SPEAKERS

Jimmy Carper, Chris Harrison

00:00

Only perverts out there. And I've got a real special guest this morning. But before I introduce her, I want to say my extra extra special guests are all the people out there listening and us because we're able to listen. You know, I know Rita was coming and throwing a really, really huge party. But fortunately, she decided to kind of take it elsewhere.

00:31

At least most of her were pretty happy about that. Now, I'm not in the station. So we're, you know, understanding what have to be interrupted every now and then.

00:45

Well, that's slash.

Chris Harrison 00:47

That's what it was supposed to be. But you know, the new staff is upstairs, resting from Yes, getting all this stuff down here. There's really no news. You know, the storm missed us. We are not even hearing any reports of low flooding. So all we've heard about is rain and some tree limbs down. That's it. Wow. So yeah, we really shouldn't be having interruptions till the very end when it comes time to wrap up the segment for the top of the hour. Yes.

Jimmy Carper 01:06

Chris Harrison 01:12

 J Jimmy Carper 01:19

The hurricane that wasn't

 C Chris Harrison 01:25

the only other side note I'm going to say here is whoever the station staff who was calling us know when the yellow light, call us on the request line, because that phone is not working while I get as a flash in my eyes twice. And the phone is dead. Yeah. So call. Those of you at the station are trying to get a hold of us in the booth. Call on the request line, please. All right. So you're ready for your gas.

 01:50

I am ready for my guess.

 C Chris Harrison 01:51

Okay, let me cross our fingers and hope they think these magic buttons work for us. Yes, really.

 01:56

I this is going to be a pretty cool weekend for this area. My guess should actually be sitting in a chair next to me at the radio station. However, Rita kind of bumped her from her flight. She is in Atlanta, Georgia.

 C Chris Harrison 02:18

Push the buttons on the shelf. I don't lose both of you. I'm hoping I got this right. Okay, bear with me.

 02:24

Go on and go for that button. Ups. I

 C Chris Harrison 02:27

lost mistress V or vi Are you there?

02:30

You lost Matt.

Chris Harrison 02:32

Oh, she's gonna whip me. I thought this was 02:36

how could you misplace that?

Chris Harrison 02:39

I hung up on her accidentally. I thought we were able to do this. It's I thought I checked with them and everything was gonna be right. But it's Oh, hang on, actually. Well, she's gonna have to call back but this other. That's not even. That's for phone what it used to be. Oh, I feel horrible. It was supposed to work. Okay, so what we're gonna do is this might put you on hold the max call this other one. And the reception is gonna go very bad on this. So hold on one second. All right.

J Jimmy Carper 03:27

Matt, well, so far there. We're trying to figure out another way to do this interview. And while Chris is setting that up, I might as well tell you a little bit about some things going on. I see Oh, H Imperial Court of Houston. That space to the Empire is having their big enthronement and thrown in for its 2005 Space Odyssey. Woohoo, Vegas, it'll work for the royal flush, that would be Saturday, October the 15th 2005. And that's, you know, that's just a couple of weeks away. This that whole week is very special because of out of town guests that are going to be here and parties being thrown. And Saturday night is the big night with the big show and lots of jewelry and all that kind of good stuff.

C Chris Harrison 04:30

And they care big job. Oh,

J Jimmy Carper 04:32

 Chris Harrison 05:28

Websites at Empire dot o RG.

 Jimmy Carper 05:31

There you go. And there's nothing lined up this weekend because everything everybody has canceled everything this weekend because of the hurricane. That didn't happen. But next week, next week, next Friday, the peasants are revolting. And host for that is Jeff Rose and mark that there'll be an E Jays at around 839 o'clock. And Saturday night is The Empire Strikes Back. That's where the royalty gets to shine. And that's being hosted by Jarrell and Eartha and that's at Mary's that same time. Okay, do we do we have it all together yet? No. Okay, how about theater, suburbia? Folks, the Joker fired twice. It's kind of a Raymond Chandler type 50s noir, mystery. A little over the top. But it's a it's a lot of fun. Those folks were with us a couple of weeks ago. And they have a special for those of you who are listening to after hours when you make your reservations. And it's running every Friday and Saturday night through October the 15th. So if you call any reservations you get and you get one ticket, you get one free. So this would be a good date night, you know, for two for the price of one. And to do that. You would call theater suburbia. At 71368235256823525 for reservations. No, I think we've got it together.

 Chris Harrison 07:42

Mr. Shah, go ahead and talk. Hello. Hello. Hello. Yeah, yeah, we're hearing Yeah.

 07:52

Oh, yeah. It's a little soft. I've got you. That. That's I do have that side. I can be a little soft.

 Chris Harrison 08:01

Okay, and we got v back on the air V. You there. I'm here. All right. It's gonna be a little soft talking. But we're gonna be able to manage this. I think we're,

 08:09

I can't hear V. Oh, Christ at all.

 Chris Harrison 08:15

Oh, that's right now that we're not on.

 08:20

Now I can hear me. Yeah.

 Chris Harrison 08:22

Unfortunately. Yes.

 08:24

Why don't you go on and talk to buy? Okay, you know what I mean? And we'll just kind of make it a part one. And we'll do part two next month.

 Chris Harrison 08:39

I have one other idea of my slave, your max. Hold on. All right. Try this.

 Jimmy Carper 08:44

Engineering on the job. Here we go. Okay, those funny noises you're hearing is sound rude. Can you to hear each other now? Hi,

 09:04

Max. Yes,

 09:06

they're like, Okay, yeah, Max, I can hear you. Although you're a little soft.

 09:10

Okay. I can't get much louder than this. But anyway, I want to tell you that my special guest this month is Viola Johnson.

 09:23

Do you think I'm coming through clear enough? Okay, oh, yeah. Great, great. Bye has been an

Do you think I'm coming through clear enough? Okay, um, yeah. Great, great. Bye has been an outstanding and amazing contribution to the leather community over many years.

09:45

As a matter of fact, I'm going to let her tell you that. I want to give the audience a little background on your amazing and wonderful self. You know, Max, flattery

09:56

will get you everywhere.

09:57

Thank you very much.

09:59

I say that I would call myself neither amazing nor wonderful, just old in sort of experience. Okay, well then would you share some of your experience with us? Once upon a time when the world was young, and I was a graduate student at Montclair State, I ran into a very kinky individual. Now, my background is kind of interesting in that when I ran into this very kinky and perverted individual, I was so straight, it would frighten me even by today's standards. I was a black debutante and a Republican, oh my god, I can't even picture that. Now remember, you are only as sick as your secrets. And that's probably my biggest one. And this particular young pervert was not just kinky, she was female. And much to my surprise, I fell in love. Isn't that just amazing? It was it was also rather amazing to my fiance, who wasn't particularly thrilled with the concept. Poor baby, although came to know and adore this young lady as well.

11:16

So fade out.

