Jimmy Carper 00:02

Oh yeah. Oh yeah. Oh yeah, good ol RNP, Romanovsky and Phillips doing "What Kind of Self Respecting Faggot Am I?" Before that, something you may or may have recognized but didn't know exactly what was. It was the Seren--Serenade, done by Franz Schubert? Yes we are. If you've been listening the past few weeks, we've been trying to put in a little classical music every now and then. And there are a whole lot of classical folks who were gay, and we're going to tell you who they were and play their music. Before that we had that special dedication to Polo from Ross. "Damn I Wish I Was Your Lover" by Sophie B. Hawkins. Coming up, queer music zone and I want to remind everyone that this week and every week the QMZ is dedicated to the men and women out on our streets patrolling tonight, the Q-Patrol Thanks guys. Thanks. Thanks women. Coming up, a band who had a member who was featured in Bear Magazine, so I figure, hey, this is a good group for the QMZ. Yeah, that was Ani DiFranco, with "In or Out," the story of a bisexual person. Prior to that, by request, Faith No More and "Midlife Crisis." Before that, we had "Anthem" by Pansy Division. And yes, they were in town. They played Catal Huyuk. It was cool. It was wonderful. I had on the Pansy Division t shirt and screamed with everybody else. It was great. And not only that, they were even better in person, because they did really fine guitar work that you don't have on the CDs. Before that we had King Missile doing "Sex with You." And yes, Chris from King Missile is the one who posed in Bear Magazine and made quite a splash. We're going to wind up the QMZ that you hear every week on After Hours, a continuing tradition right here on KPFT. Houston, 90.1 FM, world radio for the people. You hear it every week. Yes indeedy. And we're going to finish it up with a song that was by request. It's by RuPaul. And it's "Back to my Roots."

Okay, where you at, Jimbo? Are you on? No, you're not on. There we go. There we go. Okay, we're back. And that was your, that was your talented and lovely Jim Carper doing the QMZ tonight, which is always really.

Jimmy Carper 03:22

 JIMMY CARPER 03:33

I didn't really formally signed off. I'm sorry. That's okay. Can I do that?

 Speaker 2 03:37

Yeah.

 Jimmy Carper 03:37

Okay.

 Speaker 2 03:40

Drumroll?

 Jimmy Carper 03:55

I don't know. It's from,

 Speaker 2 03:59

Cool air?

 Jimmy Carper 04:00

No, it's, it's got the electronic flourish and it's a sound effects record.

 Speaker 2 04:05

Cool. I hear that on some show or something I see. Well, oh, let's see while you're queued up that record. I got a couple of special guests in the studio tonight who are eager to tell us about the World Series. Now I know that this is not a strictly kind of thing that we would talk about here. But we have experts here tonight. And both play on baseball teams. And they watched the, on the twins. They watched the ballgame at my place tonight and are eager to let you all know who won. Who won the game?

 Speaker 7 04:37

Blue Jays won.

S

Speaker 2 04:38

Blue Jays won. That's, that's Buddy and Alan you had to speak into that mic there.

S

Speaker 8 04:44

Toronto won.

S

Speaker 2 04:45

Toronto won and what was the score?

S

Speaker 8 04:48

Final score was eight to six.

S

Speaker 2 04:50

And what happened to me? I heard you screaming from the other room.

S

Speaker 8 04:54

Well, Joe Carter, and then bottom of the night, hit a three run home in the game.

S

Speaker 2 05:01

And that was a record breaker, history maker, wasn't it?

S

Speaker 8 05:04

Yes.

S

Speaker 2 05:05

Wow.

S

Speaker 8 05:06

It's, it's the second one ever to be hit to win a World Series. 1968?

S

Speaker 2 05:13

Yeah, from '68. It's the second time it's happened and the last time it happened was 1968. Home run. A home run, won the game tonight. Pulled in three runs. And hasn't happened since 1968. What do you think you'd like? '61? I thought they said it was 68. It was 68 I believe, long time ago that that has not happened since then. And we have experts here. They won their ballgame tonight, didn't you? What was the score tonight? Oh, come on. You're ol ballgame for I'm gonna tell your coach. Two games.

S

Speaker 7 05:53

First game it was like 11 to 1.

S

Speaker 2 05:56

11 to 1.

S

Speaker 7 05:57

Second game was,

S

Speaker 2 06:02

Can't think too long. People out there get bored and go to sleep.

S

Speaker 7 06:06

Oh, well.

S

Speaker 2 06:08

You guys play, what position do you play Alan?

S

Speaker 8 06:10

I play left and right and center and sometimes I play catcher.

S

Speaker 2 06:15

What do you play, Buddy?

s

Speaker 7 06:16

I'll play catcher, shortstop and second.

s

Speaker 2 06:19

Catcher, shortstop, and second. You guys really cover that field? All right. And you're out here spending the night with mom tonight, huh? Yeah, yeah. And we just dragged you down here tonight. Yeah, yeah. Yeah, boy. We're real real talkative here. Real talk. This is Family Night. We have. We have a little girl laying on the floor about 40, 30 feet from me sleeping. That's Robin. She's unable to stay up this late. The boys of course they will. I'm gonna love this in the morning because they are going to sleep till noon. I love this. I get to, I get to get up in the morning and watch. What do we watch in the morning on Nickelodeon. Ren and Stimpy! Ren and Stimpy morning, Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. And you bet Jewel is up at 10 o'clock to watch Ren and Stimpy only I'm only up till 10:30, then I go back to bed because I'm up until four on Saturday night with you people listening here. Our loyal followers who are up during the gay drive out, gay drive rush hour. It's two o'clock. The bar is closed and you're on the road. And we're glad you just tuned in. This is After Hours. And I have Buddy and Alan here. And they just informed us that the Toronto Blue Jays won the World Series tonight. Back to back last year they won, too, didn't they? That's right. Last year they won. And you guys are really happy about that. But you wanted Philly to win though, didn't you? I heard you earlier. I told you Toronto was gonna take and you want the Phillies to win. Well, they looked like they were gonna get it to the last minute, didn't they? Yes, that's right.

s

Speaker 7 07:52

I had a feeling that Toronto was gonna win.

s

Speaker 2 07:54

Yeah, yeah, we're gonna have to put some money on those feelings kid. Yeah. Okay, listen, we're gonna go to you got another film to say to mommy? We're gonna go, yeah, we're gonna let him, he wants to push that button there. There you go. We're gonna go to another Fem2Fem. what do you got Jimmy?

j

Jimmy Carper 08:13

And appreciation. Well, anticipation. thinks we're going to be running. It's Fem2Fem doing "Coming Out." Yes, Fem2Fem doing "Coming Out" and I hear from Scott that they will be performing that song at Heaven next Saturday night for our lucky ticket winners.

s

Speaker 9 08:45

And what should I add to that? Plus, plus many more.

J

Jimmy Carper 08:48

Plus many more. Thank you, Scott. Okay. Now I need to make a dedication. This is for two women that happened to be in the studio tonight. Jewel, and Evelyn.
