00:01

kind of an adjunct I do a workshop here in the Montrose area on Saturday night, which is kind of an offshoot of Joe's work, but I really connected directly with his work.

Buddy Johnston 00:12

We spoke to Joe Kramer, who's in Atlanta this weekend. But last weekend, we talked to Joe when he was in Los Angeles. He's coming to Houston next weekend. Right, right on the 17th to conduct

00:21

00:22

a workshop called

00:26

healing the body erotic. And what it is, it's it's seminar, and gay erotic spirituality.

00:35

And have you seen those brochures are passing out?

00:37

Oh, yes, I have seen them. I have a whole stack of them.

00:41

Tell us about the seminar. Because what, what's the scoop?

00:45

Okay, this is a seminar, which is designed to help us to get in touch with ourselves, and our sexuality and our love and turn, help us to learn to love ourselves and to express ourselves through our sexuality in a way that is satisfying and pleasing and nourishing to us.

01:07

Which a lot of us don't experience, right. A lot of gay men don't because we just get often that's it. Yeah, we got physically we do that we go through the motions. And that's it.

01:16

And it's not just limited to gay men, either. I mean, everybody, I believe is pretty much in the same boat, at least in the American society.

01:25

That's true. So the workshops next Saturday, here in Houston, it's next Saturday, and it's going to be wonderful. Of course, it's going to be really great.

01:29

01:33

Can you give us some idea of some of the things are going to be discussed? Or is that? Sure? Is it a lecture? Is it going to be a lecture? Or is it going to be like, no, no, I'm gonna be hands on.

Jimmy Carper 01:42

01:43

It's going to be hands on. There's very little lecture. It's an experiential workshop. Ah, sounds wonderful. Two days of experience, getting in touch with your sexuality, and sharing that with other people.

01:56

I saw some of the brochures out in the Montrose this past rounds one, so it does really, really well, if somebody wanted to find out about it. We talked to Joe at length last week in there, somebody really wanted to come to the workshop, who would they how would they get ahold of you and all that kind of gets?

02:09

Well, they could get ahold of me and sign up through me. And my number here is 520685326853.

02:19

And that, of course, is next Saturday and Sunday. Right? And it's gonna be held, like, like not from nine to four, nine to six. It's a long, long day. It's a great way to celebrate St. Patrick's Day, you can come wear your fanciest green ribbon in your hair. And that's all you'll need.

02:28

02:41

It sounds wonderful.

02:43

It should be fun.

Jimmy Carper 02:44

I would think it would take two days. We've got years of conditioning to erase.

02:48

I'm sure that two days is only the beginning though, right? Absolutely.

02:51

All he does is give us opportunities to go inside and see what our experiences are. And then it's up to us if we want to take these techniques and apply them to our daily lives. You know,

03:03

I'm looking forward to find out more. Great, what's the number again?

03:08

5206853

03:11

Sounds good one Body Electric and Joe Kramer. They'll be here next Saturday and Sunday. So call us at the station if you missed the number and we'll get it for you hang on just a minute this way out with Greg Gordon and Lucia Chapelle coming up shortly.

03:27

Is it morning already?

03:30

I just wanted to ask you a question. Right? How would you react if you were told that one of your kids was gay?

03:40

Brother Phyllis gay. I knew it. When he was a kid. We couldn't keep away from those gladiator movies.

03:47

Phil is not gay.

03:48

You mean you're gay? What your friend Jean is having some sort of membership drive. I know you don't get many dates, but stick with what you know. Your rage it's very hard to break into something new.

04:07

Goodnight, Ma. I am not gay. I just wanted to get your reaction.

04:14

I'll tell you the truth darling. If one of my kids was gay, I wouldn't love him one bit less. I would wish him all the happiness in the world. Because you're the greatest mother in the world. And I love you. Fine now keep your fat mouth shut so I can get some sleep

04:41

Jane thinks she's in love with Rose 04:55

come up and it's not funny.