11:18

She worked for me, which is how we got to know each other talk about twisted relationships. And as it turned out, and exploring her world, my world changed completely. So in 1973, not only did I get off the black Republican path, I became kinky, and the lesbian.

11:46

All in one shot, that's pretty good. Listen, I do want to say this before we get on. At some point, I may get lost here, just due to the fact that the wind is kind of picked up a bit out here. So this phone may go out. Now. So do continue. And this is only part one.

12:13

We can hang tight with part two next month. Matt Lully. Absolutely. Fine. How? First explain. You call yourself. Or if you have to pick a label, you use a lifestyle slave. Actually,

12:21

12:31

I don't even use the term lifestyle displays. Only because back in the day, and you will find me using that phrase an awful lot. It happens after about 30 years. It wasn't a white file. It was like that was just the way it was explained that place.

12:53

A lot of the people who listen, you know, what does that mean? Once you found this community and that in and of itself took an awful lot of work, please remember this was 1974. No internet. None of the what we considered modern conveniences, you had to be pretty determined to find the group, the individual who can take you down this path. Now Jill and I were very lucky. In that. We found a one inch by one inch advertisement in the back of a newspaper called The Village Voice. And it basically said, Inky, comma, lonely, comma, come to and it gave an address. And in a spirit of bravery, guilt, not mine. Because for the most part, I was on color. We shouldn't have my eyes out. Because neither one of us really knew what we were walking into.

12:55

13:58

Okay, and we are speaking of the also amazing and wonderful killed Carter. That's my day. Okay.

14:07

So we found a group called Orange people in New York. We walked into a meeting and there were about 20 people there. The president of that organization at the time was a man named Jack Jack, also called blackjack. And we were scared when we walked into that meeting, because I will always remember the door was at the back of the room. So he was the only one who could see us because everyone else had their back.

14:39

And he said come in little sisters, your home. Wow. And from that point on, we started we came out in public, started loving, learning, meeting him and growing. Now, in my era You pretty much had two choices. You came out as a master or a slave. Now this was in New York. So we're talking about the East Coast and the East Coast ways. And deal was very much the master in the situation. And I very carefully choose not to use the word dominant or submissive. And I'll get into those definitions later, in terms of how I grew up. And again, we've got a backup 30 years. So once those declarations were pretty much made, the training started. Jill learned her skills, traits and pride. From a number of wonderful people, unfortunately, mostly now deceased. The last of our great mentors died only a few weeks ago, a few months ago. I learned mine from other seniors.

14:45

16:00

I'm getting an extreme. A lot of feedback, Chris.

Jimmy Carper 16:06

Yeah, there was a little bit feedback here. It's the way we've got to. Boy. I know I know.

16:20

You remember Jimmy,

16:22

when you want.

Jimmy Carper 16:25

Me, me, me, me, me, me. Me to be the tall skinny one. I'm not tall. Brunette. Yeah.

16:35

Yeah, that was okay.

J

Jimmy Carper 16:41

I thought we had met your story is fascinating. Because it's almost like you are apt to be in, in the beginning of an organized BDSM movement,

16:56

I wouldn't say beginnings of the organized movement, as much as I would say, the beginnings of the public movement. Okay. And my reasons for clarifying that is because, as unfortunately, if I were there to show you some of the weather history presentation that I take with me, small groups, and even larger groups been in existence for hundreds of years. They've been even harder to get ahold of you right now. Sure. I mean, if you stop and look back at the original Hellfire Club, not the one in Chicago, but the original Hellfire Club, the 17 and 1800s

J

Jimmy Carper 17:37

Was that in London? Yes.

17:42

A rather elite group was probably the most public. And by no means the only exception. If they were the exception, publishers like the civilian society, a wimpy a press, press, fills in prayer that could never have existed to publish the works of erotica, that are now so much a part of our history. As a matter of fact, some of Max's rather boring reading material, since I didn't make it. And mass, I'm hoping you looked in that box that I have not had the opportunity to look in the box yet.

♂

18:18

♂

18:22

Are magazines that go back to the early 20th century. A couple of books that go back to the mid 1800s. Oh my goodness. See, I was out I didn't want to open them. I wanted it to be a surprise. And then Rita showed up instead of you. So but I will as soon as I get back home, which hopefully and looks like will be tomorrow. I'm definitely going to lay back and exhale with and that's just the little sample that I travel with mostly now because this out the ability to truly lock a suitcase. The books and magazines that I love to show are almost too valuable to take anywhere that I can't drive.

J Jimmy Carper 19:12

Absolutely. Absolutely. This guy has material belongs in a museum.

♂ 19:19

Well, yes and no.

♂ 19:20

Not today.

J Jimmy Carper 19:22

I understand not not that it's locked in. Yeah, not not that it's locked away or anything but but people who know how to take care of and preserve my interesting I had a conversation very much like this about three months ago with mum with fetish diva Midori, whose father is an antique book collector and dealer. And she was partially delighted and absolutely horrified all at once at the fact that I'm passing 130 year old book through a crowd. Yeah. And in high stakes. claim that preserving this tribe this way is very important. But I can't make it real, unless I can put it in your hands. Which is the reason why I travel with the small collection that I do. It's part of a larger collection that Jill and I are privileged to own. In that, we saved about 10% of what we were given over the years. Wow. Which is probably 80% More than everybody else. Yeah.

♂ 19:34

J Jimmy Carper 20:30

But you're right, we saved

♂ 20:33

about 800 to 1000 pieces, books and magazines. And I have since acquired a few more because it's things the containers of our history come across eBay, I have a tendency to blow my monthly allowance. And book,

J

Jimmy Carper 20:52

I know the ceiling, how important do you think it is to do this in this way? In other words, you travel around a great deal. You have books with you, how important do you think it is to also give the history in person? Max, let me let me take that from a couple of different directions. First and foremost, I can't make it real to the next generation. Unless I can show it. This generate this weather generation these most recent ones have grown up with weblog have grown up with instant access to new information. And that's wonderful. But they've grown up with the how tos like screw the rows and send me the form or the topping both on the bottom and both by Darcy's did and things of that nature. And this is this is wonderful and new. If I can put a book like Cheerios, Zilla flatulence, from 1880, in your hand, when the only thing you've known is books published since about 1991, I can make you understand that you are the next link in a very strong, long and proud chain. Without that type of understanding and pride. All we're doing is reinventing the wheel. We're also almost adrift if you know what I mean, thinking that we are lonely or alone. And the reality is our this life has been going on for us.

20:55

21:14

We didn't invent this game. Yeah, there truly is nothing new under the sun. But we would like to think that and if I can show people that not only are you the next in a very strong mine, but you have reasons to be proud because these are the people who would walk before you

♂

22:54

♂

23:05

♂

23:08

Swinburne Algernon Swinburne, they met so it absolute dead dog pervert. Ben Franklin was a member of a flogging club.

o

22:10

23:18

Yes, I do recall reading a couple of lines that sounded a little interesting to me.

