesterday, as I was leaving Kroger's. I saw these groups of protesters on both sides of Montrose and Haifa. And I for the life of me, here I am. I've got my little Kroger's bag, and I got my hot pants, hot shirt shorts. Oh, my goodness. And I got my gay pride teacher. My my gay pride necklace, and I'm just as queer as can be out on the street. Right. And I wonder what is all these protests? I mean, people are saying impeach Clinton, Mr. Hayden.

22:44

He's a traitor. Right?

22:46

I could not figure out what was going on. Come to find out. El presidente Bill Clinton from the oral office. I mean, from the Oval Office.

22:56

He's the one who said well, you're gonna try and be more serious.

22:59

He was at the hockey somebody

23:02

locked cologne de or Okay, thank 23:04

you. I'm not very good. If my Italian I think French, I'm excellent my French but at any rate, el presidente Bill Clinton was that was here in the Montrose about two doors down from where I was, in fact,

23:16

23:24

I was caught in a traffic jam at Westheimer in Montrose as the presidential motorcade drove by.

23:30

And I mean, you know, that dinner that luncheon that he had, I guess it was something like $22,000 a plate Yeah, I think was a couple. But that was the greatest thing about it though. Well, side story on this was column door, column door. I was closer. But here's the funny thing. One of Judge pose. I was a bad boy with and have to stand out here with a sign. Yeah. What's out there at Westheimer in Montrose, strangely enough, right before the motorcade came through. He disappeared.

23:38

23:43

23:45

24:03

I wonder why. So that when 24:05

the President went by he doesn't walk he's not driving by and there's someone that was fine. I bought drugs in this neighborhood now I gotta stand here with this sign. I kid you not

24:16

Oh my God. Somebody brought bought drugs in the Montrose Oh, hell you say? No. Oh, well, anyways, yes. What's

24:25

24:26

next?

24:27

Now? You got some queer beer here? Well, 24:30

I don't I don't have the paper in front of me. Queer beer. Queer beer. That's right. Anheuser Busch. No joke's on the name. The Anheuser Busch company

24:41

I don't do Busch

24:45

that we killed Sarah again here.

24:47

I'm so glad we added the views part to this one news. Okay, it kind of started this way. Well ever ready. Jerry Falwell is grinding up his monkey again. Monkey, Oregon. To complain, Anheuser Busch

24:52

25:02

Well, it's better than spanking it.

25:05

I don't want to see that video. The Anheuser Busch company had placed a ad in a bimonthly gay magazine in St. Louis. Yes, yes and, and poor old Jerry got his panties in a knot over that.

25:15

25:20

I guess. I guess he's on the bunch. I guess he's afraid his cousin's one of them.

25:24

Holding hands there you go. Just it all shows us the hands.

25:28

Yeah, it just shows the hands you don't even see a good look at the butt. And it's just two men holding hands with little slogan be yourself and making a Bud Light with the the Bud Light Gay Pride logo. So what's the problem with this? And well Jerry is all upset because here it is a a wholesome corporation that they sell beer. Hey, when there was prohibition, they made ice cream. Oh bet. Right. And he still remembers when Clydesdales were the only former transportation and he is protesting it and he wants people to call up and complain and he's sending it out on his what does he call this one the fall well confidential little propaganda line he has his weekly facts. And for those who want to support the side, and it doesn't tell us who to call Oh, Anheuser Busch is taking the unusual step of setting up two hotlines for people to air their views. If you wish to support the ad, call 18772318772337725 and I mean the Budweiser Corporation is they do support the community they opened up they open up and close the parade Yes. Yes. They danced years that I've been to it. Yes. And it's it's a shame that this the organization that fall well, I mean, first he goes after the Teletubbies now he's going after beer or whatever. What's what's next he's gonna go after I mean anything to get his name in the paper. I that's what it's all about. Do it has nothing to do with anything else. It has to do with his precious ego.

27:00

27:13

Which is bigger than he is. And honey, he's pretty big. He's even bigger than Rush Limbaugh.

