SPEAKERS

Bobby

00:03

Okay, I've taken enough heat now for these two nice, slow romantic song I like that last one, of course, you've heard many times on this show, Patrick arena with Andy Monroe on piano doing. Gianni Angel from their album. nightcap, which act which, by the way, one for Best Debut. Ooh, that that album. And before that, of course SERESE wit who won for best jazz for remember that you did it with me? First. Yeah, sounds like music from the briar patch. Don't forget mine, actually. Whatever the 01:01

00:53

Yeah, we're gonna pep it up a little bit around here. With music?

01:08

Yeah, that would be helpful.

01:14

Neck coming up next is woman born in Louisiana. Mary go che you've heard her many times on the show. Also our French? Yes. Yes. She is now living like in Boston or something. running a restaurant. And food good. And singing. Oh, yeah. But yeah, she's hails from that neck of the woods. I bet. You bet. And she won. Let's see. Let's see. Let's see. For country of all things. I don't think this is particularly country but could have fooled me. I know it. Drag queens and limousines by? That's right. I told you I was gonna drag queens in limousines from her album of the same name. She was glamy award winner in the country section and you're hearing it on after hours right here on KPFT. Houston and Keos.

Bobby 01:39

01:40

02:24

IDS Hello, hello. Yes, Hedwig and the Angry Inch. That was an off off off off off off off off off Broadway musical ointment for that

02:35

02:36

it's not that way. Interesting, interesting music, wonderful music actually 12345 songs that I got from it that I played on the air. And that and that was of course, sugar daddy, and Hedwig and the Angry edge won two awards, two Grammy Awards, cast recording, your naturally a score for film or theater went to Stephen Trask. For the cast recording of head we're getting angry and just thinks not so very long ago, all you could get was romanovski. And Phil, I know. I was not that that was a bad thing. I was a wonderful test drive.

Bobby 03:20

03:30

I've talked about this, I was a judge for the preliminaries and a final judge also. And in the preliminary fees. There was like, There's must be about 1520 categories. And there's like 30 to 50 people per category in it. And they had to be filed down to five each and sit there and go, Oh, I know. So hard, trying to you know, give more points to one than the other because everybody was so perfect that they're all out there. And they're doing that. It's like you gotta get no matter who wins. You that they're all out there, and they're doing that. It's like you gotta give them credit. Who wins? You got to give them all credit for being out there and doing the music out there. Whoring it out they are all winners, to me to my way of thinking. And that's just some of the very many winners and in the Grammy Awards, you may have read it as Grammys in one of the publications but it's glammy glammy GLA mm y

Bobby 04:05

04:17

Bobby 04:38

and have ever mentioned how attractive I thought that our earlier guest was only about 500 times tonight

04:42

04:48

on with the Glamis

04:49

ya know, my weekly missive from Buddha Buddha from Kathy Vino right over there on Montrose right next to Phoenix Calm Mix. And this says well, well I finally a little something for you guys. I hope you enjoy the chocolate truffle fudge just for Jimmy Of course, of course. And Chris Well, most of it and then Chris Christie was out today. Yes. And Chris looks like he needs a couple of more calories. is a very big man and Chris Harris is is much bigger. Yeah, yeah. So Chris is a very big man. But he's all heart.

Bobby 05:25

05:28

Oh, yeah, sure is. He sure is.

Bobby 05:31

And so is Buddha in his own special way. Yeah, they do have a saying over there that you know, you come for the coffee, you stay for the abuse or you go if he doesn't, if he hasn't taken a shot. He says that if you can't take a shot while you're there, you know, you know, he is one a SHOT. HE SAYS THAT IF YOU CAN T TAKE A SHOT WHILE YOU'RE THERE, YOU KNOW, YOU KNOW, HE IS ONE of the few people I will allow to make fun of my disability. Okay. He gets away with it first of all, because he outweighs me by a few 100 and because, you know, you just gotta love Buddha, Buddha. If he doesn't assault your he doesn't like it exactly. One thing I wanted to chat about very quickly, and I hope I have the right paperwork here. Not that I'm ill prepared. Oh, no.

06:03

06:19

Understand what I'm doing here. Of course, I don't have the right paperwork. So we won't talk about that. Song while I look for the papers on this week. Next week is the bisexuals.

Bobby 06:33

Oh, okay. Oh, I wonder if Scott's gonna be here. And there was a quote that I'm going to repeat verbatim next week. But it goes something like, I just love bisexuals. They're the only queers left with SEC still in their name. Yeah. Anyway, whether they feel preliminaries in the theme Allameh judging was a group called sir. And it's kind of a, it's an M group. Well, you might think so. My, I'm gonna play this and I'm looking look for this. Well, actually, there is a picture of one of the band members looking at boots, so I don't know what that means. Anyway, this is called my Marine by group called Sir, it's going to be different than you're used to hearing I think, after hours.

06:38

Bobby 07:35

Am I going to have to take the headphones off to hear this?

07:38

I think I think you better we'll be right back. Trinity with the man that got away, that's what they make fishhooks for you. Drag them back in the background, and the Monroe with from his album a joyful noise. This one. This has been the fifth Saturday of the month for after hours and Jimmy Carper. Bobby Yeah. And we invite you to join in next week, where we'll have bisexuals and, and Chris and maybe Jason doing something very bizarre and weird in the second half.

07:50

07:54

07.04

08:28

And that would be unusual.

08:31

Anyway, Big Daddy j is standing right behind me. He's ready to start up the Red Eye special. The beginning of our blues Sunday. So have a good one. Take care. We'll see you next week.