04:57

It's not in love with the Mr. Robot

05:10

Come on now I heard you laughing for starters Jean is a lesbian what's funny about that you aren't surprised I mean I've never known any personally but in Danny Thomas

⌚ 07:09

weighing yourself together

07:14

The gate to gate Oh, as a game of Right. Right. Right. This is I think a person I think so. I mean, I think first of all, we're getting the in the bullet in the constant in the in the Bill of Rights in the Pentagon Papers someone has some important Doctor there's a it's a I mean there's there's there's a passage about mad that men are about to has an inalienable right you know has the has the right to be to be I mean, I think that includes being rare means you should be able to do any kind you should I think that has to do with if you want to practice your own Purina in whatever any place I mean, wherever the effect takes, I think that should that certainly is your I mean what I mean what is what is freedom of speech, voice freedom of speech, I mean without without, without freedom of freedom of speech. I mean that not much to speak of, I assure you and personally in my I think there's there's in my view, the I mean after I mean after all, pervert pervert the pervert. I mean, it's in the it's in the eye of the beholder.

21:39

I'm glad that you and your son at 19 has something to look forward to. Yeah, I would give anything to talk to my mother and daddy. I'm 36 years old.

21:53

22:25

And let me tell you, the Barbara Jordan stage had never heard it.

22:30

I love it.

22:31

That was Pat Parker, you have wondered well, what will you do? Will you be when they come? Yeah, that's Pat. Had Parker is a black feminist that recently died. She she had breast cancer. But she was born and raised here in Houston. I thought it was over Jordan.

22:46

22:51

Well, congratulations. Congratulations. Thanks. Thank you. Graduations to everybody that won because everybody's a winner on KPFT especially when you're listening to after hours. J Jeff Mackey 23:53 buddies often so how was the switchboard lately? This switchboard needs volunteers. I'm glad you asked me. Ah, the switchboard always needs volunteers. And I don't know if we talked about the switchboard tonight is that the gay and lesbian, lesbian switchboard of Houston. And if you need any more information on anything in the gay or lesbian communities and or lesbian communities, be sure and call the switchboard from about three or four to midnight, seven days a week. It's 5293211 Plus anyone who's interested in volunteering, we do have a class coming up here and another couple of months and we'd love to have more volunteers in the switch and call the same number and sign up.

J

Jimmy Carper 24:39

Yeah, then how about some some older people too, so you know, I'm not the only one there Yeah. Sometimes I feel like the father of the switchboard here. Okay.

J

Jeff Mackey 24:54

Good these looks don't go out over the air there.

♂

25:02

Do you play this at the request of Debbie and skip? Right do she she was our grand prize winner because she called us earlier and said Why don't you listen to the show some gay people that were just not too good people. He went into a bad depression and didn't have any friends and he started staying awake all night and one night I woke up and he had found your show on the radio. And my son's been guy most of his life and we've known it but he only told me about a year ago and so he would record and I would start listening to your on the

♂

25:19

♂

25:49

♂

26:00

Mizzou hole there in my shed Oh to never have seen your face your candles and to lead me shine your way you always was me so I was the one with you

♂

26:39

♂

26:47

viewtiful

♂

26:55

beautiful smile

27:09

you're doing? You think about number one. That's it. And so he's beginning to come he's come around now. And he keeps telling me hey, this thanks. I said You're welcome. Because I'm, I'm here for a reason. You're here for reason. And we need to all work together. We can't UK stand across the street and put my hat out. If it's on fire over here. If you're not over here with me. You've got to stand together.

27:34

I lied. You know, Jesse Jackson said the only time you should be looking down on somebody is if you're bending over to help them.

27:40

That's right. That's right. That's absolutely true. We're not going to shoot your body. Because I enjoy I enjoy life and I enjoy people. And I think everybody is a human being. We really appreciate your while baby. Yes. And keep up the good work. You're doing great.