27:21

So growth wise Sarah has something here about 27:26

I pulled this off of the advocates intranet site or her in the headline is gay cure ads to run on Mother's Day on television. The Center for reclaiming America or Burroughs. It's a great name for a Christian group, an interfaith gender right group that coordinated last summer's ad campaign, promoting Jesus as a cure for homosexuality. announced on Friday it is launching a television campaign on May ninth in Washington DC. The ads feature Francis Johnston, the mother of Michael Johnston, the head of the ex gay Caruso ministry, quote, Michael found out the truth, but he found out too late. His mother says he has AIDS. According to the Florida based center, the ad, which is sponsored by 17 religious rights groups, is from a mother's perspective, Isn't this where the center's national director Jane fold drew who came up with the newspaper campaign idea. I have to say Senator Trent Lott was criticized for comparing homosexuality to kleptomania right says television ads were the inevitable result of the widespread attention the campaign received last year.

28:46

I think the poor guy has dementia. Yeah,

28:49

this series of cable television commercials will take the truth in lieu campaign to the next level. And then it goes button says emboldened by the publicity religious conservatives plan to take the campaign to television last October, unfortunately, due to extraordinary bad timing in the death of Matthew Shepard in Wyoming, and they decided to withdraw the ads after vicious attacks by groups throughout the country. But they're going to run it in Mother's Day in Washington. Listen.

29:23

Here it is. We've seen this before. Underwear, this poor guy is not doing too well. And he's badgered, you know, if you don't repent, you're gonna go to hell and you're gonna die and you just being ex gay is like being just a little bit pregnant.

29:39

29:43

There you go. That's exactly. Just lifestyle. It's a light. It's a life there. You know, being a Baptist is a lifestyle.

29:56

Being ex gay is like being a Lochness man. It doesn't exist.

30:05

For a lot of alcohol. Yeah, really, you know, I'm going to tell you something. And this is what I really feel deep inside me. It is so normal for boys and guys to beat each other's brains out to get in to get a rifle and go out and show how machismo you are, and shoot Bambi. You know, let's go hunting and kill Bambi or if you're in Colorado, shoot your fellow schoolmates. God forbid, boys should love boys. Women should love women. Oh my god, the world is gonna come to an end because of love.

30:08

30:29

30:33

30:41

Well, you know, it was an art, there was a charge made. I did the shooting in Colorado were gay. And now it turns out, of course, that's not true at all. But it turns out that the charge was tracked back to of all people, Fred Phelps.

31:00

Suprise, but you know, I'm gonna tell you something. And this is the truth. I honestly feel that if people would stop for a moment and think, and just think, what is so awful about people loving one another? Well, to go with what you were saying about no. Map killing. That reminds me of something that I believe is on the grave of Leonard Matt Lavich, the Air Force Sergeant who came out back in the 70s. something to the effect of they gave me a medal for killing two men but threw me out of the Air Force for loving one.

31:20

31:43

It just really, it just really irks me. And this ex gay. Well, just like you said Katrina, agents don't exist. It just doesn't exist.

31:56

But back to the one thing we have to do. Station identification, commercial free and listener sponsored. 90.1 KPFT, the sound of Texas of Pacifica network station KPFT Houston KOLs College Station and you are listening to after hours queer radio with attitude on KPFT Houston and ke O 's College Station. And we're right in the middle of after hours news and views which is running a tad late marathon and the phones are not running right that number 713-526-5738. We've had a couple of really, really nice pledges from from folks, and we're looking for a few more. We just want to let management know that after hours deserves to be on at this time to put something Yes, they could put a whole lot of other stuff on a Now Sarah, you brought up about this ad campaign that's coming out on Mother's Day. Something else is happening on Mother's Day. What is that? Mother of Montrose, who's going to be the new mother of Montrose over at Mary's

32:01

32:11

32:25

32:27

32:54

33:10

Why am I not surprised? It's Mary's stuck in 33:14

a past mother of Montrose has been rainbows and clan.

33:18

I had a great he was a mother but 33:25

he took the words out of my mouth Okay.

33:27

Rainbow stuff on the internet. He deserved it.

33:30

Anyways, folks gone over the Mary's patio tomorrow afternoon at 4pm and find out who the new mom is mother of Monroe yes and of course on Father's Day we get the father of Montrose daddy of Montrose and there's another group there's another one coming out to the calling the boy of Montrose and that's July 4, really? Really?

