Roy McCarthy, Jimmy Carper, Kirk Keevert

00:02

They went out for about half an hour, 45 minutes. And then they said, Okay, have a nice day and they just all laughed and they know what the Jr's they were 3045 minutes. Now I've I've heard conflicting reports that some of these officers showed up in flak jackets.

Roy McCarthy 00:09

00:17

Yeah, they had Houston PD written on they had a vise and also TNBC there

Roy McCarthy 00:25

for an inspection with flak jackets, they had they had 00:29

they were fully decked out.

00:30

Yeah. What was their attitude towards you? And the other paint is actually very, very quiet, very calm, really? Just a this basically they came in bummer. So basically, all was

00:35

J Jimmy Carper 00:45

let me ask you, and I don't know if you even know this. But after they left, did like most of the patrons like, leave No, no. Well, when it came into doors, like three or four people want to leave. And the police told them to stay inside the building. So they went back, sat down and had their cocktails, whatever they had. And it's just like, they were just intimidating. Actually. Yeah, it's like, they were like, they're all on the door all over here, sitting over here, over there. And they were just like, actually doing nothing, only only a few officers were actually checking, checking all the bottles and checking the coolers couple them one through the office there and just wandering the office. And so basically, it looked like an inspection. But it was just, it was actually there's no there's no reason actually to be there. No arrests were made no arrests, no tickets. No, no, nothing.

00:53

R Roy McCarthy 01:37

Have other inspections happened at 611 throughout the year that you are aware of?

01:43

Not that I'm aware of.

R Roy McCarthy 01:45

So in other words, if an inspection did happen from the T, ABC, or HPD, well, then it would have happened. Maybe by one or two people or more undercover person, right? Exactly.

01:57

Yeah. But it's like. It's like that many officers in one little building. It was like they don't need like, they don't need like 20 some odd people in there.

J Jimmy Carper 02:07

Just check the license. And they shirt certainly don't need flak jackets.

02:12

Well, I know. They're just like, they're just all big and bad. I mean, how many times have they ever been killed by checking the license or so? You know, I don't I don't get it. I don't get it for best, but it was just like, it was just like flying jackets. You know? Yeah. They have their big emblem in the back saying PD or vice or what they are. Yeah. So.

J Jimmy Carper 02:14

02:21

R Roy McCarthy 02:32

J Jimmy Carper 02:37

But the the message being that we're in control, and you're not Oh, yeah. Yeah, that was all they went to Jr. They went to cousins. They went to they went to Pacific Street. And it was this like, they like got every bar that.

02:42

J Jimmy Carper 02:56

Rich. You had a question? Well,

02:57

I mean, you know, you mentioned the aspect of control. But the police are in control wherever they are course. So I mean, even if this had happened in a straight bar, the attitude would have been very much the same. I just wonder if judging from what Matt has told me, has told the listeners, maybe, you know, there was some overreaction on the part of some people if all they did was basically stand around. Yes. And invade our space. What is that? Just I'm just playing devil's advocate here.

03:30

It was, it was the way they approached it, actually. Because it's like they came out in the middle of nowhere, actually. They just like rushed in. And it's like, it was just like, Whoa, yeah, but you said earlier you said though that they weren't they weren't, you know, really badass about it. A lot of them were just, they had a few attitudes. I'm just saying they weren't like, like, you know, I'm really app. I'm really, really, really evil against it. They were this.

03:42

03:49

Jimmy Carper 04:00

Well, let me tell you something. I have been involved in this in this type of thing before years ago, when that happened at Jr's right years ago and give me a timeframe. You're talking about 10 years, 15 years, okay. And it's very intimidating when you're told you cannot leave the ball. I know. Because you think it's what's going through your mind does Oh, my God, we're gonna get arrested. You know, they're the ones with the guns. They can say I'm drunk, even though I'm not you know, I don't even drink. It doesn't matter. I'm not in control. And that's the feeling right? Yes. Right. When somebody says you can't leave. Do they have to, like tell people they can't leave just while they're checking.

04:46

The clock is saying into that though, is basically it's like, say it they're actually doing a full full full inspection. Yeah. checking IDs and checking people. Some of the people that can be walking out can have drugs or other thing on it and they want to make sure that they're not Nobody, nobody's leaving or going anywhere, basically

Jimmy Carper 05:02

Dell, you know, it's yes, like, but they didn't check for drugs.

