Once again, I'm starting off with the with news on Laura Schlessinger and this I received as an for immediate release is a law of protest and it's set for July 14 1130 to 1pm at the KSC V studios at 11,007 67 Katy Freeway that's there between get Gessner de Ashford equality rally incorporated and the Houston gay and lesbian Political Caucus have set the date for Houston's first protest against Dr. Laura. And our mission is to make this a very strong statement against Laura sleazy juror and her radio show. The gay lesbian bisexual transgender of Houston will no longer tolerate bigotry

And this comes to us from dandy Donato, who's the president of equality rally. And while I'm on that, you might, as we already know, the equality rally and the caucus are co sponsoring that the upcoming GOP protests at the Georgia brown Convention Center on June 15, through the 17th. And they're calling for entertainers interested in helping out to please come forward. Then they're interested in speakers, writers and comedians are comedians, singers, dancers or anything theatrical. They want to make this a fun community event for everyone. So contact didn't dandy DiNardo at 713-862-3312 or reply to his email address and I don't have his email address. Anyways. And it might be interested in if maybe Q patrol might help work on security for that. Anyways, talking about cute patrol, what do you got on deck they're Q patrol was having a membership rush reception on a Thursday, June 15 over the Houston lesbian and gay community center at 803 Hawthorne, from seven to 9pm. And what we're doing is we're trying to let people know that we're out there we're watching in the neighborhood and we could really use some help we need we need more people out there and you can look for our ads coming out some of the papers that we're going to be we're really want to increase our membership and stay out later and stay out more nights.

 Chris 05:25

 Roy McCarthy 06:01

With it being summertime and the heat and many more people being out later.

 Chris 06:06

Yeah, people the the younger influence that comes in and usually causes the problems that we've been seeing in the past has more of an opportunity to stay out later. And have more free time when their hands and figure it's a good time just to come down and and do a little trashing and bashing of people. And so we really want some people to come out here on a Thursday, June 15, from seven to nine at the Houston lesbian gay community center.

 Roy McCarthy 06:32

Now, folks, Chris isn't just talking out of hat on this because I know that the international foundation for protection officers in conjunction with the law enforcement alliance of America who did a study and nationwide study and as the weather gets warmer and steam, your people's temperatures get shorter, and there is more crime and people actually go out looking for somewhere to take out their frustrations. Oh yeah. And as gay community is a favorite time we've we've we've kind of jokingly refer to it as the big bad bashers don't like to get their feet wet. They don't like to come out when it's cold. So when you start getting these dry, warm days, and consider the fact that yes, quite often some of these times there's going to be some alcohol involved on both parts, both the attacker and the victim. And with the heat and the alcohol that will tend to aggravate aggravate situation that the victim is less conscious of what's going on in their surroundings. And the person who is coming down to do the attacking is less inhibited and could go further with what from what could have been something that wouldn't have happened before could turn into something very serious. And we always try and avoid that. Also on television tomorrow on the tube Monday at 12:30am tomorrow but knowing them is probably on at midnight they like to screw it around. channel eight PBS K UHT will be showing the bimonthly news magazine in the Life TV this month on their pride to show the topics will be hepatitis awareness. The rerelease of the movie parting glances. Queer poets look back at the first Pride parade of Helena Montana back five years ago. This was something I did not know the the only lesbian federal court judge in the United States, Deborah Batts and a new play called The Laramie Project, which is reenactments of 200 interviews that were conducted in Laramie, Wyoming in the weeks following the Matthew Shepard murder. So that's in the live TV 12:30am on channel eight. For more information on that news magazine, you can go to their website in the Life TV dot org.

C

Chris 07:02

R

Roy McCarthy 09:02

Okay, folks, we're sitting we're talking about Laramie. I know that Matthew Shepard incident happened in the in the middle of winter wasn't her November.