33:40

33:44

33:51

Which will be followed by the Miss Westheimer hooker look alike.

33:57

Does Mary's have a trademark on the blank of Montrose? No, no. Well fundraiser tomorrow. The BRB as always having for avez amigos fallen Right.

34:13

Good. Amigos Swat.

34:15

34:15

I got past amigos. voluntaryist was E and the S stands for 34:21 were the Twitter.

34:23

Thank you my love my Latin brother. It's the Hispanic AIDS organization. That's right entry fee is $25 for the Miss single day mile. It's gonna be on the patio bar at 10pm and there'll be food and beer as you as everything. Well, hot dog steamed and oh, I'm sorry. It's hotdog stand and beer. So I feel like a beer soaked wiener. Go to the BRB draft and some of them are on the barbecue grill wall coming up. Yes next Sunday. A next sunday sunday sunday starting at the Georgia brown starting at the Georgia Brown and ending at the George R Brown. Yes, 35:09

34:48

34:57

35:03

a Georgia brown this year.

35:13

Whatever it's going to be registration starts at 8am. I'm going to be 35:20

I'm so sure.

35:22

The walk the Hev.

...and that's why,

35:23

I've got it. You know, I've got AIDS I don't need to walk.

35:29

Oh, they'll have free donation

35:38

sorry. But I mean, you know, this is a very important thing. And, and Houston is now coming up. I see as the fourth largest city in the nation. We are sadly behind other cities who have AIDS walks,

35:55

Yes, last year, we raised a quarter million dollars and hopefully, we're hoping that's going to they're hoping it's gonna get the increase and part of last year so it was just the Mexican smog. They were burning crops in the city like Seattle, which is a lot smaller than Houston. The TV stations and phone company are involved in the AIDS Walk and they raise over 2 million.

36:06

36:18

Well, they got a TV station there. Two radio stations. company's not doing it anymore. Sponsored by Chase. Hey, that's, that's good. And like I said, it starts at nine o'clock. It's a 10 mile walk or a 10k walking tour of downtown starting with Georgia Brown and it's Georgia Brown. There'll be a post walk party in the air conditioned comfort. Surprisingly, it's not in bold with local bands Benny Q and the night crew or whatever. And let's see come down at 8am and you'll be good you can play hunt and so you can see if you can find me there because I'll be there helping out with cool. So big we couldn't miss you. Folks, just look for the biggest guy down there in a cube patrol shirt. Okay, thank you 37:04

36:56

37:02

patrol shirt.

37:05

For more information free registration is required. So call 713524 ai d s. Or you can get them on the Internet at WWW dot eights help.org.

37:16

Okay, one final thing on B and I'm doing this one last news item. Yes, there is a difference to Sarah dipalma from her neck of the woods. The police department of New Haven Connecticut is looking for gay lesbian police officers you realize New Haven is where here the University is located one of the more liberal schools in the country.

37:33

37:40

Okay, so any of you folks out there who want to become a cop? Go ahead and if you're gay or lesbian, go ahead and join the New Haven Police Department.

37:49

I saw a few recruits out on Fairview. I mean, they were in the uniforms already.

37:54

New Haven is a very nice city. It's a very livable city.

37:57

They were on their way to two.

38:01

38:01

Oh, for me, you may even write forms to involve chapter anything else.

38:06

No, that's not the that. No, that's a different uniform. It is for cart entirely different purpose. She had a nightstick? I thought I'll bet he did. But he did. I hate to think where I'm sorry. I'm naive. Oh, right.

38:18

38:22

Did you wonder what he was carrying that can't have Crisco for good reason.

38:27

We're gonna get more serious. But amazingly, we're under half an hour already for the news. Hey,

38:32

Well, anyways, that's it for this week's edition of after hours news and views. Do we have us here? A couple.

38:39

I'll call him by the way. I'll tell Jamie this year. Sensitive sweeps month. Yeah, I want to take a personal challenge here. And when all the other news shows, they always like to put on these things. They always do the little news segments real exploitive. Usually they hit the strip clubs. So for my artwork here of being at this radio station, I would have to want to force myself to go some of the strip clubs here and see some of the male dancers and we can come back and report on it. Oh, no, that is dedication.