05:07

No, they didn't check. They didn't even check IDs. They just, they just came in there, check the bottles and check the office and check the bathrooms, coolers and this and that. And

05:16

QT:CU

I mean, here, here's a question. Why do we as gay people live in fear of the police? You know, good reason. Because, yeah, historically we do. But in 1999, I have to agree with you rich, I feel like yes, I feel like that probably, this was directed specifically at the gay bars on Pride weekend, specifically to make make some sort of show. Sure, you know, but I know this is probably a real unpopular opinion in the community. But what the hell a big deal, you know, you know, they came in and they and they showed they had big balls and and good for them. I'm happy for him. Nobody was hurt.

Kirk Keevert 05:31

06:06

Life goes on. Yeah. You know, every time I've seen every time in Montrose, that I've seen the police interact with someone in front of the bars or near the bars. And I've seen this, I've been going out in this town for 15 years. I've seen this a number of times, you know, the cops are trying to determine that in most cases of sobriety, and one of the patients are, right, okay. In no case have I ever seen a cop mistreat somebody that they were trying to determine what his or her sobriety was, but in lots of cases, I've seen guys walking down the street guys driving by yelling things at the cops while they're trying to do their job right now, I know there's I know there's a history here and in other cities have have bad treatment in the gay community by the cops, but in the 15 years I've been here, I've never seen it.

R Roy McCarthy 07:04

Now, I do want to point out though, that the TIBC, they do conduct frequent visits. To many of these clubs, yes, undercover and straight clubs as well as gay clubs. When they do when they do make their inspections, it's two or three people at the most, and they don't show up in flak jackets, and a huge thing of force. This was meant to intimidate us. The TIBC and HPD would never tolerate something like this at a black club, during June canes, or on Martin Luther King's birthday. It would not fly at all. And well, certainly, if it happens during Cinco de Mayo or Francis POTUS. You know, this was meant to intimidate and insult and a slap in the face at the gay community. And as a gay person, I myself will not tolerate it. Well, that that gets back to my original question. Why do we live in fear this? You know, my feeling is so what? Yeah, that's, um, you know, have you I haven't broken the law in this situation. You know? Yeah. That's, that's the thing that that I think everybody needs to keep in mind when when they are feeling fearful of the cops. And yes, I know. Yes. There are bad cops out there. There are Mark Fuhrman is out there, you know, but think about it this way. Maybe just maybe

08:08

Kirk Keevert 08:23

There are mark furman is out there, you know, but think about it this way. maybe just maybe somebody somebody high up at TBC or somebody locally at TVC has a heart on to to piss off the facts. And this was a way to do it. Okay.

Ω

Can I please do article in the paper not to miss a couple days ago or something? They had had a basically overview of the situation about the ratings or what so called ratings right. The chief and the Chief of Police is going to meet at the Political Caucus over there at day this Wednesday over you're gonna be over here at the living in, right. That's right. Yeah. And they're gonna be speaking, speaking to the people in Montrose here about it was not so called harassment or intimidation. And it was basically he The Chief said it was actually an unjust call anyway. Basically, the way they came in and it should have been totally different when when what they did you know, when when you're in a bar, you're not allowed to leave and there's a man with the gun saying stay right there. That's intimidating.

J

Jimmy Carper 09:38

K

Kirk Keevert 09:45

Well, yeah, it is intimidating. Yes, it is intimidating, and we don't have to take well, as a matter of fact, you know, I think we do. I'm not saying I'm not saying that we deserve it. But I I'm saying that that yeah, we do have to take it.

Ω

10:03

You know, this, this is what I view this as this is an opportunity for advocacy, okay. I think, hey, why not get the why not get the gay can, you know, get us mad get us to a meeting, you know, get us talking to the people in power. I think in a way the cops did us a favor. You know, historically, gays and lesbians have been most active when they've been The angry man. Sure. And sometimes healing is let people show up, let us let us, you know, let us unite in our opinions of our hard dispute or disapproval of something that was at the very least in bad taste. So why didn't they read Mary's? That's, that's, that's what we're used to. That's what we expect.

J

Jimmy Carper 10:38

R

Roy McCarthy 10:43

They got tired of being called Mary.