C

Chris 09:13

Yes, it was. It was it was pretty cold. Yeah, it was in the colder temperatures. That's what actually enabled was in one way a blessing in that incident. Because it kept his body cool enough and let him paint. Well now what enabled was for his family to come and say goodbye. If it would have been warmer weather he would have expired. While he will, he would have expired immediately from that. And it and with this with the colder weather he was able to sustain longer than his family was at least able to say goodbye to him.

R

Roy McCarthy 09:47

I'll say this. I know that there's a listener out there saying See, it's not always in the hotter weather. It happened in the cold cooler weather too. Yes, there are the occasional attacks in the cooler weather. But the majority of them are in the warmer and steamier weather. Okay, since we had by net here tonight I got this from Chris and he got this right off hot off the AP news wire tonight and Italian cabinet minister has shattered a taboo by publicly declaring himself a bisexual. It'll Italy's agricultural minister, Alfonso Pukka Durrell. I can't even say the last name, reveal this site, his sexual orientation and this week's issue of Panorama news magazine, which hit the newsstands today. Very few public figures in Italy outside the fashion world are openly anything but heterosexual. The declaration comes at a time of growing controversy over world Gay Pride Week, which is scheduled to take place in Rome next month. The Roman Catholic Church is trying to get the event cancelled or postponed. Can you have a forum coming up?

 Chris 11:05

City council member a nice Parker will be sponsoring an update on the HIV epidemic and the local gay, lesbian and transgendered communities. On Thursday, June 22. Staff from the city HIV prevention department will be on hand at this pride month forum to lend their expertise. This 6:30pm event is free and open to the public. People who are not fishers can also go as well and hang over the rail and feed the fishes.

 Chris 12:47

 Roy McCarthy 12:51

And that they do.

 Chris 12:53

All right. That's it for this week's edition of after hours news and views. For Chris. I'm been growing. Thanks for listening to after hours, news and views.

c

Chris 21:13

We're now getting the stretch symbol. Oh, we're getting the stretch symbol.

R

Roy McCarthy 21:15

C

Chris 21:16

Okay. Go away. Jason. I already gave him a CD. If you show up on time, you could get to pick the first music. Oh, didn't mean to do that. Although us is live radio folks here at the show. live radio once again.

♂

21:43

All right. See, I made it. You're worried I wouldn't make it but I made it. I don't think we're the hell are you? I don't think worried is the proper term. It was hoping.

C

Chris 21:50

♂

21:56

As Jason and to my right.

C

Chris 22:00

Chris, I had to double check. Make sure you had my mic on he's he's done that in the past. And this is the after hours, the next generation and we're starting Oh are the antagonistic 20s?

♂

22:10

C

Chris 22:13

We can't go by that because that means you'll have to kick me off in a couple of years.

22:17

Do you remember your 20s? Yummy? vividly? Probably some of the only memories you have vividly.

 Chris 22:26

Yeah, he probably he'll probably remember his 20s A lot better than you'll remember your 20s
Oh

 22:36

my goodness, he's speechless. If I can't remember, and I just know I had a good time.

 Chris 22:41

Well, we're gonna be talking about pride because this is the beginning of the Pride Month festivities here in the community.

 22:50

And oddly enough, a friend of mine who happens to be an X on the kind of pride topic is he's doing a documentary on younger gay men who are still in the process of kind of getting their own gay identity, where they feel they belong in the queer spectrum, right. I was thinking about that on the drive over here. It's kind of ironic that for the Pride Month, he asked me two weeks to help two weeks ago to help them out a little bit with doing his documentary.

 Chris 23:25

It's gonna be a short, short and quick one. Oh, no. And today, well, one thing is with I have to talk about this because we adjacent I actually ran into each other at Lobo actually buying clean things for a change, which is totally shocking, right? Neither one of us was buying corn. Yes. I've got to tell you all about this one movie out there. Because I mean, we just got through I think it's still going on a little bit. The Houston lesbian and gay Film Festival didn't move kick in Friday.

 23:55

 Chris 23:58

I don't know but I'll say that that movie got a lot of publicity. I saw a lot of that in the mainstream press.