23:25

And these are the things that people need to understand. They are not alone, they are just the next link in the chain. And that can actually be very comforting. When you think about it is comforting in one way. But how what do you say to people who ask, Well, why are we still trying to sweep it under the rug? Why after hundreds of 1000s of years? Do we still want to make people feel that this is abnormal? Not acceptable? Why do you think that is not grown any?

23:42

24:09

Now let's look at United States history. Let me put this to you from a completely different perspective. I did ask this question.

24:16

24:24

Now, let's look at this. The Brits, God love them are a wonderful, very dry humoured, somewhat repressed group of people. Yeah. Okay. All right. Yeah. Now you stay with me on this. All right. We were so repressed. The Brits threw us out

Jimmy Carper 24:51

okay, I get it.

24:54

Our founding fathers as a nation were sold straightforward that even the British said, do me a favor, go find your own country, will you? Then why do you think in only 250 to 300 years we would have come this far sexually. Our European founding fathers are far more brazen, aware, and casual. We are.

25:26

Yeah, we are sexually retarded. But we are a society based on very repressive and very strict interpretation of biblical law. Not all interpretations. As a matter of fact, I took off on that tangent in the West speech I wrote, which seems now be bopping all over the country and half the world. Indeed, indeed, when I said, Excuse me, if you check both Exodus and Deuteronomy, you will find out that slaves of love, are not just acknowledged, but honored in the Bible. The Bible tells you, that is, let me see if I can quote this without having my book open. If your slave cometh unto you, and says, Master, it is good with me in your house, you are to take that slave to your doorposts. Here's his year within all, and he will serve you forever. This. So due to your female slave, now you are to take that slave unto God. That's what the Bible tells us to make his or her blood with the blood of your house. That was the symbolism of piercing the ear and tear and shoving that all into the grip of that his blood ran with your blood. And this was a union blessed by God, because that slaves stayed with you. Because they love.

25:29

J Jimmy Carper 27:00

Wow. Yeah. Yeah.

27:03

I wish I could see you guys faces.

27:06

So again, when I say eight, nothing new,

J Jimmy Carper 27:10

I mean, that you should do.

27:14

Now, if and then of course, I went off on a different tangent, and forgive me texting, because it was all I was taking off. And I said, if my union is blessed by God, under Mosaic Law is have the right to love the way I choose. If God doesn't have a problem with my relationship, why do you?

27:40

Because we have to have something to have a damn problem,

27:43

Max. Now we get back to one of my favorite standards, which is, you can't have this both ways. Either. You've got a problem with me and you're standing on the Bible as your defense. Or you have to accept what the Bible says, and leave me alone. Please, you can't have it both ways.

28:07

But they can try their best.

28:09

Now, if you're going to use the Bible as a defense, then you also better be prepared if the Bible smacks you on the hands.

28:17

You also spoke in the in the speech about the recent law that was passed here? Oh, yes, I think it was house legislative bill, my team, right that you can't leave your stuff to who you want to leave it to. That's the bottom line on it really talks about contracts between legal strangers. And when I talk to a couple of what what maybe look at this was a notice from one of the tribes lawyers man named Spencer Burks. And he was very upset about it. Because the term legal strangers can get into some very dangerous territory, if only because most contracts are signed by legal sages. That's true, very true. And the legal stranger is anyone who is not related to you by blood or by marriage. So if you're gonna start to play around with contracts between legal strangers, just because you don't happen to like the fact that non traditional unions in whatever form they take, take place. You're treading on some pretty thin ice fascinating. Let me ask. Oh, dear. I'm knockin a things down. I'm in someone's office here. Very interesting. Let me ask, um, okay, um, knowing things down there in someone's office here. Very interesting. I know how passionate you feel about the term slave. As with many things, and we're dealing with this country, the United States here, philosophy And the term slave has a very negative thing, especially in terms of women. And I asked this question of every guest that I have. What do you say to that person that says, You must be out of your mind, you know what I mean? You call yourself a slave, you allow yourself to be slave to someone else, not only as woman. But as a black woman, you must be nuts.

28:27

28:32

28:37

30:34

When you say to that person, Max, there are a lot of different ways. And you've probably heard me go off on almost all of them. First and foremost is please keep your history out of my bedroom. So that now that we've taken care of that, we get back to I could go off on this historical this direction, something about life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Yeah, that's a cute one.

31:00

Jimmy Carper 31:01

That's a good one.

31:04

You know, we hold these to be self evident, I do believe that that's what this country is founded on. That's what they say. That's what they say. Now, if that be the case, and of course, the men who wrote that pledge their life, their fortunes, and their sacred honor, to the fact that I have the right to pursue happiness, then how I choose to do it is also my business.

31:31

The heck makes you think you have the right to choose your own happiness? Well, that's what the paperwork said. And I'm gonna take the word of the paperwork, because that's what they keep forming in my face. So, again, it's that you can't have it both ways.

31:34

31:49

It does come down to that, doesn't it? We hold these truths to be self evident. That I am endowed by my Creator. And I think you know how the rest of that goes. Yeah. And something about unalienable rights. Among them are, but we have this moral issue. There are those who are concerned with the welfare, health, well being and ultimate destination of your soul.

31:52

32:07

32:24

I'm sure they are, but then if my soul is what's up rep here, then I come back to give me God doesn't have a problem with my relationship. Matter of fact, if you want to talk more to me, then I'm going to take you back to Deuteronomy. God does not have a problem with my relationship.

32:51

But they are they did, y'all you guys are playing with me again, aren't you?

32:55

I can hear you. Okay.

Chris Harrison 32:59

Hold on one second here. The problem we're running into is let me explain the setup here. I'm holding a headphone up I believe I'm holding a headphone up to one end of the microphone to the telephone receiver and the microphone up to the other end. And after 30 minutes of holding the headphone in place, my hand starts to cramp up. So let me let me try let me let me do a quick little reset here. I think I've got a way I can set this why don't we take a little take a little music break here while I try and play with things so we're not doing that popping and hissing Yeah, we're whatnot you can just say on air you can stay on the line. I'll be Yeah, so let's do this. We're gonna take a quick music break here. We're gonna play some music and we'll try for something a little longer but yeah, we just remember Gloria Gaynor I am when I am since we played the old says the old original song that we were playing the theme song Jimmy just ran out of the studio so badly. Let me go let me try a reset here so I just not so dependent on my hand holding everything into place so yeah, I'm talking into both the telephone and the microphone at the same time. So don't worry our listeners who listen to this show and the station long enough know that we do enough engineering on the fly. And so hopefully they understand we're gonna get a little Gloria Gaynor and we will be right back in just a moment. I am his own special Hi, Gloria Gaynor

35:01

I am what I great so great. So, and

Chris Harrison 35:05

let's see, let's try this again. little heads up there, hurricane or whatever left of it it's still coming through we are getting a lot of the feeder bands here through the greater Houston area are we now starting to pick up a little bit here we actually had a little bit of electricity flicker here and a little bit closer radar. The bad part is my monitor also keeps scrolling up so everything it's red, scary. According to weather.com the radar, a couple of yellow bands here in the Houston area mainly on the northwest and southwest side. partied in Galveston but everything else was like really heavy ground clutter band of yellow up just south of Lufkin and of course, you got the yellows and the reds hitting between Beaumont and Lake Charles. This is after hours quit radio with attitude here with the stiff breeze party.