J

Jimmy Carper 10:46

IV for years, you know, right before gay pride and they married?

10:52

Yeah, yeah. I mean, they did us a big favor. You know, maybe Maybe you're right.

♂

10:55

10:59

Because for one, it's like, we're about to have this many people here on gay pride. There was over a lot of people there. Chronicle said 100,000. Exactly. So basically, the police were actually, I think, halfway doing their job, but also halfway intimidating, in a way, and also halfway harassing. Because for one, they were doing what they were supposed to do, but in a different way about it. Because there were because I'm gonna do this, we're gonna have 100,000 people crammed into Montrose. Yeah, everybody began cocktail every night. Check every bar to make sure they're off to standard. So in case there is a big problem or something, basically, they're not going to be liable for anything happening. So then what they'll do is they'll go and inspect the bar, see if all the bottles are up to date, see if this is good, if this is good, so you've described properly, exactly, yeah, see the scratch probably have all the ratings. According to an article I read in the voice, they only found a guy who got two or three bottles that weren't scratched properly. Whose was after? I don't know, I'm not sure where that were that those bottles were not scratched properly. But they did make an attempt at scratching the Right, right. And then that was the only infringement that the but the police and Montrose so they're, they've been they the way their attitudes are. It's bad because for one people came there's you know about all the hustlers in the neighborhood, some of that all the young people, right, okay. Now, the biggest thing is, they got attitudes to normal people walking in the streets as well that I gave you walk into the store. And the police will stop me and harass me. Because for one thing, I'm young, I'm out here walking and doing this or doing that, which I'm not. Because for one, I don't think so. You know, and it's just like, so the police have this real bad attitude here Montrose, like, they're like they own the world or something like that. And it's like, Well,

R

Roy McCarthy 11:48

J Jimmy Carper 12:52

I think to sum it all up, we need to go to that meeting on Wednesday.

R Roy McCarthy 12:58

That's this kind of Wednesday, August 4 7:30pm at the love it in ∅ 13:03

the cops are going to spend a lot more time defending their actions than they are you know, then then the inconvenience that we as a community faced during their Yeah, you're probably right,

R Roy McCarthy 13:13

I'll say this. I wish it would start coordinating these types of activities through the Montrose substation storefront because those officers and those supervisors that work there, they know us. And, you know, this has nothing to do with them. And I wish that the department would rely on the people that they have out there.

J Jimmy Carper 13:33

Okay. Thank you. Thank you.

R Roy McCarthy 13:37

Thank you for coming in. Yeah, yeah. And thank you, Jimmy and, and all y'all for letting you serve some of your time. You got it.

J Jimmy Carper 13:44

Right now we're going to go to a piece of music. The Castro cowboy Charlie Pacheco from his brand new album here come to blues and that album is available at Lobo I've seen it there I've been playing three songs off of that and I see no reason to stop now. Shame shame on me Charlie pitchei You're listening to it on after hours queer radio with attitude on KPFT Houston and que yo s Ah ha ha yes homo truck driving man by request the man I didn't I can't read the name. I'm sorry. This is after hours.

K Kirk Keevert 14:38

Somebody's screaming at you just sound exasperated.

J

Jimmy Carper 14:41

Oh, it was requested by a guy named Jimmy Jimmy on the north side. Ah, that's what that says okay. Oh, hey, I don't need to put your name on it. grumble grumble grumble Jimmy Carper and I Richard's here and Carlos is here. And we're just, you know, talking about stuff, or having some fun chatting and blind and yeah, yada yada yada. Hey,

K

Kirk Keevert 15:06

J

Jimmy Carper 15:10

so so Texas City here is requesting dirty knees and I can't remember. I don't know. I'm lost. Not a clue. As far as that goes, and I played it. And something I didn't know. calls back with more info. Please, please.

K

Kirk Keevert 15:31

I got another little Karkos thing that cripples likes to share with you. Yeah. Dan Savage. Oh, yes. Have you read? Have you read his book? No. Oh, my God is hysterical. His point is, you understand that Dan Savage is a gay man that writes a sex advice column for straight people. Yes.

Ω

15:55

And for bent people well.

