and you're listening to after hours queer radio with attitude right here on KPFT Houston and KEOS College Station Bryan, I'm Jimmy Carper, your host tonight for three hours of queer music, and we're taking your requests at 5265738. We just did a great cover of I love the nightlife. No, that was not Alicia bridges who originally did it that was Bronski beat who have read on it for 1995. And it's kind of I've Well, I've got a lot of faves. You know, I was thinking, we told you at the beginning the beginning of this year in January that we played in 1994. We played 104 Different queer artists here on after hours, and I think we're gonna top it this year. I don't know I haven't counted them up yet, but we sure play a lot of them. And speaking of new queer artists, Russ McCoy, remember that name? Russ. R Us? MC COI. He has a brand new album out called the gravity bail. We featured it last week. And we're gonna play it again because it's really good stuff. I may I may play a couple tonight. This is my absolute favorite. It's called God's ear. Yes, Janice en, and that's my favorite cut off of her revenge album. It's called Take no prisoners. And you're hearing that on after hours Kwo radio with attitude right here on KPFT Houston, and KEOS College Station Bryan. That's 90.1 FM, and 89.1 fm respectively. And let's see, we we've been playing requests that we're getting in from you and you can call us at 5265738 and we'll play your requests for queer music. I'm going to go into a little country and western and then into a little punk after that, but right now some Doug Stevens and the out band especially for Rainbow Decler. Who Yes, it's Spencer. That's the new openly gay cowboy Well, he's been openly gay for a while but he's got a new album out and about again and it's really openly gay stuff before that, you heard Lisa Koch with night at the timber line that's firm her from her album you make my pants pound and other show tunes and started it out with Doug Stevens in the out band without in the country a long time favorite for after hours listeners. How about if we do another set Spencer? I kinda like that guy. This is one we did a couple of weeks ago. You got to swim well, if I'm going to tell you that I'm going to play a certain song, then I really should play that certain song should not Yes, number 13. Number two, well, you got to swim. Yeah, that's pretty music by the Williams brothers. Yes, Andy Williams nephews one is openly gay and the others not openly gay. You figure that doing a song called Don't look now, before that we did sit Spencer. And you got to swim and now we have a request from David in the Galleria area. And I told you I told you earlier in the show someone was going to request this song. It's new Boy George. In fact, I may play two of them.

Because I've got my favorite to it. But this is for David. It's called if I could fly okay problem with the CD player. So we're going to do that song one more time because it's, it's too pretty not to finish. Okay.