27:56

Thank you part of the city you call in from Montrose

Jimmy Carper 28:00

say there are a lot of straight people who 28:03

Yeah, I enjoy it. Five to six 4005 to six KPFT we got time for a couple of more calls and we're gonna have to take a vote on the the best. That's the better to have. Listen, it really what you don't want hurts me. It's not right to reach out and touch someone. And but as a gay man, I've been told all my life Hey, you can't? You're not ever going to fall in love. And you're not ever going to be happy. So don't even try. Yeah, you know, my mother says your life's going to turn into garbage. And I for 30 years, I believed all that. We started doing the show. And now going out into the community we see that I see young young police officers come in and I know by looking at their face what they're thinking in their minds and in their heart because it's written all over their face. But they don't have enough. incentive is not the word. They don't have enough courage yet to come over and say hey, thank you. Because you know, it's what we're doing isn't easy. Because when you said we get a lot of flack we get a lot of fly to me. I work at the police department. I figured I wouldn't be fired. You know who's given me the most grief over the last three years. closeted faggot Oh, yeah, that are not happy with themselves. Absolutely. And I tell you what, they can go ahead and live their lives in misery. We're having a good time we're celebrating life.

J

Jimmy Carper 29:29

I've had friends of mine come up and say why do you do that show? It's so awful. The things that you say on there. Not only that, but why don't you do it for free? Come down here and read the mail that we get. Yeah. Yeah. In fact, this is the very first song they recorded together. We'll be back to take our last call in just a second and then we'll have our winner and everything so stay with this is after hours on KPFT Houston 90.1 FM. Why don't you listen to the show. Who was when he got mixed up with some gay people that were just not too good people. He went into a bad depression and didn't have any friends. And he started staying awake all night. And one night I woke up and he had found your show on the radio. And my son's been gay most of his life. And we've known it, but he only told me about a year ago. And so he would record and I would start listening to what he recorded. And I like what I heard, because I work with disabled people and for the state. And some of the people are, are gay. And it's informative to me. And it's helped me to work with my son and work with my clients. And I'm glad that you have the program because it probably helps a lot of people. Because there's so many people that have myths about gay people. How old is your son?

♂

29:36

♂

How old is your son?

31:05

He's 19 years old. And he's been guys. I, you know, way back when? I can not do exactly I wasn't at 14 and I suspected it but you know, I never really said anything.

♂

31:21

What's your son's name?

31:22

His name is Kip. Skip. And I told him, you know, no matter whether he was gay or not, I was his mother and I would accept him like he was. I think that's great, Debbie, because a lot of people don't. What part of the city you calling from? We're calling from Southwest Houston and listen, thanks for calling.

31:42

Thank you. Listen, after hours. Hang on. Okay. Line Number two, you're on the air to listen that there's gay people that you know, helping unite the community. I think it's great. I mean, at work, I get a lot of flack and stuff. But I look forward to every weekend. Because it's a great feeling. i We are accepted. places we don't have to hide.

31:50

32:12

Well, that's great. What part of the city you calling from?

32:15

I'm calling from?

32:18

He said Okay, listen, thanks for calling. Thank you, Laurie. Why do you listen to after hours? That's a question five to six 4005 to six KPFT. line two, you're on the air.

32:28

Hello, Milan. Two. Yes. Hi, who's this? My name is Cindy. Hi, Cindy, why do you listen to the show?

32:33

32:34

Well, I like I like your show. Because it's the only time of the week whenever I get a chance. I'm always at work on Tuesday nights. And I'm always usually going on my way to class on Friday. So, you know, this is the only other time that you have lesbian and gay radio. And so I like to hear the news and the views of the community and every other play. Also, like you know, I'm not articulate or anything like that at least I don't see myself as articulate. I think you're doing a pretty good job but what Thank you, but I would like to like get get her get be a little a little bit more political. And get some rights and all this kind of stuff. And like y'all listening to y'all makes me kind of man want to say hey, now come on, you know, I don't know I want to go to the GPC meetings or something. Good. And you're pretty good. You know, you're y'all are. Y'all make me chuckle sometimes. make me sad sometimes. But we can't be happy all the time.

