03:30

Thank you music,

03:31

queer music extraordinaire master. I have to think of some grand title for Okay, whatever. Yeah. So what are we got going up next? Yeah, a set of very special lesbian music again, these first two songs, I would be amazed if they've ever been played on the radio, anywhere, especially in America, because these are from Australia. Oh, this is from a very rare album from 1978 by a group called the lavender blues. They sing two songs were a play called lavender, blues and lesbian nation. After those two, you'll hear a group called your girlfriend. Oh, yeah. Why er, girlfriend and they are a wonderful group. They are really good CDs out there going to sing L Word.

03:43

04:21

The L Word. And elke what's that number again? 7135265738713526

04:23

Kpf T. And remember Kpf T exists today because of your past support for over 30 years listeners have contributed to this station. That's why you enjoy KPFT today. That's right and that 7135265738713526 KPFT. Back to you.

05:18

Well, you know, a lot of the music that we play to is available at Lobo and especially Lobo always has a box down on the floor with discounted

05:31

CDs and I go through those about every time I walk in the

CDS and I go through there about every time I walk in the door. Yeah, yeah, because you never know. Stuff that they add in to add stuff all the time. Yes, I've picked up promo stuff and and and really, really cheap. So it pays to check that out. So what's next?

05:33

05:49

Well, next up we got a short two song do upset. And another genre of music that has gay songs. First up is Tom Bogdan doing one he wrote called do Randy song. It's from an Off Broadway show that he's had recently. So the whole CD is this kind of music. And I followed by a really neat lesbian group called rhythm method. Or they do the old Shirelles song I met him on a Monday Of course they do. I met her on a Sunday. And they add some new really neat talking parts too. I love this. I like this. So I'm anxious to share that with the audience.

Everybody gets an email you so you share the information, lots of artists. It's a wonderful way to network with people and find out what's going on to something has minor has, hey, I'm doing a concert this this week, or I've got a CD coming up? Or does anyone know where to contact this person or whatever? And reviews are on there of new CDs? Some of which you do yourself? Yeah, I wasn't going to quite say. Yes,

08:50