Jimmy Carper 36:04

It was going to be a hurricane party, but oh, well Rita decided to go elsewhere.

Chris Harrison 36:11

Alright, let's try this. Let's try this again. I've got max on the line. Yeah, I'm here. And we've got v there as well.

36:18

That means okay,

Chris Harrison 36:20

let me turn. Let me get mistress mic up a little bit more.

Jimmy Carper 36:23

And we're in business.

Chris Harrison 36:26

Now I get to do hands free.

36:29

And I'm not I'm not feeling you know, all felt up there.

c Chris Harrison 36:35

Like literally everybody holding that headphone against the the one part of the receiver. So all that popping and hissing you heard was actually the sound of the earpiece. So the receiver hitting all across the board. Yeah. And wearable with her mic hitting on full heart full high. It was we that's why it was so loud. Popping his kid off with a little tease because nobody cares. Well, you can't say that. KPFT does not go all out.

J Jimmy Carper 36:59

37:01

J Jimmy Carper 37:05

Yeah, absolutely. You should

c Chris Harrison 37:08

know me by now. I go all out as often as I can.

37:15

Viola, ma'am. Question.

37:19

I've got 1000 questions. So we're definitely going to have to do a part two of this. Now 30 years ago, you started out with this one or two line ad? Yep. Well, the world has definitely rotated a few times since then. Because now we do have the internet, we do have all these things. And you yourself have several projects that you are working on. One recently that I know of is the leather fund. And for a minute there we were going to really need to benefit from the leather front. So could you tell us about that, please?

38:14

38:17

That's it's an idea whose time is actually long overdue. Yeah. I don't know if you remember the spanner case. The what? Spanner?

38:27

Okay. I can barely even hear you. But that's okay. Go on.

38:30

The Spanner case was an interesting legal problem. Good, okay occurred in London. A number of men who were practicing their right to FM sets were busted by British police and spent a whole lot of time in jail. One I believe even died in jail, exercising their right to FM sex with consenting adults. Well, this was the first time the BDSM world as a whole, actually rallies to raise money to bring the case before the European Court in order to try and get some laws changed on an international level. This banner boys most of which I believe now are free. Even though one of them actually did that brought the need for this community to be prepared for all kinds of things to the poor. And we raised an awful lot of money as a community around the world, United States and 30 or $40,000 into that fund. And Europe raised even more. But it brought home to me that we have to have some sort of funding in place to take care of the things that are important to us. But after Spanner The idea lost its momentum was that now Spanner was 94 seemed to me they were arrested in 93 or 94. Okay, the world really began to rally to their cause. Eventually the case came before the World Court, which I think happened in about 98 or nine. And the decisions and the ramifications of those court hearings really are still trickling down to various countries and state courts. The intent was to try and motivate the international court to to push for a ruling. But I digress on this. We as a community raised an awful lot of funds to help push that cause through and bring that case to justice, and bring these men for simply practicing life the way they chose. Now, there are a number of other smaller funds in place to help with a very specific situation. The AIDS emergency fund of San Francisco is an example. The breast cancer emergency fund that Mama Sandy Reinhart chairs is another example. The maca Dory fund that's monitored by the Chicago health Hellfire Club is a different example. But they're all geared to very specific things. There are a number of great minds coming together in the wake of Katrina, and now read it for going, we've got to have a vehicle in place to help our own people. And it's a fledgling idea. This, this little bird is still in its egg, really, because people are only now just talking. But at least we are talking about helping our own and having emergency, not just funds, really, but emergency banks of talent as well in place when our community needs assistance. Now in the longer in the bigger picture, I should stop and think you have a play space. Do you want any polymer coming in? Fix your plumbing?

42:35

No, that could be a little rough, you should have seen the air to look on the air conditioning duct cleaner God's face? That's my point exactly. Wouldn't it be more advantageous to us, if you could call MSM plumber, or an SM carpenter or just as important if you could not just give money, but let's say give time? Hi, my name is Max and and I'm a carpenter. And I've got five hours a week of my time that I would like to put in the community bank for someone who needs the carpet. But in return, somebody else who may be a plumber can say well, you know, I got six hours a month that I can put the bank if somebody needs a plumber, or a mechanic, etc. These are our people, our family helping our family. Because I'm not taking down the artwork.

43:36

I know what you mean. I just kind of followed him around. And he was so cool. He didn't say a word. But you could just see he's trying to look at the duct and his eyes are going over here. It was, you know really interesting. I would call the way the movers looked when they moved me from Virginia here.

43:56

Hey, I'm not I'm not going to. I'm not taking down the toys. I'm not hiding the pictures. I'm not going to do it, man. I've been out too damn long. Yeah, hide my lifestyle. Now. I've worked too hard with my family and my mate to get to where I am. I don't call this a cold. Why do I need to be in one because someone else is uncomfortable. Right? I'm not in your face. I am not proselytizing. I'm not converting. I'm not preaching. I simply want to live my life the way I want to live it and if that's not okay with you, that's fine. I've got a family over here. Okay, I can take care of and that will take care of me right now for this. I feel the same way you feel the same way. Jimmy Chris, many people do. There are however, a lot of people who do it who are involved in this thing that we do, which is what I call it, this thing we do, who are not able to live it as outright as we do. But they want to do something to help they want to feel a part of, what can they do? Let's begin with that dollar. That's very important. And please understand all the way I have no problem with the Red Cross. I don't know if the Red Cross is going to be helping awards whether or is going to be helping papec If they get hit North Carolina, or Excalibur if they get hit in Florida, I want to know that my family is taken care of. So let's start with getting this idea off the ground. And getting that one going, which is on a small scale, with Katherine gross, the Fetish auctioneer, my owner, Mrs. Victoria, Jill and I have started with just the little fundraiser that we're doing now, which is going to New Orleans, very specifically to our BDSM family. Right. But I mean, in general, just in day to day life. Now let's let's take that Max to a slightly larger scale.

44:46

45:21

46:29

...

Let's put 46:31

that dollar a week or $2 a weekend, Jill made the weather archives famous by saying just give me $1 That's all I'm asking you for you spend more on a beer, give me $1 For this project, anybody can do that. Right? Whether you are out, or whether you were closeted, that $1 makes a tremendous difference. And if you can give me $1.10 That's great. Okay, $1 $22 to go into funds that are geared for us, our lifestyle. And it's something that I think everyone should consider even those who are not in the closet, because we do live in a society where even if you are in your little closet, there are people who can come in there and see what you're doing. Exactly.

