SPEAKERS

Chris, Jimmy Carper

00:03

Whoa, yeah, that was Elton John from an old old album, called a Big Dipper. Not the album. The song. Yes.

00:12

Big. Big Dipper. I checked on here at the do wets tape. I know he did one with George. Michael. He didn't do that with George.

00:21

George has his own Big Dipper. Yes. Before that was Jamie Anderson from her album. Never assume. And it was the menstrual tango. Oh, yes. Jamie. Jamie's albums are always a lot of fun. She's got fun songs and serious songs thrown in there. That's that. I mean, that's a song that you would hear that you should hear on other stations. I mean, yeah, it's educational. It's informative, and it's fun. And the strange thing is now that we're called the sound of Texas I mean, I don't think you when you think of the sound of Texas, you're gonna think the menstrual Tango Hello, I mean, when they're sitting out in California Pacifica Foundation, and they hear where the sound of Texas and we play the menstrual tango. They're gonna know they're California they may understand.

Chris 00:40

01:11

They have meant they have periods. You are listening to after hours queer radio with attitude on KPFT Houston and ke O 's College Station. Yes, we are the sound of Texas. And you can give us a call at 526573852 6k PFT and request music. And if we can find it, we'll play it looks like Roy's favorite friend is

01:37

01:39

yes. So right now we're going to that was Elton John. And that was from his album, a single man done way back in 1978 or something. Let's come up to the 90s with 90s type queer performer Steve Cohen. And he was turned on to me by a good friend JD Doyle. And this is off of his album silent too long. And this is the I like this song in particular this is this is almost a revenge song. This is like you did me wrong. And now you're gonna pay for it. Okay, so something different it's called I want everything

02:27

Yeah, Steve Cohen. I want everything. I love that revenge song. Now I'm gonna play a couple of Texas Women. Katie Curtis and someone even closer to home Denise Frankie. Yeah, she was right here in the Montrose . And she's got the nice is got an album out called you don't know me. And it's good old Texas Music and so does Katie Curtis. So first of all with Denise. I'm going to play a tune called the low land that was nice. That was nice. That was nice. To lesbians from from Texas. Katie Curtis doing forgiveness from her album. Katie Curtis. And before that, even more local woman, Denise Frankie doing the low lands that's my favorite off of that album.

03:29

It's different. Have a little bit of a twang here on that. Yeah. For our Well, we are the sound of Texas and the sound of Texas can be queer too. There you go. Okay, let's get some more to the guys here. D and McBride. I really liked this album. He used to sing with sons and lovers. That was a quartet. That's similar. Yeah, a quartet that was together for a while it was there. I think they were before the flirtations and data remember,

J Jimmy Carper 03:32

04:02

I'm only two years old.

04:04

Yeah, okay. That's okay. He does some fun stuff. He does some serious stuff. And he dedicates this song the dead he says album to his mom, who passed away. Take kind of recently have kidney disease. And this one particular track and he's going to this is one track and then he sings the next one. He has saved telephone messages that his mom had sent him over the years and put it together in one track called Hi son. This is Dean McBride.

04:46

I'm just thinking about you and I just thought I'd call you and tell you that I love you and I miss you. I hope you're having a good day. And I hope because that's just your blanket. and nothing really new.

05:03

I'm just thinking about you and I love you

05:08

This is your mom it's 115 in New Mexico time beautiful day here it isn't very cold I heard there was another snow last night. I guess you're getting closer

05:29

now to do that

05:30

I love you really very much going

05:33

on i love you

05:43

my dear son

05:53

man grade for you and I will never never forget my 06:13

love the sound of Texas KPFT Houston of Pacifica radio network station 90.1 FM 89.1k e os
College Station

06:24

okay dn McBride. That was his mom and I didn't, we're not gonna have enough time to play the song that accompanies that. Because it's coming up to the three o'clock hour and Big Daddy j with red eyes specialists here to take you to start you off on the fabulous blue Sunday right here at KPFT. You've been listening to after hours queer radio with attitude right here on KPFT Houston and ke O 's College Station. And we want to go out with Veronica Klaus because it's it's a wonderful, wonderful CD and you brought this to me.

07:05

Yeah, I was on vacation in San Francisco. I asked the bookstore clerk I said give me something local. Give me something good. And we'll play it out here in Houston. And I'm still waiting to say he says he says he has a band. He said when they get a CD together he's gonna send that to but he recommended this one highlight.

J Jimmy Carper 07:25

And I really love it. And it's it's a nice one, especially this one particular piece. It's Veronica class K L au s and that's a good piece to start off or blue Sunday. Thank you for listening because I want to play this whole thing so you can hear the whole thing and then get to Big Daddy Dre. Good night.