 24:05

Everybody who I talked to who went and saw it said it was a really good movie.

c

Chris 24:09

The pictures that they showed and the the papers like I literally saw my father flipping through the Zastava what are they? What are they talking about?

o

24:17

But it's really hard to get a review of a movie from watching the pictures.

c

Chris 24:21

People kind of can't remember too much of the actual specifics of the film. But one thing I did a couple weeks ago was I had my own little film festival.

o

24:30

You're getting like four or five different.

c

Chris 24:33

Yeah, we went the foreign theme I got I saw queers folks, too. And I must say I was kind of disappointed with it was a lot darker than the original movie. And how in the world ever ended up in Arizona. That's I haven't seen the first one. So it's a good thing to go watch and rent.

o

24:55

I've I've been intrigued ever since I first heard about it. I just haven't really heard I don't really watch many movies.

c

Chris 25:03

Well, it's more it's telling novella, kind of right. And I mean, the first 10 minutes of the first tape there is worth the price of admission. But there's this other film that I saw that I saw an ad for it before, and I couldn't believe it. And I got to see the movie, and I still can't believe it. Killer condoms.

o

25:27

You showed me that unfortunately, you showed me the little cover of the movie.

c

Chris 25:31

Yeah, it's a it's an award winning film.

25:35

And this in a time when we're trying to promote safe sex.

c Chris 25:39

Well, that's, that's part of what the topic of this movie is about. And I highly recommend it. If you're going to get together a group of friends who don't mind watching a film with subtitles. It is a German film set in New York City.

25:56

With you, I'm still trying to understand why so many foreign films are setting the United States but

c Chris 26:02

this one is even stranger. It involves a gay Sicilian police the inspector because he part of the mafia? No, he's with NYPD. And who is who goes is starting to solve these cases of people who have died by having their penises removed. And so he goes to this brothel slash hotel where all this has been happening, and gets attacked by one of these things. And one of the things you have to remember, as I didn't break now, just from my own recollection of the cover, I believe they were all shaped like condoms, correct? Yes. So how do you get attacked by a killer condom? Without like, you know,

26:38

c Chris 26:49

they look harmless. They look. So he was in the process of using the killer condom.

26:52

c Chris 26:55

Actually, no, it attacked him. It was a sad incident, but other people were attacked in the use of it. Okay? Hey, it's worth the price. The only thing you'll have to remember is you'll have to convert metric measurements because one measurement they gave him the 32 centimeters, I believe comes out to about 11 inches. So you'd have it's quite sizable but not quite as sizable as 32 inches.

27:17

c 27:21

Yeah, so you want to do the math to make sure you remember that's its metric version, but it is a hilarious spoof of its they call it a Horror, Mystery, satire. And very interesting movie. You can read it down at Lobo in their V look through their clean books.

27:40

It's listed under theatrical. Yes, theatrical.

c 27:42

I love how they go. But it's a fun thing to do, either by yourself or if you have friends hosting a party, I think of having your own little gay Film Festival. And there's a group out there called TLA video. And I look through this you it's all these videos with gay themes. Camp themes, Hollywood drama, gay but not gay. Stuff like Goodwill Hunting and calendula.

28:12

Oh, please click Isla does not fall into the game but not gay category.

c 28:16

Well, that's they call it gay when I gave because there was a 28:20

there are some straight things to it. Rape,

c 28:23

fisting, beheadings, we didn't need to look in caught your attention. Yeah, we start reading the description. But it's very interesting stuff and get off the website tla video.com. But you can just go through here and have your own little festival and find some of these obscure movies.

28:41

And if you're wondering where to get some of those obscure movies lovers is a pretty, pretty good place to get a lot of the movies that are hard to find. You know, any of the video stores even the gay video stores.

c Chris 28:51

I mean, if you're looking for a gay themed movie that's not completely dirty. Lobos theatrical section, the Hollywood Video here in the Montrose area has a gay and lesbian section. The blockbuster calls it community favorites. Which their little segment they what they call for each specific community.