39:08

And under the covers report.

39:11

Actually, I have something new that I want to start that comes from a friend of mine who gives me the local farm and market report the farm and market report. Well, actually, it is the number of escorts who are listed in the weekly publication. And as of right now, the range for a an escort will run you from 50 to $200, with the average being 100, medium of 85. And there are 48 escorts local escorts currently advertising in the gay presses and three new ones out from last week. We'll try to give you that farm and market report every week. And if you'd like to be included and if you'd like to be included in the farm and market report, you can email us at after hours. KPFT at hotmail MI. I don't forget the photos.com I see him first so you may not get it. Until next week, and we're gonna try and serious up again,

40:29

Jimmy and Sarah and all the rest of the wakow crew.

40:35

And don't forget, thanks to Bill Maher for this of all the sex sexual perversions in the world. Abstinence is the weirdest.

40:55

See Rancocas video assassin, liquid assets post office bucks. New York.

41:03

No COD's or last names, please. This offer not available in stores called now. Yes, yes, yes, yes. Yes. Yes. That was a that was a piece that a group here on KPFT called civil service. Did they genuinely work? I like it. They had a show for quite a few years and did all kinds of stuff like that every week, every week. Anyway, you're still listening to after hours.

41:38

It's still marathon and it's still marathon. You're still not ring? We want to hear those phones ring folks at 52657385 to six KPFT to keep after hours on the air.

41:43

41:53

Well, we're gonna start to talk about something controversial now. Oh, like we haven't been. Hello. So if you've been out there sort of falling asleep, wake up because we're about to get we're about to get into some stuff. Okay. Let me give you a little background to this. Several years ago, when the Gay Lesbian Chamber of Commerce was first getting started, I made an all out effort to try and meet with the people that were involved to get transgenders included. somehow mysteriously, none of my phone calls were ever answered. And nothing ever happened. later learned that the bylaws had been passed. And its surprise meeting. I wasn't surprised that people who were involved in transgenders were intentionally left out. Uh huh. Now that was several years ago and since then I have occasionally brought the issue up but really felt like there was probably you know, I had there were other fish to fry so wasn't the burning issue? Well, it's been brought up again in but not by me what started at this time is this hand net this hand list? Yes. That we have that for the activist list. I love it apparently is thinking about going under the financial umbrella of the Gay Lesbian Chamber of Commerce. I don't know so much of its financial just 43:18

43:15

Well, as I understand it, it was there was simply an overture made by the Greater Houston Gay Lesbian Chamber of Commerce, I think courthouse specifically. And this all got started because it was simply mentioned to the the Hamnet folks, Brandon, Brandon, Brandon Wolf, on the net looking for, I guess, you know, comments. And I was one of the first persons who I just commented, because I was actually asking a question, because I had heard some of what Sarah just talked about. And I knew that all of that had taken place long before I've gotten involved in the community. I actually wasn't sure. At that point where the Gay Lesbian Chamber of Commerce stood regarding transgender inclusion, even though I was I was an AMA member. Again, I wasn't sure I just said, Okay. Your handout is very inclusive. If the Chamber of Commerce isn't, I see a problem with this, but I'm not sure what the status is. You know, what, what's the deal? And things got rolling from there?

44:24

Well, I did say it's, it's turned into 44:26

essentially a war. It seems like it and it's it's the same ol argument that we've discussed on this show a zillion times. It's the people who believe in inclusion versus the people who do not. Right. And, you know, this is an issue that we've talked about a zillion times on the show with involving whether it was our local PFLAG, or whether it was the Gay Lesbian Political Caucus, LG RL Grl. And I have been pretty quiet throughout most of this debate thinking that well, this is all going to blow itself over. But it hasn't. And what finally made me decide to respond is that there was an article in this week's voice by the current director of the Gay Lesbian Chamber of Commerce.

45:11

Actually, that article was in was in last week. My responses in this week.

45:15

Yeah, but what is your first No, his 45:17

last name is Anita Renteria.