47:12

47:32

This is this is the vac point, man. Now let's again Now let's set that up. Let's amp that up just a little bit more. You're the person in Oshkosh, Wisconsin, who lives there fantasy, and who lives only either via the internet, or through the magazines or books you read? Well, sooner or later, you're gonna have a house full of books, magazines.

47:55

Oh, and they're coming after you now on that one, find your local community center. And donate them so that somebody else will have something to read?

47:59

Jimmy Carper 48:07

Absolutely, because I'm a part of G cam. I don't mean to jump in here. It's the Gulf Coast archive and museum for gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender history, we have quite a few leather items. But the way I look at it is if you have a history, you do not have to recreate yourself, every generation. Exactly. And the history of any people is worthy to preserve.

48:42

I'm going to take this differently. The history of any people must be preserved not worthy. Because if we do not preserve it, we cease to exist. What is the fastest way to eliminate an enemy to wipe out is history? And if we allow ours to be wiped out, then our next generation has nothing to stand on when they're attacked. Yes. And that's that comes back to where we started this conversation, which is why do I travel with a small library? If I can let you realize you have a history that's worthy of being saved. And that's saving it is an asset to the next generation. It's a pay it forward, so to speak. Yeah. Then the next generation is that much stronger, because they are the next link in the chain. Not the first. Yeah. So that's how that's part of it. And then as we were saying, let's take it another step forward. Okay. You got your books, your magazines coming in, and that's all you've got. All right, you finish reading it. You find a place to mail it and you pass it on. You don't even have to tell the people who said, Yeah, that's right. And that was done very successfully in the 50s by lesbians with the publication of the ladder. You betcha. Yes. Yes, it was a mimeographed couple of sheets put together and passed from Woman to Woman to woman.

 50:23

And copies of that, because that was the syllabus, yes. copies of that are still in existence. They're very rare, but they do still exist. And that's how we do it. Alright, so you pass that on. Now, you can't do if you're a little more out there. Then put the notice on the bulletin board. Hi, my name is I'm kink friendly. You don't even have to say kinky. Race. Bannon accomplished this 15 years ago with his cap project, Tinker, were professional. When Grace work from about 8892 Or three, to change the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual that psychologists use to classify FM, he took that on as a personal projects, he was determined to get SM reclassified. What the outgrowth of that was the cap list, which is now one of the greatest community resources we've got. You need a psychologist who will be judgmental, you need a doctor that you can get as a woman who plays attempts, you can go to who knows that your bruises or marks of pride, not a sign of battery. That's what the catalyst is all about. And that is another way of coming out. That's another way of banking it of paying it forward. If you can do that, that's wonderful. That's one more step in helping this community. New people who want to come out and learn more thing.

 52:03

 52:08

That's where you get a little bit older. And you find your local month group and need to jump in here and remind people that they are listening to after hours queer radio with attitude, right here on good old listener supported specific istation KPFT, ustun 90.1. FM, and 89.5 in Galveston, thank you. Please continue.

 J Jimmy Carper 52:14

52:37

Alright, so this is now if you if you really have the guts to come out and you're not worried about it. Now you go to the local Munch, you get online and you go BDSM, comma, Houston.

52:52

That's right. And there's lots of information that will come up there.

52·56

And then you start reading it, looking for it, taking it in cyberspace to find what you're looking for, and then making a real time, because that's where the heart is. Do we have options? Yes. Can we do something? Yes, there is strength in numbers. The Christian right has proved that over and over. Yeah,

53.20

indeed

53/23

Now, if the numbers are correct, one in 10 is practicing six out of the missionary position and not for the purpose of procreation.

53.33

Oh my goodness

53/34

And by the way, that is the definition of kinky if you are not in the missionary position for the purpose of procreation only. Welcome to my world.

53:46

Exactly

53:47

Now, that's the classic Are you doing it with the feather or just or the whole chicken? Once you pick up the feather, you're kinky? If all you're doing is dropping a handkerchief over your lover's eyes, congratulations. You're a pervert. Yeah. And if we can galvanize those numbers, then maybe we will finally as a nation, step out of our sexual closet and simply accept the inalienable rights to life, liberty and

J Jimmy Carper 54:27
pursuit of happiness

♂ 54:30

for Vive, Jimmy, if you want to jump in there, why do you think it is that we find it necessary to keep our our heels on the throat of the sex of the occupants? Every country damn near? Why do you think we feel a need to do that? Control Have we absolutely know that, but they are getting, say, you know, they whoever they are, they're really getting much more rambunctious with their morality moreso than I've ever seen. Yes.

J Jimmy Carper 55:22
Because I feel they have a hall pass from the President. Unfortunately true. And didn't he basically say, after the election, that he believed that he had been what was dealt by the American people, and he was going to cash in his chips, so to speak. Now, you know, please remember, I'm a Yankee this guy was your governor. That's,

♂ 55:27

J Jimmy Carper 55:49
you know, originally, I thought it was a good idea for him to run for president because we should get him the hell out of Texas because he was our governor.

♂ 56:02
Hogan. He was governor, why would you wish him on the nation? Well,

J Jimmy Carper 56:07
because I didn't. I didn't think he do anything.

♂ 56:12

77:00

Excuse me. You're the one that just said you didn't want to miss governor. Yeah. If you didn't want to miss governor, why in God's name, would you want to miss out on it?

J

Jimmy Carper 56:19

Well, the other thing is, I didn't think you'd ever get elected. There was a second mistake. Yes. Yes. Well, that's true.

♀

56:27

At least my first time around.

J

Jimmy Carper 56:31

Yeah, not too sure about the second one either, either.

♀

56:34

I'm not buying the second one either. Absolutely not. Anyway, we're off on a tangent there. Okay, but we do that too. Yeah, we do.

J

Jimmy Carper 56:38

♀

56:43

Vi Yes, ma'am. Other things that you do other projects that you working on, one is Miss World leather.

56:51

Miss World is actually my husband's baby, that baby just won this one the bottom of the heap with this. Miss World is a platform for women, and coming up into a fix for men also, poor activist in this community. Unlike the standard leather title that's more about the the history or the choosing the good looking champion. world requires that the contestants or applicants as it were come in with something to say. And what we are basically doing is giving the title for a year to the cause a woman represents and she becomes its mouthpiece. We have had five phenomenal winners, representing everything from lupus to the rights of the Deaf. They come in with their burning passion, something they believe this community needs to hear. They present it in a number of different forms, from poster presentation through interview, press corps meeting, which is actually pretty brutal. And then event that is made Miss World Famous to just meeting the crowd and talking to people. And they convince a panel of judges that their cause is the cause that should be chosen to be Miss World for a year. They then get to not just talk to the FM community, but also to represent the SM community to the greater world. Our first ms world was a woman named Annie Romano. And Annie's other half was afflicted with lupus. And he believed that more people in this community had lupus than realized. And she spent her year raising awareness of the disease. At the end of her title year, the mayor of San Diego which is where she lives, declared an Emmy Romano day Wow. The I believe that was the vice president of the Lupus Foundation came to world to thank us personally for the work that Annie had done and to give classes on lupus. Our next ms world, a little teeny thing named Karen worked with the HIV homeless. They were her passion. So she spent her year going from city to city talking about the HIV homeless and raising money in each community for the HIV homeless of the community where she was going. As a matter of fact that was basically her feet. You had to each community They called her to come and speak had to pledge X amount to their local community. Excellent. Whether it be financially in goods or in services. As a matter of fact, during her title year, she raised $157,000. Wow, she was busy. Yeah, no kidding. That's a number even Miss America could not claim. Yeah.

