Jimmy Carper, Gigi, [Advertisements], [Music], Speaker 5, Elizabeth Richards, Speaker 1, Michelle

 Elizabeth Richards 00:01

And it's like, you know, we all I feel like we all have to get together because I mean, the religious, the religious right is going to discriminate equally against all of us. I mean, they're, and it's sad for like them to be less prejudiced than us I guess. Like there-.

 Gigi 00:21

But I think even more important, we should be a role model in the community, especially the bar owners and in the leaders of the community need to be aware that how you're being looked at. And there's a lot of eyes on you.

 Speaker 1 00:39

Yeah, we're talking about you. Yeah.

 Gigi 00:45

And you might want to examine some of these issues, because, you know, as leaders in a community, you know, there's another generation coming right behind us. And some of that generation might replace you if you don't watch your value system. But I think it's time for us to go to a music break again. This is cheapy with Fiat and we've got a guest couple of guests tonight. Rob Jays aren't one of our regular guests. But we also have Elizabeth van. Speaking on the s&m BND, California. Michelle, of course, my co hosts. It's just, I get a good feeling because the diversity of this room tonight gives me a right-.

 Elizabeth Richards 01:45

-to just send the whole station in general. Yeah.

J Jimmy Carper 01:48

You're listening to After Hours, queer radio with attitude on KPFT Houston and KEOS College Station, and we're gonna go to a little queer group called Vibe Tribe, the peppy number called Metamorphoeyes. Who you have I've tried with Metamorphoeyes. And we'll be going to queer music zone segment in just a few minutes. I already have several requests and dedications. And you can make your requests and dedication for queer music at 5265738. And now Gigi

G Gigi 02:34

Hi, Gigi here again. I do want to give our new number of Binet it out. Again, it's 467438. And we do have a recording if we're not there, but we do try to answer the phone as much as possible. The number again 467438. I kind of want to do a quick wrap up of the show. I know we've covered a lot of territory tonight. Very interesting. Topic. But I kind of want to start back with Shay because she she can kicked off the show tonight with transgender warriors. Anything you want to add or kind of summarize or do together any last thoughts?

M Michelle 03:33

Well, I would strongly recommend the book. If not, it's very well written. I'd also recommend Stonebridge blues too. I mean, there's another one's very well written and it makes it really really makes you stop and think about a lot of stuff and-

G Gigi 03:52

-we also have to touch on Kate Bernstein spec to Hender Outlander out.

M Michelle 03:57

That's a good one too. There are there are a number of books on transgender issues coming out now. It used to be the same as with bisexual books you go in and the one bisexual book was sometimes there and sometimes not. And for the longest time, Kate Bornstein spoke gender outlaw was pretty much the only transgender book out there it seemed. And I was at Inklings the other day put in a plug for Inklings go there. It's very good bookstore.

J Jimmy Carper 04:25

That's right. At 46 Richmond Avenue been there forever great star.

M Michelle 04:32

It's a good one. It's a very good one. But I saw like at least three or four new Wow transgender books of course I don't remember any of them but there were-.

 E Elizabeth Richards 04:49

-let's say I was amazed last time I forgot where it was to see like a full shelf of bisexual books somewhere. I was just like, Oh my god.

 M Michelle 04:56

Inklings has a whole bisexual section now practically And I think they kind of have a transgender section too. Yeah, it's not labeled as such. But it's in there. And I don't know if they did this on purpose or what, but the bisexual stuff is right next to the erotica, and the transgenders is running with the gay male issues, but it's kind of interesting. But it really does make you stop and think about a lot of things we take for granted. Yeah. And it is. If nothing else gives you a lot of information and without information, you know, I think hatred and fear stems from ignorance. And, you know, you talk about building a strong community, and we can't do that without knowledge and education, hence the key. And Feinberg's book really goes a long way toward that.