29:12

Do I still use pink stickers over there?

c Chris 29:15

I don't know. It's been a while since I've been in this for a while since I've been there too. But I mean, some of the strange ones I saw at one of the video stores out here once before was Norman is that you? It is a game movie. It's actually before your time. Surprise, surprise, surprise. But it stars red fox could sort it from Sanford and Son well before my time,

29:38

c Chris 29:40

who plays the father of a son of a father of a gay man who doesn't know his gay until he comes to visit him. And it has another character you probably wouldn't remember from your time of little over. Whelan and Miss Whelan, flowers and madam of internal request very often, you know, I think I actually have seen, you've probably seen in syndication but

30:02

c Chris 30:06

yes, there was a show in the 80s. You remember those 80s? Don't you? One thing if you if you're not completely out in the community, I mean, it's an easy thing to come in rent a couple of videos.

30:23

And, you know, one movie that's always stuck with me. Since I first saw it, and hatch was the some of us. Have you ever seen that? No, it's an Australian movie about a father and his gay son who lives together. I believe the wife passed away. If memory recalls, which doesn't usually anymore, but But it's about a father and the gay son. And they live together. And no father has a stroke, gay son takes care of him. And just a short excerpt from one of from monologue right before the Father has a stroke, is because the father's girlfriend was like, You should be ashamed of him. And the father comes out into the street after the girlfriend drives off and just like, the father is like, How can I be ashamed of him? He's nothing but the sum of us, meaning he's nothing but the sum of his chromosomes, and his former wife's chromosomes added together. And it was one of those movies that just really sticks with you.

c Chris 31:28

Unfortunately, I kind of glanced through her. I didn't see that. See that one in there.

31:33

But if you if you get a chance, I would strongly recommend watching that.

c Chris 31:36

Oh, yeah, there are plenty of very, I mean, you always hear about I mean, lately, we've had these dramatic blockbusters that have come out. I mean, Jeffery, to Wong foo bright. But there's so many excellent films out there that are not don't have big studios producing them, you know, or their foreign films.

31:46

c Chris 31:57

Yeah. Especially the foreign films, because in our society, the way it's set up, you don't have those. We have those cutesy coming of age stories, but it's always the straight ones. And those are even rare.

32:09

Well, our country was founded by a bunch of Puritans got kicked out of England because they were too conservative.

 C Chris 32:15

And so what we're seeing is the only way we're seeing these coming of age gay stories, I mean, the closest we have and then American made coming of age story that had some success or some notoriety was The Absolutely True Story of two girls in love. All right. And of course, because head lesbian theme, definitely all the guys went to every game every straightened every stray man's fantasy. Yeah, every gay man's nightmare.

 32:35

 C Chris 32:40

So what we always got so when you have the movies of the coming of age in our, for our community of like, get real, or a beautiful, a beautiful thing.

 32:50

 C Chris 32:52

Excellent movie, that it's it's you I always have been watching with captioning on because I sometimes have trouble with some British accents. And that's actually there's there's a beautiful thing. webpage. Oh, that on the webpage. They have translations for the slang? Oh, yes. Because first because sometimes we get kind of caught up in slang. We're like, Wait, what was that? And I know, there's a couple phrases in there. I don't recall which ones but that me and my friends and I would have to watch 234 times and be like, oh, yeah, because then in the the European or Europe, we're vernacular. Poof, for gay, bent, get mad is another way. One of the things I liked if I could get it taped off of there and play it in queers folk too. When the one character comes out to his family, he's, it's like 38, I think when he finally comes out to his family, and he rattles off this string of terms for being gay. I mean, it's just like you're sitting there going, huh? I mean, I mean, poof, VM hire it? The whole genre album.

 33:05

 C Chris 33:29

34:11

But you know, it's really kind of ironic is the European community has come a lot further as far as being open minded and accepting and so forth. And you would think they'd also be a lot more open on language that they use, and probably be a little more towards the vulgar side of language to whereas Americans have just taken vulgarity to a new art and especially the Christian coalition, and a lot of the right wing religious preachers. Well, it also helps with those accents out there. I mean, they Well, yeah, you can't quite get cursing at a queer man. Right? Unless you got that good southern dialect behind it.