J Jimmy Carper 33:44

That's what life's about, isn't it? You can't have ups without downs. Right. That's it, I suppose. Okay. Well, Cindy, thanks for calling. Thank you, Cindy. Welcome. Five to six 4005 to six KPFT. The question is, why do you enjoy listening to after hours? We've only got about 10 minutes. So you better make your calls now. Okay, I want to tell you, I think you had a fantastic flow. I just found you about six months ago. And you've lit a fire under a lot of people and I wish there'd be more people that would loosen. And I know you've lit a fire under way. As far as politics and such. Yeah. And you are free to say what you have on your mind. You speak to your mom, you said what you honestly mean?

33:46

34:05

34:31

We appreciate you calling. Well, part of the city you call him from Greenway Plaza. Well, thanks for calling, 526 4000 526.

34:40

Yes, I like your new features. This is Dave. I like your news features. I like the music you play on the show and I know you buddy. I know you know from the club. I know Jim. I almost want to call up and tell y'all We all thought that the service they had for our service, right, David?

35:05

Yeah, recognize your voice. But I couldn't remember where from

J Jimmy Carper 35:09

I just talked to you the other night at the theater. Right?

35:13

That's great. Listen, thanks for 35:17

why don't play after hours, like, you know, at the club and the Midtown so more people can hear it.

35:24

Why don't you talk to him and ask him to?

Jimmy Carper 35:26

I think

35:29

more people would hear it that way. Why don't you try that and see what happens? Oh, really do a great job.

35:35

Jimmy Carper 35:37

Thanks very much.

35:39

Five to six 4005 to six Kpf Hi,

Jimmy Carper 35:42

hi.

35:44

My name is David.

35:46

David, why don't you listen to the after hours. First of all, I really appreciate what you're doing for the, you know, teenagers that can you know, don't have anywhere to go. Also, I find it interesting. It's better than going out and spending your money you know, on just bars and finding you know, no life in there. And that's bad.

35:50

36:15

Part of the city you call in from Montrose Montrose word.

36:21

I'm just not

36:23

one of the stereotype queers.

J Jimmy Carper 36:25

Well, that's no, you don't have to be a bar and live in Montrose.

36:30

I live in Montrose because it's six minutes from the police department and I can get to work without it's close to my job to pain in the butt. Plus, there are a lot of pretty people walking around on the weekend or you know, just day but anyway, thanks for calling baby. Okay, thank you five to six sports.

36:47

They're just friends. That's all I've ever been.

36:52

36:52

Well, great. You wanted to play a song for your new boyfriend? Yeah. new lover or whatever word you want to use your significant other? Well, we're already talking about God. And whatever.

J Jimmy Carper 37:01

37:03

What song did you want to play for him? Baby?

37:05

Oh, when money flowing?

37:07

What's his name? What? Ben? So if you could say something to Ben this morning, what would you say? You'd say what's nice, I love you. Or what?

37:31

Finger I listened to Allison's KPFT because, well, it's funny, you know, parts of it are real funny. Especially like the the cop. This little skit the cop does say you're arrested. Yeah, that's cute. And, you know, also there's a serious side to it, you know, the fight for gay and lesbian, civil rights. And, you know, you just don't get that anywhere else. And, you know, I admire you guys, for your you know, for your, for your bravery for your, you know, being gung ho for the gay movement. That's what I like, you know, because you don't find too many people like that, you know, because a lot of people, you know, a lot of people I know, don't care either way, you know? And it's the thing I do like about the program, it's funny, you know, because I know, you know, the way AIDS is hit our community and everything.