K

Kirk Keevert 16:00

And, and his his defense of that and and rightly so. Is that we have more sex than straight people do. We talk about sex more than straight people to because with straight people it's the conversation ends with Yes. With us the conversation begins at Yes, yes. Because from Yes, you got to find out okay. What do you get into does it require a glove?

Ω

16:32

William sideways?

K

Kirk Keevert 16:33

Yeah. Well, will I need scuba gear? Yeah, all that kind of thing. And, and. And just very ~~straightforward... very frank answers and then yeah there are gay people that write to him. And~~ Surprisingly, very frank answers and then yeah, there are gay people that write to him. And just the way people start their letters to Abby, Dear Abby, you start your letter to Dan Savage. Hey faggot, they faggot Yeah. Does anybody in Houston carry his column?

17:02

You know where I find his column is on the onion down which I would imagine your WW dot the onion calm I think yeah, it is and my best friend introduced me to the onion and Dan Savage and Lord, we would just roll or with laughter every night every time we read his code is hysterical. If if you get a chance another place to go on the web to hear Dan Savage is is check out the This American Life site This American Life web site WWW dot this life.org And you can hear most of their shows most of their archive shows on the internet on real audio and there are several pieces there are a few pieces by Dan Savage and some of the shows and just very very funny man's he's specifically interesting when it when it comes to the the gender ambiguity issues, you know, like my husband likes to wear my panties. Very, very funny and especially in those kinds of gray areas.

Kirk Keevert 17:21

17:53

Kirk Keevert 18:08

Yeah, just just very insightful. Very non judgmental. You know, whatever the hell you want to do do it. But you know, here's here's a guideline kind of thing. Very, very funny guy.

18:22

I think we need someone like him here in Houston.

Kirk Keevert 18:25

Oh, well, I think so too. I have I have thought several times. I wonder is take he's getting a lot of heat from the queer community now so well, because he's talking about how he bare backs.

Jimmy Carper 18:30

18:37

Yeah, but he bare backs with his boyfriend. That's right,

Jimmy Carper 18:40

but he's still getting heat.

18:43

Well, you know, you get back to this sex as a negotiated act. Yes,

Jimmy Carper 18:47

yes. You know, I fully agree with what he says he's negotiated with his boyfriend. He's not normally monogamous. But in this situation, he's going to be monogamous and they have decided to not use condom I don't think that is worthy of heat from the gay community at all. He's still getting it.

Kirk Keevert 19:00

19:05

Well, people I think the folks in relationships now are practicing what we're coming to be known as a serial monogamy, you know, yeah, and if that's what works and you trust your partner enough, then then go ahead Sure.

Jimmy Carper 19:20

Works for this work for lesbians all these years. Yeah.

19:24

I tell you what, I only one cereal at a time.

Jimmy Carper 19:28

Oh, yes, but I certainly like all the boxes in the store.

19:36

Don't quit your day job.

Kirk Keevert 19:41

You know, I've been I've been on AOL, you know, checking out the chat rooms and that kind of it's just a matter of Yes. And getting as much as I possibly can. Kidding. But it amazes me the number of people that are looking to bareback you know, yes. Well, there's a you know, speaking of one list night, what is it? It's bear pack.or It's a bear buck or something like that. Oh, yeah. And there are people that, you know, excuse me, there's don't believe in in, in the, what they call the myth of reinfection, you know that, that once you're infected with a right you can't get reinfected? Right, you know, and that's still out for that. There's no proof one way or the right, I don't know. I mean, if I was an HIV positive person, I might feel differently, you know, about there again, I've talked about your your mode of sexual expression. You know, maybe, if I was in that situation, certain kinds of protection wouldn't be as important to me right now, you know, as an educator, you know, I, I can't really subscribe to that. But But, but there again, as a human being and someone who seeks the love and companionship of others, maybe it's a different, maybe there's a different point of view with me. I, you know, and I'm sort of in the middle in between you two, I don't know, I don't know what my what my status is. And, ooh, that was a that was a grimace, and, you know, that's just, it's a choice I've made, not, it's just ever been tested, several years ago, okay. Several years ago, but for me, not knowing is is fine with me. And, and I act accordingly, I have to, I assume that everyone I have sex with is, is positive.