1:00:28

Very impressive.

1:00:29

Yes. How a third lady in goddess walk Shamy was representing breast cancer, not just in women, but in men also. That's right. Yes. And her year was spent raising not just funds but awareness and pledges to as she put it, check your pec and caress your breasts. And a number of men were diagnosed in the very early stages, who never would have known because breast cancer is on the rise in men. Yes, it is. Who never would have thought about or even conceived that they could have breast cancer, but because of them there because of her, I should say, the healthy.

1:01:09

Good. And she is listening this morning. I might add, oh, good morning, Goddess. She was going to join us. But you know, trying to pull ends together here next month, what happened? Last year, our representative Pandora raised 3030 or 40,000 pledges for owner for Organ Donor Awareness. Wow, that's a lot of pledges when you consider how sensitive is subject. organ donations really is very sensitive. Yes. Yes. As a matter of fact, it was through her work that one of our letter brothers, Mr. Mid Atlantic last year, has just had a successful organ transplant.

1:01:23

Jimmy Carper 1:01:59

Debby Ann Taylor

Really now, Taylor

1:02:00

is is very healthy because of an organ donation. Wow.

1:02:06

Sounds like the perverts are pretty normal does.

1:02:12

You know if you consider everything that can be perverted, we actually are the norm. Absolutely. I think the perverts have more vigor. And they're more serious about, about their endeavors. We have to be yes, yeah, you have the passion.

Jimmy Carper 1:02:19

1:02:36

We have to be we really don't have a lot of choices. If and this comes back to where we started, if we don't protect and value our own, no one else will.

1:02:52

So kind of back to the beginning of the conversation in a manner of speaking. Right away, you spoke with such a love and passion for the things that we do. What has it given you? We've talked about many of the things that you are giving back to the community, the many things that you're involved with? And you're going around talking? What have you got from? Probably put them all in words.

1:03:30

How do I how do I even begin to explain? Actually, let me back up in 1970 892 of the men who were mentors, to Jill in may move from New York to Chicago. And before they move, they sat us down because they absolutely adored us and said that we owed them and we owe them big time. And, quote, When you have done for someone else, what you think we have done for you. Your debt to me is paid. Wow, that was the debt that Tom and Jerry gave Jill and those two men Well, for me it was Tom because Tom was Sherry slave taught me to stand up straight. To not be afraid of the label slave to wear it lovingly and proudly. Because I was giving the greatest gift that I could I was giving myself. They taught me not to walk in fear. Because of the way I chose to love. They not only gave us great book. They were brothers guides and daddies as well as mentors to to young fledgling black lesbians. In the seven days, wow. They made me able not just to look at the woman in the mirror, but to admire her smile with her, and be intensely proud of the way she chose to live her life. Now, I figure, if I work until I'm 90, I will have paid back about 80% of the interest on that debt. I don't think I'll ever touch. Because the principle is all that I am. It's the sum total of my experience, my heart, my hand, my love, and my service. That's what they gave me.

1:05:51

So you speak of as a gift, an incredible gift that you know the value of it. You know, the beauty of it, in terms of giving it to someone else, it was given to mean that exactly the dead to pass it forward.

1:06:11

1:06:15

There are many people who sometimes struggle with the fine line between submission and abuse.

1:06:27

And beginning to lose your stick.

1:06:30

Explain the fine line between abuse and submission.

1:06:38

Actually don't struggle with that they feel well I have to serve. It doesn't matter that I'm not getting anything and this is weird.

1:06:40

1:06:51

Mess, that's actually not as fine line as you think it is.

1:06:56

As soon as I said, Fine, I went, That's really doesn't work for me.

1:06:59

I mean, let's let's back up and talk about that lady in the mirror for a minute. Good. Because in many ways, that's where you can't avoid that woman in the mirror. Even if you take every mirror out of the house, you can't avoid the woman in the mirror, right. And when she looks back at you, her eyes need to be clear. And shining. She needs to radiate joy and pride. If you're having trouble looking at the woman in the mirror, then there's something wrong in your life. And you need to find out what it is. And when a man or a woman top or bottom, and I don't really care how it gets classified, not submissive or slave, but masters well looks at the person in the mirror, they should be able to do so without guilt, without fear. And with a tremendous amount of pride. That's where it starts. Now, that's the philosophical side of if you're not having fun, you're doing it wrong. Because this is a joy. This is why until we can prove you get a second shot at it, regardless of personal belief. You got to think you're only going to get to do this once. So why waste the second? Doing something you don't love to do? Being with someone that you don't love being doing things that you dislike, because they will make you disliked yourself that time. And then we come back to that woman in the mirror and she's gonna tell you, you've got a problem here. Don't don't like this, don't want to do this. And if a woman in the mirror says don't want to do this, and you keep doing it anyway, sooner or later she will have her say. So is that line thin? Not really? Yeah. Your soul knows when it's wrong. Your heart knows when it's wrong. And if any man or woman believes they must settle. And that's a funny word settle. Because something better is is not for them. Or somehow they do not deserve. Fill in the blank. Then not only are you selling yourself short, you're killing a woman in America.

1:09:47

I agree wholeheartedly. And that's not just for women either. Now that's really

1:09:51

1:09:55

do we have any news updates here because it's looking interesting coming out of the is at this window. Yeah,

Chris Harrison 1:10:01

it's we're getting some rain and some heavier winds here. I was getting a little spookier over here. We had a couple light flickers earlier. Yes,

J Jimmy Carper 1:10:10

I was just outside and the wind has picked up and there was a couple of lightning streaks.

C Chris Harrison 1:10:17

Yeah, it's, yeah, we're we're still here. We're still on the air. From best we can tell ya.

1:10:26

Seems to me just having a good time anyway, if no one else is listening? Well,

C Chris Harrison 1:10:30

the one thing we've got here is we've got situation where, without electricity to different sites, that has to stay on for everyone to hear us. If we lose power to the transmitter, like we did earlier, then everyone in probably a 10 block radius of the station can still hear us once I go flip a switch. But we can still broadcast to some people. Yes, one way or another. It's just right now like I said, it's the wind has picked up and I can actually hear some of the wind through the soundproof windows we have here. Things graphics stretching up against it. And some other sounds you hear in the background, because the way the microphone is you're hearing me walking around. But because of the way the setup is, yeah, it's a bizarre thing. Anyway, your microphones up is the microphone that we're using is so high. I'm not even talking rarely into the microphone. It's pointing downward. And I'm talking to the wrong end of the mic.