 G Gigi 05:50

I'd also like to throw in one last thought on that is, when the stork comes down. Now, it's not an easy picture. Sometimes it's a boy, sometimes it's a girl, and sometimes it's a little about. I'd kind of like to throw a few thoughts about a while before I do that. I do want to introduce another speaker that was here, you kind of heard her in the background, Ronnie, and Elizabeth, and I just want to kind of give them a chance to wrap up or any last thoughts or anything you want to kind of go in on the SM and women of color. You know, I know that there's a lot of discrimination out there. And a lot of you know, and especially, you know, I know that in the Hispanic community. s&m is something that's rarely to be-.

 06:51

Very taboo. Because in the Hispanic community, there is a pecking order. And it's a very cultural thing.

 G Gigi 07:02

And I imagine being a female top is all right, it's okay for a man to be.

 07:13

Exactly but you know, in that scenario, usually it's abuse. I hate to say that because that is my culture, but that is my culture. And so where you have a lesbian who is also a woman who's a mother, who is involved in a lesbian relationship and then a top and it does what I do because I do so much there's a lot of fear in my culture about that there's a lot of also curiosity.

G Gigi 07:47

Do you think also maybe that sometimes s&m is like that is abuse in the-.

♀ 07:54

Cultures there's not a whole lot of understanding yeah, there's not a whole lot of understanding so yes, there is a fear there's there's there's an awareness of S M but they don't really register it you know, they they just automatically assume that it's sick it's not right-.

♂ 08:11

-it's involved all you're having sex all of my friends thought it was like an ad one time I thought that was you know, all sex until I partake in the passivity one night and they had nothing to do with six.

♀ 08:28

Yeah, it can but it doesn't for a lot of us and so I think in Hispanic culture, there's a real misunderstanding about what SM is.

♀ 08:40

Yeah, release is stressful stresses like I should give you some right now.

G Gigi 08:49

I brought my will be right by way of writing.

♀ 09:04

-about one of my goals is to educate. I think bringing awareness about is really important and that's one of the one of my goals you know, now and forever but you know, really has pushed itself forward on my agenda list. To just bring about awareness and acceptance and do what I can to break those barriers.

♀ 09:29

Just because we don't wear leather doesn't mean that we're any different that we don't understand what SM is because to me, so it's not you know, anything that has to be leather, you know, you have to be dressed head to toe and other to be an SM or you can-

09:45

-have a leather fetish and not be into SM you can be in the SM and not be in the leather. Yeah.

Gigi 09:53

Exactly. And you can be in the BND not being anything else. I think that kind of brings us back to what I was discussing about in the sense of community in the sense of, you know, I think if we examined everybody's bedroom, you'd find so much diversity out there, it'd be unreal. You know, everybody's got a little bit of King somewhere.

Speaker 5 10:20

-times I've been to a-. Well, I never.

Gigi 10:23

And we all have different forms of expressing love. And it's, it's not something that's static. It's something that's always changing. For me in my life. It's it's changed in taken many forms. But it always means the same thing when I'm loving someone and saying, I love you. And it comes from my heart. And it's very special, even with the whip in hand. Do you have anything you want to add in the show?

Elizabeth Richards 10:53

Yeah, I just want to add that, basically, at least what I felt like the theme of this whole show was that we're all you know, we're all different. But we're all together. And we're all you know, we're all working for the same kind of thing we're all working to for acceptance. We're all working for diversity.

Gigi 11:12

And, you know, I don't know if you have it tonight. But do you have a special request? If you do? Yes. We are.

Jimmy Carper 11:24

Checking to see if I have a resurgence of that song here. Go get my pumps.

 E Elizabeth Richards 11:36

Going To Show get caught up turned off the air.

 G Gigi 11:42

But anyway, that's us for tonight with BiNet, it's been wonderful.

 J Jimmy Carper 11:49

Yes, it has and thanks. Now, coming up will be the QMZ with me, which we haven't heard in a while and towards the half hour, we'll be playing the old farts tape. That's the interviews done with some of the some older gay and lesbian folks who were around at the time of Stonewall. So stay with us.

