Oh, a little piece of something that a friend of mine put together. That is just too fun. Isn't that funny stuff? Ah, yeah. So before that, of course, the flirtations with the homecoming Queens gotta go now we're gonna get serious. This is probably my favorite, favorite piece of music. It was not done in 99. It was done earlier than that, but it's actually my favorite Boy George song and I've got everything he's ever recorded, I think. And it came off of a critically acclaimed album, but it didn't do so well in sales. And I do not know why because everything on it is really really great. It's called it's the album's called cheapness and beauty and the song often go together is the song is called unfinished business because I think we've had a little of this in our life somewhere some time. Yes.

Boy George unfinished business from his album, cheapness and beauty, Bobby. Um, like, haven't you been there?

05:29

Oh, yes. You know, Yeah, no kidding. While we're thinking sitting here celebrating a new century and everything, we can't forget all that too.

05:33