20:00

Kirk Keevert 21:05

21:39

You know, and I know a lot of people what they call zero, discordant couples. It's funny, where, where, where one is positive, and one is negative, and none of them use neither one uses condoms. And that's the decision that they have negotiated as a couple. And I think, yeah, all this talk about bear backing and safe sex options and, and stuff, it leaves out, you know, how the two people in a relationship want to express their love to one another as their personal decision?

Jimmy Carper 22:13

Yeah, you're absolutely right about that.

22:16

22:10

So I mean, I think we, we, you know, we preach abstinence and we preach safe sex and, and yet, you know, people in relationships and people outside of relationships are really negotiating this.

Kirk Keevert 22:33

It's their it's their own decision. As long I mean, yes, I think it's important that that the information be out there. But it's, it's each person's decision as to what they're going to do.

22:45

I think also, when, when you're in the middle of this kind of sexual negotiation, the one thing you have to do is you have to always respect the other person's decision. You know, especially if you're if one partner is positive and the other is negative. You know, if one person requires safe sex, the other person has to honor that. Yeah, if you don't want to honor that, then you need to seek another find something else to do.

Kirk Keevert 23:10

Jimmy Carper 23:15

So either of you have boyfriends

23:20

Why are you looking at me that way?

Kirk Keevert 23:23

Because there's glare on the window between he and I

23:31

I'm, I pray I practice what is it? I practice serial serial monogamy with myself? I don't know. I mean, do you know anyone that has a boyfriend? May you do?

Kirk Keevert 23:44

Just gotta love her. He's got a boyfriend. He's got a husband. He's got drinks, walking in and out of all hours

23:49

been making these looks at me all night, and he's

Jimmy Carper 23:52

attached for 21 years. Oh,

23:54

my God, I feel so violated.

Kirk Keevert 23:59

Not nearly as often as he does.

24:02

Oh, it's getting like,

Jimmy Carper 24:04

just because somebody is in a relationship doesn't mean that they're dead. It doesn't mean you know that. Yeah, this is true. And I think, you know, learning is a way of life, right? People define people to find what works in their own relationships. I know a lot of guys that have open relationships. And I, you know, I wonder about the strength of those relationships, but who am I to make those decisions?

24:10

Jimmy Carper 24:30

That's what I've always loved about our career community. We can define our own relationships. We don't have to go by other people. We don't have to do the marriage thing. And 24:45

I think that I think that's one of the one of the reasons why the straight community in some ways resents us because we do have a certain amount of freedom that that the strike community doesn't have you know, without I kind of severe consequences. And no, I completely agree. I mean, as far as the whole as far as the whole marriage thing, I think I always thought that was just silly. For gays, for gays. Yeah,

Kirk Keevert 25:03

Jimmy Carper 25:13

well, actually, the whole idea of marriage I think, is not so much for marriage. But this legitimizing gay people. Once the government says you can marry that you're eligible.

Kirk Keevert 25:27

I do have I do have a problem with the government saying, No, you can't?

Jimmy Carper 25:32

I do. Yes,

Kirk Keevert 25:33

I do have a big problem with that. But I mean, as far as, as far as, as gay men and lesbians holding up this, this institution that at best, has a 50% success rate. I mean, that's great community.

25:50

Jimmy Carper 25:52

We couldn't do any worse. We might actually do better than the straight camera. What do you think? You know?

25:54

K Kirk Keevert 26:01

I just I don't think so.

J Jimmy Carper 26:02

Something else. How long has this issue been there? Not forever? No? Oh, well, no. Yeah. Yeah. A couple of years.

K Kirk Keevert 26:07

J Jimmy Carper 26:11

Couple years. Yeah. And before that, did anybody ever ask for it? Or say, boy, this is what we want? No, all of a sudden, it is a hot topic of the day. Yeah. You know, the I think the state legislature of Vermont, correct me if I'm wrong. This Vermont is getting ready is getting ready. And my two very best friends live in Vermont. And they are they're planning to get married. Yeah, I mean, they are and they think that what's going to happen is that certain parts of Vermont, which is already pretty liberal, believe it or not, from what I know, are going to become really it's going to become the new gay Mecca. And because of because of that, so it's just entirely too much snow. But

26:22

K Kirk Keevert 26:56

J Jimmy Carper 26:58

yeah, but it's for MMA Do you know? And they always nice place if you're maple syrup.

K Kirk Keevert 27:03

Yeah. So there's nobody actually from there. Is there your two friends okay, there's those two guys that live up there.