Chris 34:41

34:44

Chris 34:49

I mean, it depends on where you're from and all that and the 34:53

like, southern dialect helps a lot. Oh, that drawl that? Damn queers. Yeah, when you When you start getting that and you start that just that accent start shaving IQ points off of what you're expecting.

Chris 34:56

35:06

Let's just say I would never hire a brain surgeon that had a southern dialect.

Chris 35:11

And then we lost our medical center listeners, not saying I don't trust people in the south, just if they've got a southern dialect. I was born in Houston, I don't have a very strong southern dialect was the funny thing. I keep getting accused of talking Yankee. I'll slip into some phrases that I was born up north. First part of my life up there. And down here, I get accused of talking Yankee talking too fast, using terms like use, or rather than saying $1 bills, I'll say singles?

35:14

Chris 35:21

35:43

Oh, yeah, those are things that, you know, we don't say $1 bills, per se dollars.

Chris 35:48

Yeah, I've slipped it in USB. But when I go up north to visit my relatives, Southerner, they say, especially if you ever if you ever say y'all just like if you come from Boston, and you say us guys, yeah. So that's sometimes why when if you ever hear me stuttering on the air, I always refer to it as the fact. I've got a Yankee mind and a southern mouth and they don't run at the same speed.

35:54

Chris 36:01

36:12

I've actually been told I sound like a New Yorker a lot of times because some of my Rs, I had a speech impairment as a child, and my hours don't come out quite southern. And that piece of metal and your tongue doesn't tell you either know that got taken out in Harris County, actually either. know, that you taken out in Harris County, actually.

Chris 36:18

36:22

 Chris 36:26

That's right. It's part of the documentary segment called handcuffs. They're not just for fun anymore. I worked on that line for two weeks, and I almost forgot it. Thank you for reminding anything on my

 36:39

 Chris 36:40

expense, hey, I can kick you when you're down. Might as well fill everybody in on the fact that I got dumped three days before my birthday and then got arrested that night for a speeding ticket from 94 that I thought I'd taken care of, and got out at one o'clock in the morning on my birthday. So now everybody knows what we're talking about. So my bitterness is directed not only towards the situation, but mainly towards the Gemini that you know, was worthless, who couldn't at least wait till either, you know, the week before the birthday or the day after the birthday? No, it's gonna be three days before the birthday. In the heat of planning and getting everything together.

 36:44

 Chris 37:20

You're just pissed because you didn't get a present? Oh, no, I'm pissed because I had that feminism Toberman laid, I don't care about the prison.

 37:23

 Chris 37:30

So one thing is also coming up here. It's the 24th Hammer curriculum to forget the Pride Parade coming up. Great little view to see of all the different organizations and groups out there and the disco ball is not going to be just silver, it's going to have multiple colors on it.

 37:45

c

Chris 37:52

Oh, good. It's going to be colorized

o

37:54

and as was the I think it was the voice that was talking about there. They are talking about getting permission from the city to turn off the street lights around their

o

38:06

brother so that

o

38:07

not only you know, will the disco ball be bright as hell if the street lights are off. But it would also be an excellent location watch the floods from

c

Chris 38:18

are they going to get stopped and go to shut down completely?

o

38:23

Probably not. But still the fact is, lighting will be limited.

c

Chris 38:28

Next thing you know they'll be draping everything in crepe. So everything will be have a nice darker appearance to it. But I'm not sure if what Jason's

o

38:36

doing more of like kind of more of the may

c

Chris 38:41

work. So are you participating in any float on the parade? Or you're just gonna

38:48

I'm not quite sure yet actually, um, I've been talking about pts and ah, I may just do it like I did last year and stand by the sidelines.

Chris 39:02

Well, the funny thing is, this is my this will be my second year I'm going to be in the parade. I'm going to be the Q patrol instead of marching as our own group is going with the community center group. So and I'm going to be