 [Music] 12:19

so why you have a timetable? Okay, okay. Okay, that's it. That's it. That's it. That's it.

 13:48

Equal rights. Oh, I'm definitely for it. I always have equal I carry it in my purse. I think that it's a very good product. It's certainly a better than a sweetened, low and much better. And then sugar twin that's kind of gritty. Yeah, I'm, oh, I always have the blue packet.

 J Jimmy Carper 14:11

And that was Lisa and Peggy. You'll be hearing a little bit more from them later giving you their take on life. I'm Jimmy and this is the QMZ and I'm getting ready to play something that you haven't heard in a long time. It's the official opening to the QMZ it kind of goes like this. Yes, you've tuned into the QMZ the queer music zone where we feature music by openly gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgendered artists. We also take requests and dedications and this one came in early In the evening, it it's from Thomas and he wants to send this out to Doug and Mary. It's by Bronski, who will be here for pride Fest this year doing a free concert for everybody right after the parade on June 23. And this is their take of I love the night. Oh, yeah, I love the nightlife by Bronski be thanks for that request, then you can give us your requests at 5265738. We're taking them now. And let's say in the news, I want to congratulate Deborah bell on being announced the new editor of the new voice. There is quite an article on Deborah in the paper this week. I've known that for a long time, but I had no idea she's done all of that. It seems unbelievable accomplishments in one lifetime. I know Deborah when she used to be on Wildenstein, here at KPFT Houston, and also with lesbian and gay voices, which incidentally, can be heard every Thursday night eight to 10pm with Jack, and Joan and mark. And Glen, just to name a few of the people involved in that show. Now, I'm going to play another favorite that's been requested. Well, actually, I've well see this is a special one. This is for Aaron. Now Aaron is a longtime listener, teenage listener who graduated from high school today. Congratulations, Aaron. He's been listening for a long time and has brought a lot of other gay teens to after hours. Now I also hear that he's been accepted at U of H. So if I know anything about Aaron, I think there's going to be new blood pumped into global that's the gay and lesbian or bisexual group at U of H and have a little PS here. As I would expect from any good queer Aaron graduated with honors fifth in his class, and he's always talking about he wants a boyfriend he wants a boyfriend. So how about this old favorite from eraser? Gimme gimme gimme, man after midnight-. Give me Give me Give me your man after midnight affectionately known around here as give me cubed. And that was that was for Aaron with love from after hours. And now Sam and southwest Houston, you picked two of my favorites. And this is one I haven't heard in a long time. So I just used to be the most requested song. Haven't heard it in a while. So it's time it's fine horse and it's and she smiles.

18:26

Definition pro choice oh yeah, well that's the best one No, no actually prime is the best and then your top choice and then select cuts and then utility cuts Yeah. You want to avoid that utility cuts though because that's beaks and feet and entrails and all that stuff they put in winners. Yeah. So Prime is your best cut of beef but choices right there. So I'm definitely pro choice.

Jimmy Carper 18:55

Another little tidbit from Lisa and Peggy. You just heard French pitch the clean version by Chrissy Tourette. That was for Jim, you can imagine what the dirty ones like if you they call that the clean version anyway. And Thomas as requested queer by garbage now garbage is a straight group, you know, we wouldn't normally play them in the QM Z. But queer is such a cool song that they gotta be by or something, you know. So here we go.

19:37

Definition lesbian. Oh, some of the gaps in the cul de sac are less materion it's one of your, you know, good Protestant faiths. Of course. I'm a Lutheran so I don't know. You know what actually goes on inside the church, but it's pretty much like mine.

Jimmy Carper 19:58

Yeah, it is pretty much like your sign Make another little tidbit from Lisa and Peggy. And you're listening to the QMZ the queer music zone heard more weekly than in the future than we have been doing in the past. And after hours KPFT Houston and KEOD College Station. I've got another request here from Lynn and southwest Houston, who always requests CWA with this song and wants to dedicate it to Jennifer. With all my love. It's called only straight girls wear dresses.