27:14

They're women. They're women. Oh, that you know love it because they say all the women look like lesbians. They all dress like us. I'm sure.

K Kirk Keevert 27:20

Yeah, it's got to heaven up there.

J Jimmy Carper 27:23

Yeah, that's why I like Houston more. You know, there's more skin time now. And I you know, I see it. I see it as a real plus point for me. I mean, I could go up there and be the the requisite decorator for all the lesbian weddings. It would be fabulous. We could do everything in Pepto Bismol pink. They're wonderful.

♀ 27:28

K Kirk Keevert 27:47

Lesbians don't want pink at Bear. Whoa.

♀ 27:48

You don't know.

J Jimmy Carper 27:50

Do you? See? See you Oh, I'm

K Kirk Keevert 27:54

just all about stereotypes. Yeah.

J Jimmy Carper 27:57

Rich, you brought in some music. I did. Think there's a reason that you've brought us a little bit of a weird twist for this show. And bear with me

♀ 28:03

J

Jimmy Carper 28:08

here. Yeah, we might have to talk a little bit over. Okay, this. This is the second set of Goldberg Variations by Bach. And the reason I brought this in is because this is music that was written back in the 1740s for an insomniac Bach in his travels, I think he went to dressed in or Leipziger someplace. There was a guy named count. And I'm quoting here, Herman Cole, Vaughn Kaiser link. Yeah, as the Russian embeds Basler to the kind of Saxony or some obscure title like that. He was an insomniac. Bach wrote these pieces for him, so that he could become quiet and get some sleep. And they were played by one of bucks pupils, and one of the one of the musicians of the court whose name was Goldberg. So this is music written for an insomniac, the Bach Goldberg Variations. Thank you very much for allowing me to be here to bet that we're not finished yet. We can we can do a little talking here. Because I have to wait about a minute and a half before I can give the idea then. So it's legal and all that. Yes, sir. So what do you think about hanging out on on a radio?

J

Jimmy Carper 29:04

I think this is great. And I would encourage people to remember that this is your voice. And there is we need to hear more from you about what you think and how you want to advocate and how you want to be agents for change in this community. Because that's what I'm about and I think, to a large part, Jimmy, that's what you're about here. So take advantage of this station.

J

Jimmy Carper 29:41

Thank you

♂

29:41

and Jimmy,

J

I am so glad you called me this week. I've got I've had I'm having the most hectic weekend. I can recall for a long time, but But I made time for you. You sweet and precious Angel, brother. Oh, take a compliment y'all hag cheese. Oh, yes, I forgot to tell you I will have to talk more about this later I ran into a mutual friend of ours who used to sit next to me right over in that chair and my Yes, we will have to talk about that. And so bad joke of the day. Yeah. Men goes into his doctor's office wearing shorts made out of saran wrap. And the doctor says, Well, I can clearly see your nuts I told you it was a bad

J

Jimmy Carper 30:20

Can we go no more?

J

Jimmy Carper 30:47

Hey, you know? What do you want? It's three o'clock in the morning. You know?

K

Kirk Keevert 30:52

Okay, okay. Okay. What's the most commonly asked question and a gay bar? What is it? Man pushing your stool? Oh, oh, that tastes Ah. Oh joke that oh joke. Just terrible. Just I had to I had to do something. I'm sorry. Yeah.

J

Jimmy Carper 31:13

Well, waiting in the wings is Big Daddy J. Who's going to bring you the Red Eye special. That is the beginning of KPFT is fabulous. Blues

Sunday don't get no bluer than

J

Jimmy Carper 31:28

That's right. And he he's got him from the vaults here and it goes all the way to 6pm and lasts three to 6pm on good mood today. My god turn on KPFT We'll fix that the three to six show this afternoon will be Joe's Roadhouse. And that's that's the show that I got that number that some of you may remember, the Texas City Dyk song, I'll be playing that in the future. Okay. Yeah. by local man. Even listening to after hours queer radio with attitude on KPFT Houston and ke O 's College Station. We'll be here next week and hope you will be too. And the music in the background is again, Bach's Goldberg Variations. Wonderful. Thank you. Thank you. Rich. Thank you. Thanks Kirko

K

Kirk Keevert 31:39

J