1:11:24

I see what you mean. Because right about now, this thing should just be making landfall near you. Right?

C Chris Harrison 1:11:30

Yeah, that's right. That's what they

J Jimmy Carper 1:11:32

say. Right. But it's between Port Arthur and Cameron. Is that right? Yeah, I think Cameron Louisiana, which is just south of Lake Charles. Yes. Basically, there's a lake that Cameron Louisiana is on. That feeds into Lake Charles. So there goes the river boats. Oops. So if you're planning on gambling anytime soon. I believe that those people said it best earlier go west. Unless you want to pay Donald Trump there his pieces of gold who do

C Chris Harrison 1:11:39

1:12:07

Viola What do you enjoy this? Oh, in terms of this thing that we do? Oh, man, we want to hear something really juicy. out there with the prevertebral of the month.

1:12:27

What do I enjoy best? The most people situations, even take me that. you narrow that down? You know, that's like asking me what is the meaning of life?

1:12:41

In terms of this thing that we do, thank you, that's still a meaning of life question. True. But what activity turns you on the most activity?

1:12:52

Let me see. I think it would be the end result of any of my handiwork. Like today I spent a healthy portion of the day sheet rocking my owner's basement. And normally, she just sort of let me take off and do what I need to do when it comes to my what I call my work day. And since when I'm here, I don't have to hear phones Ray, which is in and of itself luxury. I get to either garden, I've re landscaped their house. Right now I'm working on my bedroom, I'm working on her slave quarters, which is my bedroom. And she hadn't been downstairs. In a few days when I when she came down. All of a sudden there are three walls finished. And the partying and spackling has begun and to watch the eyebrow go up and the expression on her face that went wow makes it all worth it. When I see her eyes dancing, when I'm home and and busting my butt, looking at things that Jill is done and all of a sudden, I'm on a website that says and you know I'm doing this because Joe Carter talks about and I will pull those emails down and post them where my my baby can see them when she first walks in from a hard day's work. And remind her that just when you think no one's listening, some newbie has found some gem or pearl of wisdom that has allowed them to stand a little straighter. Those are some of my favorite things. Now if you want to get a little bit pickier about this, we'll have a long discussion about single tails with the speed of sound. And what happens when that whip crack the sound barrier On part of my body, different conversation, okay? Because my owner is very proficient with a single failed with. And then we get into what happened when you're on the other end of that. Notice I'm trying to be diplomatic, you are doing very well that's really good. And people are good.

1:15:22

1:15:29

You know, little things like Mark bumps and bruises and scrapes and cuts and wealth, stuff like that. They all have wonderful things. Yeah. How much time do you put in in traveling around and doing as you do? Every you know, you're everywhere.

1:15:39

1:15:50

That's a mold. Now my schedules been cut in half. It used to be that Jill and I were on the road at her busiest not quite including her international Ms. Leather year. That year, she was on the we're on the road 49 weekends out of 52 Oh, my God. Power normal schedule taking away her title year is about 35 weekends a month, plus local groups that may be going on during the week and things like that. Now, as I've gotten older, back to about 20 to 25 weekends a month, a year, a year forgive me, I thought Gotcha. I'm back to about two weekends out of the month. Plus my service however, because although I live in Pennsylvania, my owner is in Georgia. Oh, and the good thing about that is that for me that's just a little bit of a drive because I enjoy driving so I packed the puppy in the car and take off for usually a week out of every four to six hours and while I'm either on the road going to or coming from I'll stop at a local group and do a small presentation or do something regional while I'm in the south. So I cut it back to only half the year I'm old now this is what I raised whether children four and you've done a marvelous job

1:17:28

1:17:33 thank you back. Yes, indeed.

1:17:35

Indeed. Okay, you are listening to KPFT radio I know there have to be some other kinky people up this morning especially this weekend it can't be the only other pervert up somebody pick up that phone and call I can't take any more phone calls over here mistress nobody's i I've run out of hands to put more people on the air

Chris Harrison 1:17:55

1:18:11

I'm like this is weird know how to you know like I said it's the way the phone setup is if you were here in studio we could and unfortunately we also had some people who were decided they wanted to have some fun with us earlier so I was just checking on here the radar here in Houston see how we're going the other website in front of us the the word Zulu time and I'm confused via the lights just in the last couple of minutes have gone out like three times.

Chris Harrison 1:18:14

1:18:39

Chris Harrison 1:18:48

Yeah, like I said I've left for this last time we had a flicker here I pulled out a flashlight and have it sitting next to me right now.

1:18:56

Sitting here with my grandmother's oil lamp

1:19:02

off about ties to history. Yeah. Yeah.

Chris Harrison 1:19:06

Let's we're gonna do this real quick. Give her one year it's the bottom of the hour is 330 here in Houston. You're listening to the after our stiff breeze party was scheduled to be hurricane party but Rita decided to go gambling in Lake Charles. Right now Houston weather it's raining everywhere. Basically, if you know the radar colors, it goes from blue to purple. And we've got a lot of green over the greater Houston area, a band of a little bit lighter showers along the 290 corridor all the way from south from the south loop all the way up to the Harris County line. There is some moderately heavy showers probably down in Pasadena or Clear Lake area. 45 south and out in Wharton. Liberty County. You are for the eastern half all yes Lo going eastbound through Beaumont, who's even going into some of the orange colors and stuff offshore. Hurricane Rita is not early on our area, I have little difficulty finding out how strong she is right now. The weather, National Hurricane Center has not updated her. Stats, we'll have more stats on where she is at the top of the hour because their decision on the new new information will be posted at 4am Central. So we have to do this here in Houston because I don't I'm not sure what part of Pennsylvania you're in. But in Houston, the majority of our weather men seem to be, let's say family. So as a gay man in Houston, I feel the need to give weather reports. Works for me. Okay, Chris. Hey, you're wondering about this last month when we were giving Katrina update? Yeah. Wanting to know about Katrina going there, because two of us were getting ready to head off to New Orleans. And we're

1:21:09

Where are you still with us by I'm here. As a matter of fact, that just looked up the Weather Channel. Actually, she's come down. She's only gusting at 100. And what is is 120 to 125 miles an hour.

c Chris Harrison 1:21:25

That's about where she was when she when she started hitting before we went on the air. She was at 120. Yeah, she's been doing that pretty much the whole time. Yeah.

1:21:29

c Chris Harrison 1:21:33

The last report they had in was from 2am. And that was 120 miles per hour. freshers 639 37 millibars.

1:21:44

But that must be in another part of town. Any him in here?

c Chris Harrison 1:21:48

Yeah. Know what we're getting here. From where you were saying you were before? Mistress. You are. I don't know where I am, what the street name were you said of where you're hunkered down. You're basically going to green area with blue. So you're in the light to moderate. There's a there's a little splash of yellow way north of you on the beltway just just west of 45. Like I say for the majority of the area north north of tam until you get out to Liberty County. You're green and blue. With it was a few spots. And

1:22:26

South I like green and blue. Colors. Bruises turn. Yeah, I like that.

1:22:37

Green is by that time this sort of old you know, once they get green, that kind of Oh, yeah. Yeah. But it's still cool. I like it. Black and Blue Goodstart.

1:22:43

1:22:46

Chris Harrison 1:22:51

Well, fortunately, we don't have the black forest there. The blue we have it. There's a 13 step scale for colors. And majority of the city is green in the area of step one, five or six. So that's where the majority of the city is at where you're at mistress is actually there's a little pocket a darker stuff. You got it. You've got about a seven in your area right now. That just popped in. I feel like you don't want tan tan.

1:23:28

Yeah, I was just thinking. I feel like me personally,

1:23:32

Chris Harrison 1:23:33

the only spot attendant show here is just east of Beaumont.

1:23:38

Think it's a 25 though.

Chris Harrison 1:23:41

It's I mean this is this is not a fun time to be out and about

1:23:49

Vi ma'am.

1:23:50

What do you think about the new generation? How do you think they feel about the history? You know, the level of respect or honor or, for lack of a better term, what they call Old Guard, all that good stuff? How do you think they fare with it?

1:24:12

Well, you know, much to my surprise, though, lots and lots of questions, being asked about history about how it was so to speak. If for no other reason, then there are finally enough weather grandparents around to be able to tell the story. And what I'm finding, as I'm Bob all over the country, is that the next guard, as I like to call them, has finally become inquisitive enough about their own history to begin to incorporate it. And if you stop and think about how we grow as people you spend the early years of your life running around lert trying to learn as much as you can thinking, you know, at all. The next stage is working and experiencing and you're focused on what you do. It's not until you're older and a little more settled, that you're suddenly thinking about the stories you heard at grandma's knee, right? Suddenly, they do make sense. And oh, wow, she was right and beginning to incorporate those into your life, because you spent the first part of it either in rebellion or trying to create your own style. And that's true also, of this now, out community, this next generation, and I admire them tremendously. These kids have been doing their thing since they were 1314, or 15. Discover their sexuality or their SM sex in their 20s or 30s. They've come out practicing spanking their girlfriends or, or tying up one of my students used to wear his girlfriend's underwear to the class. Never thought anything about it. It was his way of being close. And he gave all about it saying it was kinky yet, you know. But they're discovering their sexuality at a much earlier age. And as a result, making their statement to the world with their piercings, with their tats with their own alternative sexuality. And now they're coming back and going, women. We didn't invent this game Mom, did we, as No, honey, sit down, let me let me give you something to read here. This older than your great, great grandparents. And they're going, Wow, cool. They're looking at the artwork, they're looking at the old photographs and going, but I'm still doing that, as I the only difference is the quality of the photograph you're looking at. So they're now incorporating a lot of the older ways, so to speak into their young lifestyle. And they're doing what every generation does. Now that they're old enough to really recognize their rebellious Ness for what it is they're incorporating a little the old as well. And they're going to be the next wrong link in the chain. Why should we not complain about the next generation? Every parent has? Yeah, yeah. But they're making it stronger, I believe.

1:27:36

How do you think there's also a different generation coming up? That has no precedent?

1:27:46

That has no, that is the computer player thing? What do you think of that? Okay. Breathe. Breathe.

1:27:50

1:28:00

Now, I'm gonna liken this to generational music. I came out I was listening to Motown. These kids come out there listening to rappers. I listened to rap and go, That's music.

1:28:18

This is a little different, because we really do have people going out. Because eventually you do want to have the human contact back. Okay, Max, take your judgments out of it. Okay. Now,

1:28:32

I'm not saying Right, wrong, good or bad. Okay, I'm not going down that road. Right. All I'm saying is, this is the way they practice. What precautions what caution? Would you give them? Now, if any, not what I would say is that the computer, the cyber world, I happen to think is a great place to start. But I will get the computer as and this type of world as the equivalent of getting ready for a blind date. You know, this is where you go to talk to all your friends and go. Do you know anything about A, B or C? But for me, it's this next step is out to the real world. For a lot of the kids that I'm watching come up the computer is their real world. Now, who am I to say it's right or wrong? It is not mine. But I honestly believe that's a generational issue. It's like the difference between my mother listening to Motown and today's look kids listening to Snoop Dogg. My mother could never understand Motown. I'll be damned if I understand Snoop although I like the work he does. Is this cyber world right for me now? Is this cyber world right for them? Obviously, they're interacting with each other in ways I can't even conceive of. And I tried, believe me, when my young computer geek leather child comes over, and I'm watching her on my computer, using her avatars to interact with 300 people in a cyber world. My brain goes south for the winter, just Yeah. But for her at 28. This is her. Her world, this is her passion. Work is just the mundane hour to hour that she does in order to get home to this world that her avatar exists in and has raised the family and don't ask me, I didn't say I understood it. Okay. Do I approve who am I to disapprove? You know, that's that, that comes back to the statement that we made in our 20s and 30s. With if you don't play the game, don't make up the rules. I don't play the game equivalent of the magazine's

1:31:25

1:31:30

only these are interactive, they're laughing with each other. They're talking to each other how I didn't say I understood. But for them, this world is real. So I'm not, I try to get you know, my young ones out to events, and to get them interacting with the family, etc. And my reason for that is as as much fun as this computer may be, it can't put his hand on your shoulder and say, You did a really good job. Or I'm really proud of you. All right, and let them see the pride in my eyes with the fact that I'm felling with pride over one of their accomplishments. It can't be the literally the hands on mentorship. But it doesn't mean they're not learning it it's not my world so I can't criticize. Does that have any bearing on to your your passion for wanting to share the history? Yes, it does actually.

1:32:33

1:32:44

It reminds them again, that there's more out there than just what they see on their computer screen. There are people with story as well as sharing and archiving their own story. It reminds them that you can spend the rest of the life interacting only with a keyboard that at some point in time, you've got to go out meet people now is the computer a great vehicle for the shy Yes. What if I can give them anything? I would hope that it's the sense that interacting with people is where you're going to learn if only by watching others behavior. After all, if you stop and think how we are patterned as children that little girl child is staggering around in mommy's heel for a reason. That boy child is standing on the toilet with shaving cream from his navel to his forehead for a reason. This is what they see mommy and daddy do like mommy or daddy that's what playing dress up really is. That's what that little boy standing in the mirror with daddy shaving cream all over the bath

Chris Harrison 1:34:27
